

“Excavation and initial geological inspection of first trench (located 100m south of drill hole NNTR002) highlights abundant zones of quartz veining, strong alteration, haematite staining and strong geological structures”