Acquisition of ABN AMRO

On 17 October 2007, RFS Holdings B.V. ("RFS Holdings"), a company jointly owned by the Consortium Banks and controlled by RBSG, completed the acquisition of ABN AMRO. RFS Holdings is in the process of implementing an orderly separation of the business units of ABN AMRO, with RBSG retaining the following ABN AMRO business units, as set out in the Consortium and Shareholders' Agreement dated 28 May 2007, among RBSG, Fortis N.V. and Fortis SA/NV (together, "Fortis"), Banco Santander S.A. and RFS Holdings, as amended from time to time (the "CSA"):

- BU Global Clients (excluding Brazil);
- Wholesale clients in the Netherlands (including former Dutch wholesale clients) and Latin America (excluding Brazil);
- BU Asia (excluding Saudi Hollandi); and
- BU Europe (excluding Antonveneta).

As established in the CSA, the following businesses have been or will be transferred to the other Consortium Banks:

- BU Netherlands (excluding wholesale clients);
- BU Private Clients;

- BU Latin America (excluding wholesale and global clients businesses other than in Brazil) (transferred to Santander on 24 July 2008, excluding businesses in Paraguay and Uruguay); and Certain other assets, BU Private Equity and Group Functions, will continue to be shared by the Consortium Banks, until disposal.

RFS Holdings is fully consolidated in RBSG's financial statements.

Basis of preparation

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is being provided to give a better understanding of what the results of operations and financial position of the Group might have looked like had the transfers of businesses to the other Consortium Banks occurred in respect of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined income statement (the "pro forma income statement") on 1 January 2008. In respect of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet (the "pro forma balance sheet") it has been assumed that the acquisition of minority interests (see below) and the transfers of businesses to the other Consortium Banks occurred on 30 June 2008.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information (the “pro forma financial information”) has been prepared solely for illustrative purposes and is not necessarily indicative of the combined results of operations or financial position of the Group that might have been achieved had the acquisition and transfers occurred on the dates indicated, nor is it necessarily indicative of the results of operations or financial position that may, or may be expected to, be achieved in the future. Due to its nature, the pro forma financial information addresses a hypothetical situation and, therefore, does not represent the Group’s actual financial position or results. The pro forma financial information has not been prepared in accordance with the requirements of Article 11 of Regulation S-X under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933. No account has been taken within the pro forma financial information of any synergy or efficiency benefits that may or may not be expected to occur as a result of the acquisition of ABN AMRO.

The pro forma financial information has been prepared using the purchase method of accounting, after giving effect to the pro forma adjustments described in the unaudited pro forma financial information and also reflects the transfer of businesses (but not shared assets) to the other Consortium Banks, as established in the CSA. The pro forma financial information also incorporates the proposed acquisition of minority interests – 0.965 per cent. ordinary shares and American depository shares, 13.9 per cent. formerly convertible preference shares and 0.25 per cent. financing preference shares of ABN AMRO not already owned by RFS Holdings at 30 June 2008 – expected to be completed before the end of 2008 under the Dutch squeeze-out procedures following the ruling of the Dutch Enterprise Chamber on 15 May 2008. The information below should be read together with the financial statements of RBSG.
