 - Returned $6.1 billion to shareholders through common stock dividends and net share repurchases, up 52% from $4.0 billion in second quarter 2018

Financial results reported in this document are preliminary. Final financial results and other disclosures will be reported in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2019, and may differ materially from the results and disclosures in this document due to, among other things, the completion of final review procedures, the occurrence of subsequent events, or the discovery of additional information.

¹ Tangible common equity is a non-GAAP financial measure and represents total equity less preferred equity, noncontrolling interests, and goodwill and certain identifiable intangible assets (including goodwill and intangible assets associated with certain of our nonmarketable equity securities but excluding mortgage servicing rights), net of applicable deferred taxes. The methodology of determining tangible common equity may differ among companies. Management believes that return on average tangible common equity, which utilizes tangible common equity, is a useful financial measure because it enables investors and others to assess the Company's use of equity. For additional information, including a corresponding reconciliation to GAAP financial measures, see the "Tangible Common Equity" tables on page 36.

² Reserve build represents the amount by which the provision for credit losses exceeds net charge-offs, while reserve release represents the amount by which net charge-offs exceed the provision for credit losses.

³ See table on page 37 for more information on Common Equity Tier 1. Common Equity Tier 1 (fully phased-in) is a preliminary estimate and is calculated assuming the full phase-in of the Basel III capital rules.

SAN FRANCISCO – Wells Fargo & Company (NYSE:WFC) reported net income of $6.2 billion, or $1.30 per diluted common share, for second quarter 2019, compared with $5.2 billion, or $0.98 per share, for second quarter 2018, and $5.9 billion, or $1.20 per share, for first quarter 2019.

Interim Chief Executive Officer Allen Parker said, “In second quarter 2019, we recorded strong earnings and continued to make progress on our top priorities: focusing on our customers and team members; meeting the expectations of our regulators; and continuing the important transformation of our Company. The commitment of our team members to provide outstanding customer service was reflected in higher customer experience survey scores from our branches, continued growth in primary consumer checking customers, and an increase in referred investment assets as a result of the partnership between our Wealth and Investment Management team and our Community Banking team. During the second quarter, we formed a new Strategic Execution and Operations Office that will focus on achieving operational excellence across our businesses to enable us to execute more effectively on our regulatory priorities and further drive our transformation. Finally, our recent CCAR results demonstrated the strength of our diversified business model, our strong capital position, our sound financial risk management, and our commitment to return excess capital to our shareholders in a prudent manner. I’m confident that all our stakeholders will benefit from the transformational changes we are implementing as we work to build the most customer-focused, efficient, and innovative Wells Fargo ever.”

Chief Financial Officer John Shrewsberry said, “Wells Fargo reported $6.2 billion of net income in the second quarter and diluted earnings per share of $1.30. We grew period-end loans and deposits, as well as pre-tax pre-provision profit, compared with the first quarter and a year ago. Our credit quality remained solid with net charge-offs near historic lows. Additionally, our strong capital position was reflected in our 2019 Capital Plan, which includes an increase in our quarterly common stock dividend rate in third quarter 2019 to $0.51 per share from $0.45 per share, subject to board approval, as well as up to $23.1 billion of gross common stock repurchases during the four-quarter period beginning in third quarter 2019. ”

Net Interest Income

Net interest income in the second quarter was $12.1 billion, down $216 million from first quarter 2019, driven by balance sheet mix and repricing, including the impacts of higher deposit costs and the lower interest rate environment, as well as higher mortgage-backed securities (MBS) premium amortization, partially offset by the benefit of one additional day in the quarter.

The net interest margin was 2.82%, down 9 basis points from the prior quarter due to balance sheet mix and repricing, including the impacts of higher deposit costs and the lower interest rate environment, as well as higher MBS premium amortization.

Noninterest Income

Noninterest income in the second quarter was $9.5 billion, up $191 million from first quarter 2019. Second quarter noninterest income included higher trust and investment fees, other income, services charges on deposit accounts, and card fees, partially offset by lower market sensitive revenue⁴.

- Service charges on deposit accounts were $1.2 billion, up from $1.1 billion in first quarter 2019, due to seasonally lower fees and higher fee waivers in the first quarter, as well as higher treasury management fees in the second quarter.
- Trust and investment fees were $3.6 billion, up from $3.4 billion in first quarter 2019, driven by higher asset-based fees on retail brokerage advisory assets reflecting higher market valuations at March 31, 2019, and higher investment banking fees on increased debt and equity underwriting.
- Card fees were $1.0 billion, up from a seasonally lower first quarter of $944 million.
- Mortgage banking income was $758 million, up from $708 million in first quarter 2019. Net mortgage servicing income was $277 million, down from $364 million in the first quarter primarily due to the impact of lower interest rates including higher loan payoffs. The production margin on residential held-for-sale mortgage loan originations⁵ decreased to 0.98% from 1.05% in the first quarter. Residential held-for-sale mortgage loan originations increased in the second quarter to $33 billion from $22 billion in the first quarter, primarily due to seasonality, as well as lower mortgage loan interest rates in the second quarter.
- Market sensitive revenue⁴ was $871 million, down from $1.3 billion in first quarter 2019, and included lower net gains from equity securities driven by a $258 million decrease in deferred compensation plan investment results in the second quarter (largely offset by lower employee benefits expense). Net gains from trading activities decreased $128 million compared with the prior quarter, driven by lower credit trading results. Net gains from debt securities decreased $105 million compared with the prior quarter, which included gains related to the sale of non-agency residential mortgage-backed securities.
- Other income was $744 million and included a $721 million gain from the sale of $1.9 billion of Pick-a-Pay purchased credit-impaired (PCI) loans.

⁴ Market sensitive revenue represents net gains from trading activities, debt securities, and equity securities.

Noninterest Expense

Noninterest expense in the second quarter declined $467 million from the prior quarter to $13.4 billion, predominantly due to a decline in employee benefits expense and incentive compensation expense, which were seasonally elevated in the first quarter, as well as a $243 million decrease in deferred compensation expense (largely offset by lower net gains from equity securities). These decreases were partially offset by higher outside professional and contract services, salary, and advertising and promotion expense. The efficiency ratio was 62.3% in second quarter 2019, compared with 64.4% in the first quarter.

Income Taxes

The Company's effective income tax rate was 17.3% for second quarter 2019. The effective income tax rate in first quarter 2019 was 13.1% and included net discrete income tax benefits of $297 million related mostly to the results of U.S. federal and state income tax examinations and the accounting for stock compensation activity. The Company currently expects the effective income tax rate for the remainder of 2019 to be approximately 18%, excluding the impact of any unanticipated discrete items.

Loans

Average loans were $947.5 billion in the second quarter, down $2.6 billion from the first quarter. Period-end loan balances were $949.9 billion at June 30, 2019, up $1.6 billion from March 31, 2019. Commercial loans were flat compared with March 31, 2019. Consumer loans increased $1.6 billion from the prior quarter, reflecting the following:

- Real estate 1-4 family first mortgage loans increased $1.9 billion, as $19.8 billion of held-for-investment mortgage loan originations were partially offset by paydowns, the sale of $1.9 billion of Pick-a-Pay PCI loans, and the reclassification of $1.8 billion of mortgage loans to held for sale
- Real estate 1-4 family junior lien mortgage loans decreased $1.0 billion, as paydowns continued to exceed originations
- Credit card loans increased $541 million, up from a seasonally lower first quarter
- Automobile loans increased $751 million, as originations of $6.3 billion outpaced paydowns, resulting in linked-quarter growth for the first time since third quarter 2016

Debt and Equity Securities

Debt securities include available-for-sale and held-to-maturity debt securities, as well as debt securities held for trading. Period-end debt securities were $482.1 billion at June 30, 2019, down $1.4 billion from the first quarter, predominantly due to a net decrease in available-for-sale debt securities. Debt securities purchases of approximately $15.9 billion, predominantly federal agency MBS in the available-for-sale portfolio, were more than offset by runoff and sales.

Net unrealized gains on available-for-sale debt securities were $2.5 billion at June 30, 2019, compared with $853 million at March 31, 2019, primarily due to lower long-term interest rates in the second quarter.

Period-end equity securities, which include marketable and non-marketable equity securities, as well as equity securities held for trading, were $61.5 billion at June 30, 2019, up $3.1 billion from the first quarter.

Deposits

Total average deposits for second quarter 2019 were $1.3 trillion, up $6.9 billion from the prior quarter primarily due to higher retail banking deposits reflecting increased promotional activity, partially offset by lower Wealth and Investment Management deposits. The average deposit cost for second quarter 2019 was 70 basis points, up 5 basis points from the prior quarter and 30 basis points from a year ago.

Capital

The Company's Common Equity Tier 1 ratio (fully phased-in) was 12.0%³ and continued to exceed both the regulatory minimum of 9% and our current internal target of 10%. In second quarter 2019, the Company repurchased 104.9 million shares of its common stock, which, net of issuances, reduced period-end common shares outstanding by 92.4 million. The Company paid a quarterly common stock dividend of $0.45 per share.

In June 2019, the Company received a non-objection to its 2019 Capital Plan from the Federal Reserve. As part of the plan, the Company expects to increase its third quarter 2019 common stock dividend to $0.51 per share, subject to approval by the Company's Board of Directors. The plan also includes up to $23.1 billion of gross common stock repurchases, subject to management discretion, for the four-quarter period from third quarter 2019 through second quarter 2020. In addition, the Company may consider redemptions or repurchases of other capital securities as part of the plan.

As of June 30, 2019, our eligible external total loss absorbing capacity (TLAC) as a percentage of total risk-weighted assets was 24.1%⁶, compared with the required minimum of 22.0%.

⁶ The TLAC ratio is a preliminary estimate.

Credit Quality

Net Loan Charge-offs

The quarterly loss rate in the second quarter was 0.28% (annualized), down from 0.30% in the prior quarter, and up from 0.26% a year ago. Commercial and consumer losses were 0.13% and 0.45%, respectively. Total credit losses were $653 million in second quarter 2019, down $42 million from first quarter 2019. Commercial losses increased $20 million, while consumer losses decreased $62 million primarily due to lower automobile losses.

Commercial nonaccrual loans decreased $327 million driven by reductions in the commercial and industrial portfolio reflecting broad-based improvement across industry sectors. Consumer nonaccrual loans decreased $656 million driven by lower nonaccruals in the real estate 1-4 family first mortgage portfolio, which included a $373 million decline related to the reclassification of $1.8 billion of mortgage loans to held for sale.

Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In addition, we may make forward-looking statements in our other documents filed or furnished with the SEC, and our management may make forward-looking statements orally to analysts, investors, representatives of the media and others. Forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as “anticipates,” “intends,” “plans,” “seeks,” “believes,” “estimates,” “expects,” “target,” “projects,” “outlook,” “forecast,” “will,” “may,” “could,” “should,” “can” and similar references to future periods. In particular, forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements we make about: (i) the future operating or financial performance of the Company, including our outlook for future growth; (ii) our noninterest expense and efficiency ratio; (iii) future credit quality and performance, including our expectations regarding future loan losses and allowance levels; (iv) the appropriateness of the allowance for credit losses; (v) our expectations regarding net interest income and net interest margin; (vi) loan growth or the reduction or mitigation of risk in our loan portfolios; (vii) future capital or liquidity levels or targets and our estimated Common Equity Tier 1 ratio under Basel III capital standards; (viii) the performance of our mortgage business and any related exposures; (ix) the expected outcome and impact of legal, regulatory and legislative developments, as well as our expectations regarding compliance therewith; (x) future common stock dividends, common share repurchases and other uses of capital; (xi) our targeted range for return on assets, return on equity, and return on tangible common equity; (xii) the outcome of contingencies, such as legal proceedings; and (xiii) the Company’s plans, objectives and strategies.

Forward-looking statements are not based on historical facts but instead represent our current expectations and assumptions regarding our business, the economy and other future conditions. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict. Our actual results may differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements. We caution you, therefore, against relying on any of these forward-looking statements. They are neither statements of historical fact nor guarantees or assurances of future performance. While there is no assurance that any list of risks and uncertainties or risk factors is complete, important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include the following, without limitation:

- current and future economic and market conditions, including the effects of declines in housing prices, high unemployment rates, U.S. fiscal debt, budget and tax matters, geopolitical matters, and any slowdown in global economic growth;
- our capital and liquidity requirements (including under regulatory capital standards, such as the Basel III capital standards) and our ability to generate capital internally or raise capital on favorable terms;
- financial services reform and other current, pending or future legislation or regulation that could have a negative effect on our revenue and businesses, including the Dodd-Frank Act and other legislation and regulation relating to bank products and services;
- developments in our mortgage banking business, including the extent of the success of our mortgage loan modification efforts, the amount of mortgage loan repurchase demands that we receive, any negative effects relating to our mortgage servicing, loan modification or foreclosure practices, and the effects of regulatory or judicial requirements or guidance impacting our mortgage banking business and any changes in industry standards;
- our ability to realize any efficiency ratio or expense target as part of our expense management initiatives, including as a result of business and economic cyclical, seasonality, changes in our business composition and operating environment, growth in our businesses and/or acquisitions, and unexpected expenses relating to, among other things, litigation and regulatory matters;
- the effect of the current interest rate environment or changes in interest rates on our net interest income, net interest margin and our mortgage originations, mortgage servicing rights and mortgage loans held for sale;
- significant turbulence or a disruption in the capital or financial markets, which could result in, among other things, reduced investor demand for mortgage loans, a reduction in the availability of funding or increased funding costs, and declines in asset values and/or recognition of other-than-temporary impairment on securities held in our debt securities and equity securities portfolios;
- the effect of a fall in stock market prices on our investment banking business and our fee income from our brokerage, asset and wealth management businesses;

- negative effects from the retail banking sales practices matter and from other instances where customers may have experienced financial harm, including on our legal, operational and compliance costs, our ability to engage in certain business activities or offer certain products or services, our ability to keep and attract customers, our ability to attract and retain qualified team members, and our reputation;
- resolution of regulatory matters, litigation, or other legal actions, which may result in, among other things, additional costs, fines, penalties, restrictions on our business activities, reputational harm, or other adverse consequences;
- a failure in or breach of our operational or security systems or infrastructure, or those of our third-party vendors or other service providers, including as a result of cyber attacks;
- the effect of changes in the level of checking or savings account deposits on our funding costs and net interest margin;
- fiscal and monetary policies of the Federal Reserve Board; and
- the other risk factors and uncertainties described under “Risk Factors” in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018.

In addition to the above factors, we also caution that the amount and timing of any future common stock dividends or repurchases will depend on the earnings, cash requirements and financial condition of the Company, market conditions, capital requirements (including under Basel capital standards), common stock issuance requirements, applicable law and regulations (including federal securities laws and federal banking regulations), and other factors deemed relevant by the Company’s Board of Directors, and may be subject to regulatory approval or conditions.

For more information about factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from our expectations, refer to our reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the discussion under “Risk Factors” in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available on its website at www.sec.gov.

Any forward-looking statement made by us speaks only as of the date on which it is made. Factors or events that could cause our actual results to differ may emerge from time to time, and it is not possible for us to predict all of them. We undertake no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, except as may be required by law.

Forward-looking Non-GAAP Financial Measures. From time to time management may discuss forward-looking non-GAAP financial measures, such as forward-looking estimates or targets for return on average tangible common equity. We are unable to provide a reconciliation of forward-looking non-GAAP financial measures to their most directly comparable GAAP financial measures because we are unable to provide, without unreasonable effort, a meaningful or accurate calculation or estimation of amounts that would be necessary for the reconciliation due to the complexity and inherent difficulty in forecasting and quantifying future amounts or when they may occur. Such unavailable information could be significant to future results.

(1) Tangible common equity is a non-GAAP financial measure and represents total equity less preferred equity, noncontrolling interests, and goodwill and certain identifiable intangible assets (including goodwill and intangible assets associated with certain of our nonmarketable equity securities but excluding mortgage servicing rights), net of applicable deferred taxes. The methodology of determining tangible common equity may differ among companies. Management believes that return on average tangible common equity and tangible book value per common share, which utilize tangible common equity, are useful financial measures because they enable investors and others to assess the Company's use of equity. For additional information, including a corresponding reconciliation to GAAP financial measures, see the "Tangible Common Equity" tables on page 36.

(2) The efficiency ratio is noninterest expense divided by total revenue (net interest income and noninterest income).

(3) Pre-tax pre-provision profit (PTPP) is total revenue less noninterest expense. Management believes that PTPP is a useful financial measure because it enables investors and others to assess the Company's ability to generate capital to cover credit losses through a credit cycle.

(4) Consumer and small business banking deposits are total deposits excluding mortgage escrow and wholesale deposits.

(5) Book value per common share is common stockholders' equity divided by common shares outstanding. Tangible book value per common share is tangible common equity divided by common shares outstanding.

(1) Tangible common equity is a non-GAAP financial measure and represents total equity less preferred equity, noncontrolling interests, and goodwill and certain identifiable intangible assets (including goodwill and intangible assets associated with certain of our nonmarketable equity securities but excluding mortgage servicing rights), net of applicable deferred taxes. The methodology of determining tangible common equity may differ among companies. Management believes that return on average tangible common equity and tangible book value per common share, which utilize tangible common equity, are useful financial measures because they enable investors and others to assess the Company's use of equity. For additional information, including a corresponding reconciliation to GAAP financial measures, see the "Tangible Common Equity" tables on page 36.

(2) The efficiency ratio is noninterest expense divided by total revenue (net interest income and noninterest income).

(3) Pre-tax pre-provision profit (PTPP) is total revenue less noninterest expense. Management believes that PTPP is a useful financial measure because it enables investors and others to assess the Company's ability to generate capital to cover credit losses through a credit cycle.

(4) Consumer and small business banking deposits are total deposits excluding mortgage escrow and wholesale deposits.

(5) Book value per common share is common stockholders' equity divided by common shares outstanding. Tangible book value per common share is tangible common equity divided by common shares outstanding.

(1) Tangible common equity is a non-GAAP financial measure and represents total equity less preferred equity, noncontrolling interests, and goodwill and certain identifiable intangible assets (including goodwill and intangible assets associated with certain of our nonmarketable equity securities but excluding mortgage servicing rights), net of applicable deferred taxes. The methodology of determining tangible common equity may differ among companies. Management believes that return on average tangible common equity and tangible book value per common share, which utilize tangible common equity, are useful financial measures because they enable investors and others to assess the Company's use of equity.

(2) Represents goodwill and other intangibles on nonmarketable equity securities, which are included in other assets.

(3) Applicable deferred taxes relate to goodwill and other intangible assets. They were determined by applying the combined federal statutory rate and composite state income tax rates to the difference between book and tax basis of the respective goodwill and intangible assets at period end.

(1) Basel III capital rules, adopted by the Federal Reserve Board on July 2, 2013, revised the definition of capital, increased minimum capital ratios, and introduced a minimum Common Equity Tier 1 (CET1) ratio. The rules are being phased in through the end of 2021. Fully phased-in capital amounts, ratios and RWAs are calculated assuming the full phase-in of the Basel III capital rules. Beginning January 1, 2018, the requirements for calculating CET1 and tier 1 capital, along with RWAs, became fully phased-in.

(2) Represents goodwill and other intangibles on nonmarketable equity securities, which are included in other assets.

(3) Applicable deferred taxes relate to goodwill and other intangible assets. They were determined by applying the combined federal statutory rate and composite state income tax rates to the difference between book and tax basis of the respective goodwill and intangible assets at period end.

(4) The final Basel III capital rules provide for two capital frameworks: the Standardized Approach, which replaced Basel I, and the Advanced Approach applicable to certain institutions. Under the final rules, we are subject to the lower of our CET1 ratio calculated under the Standardized Approach and under the Advanced Approach in the assessment of our capital adequacy. Because the final determination of our CET1 ratio and which approach will produce the lower CET1 ratio as of June 30, 2019, is subject to detailed analysis of considerable data, our CET1 ratio at that date has been estimated using the Basel III definition of capital under the Basel III Standardized Approach RWAs. The capital ratio for March 31, 2019, and December 31, September 30 and June 30, 2018, was calculated under the Basel III Standardized Approach RWAs.

(5) The Company's June 30, 2019, RWAs and capital ratio are preliminary estimates.

(1) Tangible common equity is a non-GAAP financial measure and represents total equity less preferred equity, noncontrolling interests, and goodwill and certain identifiable intangible assets (including goodwill and intangible assets associated with certain of our nonmarketable equity securities but excluding mortgage servicing rights), net of applicable deferred taxes. The methodology of determining tangible common equity may differ among companies. Management believes that return on average tangible common equity, which utilizes tangible common equity, is a useful financial measure because it enables investors and others to assess the Company's use of equity. See page 36 for additional information, including a corresponding reconciliation to GAAP financial measures. (2) Customers who actively use their checking account with transactions such as debit card purchases, online bill payments, and direct deposit; reported on a one-month lag from reported quarter-end so as of May 2019 compared with May 2018. (3) Combined consumer and business debit card purchase volume dollars.

2019 expense target

- We are working hard to deliver on our 2019 expense target of $52.0-$53.0 billion and currently expect 2019 noninterest expense to be near the high-end of the range as expense efficiencies are being offset by higher ongoing investment spend
- Our 2019 expense target excludes:
 - Annual operating losses in excess of $600 million, such as litigation and remediation accruals and penalties
 - Deferred compensation expense, which is subject to market fluctuations and is P&L neutral ($471 million expense in first half of 2019 vs. $242 million benefit in FY18)
- Factors impacting expenses include:
 - Investments in risk management including regulatory compliance and operational risk, as well as data and technology, have exceeded expectations and are anticipated to continue
 - Elevated revenue-related expenses due to, among other things, strength in mortgage banking and in the capital markets. We don't want to forgo revenue to manage to an expense target

Deferred compensation plan investment results

- Wells Fargo's deferred compensation plan allows eligible team members the opportunity to defer receipt of current compensation to a future date
- Certain team members within Wholesale Banking, and Wealth and Investment Management have mandatory deferral plans as part of their incentive compensation plans
- To neutralize the impact of market fluctuations resulting from team member elections, which are recognized in employee benefits expense, we enter into economic hedges through the use of equity securities and the offsetting revenue is recognized in net interest income and net gains from equity securities

Noninterest expense analysis (reference for slides 17-18)

For analytical purposes, we have grouped our noninterest expense into six categories:

Compensation & Benefits: Salaries, benefits and non-revenue-related incentive compensation

Revenue-related: Incentive compensation directly tied to generating revenue; businesses with expenses directly tied to revenue (operating leases, insurance)

Third Party Services: Expenses related to the use of outside parties, such as legal and consultant costs

“Running the Business” – Non Discretionary: Expenses that are costs of doing business, including foreclosed asset expense and FDIC assessments

“Running the Business” – Discretionary: Travel, advertising, postage, etc.

Infrastructure: Equipment, occupancy, etc.

(1) Basel III capital rules, adopted by the Federal Reserve Board on July 2, 2013, revised the definition of capital, increased minimum capital ratios, and introduced a minimum Common Equity Tier 1 (CET1) ratio. The rules are being phased in through the end of 2021. Fully phased-in capital amounts, ratios and RWAs are calculated assuming the full phase-in of the Basel III capital rules. Beginning January 1, 2018, the requirements for calculating CET1 and tier 1 capital, along with RWAs, became fully phased-in.

(2) Represents goodwill and other intangibles on nonmarketable equity securities, which are included in other assets.

(3) Applicable deferred taxes relate to goodwill and other intangible assets. They were determined by applying the combined federal statutory rate and composite state income tax rates to the difference between book and tax basis of the respective goodwill and intangible assets at period end.

(4) The final Basel III capital rules provide for two capital frameworks: the Standardized Approach, which replaced Basel I, and the Advanced Approach applicable to certain institutions. Under the final rules, we are subject to the lower of our CET1 ratio calculated under the Standardized Approach and under the Advanced Approach in the assessment of our capital adequacy. Because the final determination of our CET1 ratio and which approach will produce the lower CET1 ratio as of June 30, 2019, is subject to detailed analysis of considerable data, our CET1 ratio at that date has been estimated using the Basel III definition of capital under the Basel III Standardized Approach RWAs. The capital ratio for March 31, 2019, and December 31, September 30 and June 30, 2018, was calculated under the Basel III Standardized Approach RWAs.

(5) The Company's June 30, 2019, RWAs and capital ratio are preliminary estimates.

(1) Tangible common equity is a non-GAAP financial measure and represents total equity less preferred equity, noncontrolling interests, and goodwill and certain identifiable intangible assets (including goodwill and intangible assets associated with certain of our nonmarketable equity securities but excluding mortgage servicing rights), net of applicable deferred taxes. The methodology of determining tangible common equity may differ among companies. Management believes that return on average tangible common equity, which utilizes tangible common equity, is a useful financial measure because it enables investors and others to assess the Company's use of equity.

(2) Represents goodwill and other intangibles on nonmarketable equity securities, which are included in other assets.

(3) Applicable deferred taxes relate to goodwill and other intangible assets. They were determined by applying the combined federal statutory rate and composite state income tax rates to the difference between book and tax basis of the respective goodwill and intangible assets at period end.
