QUESTIONS FROM SHAREHOLDERS - WESTPAC 2023 ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING (AGM)

The AGM is an opportunity for shareholder engagement. Shareholders may ask a question in relation to an Item of business or the management of Westpac in advance of the AGM. Details of the AGM are in the Notice of Meeting, available at westpac.com.au/AGM. Questions relevant to the content of the Auditor's Report or the conduct of the audit of the Financial Reports may be submitted to the Auditor by marking the appropriate box below.

The Chairman will consider submitted questions when preparing the AGM address. Given the likely number of questions, individual responses will not be provided.

The easiest way to submit a question is online at vote.linkmarketservices.com/WBC. You can also return this form via one of the methods mentioned at the top of this page. All questions must be received by 5:00pm (Brisbane time) on Thursday, 7 December 2023.

The AGM will be held as a hybrid meeting. You can attend in person or online by logging in via westpac.com.au/AGM. Please refer to details in the Notice of Meeting and the Online AGM Guide. You can view and download these documents at westpac.com.au/AGM.

The AGM will be webcast live via westpac.com.au/AGM. A replay of the webcast will also be available on Westpac's website soon after the meeting.

The AGM is a forum to discuss the performance and management of Westpac, and the items set out in the Notice of Meeting. If you have a question about your individual circumstances or banking, please speak with your local branch or contact telephone banking (132 032 for Westpac customers or 13 33 30 for St.George customers).

In the event we need to contact you about your question, you may include your email address and/or contact number in the space below.

Providing your email address will not change your Westpac shareholder communication preferences.
