Independent Auditors' Report

The Board of Directors B. A. T. Capital Corporation:

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of B. A. T. Capital Corporation (the Company), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the related statements of operations, shareholder's equity (deficit), and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date that the financial statements are issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2021 and 2020

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements present the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of B.A.T Capital Corporation, referred to as the Company, an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of British American Tobacco p.l.c., referred to as BAT, a company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales. Until December 7, 2016, the Company was a direct subsidiary of BAT. On December 7, 2016, following a sale of the Company by BAT to Louisville Securities Limited, referred to as LSL, the Company was purchased by BATUS Holdings Inc., referred to as BHI, from LSL pursuant to a stock purchase agreement and BHI became the sole stockholder and parent of the Company. Both LSL and BHI are indirect wholly owned subsidiaries of BAT. The sale and purchase were at carrying value as the entities were under common control. The Company, incorporated in Delaware, has 2,000 common shares authorized, issued and outstanding with a par value of one dollar per share. The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

(b) Nature of Business

The Company is a U.S. finance company that has historically been an issuer and a guarantor under the BAT Euro Medium Term Note Programme, referred to as the EMTN Program, (see note 2 and note 7) and has provided financing and cash management services to BAT companies in the U.S. Other than its role as a guarantor, the Company had been inactive for several years prior to 2017. On July 24, 2017, the Company borrowed $20 billion from a syndicate of third party banks under a bridge facility agreement and loaned the proceeds to BHI to fund a portion of the acquisition price paid to purchase the remaining 58% of Reynolds American Inc., referred to as RAI, not already owned by the BAT group, referred to as the RAI merger. On August 15 and August 16, 2017, the Company repaid the borrowings under the bridge facility agreement and issued approximately $20 billion of notes denominated in US dollars (USD), British pounds sterling (GBP) and euros (EUR) with tenors ranging from 3 years to 30 years.

Subsequent to the merger, the Company has been active in the capital markets with several new debt issuances. In addition to the financing provided to BHI, the Company is also providing financing and cash management services to RAI and its subsidiaries and guarantees certain debt of B.A.T. International Finance p.l.c., referred to as BATIF, an affiliated subsidiary of BAT. BATIF serves as the primary financing and cash management company for the BAT group.

(c) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents may include investments in money market funds, commercial paper and time deposits in major institutions made to minimize investment risk. As short-term, highly liquid investments readily convertible to known amounts of cash, with remaining maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase, cash equivalents have carrying values that approximate fair values.

Prior to July 1, 2019, the Company's cash was swept into an In-House Cash, or IHC, pooling structure managed by BATIF. Effective July 1, 2019, the Company's cash was swept into a IHC pooling structure managed by B.A.T. Operating Finance Limited, referred to as BATOF. During 2020, the Company re-established the IHC management service relationship with BATIF. Accordingly, the Company terminated the IHC agreement with BATOF. The Company has an account which represents its interest in the IHC pooling structure and amounts in the Company's IHC account are due on demand and earn interest. As further discussed below in note 4, the IHC agreement provides the Company with a $1.9 billion overdraft facility.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2021 and 2020

(d) Fair Value Measurement

The Company determines the fair value of assets and liabilities using a fair value hierarchy that distinguishes between market participant assumptions based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity, and the reporting entity's own assumptions about market participant assumptions based on the best information available in the circumstances.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, essentially an exit price.

The levels of the fair value hierarchy are:

Level 1: inputs are quoted prices, unadjusted, in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the reporting entity has the ability to access at the measurement date.

Level 2: inputs are other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. A Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3: inputs are unobservable and reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability.

(e) Derivative Financial Instruments

The Company uses derivative instruments to manage certain interest rate and foreign currency risks. All derivative contracts entered into by the Company are with BATIF as the counterparty.

Derivatives are recognized on the Company's Balance Sheets at fair value and are classified according to their asset or liability position and the expected timing of settlement. Changes in the fair values of derivatives are recorded in net income (loss) or other comprehensive income (loss) based on whether the instrument is designated and effective as a hedge transaction and, if so, the type of hedge transaction.

(f) Revenue Recognition

Substantially all of the Company's net revenues are from transactions with BHI and RAI and consist of interest income and reimbursements of guarantee fees and other related financing expenses incurred by the Company. Loan and reimbursement agreements provide the terms and conditions for these transactions. Interest income is recognized as earned in accordance with the interest provisions in the underlying loan agreements. Reimbursement income is recognized when qualified expenses under the reimbursement agreements are incurred by the Company.

(g) Income Taxes

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. Interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions are accounted for as tax expense.

For federal income tax purposes, the Company's results are included in the consolidated United States federal income tax return of BHI. For state and local income tax purposes, the Company's results are included in 29 combined state and local income tax returns that include members of the consolidated United States federal income tax return of BHI. For financial reporting purposes, the Company's current and deferred income taxes are calculated using the separate return method. All current and deferred tax expense and current and deferred tax liabilities are calculated as if the Company files separate federal and state income tax returns that exclude the income, deductions and tax attributes of BHI.

December 31, 2021 and 2020

The Company accounts for uncertain tax positions which require that a position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return be recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not (a likelihood of more than 50%) that the position would be sustained upon examination by tax authorities. A recognized tax position is then measured at the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The Company did not have any uncertain tax positions for 2021 or 2020. The federal statute of limitations remains open for tax years 2018 through 2021.

(h) Accounting Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(i) Contingencies

In accordance with ASC 450, Contingencies, the Company records any loss related to a contingency at the time that likelihood of a loss becomes probable and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated. When the reasonable estimate is a range, the best estimate within that range will be recorded. When no amount within the range is more likely, the lowest amount within the range will be recorded. No such amounts were recorded for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020.

(i) Subsequent Events

Subsequent events have been evaluated through March 8, 2022, the date the financial statements were issued.

(k) Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued ASU 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326), which replaces the current incurred loss impairment methodology for recognizing credit losses for financial instruments with a methodology that reflects expected credit losses and requires consideration for a broader range of reasonable and supportable information for estimating credit losses. The amended guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2022. The amended guidance is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's results of operations, cash flows and financial position.

In March 2020, the FASB issued ASU No. 2020-04, Reference Rate Reform (Topic 848): Facilitation of the Effects of Reference Rate Reform on Financial Reporting and in January 2021 issued ASU No. 2021-01, Reference Rate Reform (Topic 848): Scope. This guidance provides temporary optional expedients and exceptions to existing guidance on contract modifications and hedge accounting to facilitate the market transition from existing reference rates, such as the London Interbank Offered Rate, referred to as LIBOR, which is being phased out beginning at the end of 2021, to alternate reference rates, such as a secured overnight reference rate. These standards were effective upon issuance and allowed application to contract changes as early as January 1, 2020. These provisions may impact the Company as contract modifications and other changes occur during the LIBOR transition period. The Company's IHC agreements and certain outstanding debt utilizes LIBOR as the reference rate. Beginning December 1, 2021, the IHC agreements used the Secured Overnight Financing Rate, referred to as SOFR, as the reference rate. The Company will continue its assessment and monitor regulatory developments during the LIBOR transition period. The amended guidance is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's results of operations, cash flows and financial position.

(2) Long-Term Debt

Revolving Credit Facillity

In connection with the RAI acquisition, the Company, along with other subsidiaries of BAT and with BAT as Guarantor, entered into a two-tranche £6.0 billion forward starting revolving credit facility, which consists of a £3.0 billion 364-day revolving credit facility (with a one-year extension option and a one-year term-out option) and a £3.0 billion revolving credit facility, maturing in 2021.

On March 12, 2020, the Company, along with other subsidiaries of BAT, entered into a new two-tranche £6.0 billion revolving credit facility, consisting of a £3.0 billion 364-day revolving credit facility (with two one-year extension options and a term-out option) and a £3.0 billion revolving credit facility (with two one-year extension options), maturing in 2025. In addition, the revolving credit facility was amended to change the reference rate from LIBOR as the benchmark interest rate for GBP and USD to, respectively, the Sterling Overnight Index Average and SOFR, effective June 1, 2021. On January 28, 2021, BAT extended £2.85 billion of the 364-day tranche from March 2021 to March 2022 and £2.85 billion of the five-year tranche from March 2025 to March 2026. Of this tranche, £3 billion remains available until March 2025. The Company had no amounts outstanding under either revolving credit facility as of December 31, 2021 or December 31, 2020 nor had the Company taken any advances under either tranche during those respective years.

Long-term Notes

On August 15, 2017 and August 16, 2017, the Company issued approximately $20 billion in notes consisting of $17.25 billion in USD denominated notes, referred to as the 2017 USD Notes, $2.2 billion equivalent in EUR denominated notes, and $0.6 billion equivalent in GBP denominated notes, in the aggregate referred to as the 2017 BATCAP Notes. The USD notes were issued in a private offering exempt from, or not subject to, the registration requirements of the federal securities laws and were subject to a registration rights agreement. The maturities of the 2017 USD Notes extended to 2047. The notes denominated in GBP and EUR were sold to investors under the existing EMTN Program. One EUR denominated note matured in 2021 and the remaining EUR denominated note matures in 2023, and the maturity date for the GBP denominated notes is 2025. Under the terms of the EMTN Program, the notes were guaranteed by BAT, BATIF and certain other BAT affiliates. The 2017 BATCAP Notes were issued net of discounts of $4.2 million and the Company paid $79.8 million in fees and expenses. The discounts and debt issuance costs are being amortized, using the effective interest rate method, as interest expense over the life of the respective notes.

In July 2019, BAT filed a registration statement on Form F-3 with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, referred to as the SEC, to allow the Company and BATIF to offer and sell, from time to time, debt securities over the next three years, referred to as the Shelf Registration. In March 2020, the Shelf Registration was amended to include the indenture under which the 2017 USD Notes had been issued. Debt securities issued under this facility are guaranteed by BAT, BATIF and certain other BAT affiliates.

In September 2019, the Company issued $3.5 billion of USD denominated notes under the Shelf Registration, referred to as the 2019 USD Notes, with maturities ranging from 2024 to 2049. Upon issuance of these notes, the Company paid $16.0 million in fees that are being amortized, using the effective interest rate method, as interest expense over the life of the respective notes. With a portion of the proceeds from the 2019 USD Notes, the Company prepaid a $2.25 billion USD note bearing fixed interest at 2.297% that was due August 14, 2020. The Company incurred a $6.5 million loss on the early extinguishment of this debt.

In March 2020 and September 2020, the Company issued $2.4 billion and $4.75 billion, respectively, of USD denominated notes under the Shelf Registration, referred to collectively as the 2020 USD Notes, with maturities ranging from 2027 to 2050. Upon issuance of these notes, the Company paid $36.0 million in fees that are being amortized, using the effective interest rate method, as interest expense over the life of the respective notes.

The proceeds from the 2020 USD Notes were used to (i) repay $1.0 billion in variable rate notes that matured in August 2020, (ii) repay $1.6 billion of 2.764% notes due August 2022 tendered for in October 2020 and (iii) increase the amount lent under installment term loans to BHI, RAI and R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, an indirect subsidiary of RAI, referred to as RJRT, by $3.3 billion (see note 4). The Company incurred a $67.3 million loss on the tender offer of the August 2022 notes.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2021 and 2020

The Company recognized interest expense of $898.7 million and $842.3 million, including $64.5 million and $50.1 million of amortization related to terminated derivatives, in 2021 and 2020, respectively. As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, the Company had accrued $282.0 million and $282.1 million in accrued interest payable related to the 2017 BATCAP Notes, the 2019 USD Notes and the 2020 USD Notes, collectively referred to as the BATCAP Notes.

(7) Contingent Liabilities

On December 9, 2011, the Company ceased to be a party to the EMTN Program under which the issuers, that also include BATIF, B.A.T. Netherlands Finance B.V. and British American Tobacco Holdings (The Netherlands) B.V., can from time to time issue notes in amounts not to exceed the EMTN Program limits or its equivalent in other currencies. The payments of all amounts in respect of any notes issued under the EMTN Program prior to December 9, 2011 are unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by BAT, the Company and each of the other issuers (except where it is the relevant issuer).

On May 31, 2017, the EMTN Program was amended and restated to increase the size of the EMTN Program from £15.0 billion to £25.0 billion and to add the Company as an issuer and a guarantor. At December 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020, the Company had issued $1.5 billion and $2.9 billion, respectively, equivalent of notes under the EMTN Program at the related spot rate for the respective currency at the measurement date.

Effective February 13, 2018, the Company became an additional guarantor of the notes issued pursuant to the EMTN Program that it was not already a guarantor of during the period since it ceased participation. With the additional guarantees in place, as of December 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020, the Company was a guarantor of securities with maturities ranging from 2022 to 2055 in the amount of approximately $14.0 billion and $17.2 billion, respectively, plus accrued interest which represents the maximum potential exposure (at applicable year-end exchange rates) had the relevant issuers defaulted.

The Company's guarantee of the notes issued under the EMTN is unconditional and irrevocable, joint and several with the other guarantors and is triggered when the issuer of the EMTN securities defaults on its payment obligations. If the Company is required by law to withhold any U.S. taxes (or taxes of any of its political subdivisions) from payments it makes under its guarantee, the Company is required to pay additional amounts so that security holders receive the same payment they would receive absent such withholding, subject to exceptions. The Company does not maintain a guarantee liability related to its guarantees with respect to the EMTN Program.

The Company also guarantees any notes issued by BATIF under the Shelf Registration. The obligations of BATIF under any series of notes and the accompanying indenture are fully and unconditionally guaranteed on a joint and several and senior and unsecured basis by the Company in addition to BAT, B.A.T. Netherlands Finance B.V., and, unless its guarantee is released in accordance with the relative indenture, RAI. As of December 31, 2021 and December 31, 2020, the Company was a guaranter of notes issued under the Shelf Registration by BATIF that mature in 2026 in the amount of $1.5 billion, plus accrued interest, which represents the maximum potential exposure in the event of a default.
