Introduction

This Supplemental Information Memorandum supplements the Information Memorandum dated 11 March 2025 (the “2025 Information Memorandum”) issued by Barclays PLC (the “Issuer”). The 2025 Information Memorandum and this Supplemental Information Memorandum, each relate to the Issuer’s AUD Debt Issuance Programme (“Programme”), as described therein, under which medium term notes and other debt instruments (together, “Debt Instruments”) may be issued from time to time.

This Supplemental Information Memorandum constitutes supplementary admission particulars in respect of the 2025 Information Memorandum for the purposes of the Rulebook of International Securities Market (the “ISM”) of the London Stock Exchange plc (the “LSE”). This Supplemental Information Memorandum has not been approved by and will not be submitted for approval to the Financial Conduct Authority of the United Kingdom.

Terms used in this Supplemental Information Memorandum but not otherwise defined have the meaning given to them in the 2025 Information Memorandum.

Issuer’s Responsibility

This Supplemental Information Memorandum has been prepared by, and issued with, the authority of the Issuer. The Issuer accepts responsibility for the information contained in this Supplemental Information Memorandum.

Responsibility for this Information Memorandum for purposes of the ISM

For the purpose of Debt Instruments admitted to trading on the ISM, the Issuer accepts responsibility for the information contained in the 2025 Information Memorandum and this Supplemental Information Memorandum and the relevant Supplement for each Tranche of such Debt Instruments issued under the Programme and declares that, having taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case, the information contained in the 2025 Information Memorandum and this Supplemental Information Memorandum and the relevant Supplement is, to the best of its knowledge, in accordance with the facts and contains no omission likely to affect its import.

International Securities Market

The ISM is not a regulated market situated or operating within the United Kingdom (the “UK”) for the purposes of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 as it forms part of domestic law of the UK by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (the “EUWA”) (the “UK Prospectus Regulation”). The ISM is a market designated for professional investors. Debt Instruments admitted to trading on the ISM are not admitted to the Official List of the UK Financial Conduct Authority (the “FCA”). Neither the FCA nor the LSE has approved or verified the contents of the 2025 Information Memorandum or this Supplemental Information Memorandum. Neither the 2025 Information Memorandum, nor this Supplemental Information Memorandum, comprises a prospectus for the purposes of the UK Prospectus Regulation.

Australian Banking Act

The Issuer is not a bank or an authorised deposit-taking institution which is authorised under the Banking Act 1959 (Commonwealth of Australia) (“Australian Banking Act”) and nor is it supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (“APRA”).

No Debt Instruments shall be obligations of the Australian Government or any other government and, in particular, are not guaranteed by the Commonwealth of Australia.

The depositor protection provisions in Division 2 of Part II of the Australian Banking Act do not apply to the Issuer.

No Debt Instruments shall be “protected accounts” or “deposit liabilities” within the meaning of the Australian Banking Act and an investment in Debt Instruments will not be covered by the depositor protection provisions in section 13A of the Australian Banking Act and will not be covered by the Australian Government’s bank deposit guarantee (also commonly referred to as the Financial Claims Scheme).

Supplements to Information Memorandum

This Supplemental Information Memorandum should be read and construed together with, and will be incorporated by reference in, the 2025 Information Memorandum. References in this Supplemental Information Memorandum and the 2025 Information Memorandum to ‘this Information Memorandum’ are to be construed as references to the 2025 Information Memorandum as supplemented by this Supplemental Information Memorandum. Without limiting the foregoing, this Supplemental Information Memorandum should be read and construed together with the statements appearing under the heading ‘Important Notice’ in the 2025 Information Memorandum which are incorporated by reference in this Supplemental Information Memorandum to the extent not replaced as described below.

Save as disclosed in this Supplemental Information Memorandum, there has been no other significant new factor, material mistake or material inaccuracy relating to information included in the 2025 Information Memorandum since the publication of the 2025 Information Memorandum.

No other information, including any information in any document incorporated by reference in any of the documents specified above or document or information that is publicly filed, forms part of this Information Memorandum unless otherwise expressly stated. Any information contained in any of the documents specified above which is not incorporated by reference in this Information Memorandum is either not relevant for prospective investors for the purposes of the relevant laws or is covered elsewhere in this Information Memorandum.

The financial statements incorporated by reference from the 2024 Annual Report and 2023 Annual Report have been prepared by the Issuer in accordance with UK-adopted international accounting standards and also in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB"), including interpretations issued by the IFRS Interpretations Committee. A summary of the significant accounting policies for the Issuer is included in the 2024 Annual Report and 2023 Annual Report.

Any statement contained in this Information Memorandum or in any documents incorporated by reference in, and forming part of, this Information Memorandum (including any statement contained in those sections of the 2024 Annual Report referred to above), shall be modified, replaced or superseded to the extent that a statement contained in any document subsequently incorporated by reference (including any subsequently filed Form which is incorporated by reference into this Information Memorandum) modifies, replaces or supersedes such statement (including whether in whole or in part or expressly or by implication). Any statement so modified, replaced or superseded shall not be deemed, except as so modified, replaced or superseded, to constitute a part of this Information Memorandum.

In addition, the Issuer, and certain of its affiliates, may make filings with regulatory authorities from time to time and such filings may include information material to investors. Copies of such filings are available from the Issuer.

Copies of documents incorporated by reference in this Information Memorandum may also be obtained from the offices of the Issuer.

Part 2 – Significant Change

The section entitled “Significant Change” commencing on page 5 of the 2025 Information Memorandum shall be superseded and replaced by the following.

Significant Change

There has been no significant change in the financial or trading position of the Issuer or the Group since 31 March 2025.

Part 3 – Forward-Looking Statements

The section entitled “Forward-looking statements” commencing on page 13 of the 2025 Information Memorandum shall be superseded and replaced by the following.

Forward-looking statements

This Information Memorandum and certain documents incorporated by reference herein contain certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the US Securities Act, with respect to the Issuer and its consolidated subsidiaries (the “Group” or “Barclays”). The Issuer cautions readers that no forward-looking statement is a guarantee of future performance and that actual results or other financial condition or performance measures could differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements sometimes use words such as ‘may’, ‘will’, ‘seek’, ‘continue’, ‘aim’, ‘anticipate’, ‘target’, ‘projected’, ‘expect’, ‘estimate’, ‘intend’, ‘plan’, ‘goal’, ‘believe’, ‘achieve’ or other words of similar meaning. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements or guidance regarding or relating to the Group’s future financial position, business strategy, income levels, costs, assets and liabilities, impairment charges, provisions, capital leverage and other regulatory ratios, capital distributions (including policy on dividends and share buybacks), return on tangible equity, projected levels of growth in banking and financial markets, industry trends, any commitments and targets (including environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) commitments and targets), plans and objectives for future operations, International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) and other statements that are not historical or current facts. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to future events and circumstances.

Forward-looking statements speak only as at the date on which they are made. Forward-looking statements may be affected by a number of factors, including, without limitation: changes in legislation, regulations, governmental and regulatory policies, expectations and actions, voluntary codes of practices and the interpretation thereof, changes in IFRS and other accounting standards, including practices with regard to the interpretation and application thereof and emerging and developing sustainability reporting standards (including emissions accounting methodologies); the outcome of current and future legal proceedings and regulatory investigations; the Group’s ability along with governments and other stakeholders to measure, manage and mitigate the impacts of climate change effectively or navigate inconsistencies and conflicts in the manner in which climate policy is implemented in the regions where the Group operates, including as a result of the adoption of anti-ESG rules and regulations, or other forms of governmental and regulatory action against ESG policies; environmental, social and geopolitical risks and incidents and similar events beyond the Group’s control; financial crime; the impact of competition in the banking and financial services industry; capital, liquidity, leverage and other regulatory rules and requirements applicable to past, current and future periods; UK, US, Eurozone and global macroeconomic and business conditions, including inflation; volatility in credit and capital markets; market related risks such as changes in interest rates and foreign exchange rates; reforms to benchmark interest rates and indices; higher or lower asset valuations; changes in credit ratings of any entity within the Group or any securities issued by it; changes in counterparty risk; changes in consumer behaviour; changes in trade policy, including the imposition of tariffs or other protectionist measures; the direct and indirect consequences of the conflicts in Ukraine and the Middle East on European and global macroeconomic conditions, political stability and financial markets; political elections, including the impact of the US elections in 2024 and subsequent changes in legislation and policy; developments in the UK’s relationship with the European Union (the “EU”); the risk of cyberattacks, information or security breaches, technology failures or operational disruptions and any subsequent impact on the Group’s reputation, business or operations; the Group’s ability to access funding; and the success of acquisitions (including the acquisition of Tesco Bank completed in November 2024), disposals, joint ventures and other strategic transactions. A number of these factors are beyond the Group’s control. As a result, the Group’s actual financial position, results, financial and non-financial metrics or performance measures or its ability to meet commitments and targets may differ materially from the statements or guidance set forth in the Group’s forward-looking statements. In setting its targets and outlook for the period 2024-2026, the Issuer has made certain assumptions about the macroeconomic environment, including, without limitation, inflation, interest and unemployment rates, the different markets and competitive conditions in which the Issuer operates, and its ability to grow certain businesses and achieve costs savings and other structural actions. Additional risks and factors which may impact the Group's future financial condition and performance are identified in the Issuer's filings with the SEC (including, without limitation, in the 2024 Annual Report (as defined in the "Information Incorporated by Reference" section above)) which are available on the SEC's website at <http://www.sec.gov>.

Subject to the Issuer's obligations under the applicable laws and regulations of any relevant jurisdiction (including, without limitation, the UK and the US) in relation to disclosure and ongoing information, the Issuer undertakes no obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
