QUESTIONS FROM SHAREHOLDERS - WESTPAC 2021 ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING (AGM)

The AGM is an opportunity for shareholders to engage with your company and we encourage shareholders to participate. If you would like to ask a question in advance, you can do so online or by printing out, completing and returning this form. The Chairman will consider these questions when preparing his AGM address. Due to the number of questions received, we are not able to provide individual answers. You may also submit questions to the Auditor if they are relevant to the Financial Reports. To do so please check the appropriate box below.

Details of the AGM are in the Notice of Meeting, available at westpac.com.au/AGM.

The easiest way to submit a question is online at vote.linkmarketservices.com/WBC. You can also return this form via one of the methods mentioned at the top of this page. All questions must be received by 5:00pm (Sydney time) on Tuesday, 7 December 2021.

The meeting will be virtual and you can participate online via westpac.com.au/AGM or by telephone, the details of which are in the Notice of Meeting and in the Online AGM Guide. You can view and download these at westpac.com.au/AGM.

The AGM will be webcast live via westpac.com.au/AGM. A replay of the webcast will also be subsequently available.

The AGM is a forum to discuss the performance and management of Westpac. If you have a question about your individual circumstances or banking, please speak with your local branch or contact telephone banking (132 032 for Westpac customers or 13 33 30 for St.George customers).

In the event we need to contact you about your question, you may include your email address and/or contact number in the space below.

Providing your email address will not change your Westpac shareholder communication preferences.
