Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure

On November 13, 2018, General Electric Company (“GE”) and Baker Hughes, a GE company (“BHGE”) issued a joint press release announcing that they had entered into a series of long-term agreements that amend the commercial, technological and governance relationships between the two companies (the “Ongoing Framework”). A copy of such joint press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is furnished herewith.

Item 8.01. Other Events

The Ongoing Framework is being implemented pursuant to the Master Agreement, dated as of November 13, 2018, among GE, BHGE and Baker Hughes, a GE company, LLC, an indirect subsidiary of BHGE (“BHGE LLC”) (the “Master Agreement”) and certain related agreements to further solidify the commercial and technological collaborations between GE and BHGE and to facilitate BHGE’s ability to transition from operating as a controlled company. Pursuant to the Master Agreement, GE, BHGE and BHGE LLC, have agreed to a number of revisions to the arrangements put in place in connection with the Transaction Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 30, 2016, among GE, Baker Hughes Incorporated, Bear Newco, Inc. and Bear MergerSub, Inc. (as amended, the “Transaction Agreement”), pursuant to which BHGE and BHGE LLC were created on July 3, 2017, including amending and restating the Stockholders Agreement, dated as of July 3, 2017, as amended by the Amendment to the Stockholders Agreement dated as of October 3, 2017 (the “Original Stockholders Agreement” and, as amended and restated, the “Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement”). The Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement provides for, among other things:

Lock Up Period. The lockup period, which prevented GE from disposing of any shares of BHGE common stock until July 3, 2019, expired on November 12, 2018.

Board and Committee Representation. GE’s right to designate a majority of directors for nomination to the BHGE board of directors will continue until the later of July 3, 2019 and the first date on which it and its affiliates cease to beneficially own more than 50% of the voting power of BHGE’s outstanding common stock. If GE and its affiliates are no longer entitled to designate a majority of directors but own at least 20% of the voting power of BHGE’s outstanding common stock, GE will have the right to nominate one director for election to the BHGE board of directors and will no longer have any right to representation on any Committee of the BHGE board of directors. If GE and its affiliates do not own at least 20% of the voting power of BHGE’s outstanding common stock, GE will not have the right to designate a director for nomination to the BHGE board of directors. At any time when GE’s right to nominate directors is reduced, any director that has been designated by GE is required to deliver his or her resignation from the BHGE board of directors for consideration by the Conflicts Committee. However, where GE and its affiliates continue to own at least 20% of the voting power of BHGE’s outstanding common stock, one of GE’s five designees, as determined by GE, shall not be required to tender his or her resignation.

The Master Agreement also obligates BHGE and BHGE LLC to facilitate an underwritten registered secondary offering by GE or one or more of its affiliates of shares of Class A common stock of BHGE (the “Secondary Offering”). In connection with the Master Agreement, GE, BHGE and BHGE LLC also entered into an Equity Repurchase Agreement, dated November 13, 2018 (the “Repurchase Agreement”), pursuant to which BHGE and BHGE LLC have agreed to repurchase from GE and its affiliates 65,000,000 shares of Class B common stock of BHGE together with an equal number of common units of BHGE LLC (“Paired Interests”), subject to completion of the Secondary Offering. In the event that the underwriters of the Secondary Offering do not exercise in full their 30-day option to purchase additional shares of Class A common stock from GE or one or more of its affiliates in connection with the Secondary Offering, BHGE and BHGE LLC are also obligated under the Repurchase Agreement to repurchase from GE or any such affiliates an additional number of Paired Interests equal to the number of shares of Class A common stock not purchased by the underwriters. The number of Paired Interests to be repurchased from GE and its affiliates under the Repurchase Agreement is subject to a maximum aggregate repurchase price of approximately $1.5 billion.
