The following information shall, by virtue of this Supplement, be added under the heading “Significant Developments” which commences on page 209 of the Base Prospectus:

“Westpac 1Q26 update

Performance overview¹

Net profit, excluding Notable Items, increased 6% to $1.9 billion and pre-provision profit rose 7%.

Revenue increased 1% with a 2% rise in net interest income more than offsetting a 4% decline in non-interest income. The increase in net interest income was driven by balance sheet growth and a stronger Treasury performance. The decline in non-interest income reflected lower Markets revenue.

Net Interest Margin (NIM) decreased 1 basis point to 1.94%. NIM comprised:

- Core NIM of 1.79%, down 3 basis points reflecting competition and the lower interest rate environment, including timing impacts. Liquid assets provided a slight benefit. Core NIM declined 1 basis point compared to 4Q25; and
- Treasury and Markets contribution of 15 basis points, up from 13 basis points, reflecting favourable interest rate positioning in a more volatile market environment.

Excluding the restructuring charge in 2H25, operating expenses were stable. Including the restructuring charge operating expenses were 5% lower.

Asset quality improved and impairment charges were low at 6 basis points of average gross loans.

Financial strength²

The CET1 capital ratio was 12.3% as at 31 December 2025, well above the target ratio of 11.25%. The reduction in CET1 reflects the payment of the full year 2025 dividend more than offsetting earnings in the period. In addition, there were a range of other items that resulted in a net reduction of 5 basis points.

The average liquidity coverage ratio was 133% and net stable funding ratio was 112%.

The resilience of both households and businesses is reflected in lower levels of customer stress. Stressed exposures reduced 11 basis points to 1.17% of TCE.

Credit impairment provisions were $5.0 billion as at 31 December 2025, $2.1 billion above expected losses of the base case economic scenario. The ratio of CAP to credit RWA was stable at 1.25%.

¹ This section compares the 1Q26 and 2H25 quarterly average periods for profits and loss items and 1Q26 movements for balance sheet items, unless otherwise stated.
