(9) Other Conditions and the Method of Tender Offer

(ii) Existence and Content of Conditions for Withdrawal of the Tender Offer and Method of Disclosing Withdrawal

(Before correction)

If any of the events provided in Article 14 (1) (i) (a) through (i) and (l) through (r), Article 14 (1) (iii) (a) through (h), Article 14 (1) (iv), Article 14 (1) (v) and Article 14 (2) (iii) through (vi) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act Enforcement Order (Cabinet Order No. 321 of 1965, as amended; hereinafter the “Cabinet Order”) occurs, the Company may withdraw the Tender Offer.

The Tender Offeror is required to file a prior notification with the Fair Trade Commission in respect of the acquisition of the shares of NJK in the Tender Offer under Article 10 (2) of the Act on Prohibition of Private Monopolization and Maintenance of Fair Trade, as amended by Act No. 51, dated June 10, 2009, (hereinafter the “Antimonopoly Act”). The Tender Offeror may not acquire shares of NJK in the Tender Offer for a period of thirty days from the date of acceptance of the notification (hereinafter the “Waiting Period”). The Tender Offeror plans to file the prior notification with the Fair Trade Commission on January 4, 2010. If the prior notification is accepted on the same day, the Waiting Period is expected to end on February 3, 2010. The Tender Offeror has not utilized the prior consultation system of the Fair Trade Commission in regard to its acquisition of the shares of NJK in the Tender Offer. The Tender Offeror will file a correction statement if a period for possibly receiving prior notice of a cease and desist order under the Antimonopoly Act has ended without receiving prior notice under Article 49 (5) of the Antimonopoly Act or a demand of report or information from the Fair Trade Commission under Article 10 (9) of the Antimonopoly Act. If, in connection with the prior notification filed with the Fair Trade Commission, the Tender Offeror receives from the Fair Trade Commission prior notice of a cease and desist order ordering the Company to dispose all or part of the shares of NJK or to assign part of its business, or if a period for possibly receiving prior notice of a cease and desist order under the Antimonopoly Act does not end by the day immediately preceding the last day of the Tender Offer Period, or if a petition for emergency court injunction by a court is filed against the Tender Offeror as an entity that is suspected of violating Article 10 (1) of the Antimonopoly Act, the Company is deemed to have failed to obtain “permission” under Article 14 (1) (iv) of the Cabinet Order, and such failure may result in a withdrawal event.

If the Tender Offeror is to withdraw the Tender Offer, a public notice will be made electronically, and the fact of such notice will be published in the Nihon Keizai Shimbun. However, if there is difficulty in making such public notice by the end of the Tender Offer Period, an announcement will be made pursuant to Article 20 of the Ministry Ordinance, and a public notice will be made promptly thereafter.

(After correction)

If any of the events provided in Article 14(1)(i)(a) through (i) and (l) through (r), Article 14(1)(iii)(a) through (h), Article 14(1)(iv), Article 14(1)(v) and Article 14(2)(iii) through (vi) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act Enforcement Order (Cabinet Order No. 321 of 1965, as amended; hereinafter the “Cabinet Order”) occurs, the Company may withdraw the Tender Offer.

(Deletion)

If the Tender Offeror is to withdraw the Tender Offer, a public notice will be made electronically, and the fact of such notice will be published in the Nihon Keizai Shimbun. However, if there is difficulty in making such public notice by the end of the Tender Offer Period, an announcement will be made pursuant to Article 20 of the Ministry Ordinance, and a public notice will be made promptly thereafter.

The Tender Offeror is required to file a prior notification with the Fair Trade Commission in respect of the acquisition of the shares of NJK in the Tender Offer under Article 10 (2) of the Act on Prohibition of Private Monopolization and Maintenance of Fair Trade, as amended by Act No. 51, dated June 10, 2009, (hereinafter the “Antimonopoly Act”). The Tender Offeror may not acquire shares of NJK in the Tender Offer for a period of thirty days from the date of acceptance of the notification (hereinafter the “Waiting Period”). Upon the expiration of the Waiting Period, the Tender Offeror received a notice confirming the expiration of the Waiting Period from the Fair Trade Commission on February 4, 2010. Also, given the fact that the Tender Offeror has not received from the Fair Trade Commission any prior notice under Article 49(5) of the Antimonopoly Act or a demand for a report or information under Article 10(9) of the Antimonopoly Act, the period for receiving prior notice of a cease and desist order under the Antimonopoly Act has expired.
