Under this £2,500,000,000 Euro Medium Term Note Programme (the Programme), London & Quadrant Housing Trust (the Issuer) may from time to time issue Notes (the Notes) denominated in any currency agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer (as defined below).

The Issuer's obligations under the Notes may be secured in accordance with the provisions of Condition 4 (Security) (such Notes, Secured Notes) or not so secured (such Notes, Unsecured Notes), in each case, as specified in the applicable Final Terms (as defined below).

The Notes may be issued on a continuing basis to one or more of the Dealers specified under "Overview of the Programme" and any additional Dealer appointed under the Programme from time to time by the Issuer (each a Dealer and together the Dealers), which appointment may be for a specific issue or on an ongoing basis. References in this Base Offering Circular to the relevant Dealer shall, in the case of an issue of Notes being (or intended to be) subscribed by more than one Dealer, be to all Dealers agreeing to subscribe such Notes.

An investment in Notes issued under the Programme involves certain risks. For a discussion of these risks see "Risk Factors".

This Base Offering Circular has been approved as a base prospectus by the Financial Conduct Authority (the FCA) pursuant to the Prospectus Rules: Admission to Trading on a Regulated Market sourcebook (the PRM). The FCA only approves this Base Offering Circular as meeting the standards of completeness, comprehensibility and consistency imposed by the rules in the PRM. Such approval should not be considered as an endorsement of the Issuer or of the quality of the Notes that are the subject of this Base Offering Circular. Investors should make their own assessment as to the suitability of investing in the Notes.

Application has been made to the FCA for Notes issued under the Programme during the period of 12 months from the date of this Base Offering Circular to be admitted to the official list of the FCA (the Official List) and to the London Stock Exchange plc (the London Stock Exchange) for such Notes to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market (the Main Market).

References in this Base Offering Circular to Notes being listed (and all related references) shall mean that such Notes have been admitted to trading on the Main Market and, in respect of any Notes which are Sustainability Bonds (as defined below) or Sustainability-Linked Bonds (as defined below), on the London Stock Exchange's sustainable bond market (the Sustainable Bond Market) and have been admitted to the Official List. The Main Market is a UK regulated market for the purposes of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 on markets in financial instruments as it forms part of domestic law in the UK by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (EUWA) (UK MiFIR).

This Base Offering Circular (as supplemented at the relevant time, if applicable) is valid for 12 months from its date in relation to Notes which are to be admitted to trading on the Main Market. The obligation to supplement this Base Offering Circular in the event of a significant change or a significant new matter does not apply when this Base Offering Circular is no longer valid.

Notice of the aggregate nominal amount of Notes, interest payable in respect of Notes, the issue price of Notes and certain other information which is applicable to each Tranche (as defined under "Terms and Conditions of the Notes") of Notes will be set out in a final terms document (the Final Terms) which will, where listed, be delivered to the FCA and the London Stock Exchange.

Copies of Final Terms in relation to Notes to be listed on the London Stock Exchange will also be published on the website of the London Stock Exchange through a regulatory information service.

The Programme provides that Notes may be listed or admitted to trading, as the case may be, on such other or further stock exchanges or markets as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer. The Issuer may also issue unlisted Notes and/or Notes not admitted to trading on any market.

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act) or any U.S. State securities laws and may not be offered or sold in the United States or to, or for the account or the benefit of, U.S. persons as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act unless an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act is available and in accordance with all applicable securities laws of any state of the United States and any other jurisdiction.

The Programme has been rated A3 by Moody's Investors Service Limited (Moody's), BBB+ by S&P Global Ratings UK Limited (S&P) and A- by Fitch Ratings Limited (Fitch) in relation to Secured Notes, and A3 by Moody's, BBB+ by S&P and A- by Fitch in relation to Unsecured Notes.

Each of Moody's, S&P and Fitch is established in the UK and is registered in accordance with Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 as it forms part of domestic law in the UK by virtue of the EUWA (the UK CRA Regulation). Moody's, S&P and Fitch are not established in the EEA and have not applied for registration under Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 (as amended) (the CRA Regulation). The ratings issued by Moody's, S&P and Fitch have been endorsed by Moody's Deutschland GmbH, S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited and Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited respectively in accordance with the CRA Regulation. Moody's Deutschland GmbH, S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited and Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited are established in the EEA and registered under the CRA Regulation. As such each of Moody's Deutschland GmbH, S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited and Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited is included in the list of credit rating agencies published by the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) on its website (at http://www.esma.europa.eu/page/List-registered-and-certified-CRAs) in accordance with the CRA Regulation.

Notes issued under the Programme may be rated by Moody's and/or S&P and/or Fitch or may be unrated. Where a Tranche of Notes is rated, such rating will be disclosed in the Final Terms and will not necessarily be the same as the rating assigned to the Programme by Moody's and/or S&P and/or Fitch. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

Amounts payable on Floating Rate Notes will be calculated by reference to one of SONIA or EURIBOR as specified in the relevant Final Terms. As at the date of this Base Offering Circular, the European Money Markets Institute (as administrator of EURIBOR) and the Bank of England (as administrator of SONIA) are not included in the FCA's register of administrators under Article 36 of Regulation (EU) No 2016/1011 (as amended) as it forms part of domestic law in the UK by virtue of the EUWA (UK Benchmarks Regulation).

Accordingly, no representation, warranty or undertaking, express or implied, is made and no responsibility or liability is accepted by the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or the Note Trustee as to (a) the accuracy, adequacy or completeness of the information contained or incorporated in this Base Offering Circular or any other information provided by the Issuer in connection with the Programme, (b) any acts or omissions of the Issuer or any other person in connection with the Programme or (c) the execution, legality, effectiveness, adequacy, genuineness, validity, enforceability or admissibility in evidence of any Notes or any other agreement or document relating to any Notes or the Programme. None of the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or the Note Trustee accepts any liability in relation to the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Base Offering Circular or any other information provided by the Issuer in connection with the Programme.

No person is or has been authorised by the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, any of the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or the Note Trustee to give any information or to make any representation not contained in or not consistent with this Base Offering Circular or any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or the Notes and, if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, any of the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or the Note Trustee.

Neither this Base Offering Circular nor any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or any Notes (a) is intended to provide the basis of any credit or other evaluation or (b) should be considered as a recommendation by the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, any of the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or the Note Trustee that any recipient of this Base Offering Circular or any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or any Notes should purchase any Notes. Each investor contemplating purchasing any Notes should make its own independent investigation of the financial condition and affairs, and its own appraisal of the creditworthiness, of the Issuer. Neither this Base Offering Circular nor any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or the issue of any Notes constitutes an offer or invitation by or on behalf of the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, any of the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or the Note Trustee to any person to subscribe for or to purchase any Notes.

Neither the delivery of this Base Offering Circular nor the offering, sale or delivery of any Notes shall in any circumstances imply that the information contained in it concerning the Issuer is correct at any time subsequent to its date or that any other information supplied in connection with the Programme is correct as of any time subsequent to the date indicated in the document containing the same. The Sole Arranger, the Dealers and any of their respective affiliates and the Note Trustee expressly do not undertake to review the financial condition or affairs of the Issuer during the life of the Programme or to advise any investor in Notes issued under the Programme of any information coming to their attention.

If a jurisdiction requires that an offering be made by a licensed broker or dealer and a Dealer or any parent company or affiliate of a Dealer is a licensed broker or dealer in such jurisdiction, the offering shall be deemed to be made by such Dealer or such parent company or affiliate on behalf of the Issuer in such jurisdiction and, as far as the context so permits, references to the Dealers in this section "Important Information" and in the section entitled "Risk Factors" shall be deemed also to refer to any such parent company or affiliate (where relevant and applicable).

To the extent that the Issuer issues any Notes which are Sustainability Bonds (as defined in "Use of Proceeds and Sustainability Finance Framework" below) or Sustainability-Linked Bonds (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes), neither the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or the Note Trustee makes any representation as to the suitability of such Sustainability Bonds or Sustainability-Linked Bonds to fulfil any "sustainable" criteria required by any prospective investors. The Sole Arranger, the Dealers and any of their respective affiliates and the Note Trustee have not conducted any due diligence on the Sustainability Finance Framework (as defined in "Use of Proceeds and Sustainability Finance Framework" below) nor have they undertaken, nor are they responsible for, any assessment of the projects related to Sustainability Bonds or any verification of whether the projects related to Sustainability Bonds may meet any such eligibility criteria or the monitoring of the use of proceeds nor will they verify or monitor any of the commitments set out in the Sustainability Finance Framework relating to such Sustainability Bonds or Sustainability-Linked Bonds issued under the Programme.

IMPORTANT – EEA RETAIL INVESTORS – If the Final Terms in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled "Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors", the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (EEA). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or both) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (the Insurance Distribution Directive), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II. Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the PRIIPs Regulation) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation. MiFID II product governance / target market – The Final Terms in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled "MiFID II product governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a distributor) should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the Product Governance Rules under EU Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the MiFID Product Governance Rules), any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Sole Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance Rules.

UK MiFIR product governance / target market – The Final Terms in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled "UK MiFIR Product Governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a distributor) should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules) is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules, any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Sole Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the UK MIFIR Product Governance Rules.

PRODUCT CLASSIFICATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 309B OF THE SECURITIES AND FUTURES ACT 2001 OF SINGAPORE

In connection with Section 309B(1)(c) of the Securities and Futures Act 2001 of Singapore (as modified and amended from time to time, the SFA) and the Securities and Futures (Capital Markets Products) Regulations 2018 of Singapore (the CMP Regulations 2018), unless otherwise specified before an offer of Notes, the Issuer has determined, and hereby notifies all relevant persons (as defined in Section 309A(1) of the SFA), that the Notes issued under the Programme are 'prescribed capital markets products' (as defined in the CMP Regulations 2018) and Excluded Investment Products (as defined in MAS Notice SFA 04-N12: Notice on the Sale of Investment Products and MAS Notice FAA-N16: Notice on Recommendations on Investment Products).

IMPORTANT INFORMATION RELATING TO THE USE OF THIS BASE OFFERING CIRCULAR AND OFFERS OF NOTES GENERALLY

This Base Offering Circular does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any Notes in any jurisdiction to any person to whom it is unlawful to make the offer or solicitation in such jurisdiction. The distribution of this Base Offering Circular and the offer or sale of Notes may be restricted by law in certain jurisdictions. The Issuer, the Sole Arranger, the Dealers and any of their respective affiliates and the Note Trustee do not represent that this Base Offering Circular may be lawfully distributed, or that any Notes may be lawfully offered, in compliance with any applicable registration or other requirements in any such jurisdiction, or pursuant to an exemption available thereunder, or assume any responsibility for facilitating any such distribution or offering. In particular, no action has been taken by the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or the Note Trustee which is intended to permit a public offering of any Notes or distribution of this Base Offering Circular in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. Accordingly, no Notes may be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, and neither this Base Offering Circular nor any advertisement or other offering material may be distributed or published in any jurisdiction, except under circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations. Persons into whose possession this Base Offering Circular or any Notes may come must inform themselves about, and observe, any such restrictions on the distribution of this Base Offering Circular and the offering and sale of Notes. In particular, there are restrictions on the distribution of this Base Offering Circular and the offer or sale of Notes in the United States, the EEA (including Belgium), the UK, Japan, Australia, Hong Kong, Republic of Korea, Switzerland and Singapore, see "Subscription and Sale".

PRESENTATION OF FINANCIAL AND OTHER INFORMATION

Presentation of Financial Information

Unless otherwise indicated, the financial information in this Base Offering Circular relating to the Issuer has been derived from the relevant Financial Statements (as defined below).

The Issuer's financial year ends on 31 March, and references in this Base Offering Circular to any specific year are to the 12-month period ended on 31 March of such year. The Financial Statements have been prepared and audited in accordance with FRS 102, the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and the Republic of Ireland, the Statement of Recommended Practice, "Accounting by registered social housing providers" 2018 and the Borrower Accounting Direction for Private Registered Providers of Social Housing 2019.

Alternative Performance Measures

The Issuer believes that certain financial measures that are not recognised by UK GAAP, including FRS 102 the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and the Republic of Ireland (the Accounting Standards), but are derived from the information provided in the Issuer's financial statements, provide additional useful information regarding its ongoing operating and financial performance, as well as the Issuer's ability to meet its obligations under the Notes.

These measures are not recognised measures under the Accounting Standards, do not have standardised meanings prescribed by the Accounting Standards and should not be considered in isolation or construed to be alternatives to measures pursuant to the Accounting Standards including revenues, net income (loss) and comprehensive income (loss) for the period determined in accordance with the Accounting Standards. The Issuer's method of calculating these measures may differ from the method used by other entities. Accordingly, certain of the financial performance measures presented in this Base Offering Circular may not be comparable to similarly titled measures used by other entities or in other jurisdictions. Consequently, these measures should not be considered substitutes for the information contained in the financial statements referred to in "Documents Incorporated by Reference" below and should be read in conjunction therewith.

In particular, the Issuer uses the financial measures (as defined below) set out in the table below to evaluate the business performance of the Group. All references to the "Financial Statements" in the table below are to the Issuer's audited consolidated annual financial statements, which include the report of the board, strategic report, independent auditor's report and annual accounts, for the relevant financial years.

Legal investment considerations may restrict certain investments. The investment activities of certain investors are subject to investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. If a Step Up Event occurs, the rate of interest on the Notes shall be increased such that with effect from the Interest Period commencing on (and including) the Step Up Effective Date, the rate of interest shall be increased by the Step Up Margin.
Final Redemption:	The applicable Final Terms will indicate either that the Notes will be redeemed in full on their stated maturity date or in part in instalments on stated instalment dates.
Early Redemption:	The applicable Final Terms will indicate either that the relevant Notes cannot be redeemed prior to their stated maturity date or stated instalment dates (other than for taxation reasons or following an Event of Default) or that such Notes will be redeemable at the option of the Issuer and/or the Noteholders upon giving notice to the Noteholders or the Issuer, as the case may be, on a date or dates specified prior to such stated maturity or instalment date(s) and at a price or prices and on such other terms, and/or subject to such conditions, as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer. Notes having a maturity of less than one year are subject to restrictions on their denomination and distribution, see "Certain Restrictions - Notes having a maturity of less than one year" above.
Purchase:	The Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries may at any time purchase Notes at any price in the open market or otherwise. Such Notes purchased by the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries may be held, reissued, resold or, at the option of the Issuer, surrendered to any Paying Agent for cancellation.
Denomination of Notes:	The Notes will be issued in such denominations as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer save that the minimum denomination of each Note will be such amount as may be allowed or required from time to time by the relevant central bank (or equivalent body) or any laws or regulations applicable to the relevant Specified Currency (see "Certain Restrictions - Notes having a maturity of less than one year" above), and save that the minimum denomination of each Note will be €100,000 (or, if the Notes are denominated in a currency other than euro, the equivalent amount in such currency).
Taxation:	All payments in respect of the Notes will be made without deduction for or on account of withholding taxes imposed by any Tax Jurisdiction as provided in Condition 11 (Taxation). In the event that any such deduction is made, the Issuer will, save in certain limited circumstances provided in Condition 11 (Taxation), be required to pay additional amounts to cover the amounts so deducted.

Secured Notes and Unsecured Notes:	If the applicable Final Terms specifies that a Series of Notes will be Secured Notes, the Issuer's obligations in respect of such Series of Notes shall be secured in accordance with the provisions of Condition 4 (Security) (such Notes, Secured Notes). The applicable Final Terms may also specify that the Issuer's obligations in respect of a Series of Notes shall not be so secured (such Notes, Unsecured Notes).
Security (in respect of Secured Notes only):	The Issuer's obligations in respect of each Series of Secured Notes are secured pursuant to each Security Agreement by: (a) first legal mortgages over the Charged Properties; (b) first fixed charges over all plant and machinery, the benefit of Insurances and future licences, consents and authorisations in respect of the Charged Properties; and (c) assignments by way of security of the Issuer's and any Charging Subsidiaries' rights, title and interest arising under the personal agreements and covenants by the tenants, lessees, licensees or other parties under the Letting Documents and all agreements, now or from time to time entered into or to be entered into for the sale, letting or other disposal or realisation of, or in connection with the management, ownership, refurbishment, development, repair, improvement or servicing of, the whole or any part of the Security Assets. An Eligible Subsidiary (as defined in Condition 1 (Definitions)) may become a Charging Subsidiary by acceding to the Security Trust Deed and creating security as described above. For the avoidance of doubt, such security shall not include a floating charge. The security created pursuant to the Security Agreements will be apportioned to the Series Secured Parties on: (i) a Numerical Apportionment Basis; or (ii) a Specific Apportionment Basis, in each case, as specified in the applicable Final Terms and in accordance with and subject to the terms of the Security Trust Deed. The Issuer's obligations in respect of each Series of Notes are also secured pursuant to the Note Trust Deed by: (a) a first fixed charge over all moneys from time to time standing to the credit of the Charged Account in relation to such Series and all debts represented thereby;

(b) an assignment by way of security of the Issuer's rights, title and interest arising under the Agency Agreement and the Account Agreement, to the extent they relate to such Series; and

(c) a first fixed charge over all sums held from time to time by the Paying Agents for the payment of principal, premium or interest in respect of such Series.

The assets comprising the Series Security have characteristics that demonstrate capacity to produce funds to service the payments due and payable on the Notes.

Negative Pledge (in respect of Secured Notes only): In respect of each Series of Secured Notes, the Issuer has covenanted (pursuant to Condition 5.1(b) (Negative Pledge and Disposals)) and each Charging Subsidiary (if any) will covenant (pursuant to the Note Trust Deed), in each case for so long as any of the Secured Notes remain outstanding, save as expressly permitted by the Note Trust Deed and/or the Security Documents, not to create or permit to subsist, over any of the Series Charged Property, any mortgage or charge or any other security interest ranking in priority to, or pari passu with, the Series Security, excluding, for this purpose any security interest created by or pursuant to the Note Trust Deed or by operation of law.

There is no negative pledge in respect of the Unsecured Notes.

Asset Cover Covenant (in respect of Secured Notes only): Pursuant to Condition 5.1(c)) (Asset Cover Covenant) the Issuer has covenanted, for so long as any of the Secured Notes of each Series remain outstanding, that it shall at all times ensure that the sum of:

(a) the Minimum Value of the Charged Properties in respect of the relevant Series of Secured Notes; and

(b) the Charged Cash in respect of such Series of Secured Notes, will not be less than the aggregate nominal amount of the Secured Notes of such Series outstanding.

In calculating the Minimum Value of the Charged Properties, a discount is applied in accordance with the definition thereof such that any value given in a valuation of Charged Properties on an EUV-SH basis is divided by 105, and any value given in a valuation of Charged Properties on an MV-ST basis is divided by 115, and, in each case, is multiplied by 100.

For the purposes of the Asset Cover Covenant: (i) the aggregate nominal amount of Zero Coupon Notes is deemed to be their Early Redemption Amount (as defined in Condition 10.9) on such date; and (ii) the aggregate nominal amount of Index-Linked Redemption Notes is deemed to be their Final Redemption Amount or (where Instalment Redemption applies) their Early Redemption Amount on such date, in each case as adjusted by the Index Ratio or (as the case may be) the Limited Index Ratio pursuant to Condition 8.3. Where such Index-Linked Redemption Notes are also Index-Linked Interest Notes, the Index Ratio or Limited Index Ratio shall be that which was applied to determine the Adjusted Interest Amount in relation to the most recent Interest Payment Date on or prior to such date. If there has not yet been an Interest Payment Date in relation to the relevant Index-Linked Interest Notes on or prior to the relevant date no Index Ratio or (as the case may be) Limited Index Ratio shall be applied. Failure to comply with the Asset Cover Covenant will constitute a Secured Note Event of Default if it continues for 60 days (or, in the case of Index-Linked Redemption Notes, 90 days) following the service by the Note Trustee on the Issuer of notice requiring it to be remedied.

Valuations (in respect of Secured Notes only):	In respect of each Series of Secured Notes, the Issuer has covenanted, pursuant to Condition 5.1(d) (Valuations), for so long as any of the Secured Notes of such Series remain outstanding, that it shall deliver a Valuation to the Note Trustee and the Security Trustee in the period between 30 September and the date falling 60 days after 30 September in each year whereby the Valuer values: (a) not less than 20 per cent. of the Charged Properties on a Full Valuation Basis; and (b) the remaining Charged Properties on a Desk Top Valuation Basis. Each Valuation shall set out in reasonable detail the Value of the Charged Properties as at a date no more than 90 days prior to the date of delivery of the Valuation.
Addition, Substitution and Release of Charged Properties and Charged Cash (in respect of Secured Notes only):	The Issuer or any Charging Subsidiary may, in respect of each Series of Secured Notes, charge and/or allocate, substitute or release and/or reallocate Charged Properties from the Series Security (and the Note Trustee, in its capacity as Representative, shall consent to such charging and/or allocation, substitution or release and/or reallocation and countersign an amended Apportionment Certificate to reflect the same) subject to, and in accordance with, the requirements set out in Conditions 6.1 (Addition of New Series Charged Properties), 6.2 (Substitution of Series Charged Properties), 6.3 (Release and/or Reallocation of Series Charged Properties) and 6.4 (Statutory Disposals). The Issuer may also, at any time, deposit money into the applicable Charged Account relating to a Series of Secured Notes to ensure compliance with the Asset Cover Covenant relating to that Series.

Financial Covenant (in respect of Unsecured Notes only):	Pursuant to Condition 5.2(b) (Unsecured Notes Financial Covenant), the Issuer has covenanted that, for so long as any of the Unsecured Notes of each Series remain outstanding, it shall ensure that the Unencumbered Assets of the Group shall not be less than 125 per cent. of the Unsecured Financial Indebtedness of the Group.
Information Covenant:	In respect of each Series of Notes, the Issuer has covenanted to deliver to the Note Trustee, within 180 days after the end of each Financial Year, (a) a copy of its consolidated audited financial statements for such Financial Year and (b) a Compliance Certificate, and, upon request by a Noteholder to the Issuer, (i) to make copies of such documents available to any of the Noteholders at the Issuer's registered office or (ii) to provide copies of such documents by email upon request, subject to satisfactory evidence of the Noteholder's holding of Notes and identity. In addition to the rights of the Noteholders of each Series to convene a meeting pursuant to Condition 19 (Meetings of Noteholders, Modification, Waiver and Authorisation), at the request of the requisite majority of the Noteholders of a Series, the Issuer shall hold a meeting of the Noteholders of such Series (including by way of conference call or by use of a videoconference platform) to discuss the financial position of the Issuer and (if applicable) each Charging Subsidiary, provided that the Issuer shall not be required to hold any such meeting more than once in any calendar year.
Events of Default:	Following the occurrence of an Event of Default the Note Trustee may, and if so requested by the holders of at least 25 per cent. in nominal amount of the Notes of the relevant Series then outstanding shall (subject to it being secured and/or indemnified and/or prefunded to its satisfaction and, upon certain events, the Note Trustee having certified to the Issuer that such event is, in its opinion, materially prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders of such Series), give notice to the Issuer and the Notes of such Series shall become immediately due and repayable at their Early Redemption Amount, together with accrued interest, and (in the case of Secured Notes) the Series Security shall become enforceable. The Events of Default in relation to Secured Notes include, inter alia, non-payment of any principal, premium and interest due in respect of the Notes of the relevant Series and failure of the Issuer or any Charging Subsidiary to perform or observe any of its other obligations under the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, the Note Trust Deed or the Security Documents (in each case, upon the expiry of the relevant grace period), insolvency, unlawfulness and acceleration, or non-payment, in respect of other indebtedness in an aggregate amount equal to or in excess of £10,000,000 (or its equivalent).

	The Events of Default in relation to Unsecured Notes include, inter alia, non-payment of any principal, premium and interest due in respect of the Notes of the relevant Series and failure of the Issuer to perform or observe any of its other obligations under the Terms and Conditions of the Notes or the Note Trust Deed (in each case, upon the expiry of the relevant grace period), insolvency, unlawfulness and acceleration, or non-payment, in respect of other indebtedness in an aggregate amount equal to or in excess of £10,000,000 (or its equivalent).
Status of the Notes:	The Secured Notes will constitute direct, unconditional and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, secured in the manner set out in Condition 4 (Security), and will rank pari passu without any preference or priority among themselves. The Unsecured Notes will constitute direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured obligations of the Issuer and will rank pari passu without any preference or priority among themselves and (save for certain obligations required to be preferred by law) equally with all other unsecured obligations (other than subordinated obligations, if any) of the Issuer, from time to time outstanding.
Meetings of Noteholders:	The Terms and Conditions of the Notes and the Note Trust Deed contain provisions for calling meetings of Noteholders (including by way of conference call or by use of a videoconference platform) of the relevant Series to consider matters affecting their interests generally. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders of such Series including Noteholders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and Noteholders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.
Modification and Waiver:	The Note Trustee may, pursuant to Condition 19 (Meetings of Noteholders, Modification, Waiver and Authorisation), without the consent of Noteholders, Couponholders or, in respect of a Series of Secured Notes, any Series Secured Party, agree to any modification of, or to the waiver or authorisation of any breach or proposed breach of, the Conditions, the Note Trust Deed or any other Programme Document or determine that any Potential Event of Default or Event of Default shall not be treated as such (subject to the proviso in Condition 19.2) or consent to any modification which, in its opinion, is of a formal, minor or technical nature or to correct a manifest error or an error which is, in the opinion of the Note Trustee, proven. In the case of Secured Notes, no modification shall be made to Condition 4.2 (Security - Post-enforcement) without the consent of each Series Secured Party.
Rating:	Series of Notes issued under the Programme may be rated or unrated. Where a Series of Notes is rated, such rating will be disclosed in the applicable Final Terms and will not necessarily be the same as the ratings assigned to the Programme. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

Listing:	Application has been made for Notes issued under the Programme to be listed on the London Stock Exchange. Notes may be listed or admitted to trading, as the case may be, on other or further stock exchanges or markets agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer in relation to the Series. Notes which are neither listed nor admitted to trading on any market may also be issued. The applicable Final Terms will state whether or not the relevant Notes are to be listed and/or admitted to trading and, if so, on which stock exchanges and/or markets.
Governing Law:	The Notes and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Notes will be governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, English law.
Selling Restrictions:	There are restrictions on the offer, sale and transfer of the Notes in the United States, the EEA (including Belgium), the UK, Japan, Australia, Hong Kong, Republic of Korea, Switzerland, Singapore and such other restrictions as may be required in connection with the offering and sale of a particular Tranche of Notes, see "Subscription and Sale".
United States Selling Restrictions:	Regulation S, Category 2. TEFRA C or TEFRA D, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

RISK FACTORS

In purchasing Notes, investors assume the risk that the Issuer may become insolvent or otherwise be unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. There is a wide range of factors which individually or together could result in the Issuer becoming unable to make all payments due. The Issuer may not be aware of all relevant factors and certain factors which it currently deems not to be material may become material as a result of the occurrence of events outside the Issuer's control. The Issuer has identified in this Base Offering Circular a number of factors which could materially adversely affect its business and ability to make payments due.

In addition, factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with Notes issued under the Programme are also described below.

Prospective investors should also read the detailed information set out elsewhere in this Base Offering Circular and reach their own views prior to making any investment decision.

FACTORS WHICH MAY AFFECT THE ISSUER'S ABILITY TO FULFIL ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE NOTES

Risks related to the Group's Operations

Risks related to Renovation, Maintenance and Modernisation Programmes

In order to comply with regulatory requirements such as the Decent Homes Standard (see "Description of the Social Housing Sector in England – Housing Quality Standards" below) and those targets set out in the Group's corporate strategy, the Group invests a significant amount in its property stock on an annual basis. The Group's financial plan provides circa £2,199 million for investment in existing stock (routine, planned and major repairs) through to the financial year ending 31 March 2031, inclusive of funds provided for fire safety (see "Risks related to Health and Safety Regulations") and energy efficiency improvements (see "Risks related to Zero Carbon Targets").

New regulations, for example, with regard to building safety (see "Risks related to Health and Safety Regulations") and climate change (see "Risks related to Zero Carbon Targets"), may significantly impact the required levels of spending on existing properties in the future. If the Group was faced with high unforeseen renovation, maintenance and modernisation costs and is unable to increase the rents to recoup the increased value associated with such renovations, this could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, financial condition and/or prospects that, in turn, could adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Meeting budgets and deadlines for renovation, maintenance and modernisation projects often depends on accurate information regarding the Group's properties and, where applicable, on the reliability of third party contractors. Accurate construction, historical and other related information for properties is not always available. If, for example, any of the Group's real estate is found to breach UK Building Regulations or was built using defective or other inappropriate materials (see "Risks related to Health and Safety Regulations", "Risks related to Legal and Compliance" and "Risks related to Regulation"), the Group could incur substantial unbudgeted costs to remediate the problem and potentially suffer material reputational damage.

Routine or unforeseen renovation, maintenance or modernisation projects that are delayed by, for example, the bankruptcy of a general contractor, may cause the Group to exceed a budget or deadline and there is a risk that properties could become vacant during the same period. Furthermore, renovation, maintenance and modernisation costs are subject to inflation, particularly in the current economic climate in the UK (see "Risks related to the Cost of Living"). If the Group was faced with high unforeseen renovation, maintenance and modernisation costs and is unable to increase the rents to recoup the increased value associated with such renovations, this could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, financial condition and/or prospects that, in turn, could adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Following the death of Awaab Ishak in December 2020 from a respiratory condition largely caused by exposure to untreated mould in his socially-rented home, the problem of damp and mould in social housing was brought to the forefront of the political agenda and new legislation known as "Awaab's Law" came into force in October 2025 (see "Description of the Social Housing Sector in England – Housing Quality Standards" below).

Since 2020, the Issuer has implemented a Healthy Homes programme which focuses on tackling the root cause of damp and mould. The Issuer complies with the requirements of Phase 1 of Awaab's Law and recognises the importance of complying with all future phases and legislative requirements.

Should the Group incur any unexpected significant costs and/or should it fail to comply with any regulatory obligations in relation to damp and mould, this could have an adverse impact on the Group's cash flow and, in turn, the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to Health and Safety Regulations

See "Description of the Social Housing Sector – Building Safety" and "Description of the Social Housing Sector – Fire Safety Order" below.

Several changes have been made to building regulations, which have led to and could lead to further increases in the cost of construction of new homes or to additional costs in relation to the refurbishment or adaptation of existing homes, including the remediation of tower blocks where the Issuer has responsibility.

As at the date of this Base Offering Circular, the Group's building safety inspection programme had inspected all 2,189 buildings (both high and low-rise) for which the Group has an External Wall System repairing obligation. 237 buildings have been identified as requiring remediation with works started on 48 buildings and completed on 110 buildings. The Group applies a risk-based approach to its inspection programme. Where buildings that are lower than 18 metres in height are considered a higher risk due to the presence of combustible materials, the Group carries out a full intrusive inspection. Where buildings have been found to be of a lower risk, in line with guidance notes as issued by the Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government, the Group will inspect these buildings through its regular programme of fire risk assessments. The Issuer has processes in place to ensure all fire risk assessments (FRAs) remain up to date for buildings where it is the responsible person under legislation. For buildings over 18 metres, the FRA is reviewed on an annual basis.

Where remediation is shown to be required, the Group will take all available steps to reclaim these costs from developers, insurers and Government funding schemes where available. Where fire safety remediation works are required in buildings built by Quadrant Construction Services Limited (QCS), the costs of remediation will be fully met by the Group with assistance from Homes England through its Cladding Safety Scheme.

There is a risk that invasive surveys could uncover significant building defects that could give rise to the need for significant investment in existing stock. In addition, there is reputational risk associated with "mortgage prisoners" in leasehold buildings despite the Group being able to recharge some elements of these costs. Furthermore, there are supply chain risks around the availability of suitable contractors and consultants and the availability of core materials which could cause delays and cost inflation.

There is a risk that the Group's insurers do not insure properties that require fire safety remediation. The Group's existing insurers are supportive and are maintaining full cover on properties even where there are deficiencies. This is dependent upon the Group fully complying with disclosure obligations and committing to rectify fire safety defects beyond just those that are deemed life safety critical (PAS 9980).

The Group's financial plan provides £190 million through to the financial year ending 31 March 2031 (before potential recovery) to support mitigation measures across the entire portfolio to ensure resident safety. These measures will involve a rolling programme of works conducted over a multi-year period covering, where applicable, replacement and remediation to address, for example, compartmentation defects and inadequate cavity barriers. In addressing the requirements of the relevant legislation and the UK Government's building safety proposals, the Group may face costs which could impact upon the Group's cash flow and the Issuer's ability to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to Insurance

See "Description of the Social Housing Sector in England – Insurance" below.

As a result of the recent uncertainty in the property insurance market, the Issuer or the Group could experience difficulty in obtaining insurance on buildings, particularly high-rise blocks, or face material price increases in the premiums payable to insurers. In an extreme scenario, the Issuer could find itself uninsured and therefore trigger breaches under its external funding agreements.

If the costs of insuring its properties are significant, or if the Issuer finds it is not possible to obtain insurance, this could have an adverse impact on the Group's cash flow and, in turn, the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to Zero Carbon Targets

A main theme related to stock condition is UK zero carbon targets. On 3 December 2020, the UK announced ambitious new targets, setting it on the path to net zero carbon emissions by 2050. The plan aims for at least a 68 per cent. reduction in greenhouse gas emissions by the end of the decade, compared to 1990 levels. As a large producer of carbon emissions, the social housing sector will need to make significant investments to meet the zero carbon target. In April 2026, the UK Government announced the introduction of minimum energy efficiency standards (MEES) in the social rented sector (see "Description of the Social Housing Sector in England – Energy reform, Climate Change, "Net Zero" – Targets and the Impact on the Social Housing Sector" below).

The Group's financial plan provides £8 million through to the financial year ending 31 March 2027 for energy efficiency measures to meet EPC C by 2030, as well as c.£7 million for measures which will improve performance through Decent Homes and other maintenance programmes (see "Risks related to Renovation, Maintenance and Modernisation Programmes"). This will contribute towards the achievement of the Group's Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) targets under legislation and support its aspiration to reduce emissions of homes in line with a medium and long-term net zero pathway. The Group aims for all new homes to achieve a minimum EPC rating of B and monitors progress against this performance metric. The Group is reviewing the full implications of the introduction of MEES in the social housing sector and additional investment will be made where required to comply with all relevant legislation.

In 2021, the UK Government launched a Future Buildings Standard consultation which included proposals to improve standards when works such as refurbishment are carried out in existing homes. The Future Homes and Buildings Standards will be implemented by way of the Building Regulations etc. (Amendment) (England) Regulations 2026 and come into effect from March 2027. The Future Homes and Buildings Standards will ensure that new homes are built with low carbon heating and high levels of energy efficiency (see "Description of the Social Housing Sector in England – Energy reform, Climate Change, "Net Zero" – Targets and the Impact on the Social Housing Sector" below). The regulations are not currently understood to apply retrospectively. If, in the future, the requirements were changed to apply retrospectively then the Group's costs may rise.

The extent of investment required for the Group to meet longer-term government targets and to comply with emerging or future environmental legislation is unknown. If the Group was faced with material costs in this regard, this could have an adverse impact on the Issuer's cash flows and ability to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to Procurement

See "Description of the Social Housing Sector in England – Reform of the UK Public Procurement Regime" below.

The Procurement Act 2023 received royal assent in October 2023 and came into force on 24 February 2025, introducing a new procurement regime with enhanced obligations for contracting authorities. The Issuer and the Group have updated internal procedures to support compliance with the new requirements. While the increased volume of notices and procedural obligations may cause some delays in procurement activities and require additional resources, the Procurement Act 2023 also mandates 30-day payment terms for public contracts, implied even if not expressly stated, and requires authorities to publish compliance notices, reinforcing timely supplier payments. In addressing the requirements of the Procurement Act 2023 and related rules, the Group may face costs which could impact upon its cash flow and the Issuer's ability to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to Operations

Operational risks may result from major systems failure or breaches in systems security and the consequences of theft, fraud, health and safety and environmental issues, natural disaster and acts of terrorism. Any such events could adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its obligations under the Notes and/or the market value of the Notes in the secondary market.

Risks related to Key Personnel

The Group's success depends upon the continuing services, and where necessary recruitment of the members of its senior management team and other key personnel. If one or more senior executives or other key personnel are unable or unwilling to continue in their present positions, the Group may not be able to replace them easily or at all. As a result the Group's business may be disrupted and its financial condition and results of operations may be materially affected. Competition for senior management and key personnel is high, the pool of qualified candidates is limited and the Group may not be able to retain the services of its senior executives or key personnel or attract and retain high-quality new senior executives or key personnel. If any key personnel leave and carry on any activities in competition with the Group, it may lose other staff members, and legal remedies against such individuals may be limited. In addition, the lack of succession planning, the loss of suitably qualified employees, a reduction in the labour force or the inability to hire and retain suitably qualified replacements, could impair the Group's ability to execute its business plan and achieve its objectives, leading to problems with employee morale.

Risks related to Business Acquisitions

The Group has made in the past, and may make in the future, business acquisitions that could impact on the performance and risk profile of the Group.

Acquisitions can involve a number of risks, such as the underlying business performing less well than expected after an acquisition, the possibility of the integration diverting management's attention or the possible loss of key personnel (see "Risks related to Key Personnel") within the acquired business and other risks inherent in the systems of the acquired business and associated with unanticipated events or liabilities. All of these factors could have a material effect on the business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects of the subsidiaries that, in turn, could have a material adverse effect on the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to Market and Development

While the Issuer is primarily, and will continue to be, a provider of affordable housing, it undertakes diversified residential property investment activities in the form of non-social housing activities (outright sale (including those conducted in joint ventures), land sales, resales and other non-social activity) and non-social housing lettings (student accommodation, market rent, non-social homeowners, commercial and other tenures) primarily through its wholly-owned subsidiaries (see "Risks related to the Issuer's Investments" below) where, in each case, the profits of the subsidiary are gift aided to the Issuer as a means of recycling capital for the provision of affordable housing.

Residential property investment is subject to varying degrees of market and development risks, including both demand and pricing risks. Market values of properties are generally affected by overall conditions in the economy; political factors and systemic events, including the condition of the financial markets; the cost and availability of finance to businesses and consumers; fiscal and monetary policies; changes in UK Government legislation; political developments, including changes in regulatory or tax regimes; changes in unemployment, gilt yields, interest rates and credit spreads; levels of prevailing inflation; changes in consumer spending; an increase in the supply of, or a reduction in demand for, residential property; infrastructure quality; the returns from alternative assets as compared to residential property; environmental considerations; changes in planning laws and practices; and the perceived threat from terrorism. Residential real estate values and rental revenues are also affected by factors specific to each local market in which the property is located, including the supply of available property and demand for residential real estate and the availability of mortgage finance to prospective purchasers.

For the year ended 31 March 2026, non-social housing activities generated 7 per cent. of the turnover of the Group and -7 per cent. of the Group's EBITDA. For the year ended 31 March 2026, non-social housing lettings generated 9 per cent. of the Group's turnover and 11 per cent. of the Group's EBITDA. As at 31 March 2026, the Group had a development pipeline, inclusive of land options and developments in joint ventures, of 6,713 properties of which 79 per cent. is on site. The Group expects approximately 61 per cent. of those properties in the development pipeline to be for the tenures of market rent or outright sale.

The Group's future income and profitability is therefore exposed to market and development risk including both demand and pricing risks. This, in turn, could impact on the Group's cash flow and the ability of the Issuer to satisfy any covenants which it is required to maintain pursuant to the terms of existing financing arrangements, including its obligations under the Notes.

Risks related to the Issuer's Investments

Risks related to the Sale of Properties and Private Rental Income

The Issuer is exposed to cash flow, profits and associated risks from the sale of properties and from market rental units that are both dependent on economic conditions and the residential real estate market primarily through its investment in two wholly owned subsidiaries of the Issuer, L&Q New Homes Limited (NHL) and THT Developments Limited (THTD). NHL's prime activity is the development of property for open market sale, either directly or conducted through joint ventures. THTD's prime activity is the development of residential, commercial and community property, either directly or conducted through joint ventures. In each case, the profits of the subsidiary are gift aided to the Issuer. Up until the sale of L&Q PRS Co Ltd (PRS) in June 2026, PRS also exposed the Issuer to such risks from the provision of properties at full market rent.

For the year ended 31 March 2026, the sale of properties generated 6 per cent. of the turnover of the Group and 2 per cent. of the Group's EBITDA. For the year ended 31 March 2026, the sale of properties in joint ventures generated -4 per cent. of the Group's EBITDA. For the year ended 31 March 2026, market rent properties generated 7 per cent. of the turnover of the Group and 16 per cent. of the Group's EBITDA-MRI. As at 31 March 2026, outright sales properties (inclusive of those conducted in joint ventures) accounted for approximately 61 per cent. and market rent properties accounted for approximately 0 per cent. of the Group's approved development programme.

The ability of NHL and THTD to generate revenue and cash flow from their activities depends on the existence of buyers willing to pay at the time the Group wishes to sell them and, in turn, depends upon overall economic conditions, the residential real estate market and other factors set out in "Risks related to Market and Development", including the availability of mortgage finance. If either NHL or THTD is unable to dispose of properties at attractive prices on a timely basis or at all, their revenue from property sales could decline substantially, which may have a material adverse effect on either NHL's or THTD's business, results of operations, financial condition or prospects. This, in turn, could have a material adverse effect on the value of the Issuer's investment in NHL and THTD and affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to Construction

As part of its ongoing tax planning strategy, the Issuer is exposed to its investment in QCS, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Issuer. QCS's primary activity is to procure construction and development services to the Group and its profits are gifted to the Issuer. QCS's ability to generate income and cash flow are generally affected by overall economic conditions, the residential real estate market and other factors set out in "Risks related to Market and Development".

Major, or a series of, health and safety incidents (see "Risks related to Legal, Compliance and Regulation"), incorrect assumptions, flawed assessments underlying cost estimates, higher-than-expected build cost inflation, material defects, sub-contractor risk and insufficient warranty coverage may have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations, financial condition and/or prospects of QCS. This, in turn, could have a material adverse effect on the value of the Issuer's investment in QCS that could affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to Asset Management

Risks related to Low-cost Home Ownership, Shared Equity and Asset Management

See "Description of the Social Housing Sector in England – Shared Ownership" below.

The Group receives income from low-cost home ownership (also commonly known as shared ownership) sales, the redemption of shared equity properties and the sale of properties pursuant to its asset management arrangements all of which are subject to housing market risk.

For the year ended 31 March 2026, low-cost home ownership first tranche sales generated 7 per cent. of the Group's turnover and 0 per cent. of the Group's EBITDA. As at 31 March 2026, low-cost home ownership accounts for approximately 8 per cent. of the Group's approved development programme.

The Group also receives income generated from staircasings (as defined below) of shared ownership properties, the redemption of shared equity properties and income from the sale of fixed asset and investment properties as part of its ongoing asset management strategy. For the year ended 31 March 2026, the disposal of fixed assets and investments generated 39 per cent. of the Group's EBITDA.

Each of these markets is exposed to housing market risk, including both demand and pricing risks (see "Risks related to Market and Development") that could, in turn, impact upon the Group's cash flow and the Issuer's ability to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to UK Government policy: 'Right to Buy'

See "Description of the Social Housing Sector in England – Right to Buy" below.

The proposals as to how the extension of right to buy is introduced, whether voluntarily or through legislation, are still at an early stage and therefore it is difficult to determine with any certainty exactly how these proposals could impact on the Issuer and the Group. The proposals could have an adverse impact on the Group's longer-term rental cash flow which, in turn, could affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to the Cost of Living

Russia invaded Ukraine in February 2022. While the business of the Issuer is focused on providing social housing in the UK, the direct impact of the invasion on the Issuer and the Group is aligned to the impact on the world economy and financial markets. Oil and gas prices increased due to the invasion and, along with post Covid-19 shocks to the global supply chain, this led to a period of rising inflation. In October 2023, the Palestinian militant group Hamas launched an attack on Israel which, in turn, triggered an Israeli operation in the Gaza strip. There has also been conflict between Israel and the Lebanese militant group, Hezbollah, leading to an Israeli invasion of Lebanon on 1 October 2024. In June 2025, Israel carried out attacks on Iranian military and nuclear facilities, resulting in retaliatory strikes by Iran and subsequent military action by the United States against Iranian nuclear facilities. Whilst Israel and Iran agreed to a ceasefire and there have since been temporary truces, the situation remains volatile. The continuance or escalation of these conflicts, including further hostilities involving Iran, Israel and the United States, particularly if this leads to further unrest in the Middle East, could lead to further increases in utility prices and heightened inflationary pressures (particularly if supplies to Europe are interrupted), which could put the business of the Issuer under financial strain. Rising inflation has affected and will continue to affect the Issuer's tenants and their ability to meet energy bills and rent obligations, which may increase rental arrears and bad debts.

Such consequences of the invasions, and others that cannot yet be anticipated, could adversely affect the business of the Issuer, and/or the value of Sterling and market liquidity, and thus impact on the Issuer's ability to meet payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes and/or the market value and/or the liquidity of the Notes in the secondary market.

Risks relating to the outbreak of severe communicable disease

The outbreak, or threatened outbreak, of any severe communicable disease may adversely and temporarily affect the business, results of operations, financial condition and/or prospects of the Issuer. At the date of this Base Offering Circular the Issuer has taken, and continues to take, preparations and precautions to address the impact of coronavirus on its operations, financial condition and prospects and the potential impact on its workforce, residents and tenants, and will continuously monitor the situation to ensure those preparations and precautions are regularly updated as necessary having regard to national scientific and health advice.

The Issuer's profits and the value of its investments as set out in "Risks related to the Issuer's Investments" may decline during any such outbreak and recovery period. This may adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its obligations under the Notes and/or the market value and/or the liquidity of the Notes in the secondary market.

Risks related to Credit Ratings, Capital Resources and Pensions

Risks related to Interest Rates

The Group is subject to adverse interest rate movements that could lead to an increase in the cost of borrowing. The Group's interest rate risk arises from the risk of fluctuations in interest charges on floating rate borrowings. Although the Group seeks to manage this risk in accordance with its hedging strategy through the use of variable to fixed interest rate swaps, this strategy may result in volatility in the Group's net assets and surpluses caused by marking to market these derivative contracts at each balance sheet date. In addition, there is a risk that the Group is unable to provide collateral against its mark-to-market derivatives that could have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial condition and, in turn, the Issuer's ability to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

As at 31 March 2026, 54 per cent. of the Group's total outstanding debt facilities were fixed, and 67 per cent. of the Group's total drawn loan facilities (total bank loans and overdrafts, debenture loans but excluding net issue premium and loan fair value adjustments) were fixed.

Risks related to Credit Ratings

The ongoing creditworthiness of the Issuer depends on many factors, including the link to UK Government, industry, competitive, financial and operational performance, economic factors, the level of drawn debt and available liquidity, the ability to access new debt and the strength of the Group's management and governance structure. Actual deterioration or a perceived deterioration in any of these factors or a combination of these factors may result in a downgrade in the Issuer's perceived creditworthiness as indicated by the Issuer's issued credit ratings that could, in turn, cause the trading price of the Notes to decline and, consequently, may result in a loss of all or part of an investment in the Notes. In addition, the Conditions of the Notes permit the Issuer to undertake Permitted Reorganisations (as defined below). In such circumstances and where material, the resulting entity's credit risk may change which could adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations under the Notes.

Risks related to Capital Resources

The ability of the Group to operate its business depends in part on it being able to raise funds. An increase in the cost, or lack of availability, of finance could impact the Group's ability to progress its business objects, deliver the expected rates of return on investments and the day-to-day financing (or refinancing) requirements of the Group's business over the longer term. Any material increase in the cost of financing or any decrease in the availability of financing on reasonable terms could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, operations, financial condition and/or prospects and, in turn, the Issuer's ability to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes. As at 31 March 2026, the Group had £6,447 million of outstanding loan facilities (total bank loans and overdrafts, debenture loans but excluding net issue premium and loan fair value adjustments) of which £6,147 million was held by the Issuer and £300 million by PRS. As at 31 March 2026, the Group had £5,132 million of drawn loan facilities (total bank loans and overdrafts, debenture loans but excluding net issue premium and loan fair value adjustments) of which £4,832 million was drawn by the Issuer and £300 million drawn by PRS. The PRS debt has since been sold along with the sale of the wider PRS business in June 2026.

In addition, the Group is subject to the risk that it will be unable to generate sufficient cash flows, or be unable to obtain sufficient funding, to satisfy its obligations to service and/or refinance its indebtedness. Further, any covenants contained in the Group's borrowing arrangements, including the Notes, may limit or prohibit the Group's operational and financial flexibility. Any event of default, cross default, breach of a covenant or the inability to remedy, vary or waive any covenants could generally have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations, financial condition and/or prospects and, in turn, the Issuer's ability to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to Housing Grant

See "Description of the Social Housing Sector in England – Social Housing Rents" below.

Any material repayment of historical grant funding held on the Group's balance sheet has the potential to impact on the Group's cash flow which could, in turn, materially increase the Issuer's net debt position and thus its ability to satisfy any obligations which it is required to comply with pursuant to the terms of existing financing arrangements. In turn, this could adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations under the Notes.

As at 31 March 2026, the Group had received £3,987 million of housing grant funding and the Group held £78 million of recycled capital grant funding and nothing in its disposals proceeds fund.

The increased competition, the increased need for bidders to provide evidence regarding timescale compliance and the possible future reduction in grants could result in a reduced overall amount of grant funding being allocated to the Group and, accordingly, the Group may seek to increase commercial activity (see "Risks related to Market and Development") to subsidise affordable housing and/or the Group may have to increase net debt (see "Risks related to Capital Resources"), each of which may have a corresponding effect on the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to Pensions

The Group provides retirement benefits to certain of its former and current employees through a number of defined benefit schemes, including the London & Quadrant Housing Trust Staff Benefits Plan, the Local Government Pension Scheme administered by The London Borough of Waltham Forest and the Local Government Pension Scheme administered by Tameside Metropolitan Borough Council (together, the Defined Benefit Pension Scheme). The Group exited the Local Government Pension Scheme administered by Buckinghamshire Council in February 2026. There are 88 active members in the Defined Benefit Pension Scheme and each Defined Benefit Pension Scheme is closed to new members.

As at 31 March 2026, the net pension asset assessed on an FRS102 basis for the Defined Benefit Pension Scheme was £5 million. The Defined Benefit Pension Scheme contributions, including deficit contributions, made by the Group were £4 million in the year ended 31 March 2026.

The Group also participates in the Social Housing Pension Scheme (SHPS), a multi-employer plan which has a defined benefit and defined contribution section. The defined benefit section is closed to new employees of the Group but 11 active members remain within this section. The Group's pension liability under the defined benefit section for SHPS assessed on an FRS102 basis was £9 million as at 31 March 2026 and the SHPS contributions, including deficit contributions, made by the Group were £4 million in the year ended 31 March 2026. The last formal valuation of SHPS was conducted as at 30 September 2023.

If the market value of the pension scheme's assets declines in relation to the assessed liabilities, which depends on, among other things, the real returns that can be obtained from the assets, the longevity of its members, the rate of increase of salaries, discount rate assumptions and inflation, or if the trustees or the Pensions Regulator determines that the Issuer's liabilities require a different approach to contributions and deficit reduction, the Issuer may be required to increase its contributions which could have an adverse impact on the Issuer's financial condition and, in turn, its ability to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to Social Rental Income

Risks related to Social Housing Rents

As at 31 March 2026, the Group had 86,626 social housing properties (general needs, affordable rents, intermediate market rent, supported housing, care homes, key worker accommodation, low-cost home ownership and shared equity tenures) and social housing properties accounted for approximately 39 per cent. of the Group's approved development programme. For the year ended 31 March 2026, social housing lettings generated 76 per cent. of the Group's turnover and 50 per cent. of the Group's EBITDA-MRI. Other social housing activities (care and support, low-cost home ownership first tranche sales, development and marketing costs, community investment and other social housing activities) generated 8 per cent. of the Group's turnover and 45 per cent. (including the surplus on disposal of fixed assets and investments) of the Group's EBITDA-MRI.

The tenants of the social housing properties of the Issuer are personally responsible for the rental payments on the relevant occupied properties, and consequently the Group is exposed to the risk of arrears and bad debts. Such exposure is at further risk during times of rising inflation (see "Risks related to the Cost of Living"). As at 31 March 2026, the Group's current tenant arrears balance was £53 million, of which £10 million has been fully provided for. As at 31 March 2026, current tenant arrears were 5.62 per cent.

The rate at which social housing rents may increase over time is governed by the Rent Standard, which currently allows for an annual increase of up to CPI plus 1 per cent. and, as announced as part of the UK Government's Spending Review on 11 June 2025, will continue as such until 31 March 2036.

The Group receives a material proportion of its social rental income from housing benefit and universal credit payable by local authorities. For the year ended 31 March 2026, net rents from social housing lettings was £744 million of which £210 million (27 per cent. of the Group's net rents from social housing lettings) was received in the form of housing benefit or universal credit. The Welfare Reform and Work Act 2016 incorporates a series of welfare reforms that make provisions on social housing rents, the household benefit cap and social security and tax credits that expose the Group to the risk of a reduction in rental income and an increase in arrears.

Any reduction in social rental income, the ability to apply future rental increases or any significant exposure to arrears and bad debts could have an adverse impact on the Group's cash flow that could adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to Welfare Reform: Universal Credit

See "Description of the Social Housing Sector in England – Universal Credit" below.

The continued implementation of Universal Credit is likely to increase transaction costs and the receipt of rental payments by the Group may be delayed by in-built mechanisms in the payment of Universal Credit and/or the failure of the tenant to apply for Universal Credit and/or regularly pay rent which is due in addition to the housing benefit and/or, in circumstances where the housing benefit is not paid directly, a failure to pass on the housing benefit payments. In such circumstances, non-payment, partial payment or any delay in payment of rent could increase Group rental income arrears and bad debts, and could affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to Legal, Compliance and Regulation

Risks related to Legal and Compliance

The Issuer knows the significance to its operations of, and is focused on, adhering to all legal and compliance legislation, in particular those in relation to health and safety (see "Risks related to Health and Safety Regulations") including gas safety, fire safety, damp and mould, asbestos and legionella. Any material failure to adhere to applicable health and safety or environmental laws, litigation or breach of regulatory laws, or failure to comply with corporate, employee or taxation laws could have an adverse impact on the Group's results of operations and, in turn, the Issuer's ability to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Change in UK Government Policy on Tax and National Insurance

The current economic environment and any changes to UK Government policy on tax and national insurance could affect the Issuer or the Group. Any unanticipated additional or increased taxes could have an effect on the finances of the Group. As an employer, the Issuer is required to calculate and pay National Insurance contributions in respect of the earnings of its employees. From 6 April 2025 the employers' National Insurance rate went up from 13.8 per cent. to 15 per cent. Additionally, any changes to UK tax policy could affect some of the Issuer's tenants and their ability to meet rent obligations, which may increase rental arrears. In such circumstances, increased costs and/or an increase in rental income arrears and bad debts could adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to cybercrime and data protection

The Group collects, stores and processes large amounts of financial personal and sensitive personal data from customers, employees and business partners. There is a risk that this data could be "locked", stolen, corrupted and/or intentionally or unintentionally misused as a result of internal or external threat actors. Threats include but are not limited to ransomware attacks, data compromise through phishing, malicious insider activity and others. The loss and/or compromise of data and systems access, particularly after a ransomware attack could lead to significant operational challenges and costs. This could put pressure on the Issuer's resources in order to combat or react to such activities, which could have an adverse impact on the Group's results of operations and, in turn, the Issuer's ability to meet its payment obligations on a timely basis under the Notes.

Risks related to Environmental considerations

Under relevant UK environmental legislation, liability for environmental matters can be imposed on the "owner" or "person in control" of land. The term "owner" is not specifically defined and could include anyone with a proprietary interest in a property, which could include a representative of a trustee as a mortgagee in possession (in respect of which see the risk factor entitled "Mortgagee in Possession Liability" below). Environmental laws may impose liability on the owner for clean-up costs if a property is or becomes contaminated. The Issuer or, in the case of Secured Notes, a Charging Subsidiary may therefore be liable for the entire amount of the clean-up and redemption costs for a contaminated site regardless of whether the contamination was caused by it or not. These costs, if material, may affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations under the Notes.

In addition, the presence of hazardous or toxic substances, or the failure to adequately remedy adverse environmental conditions at a Charged Property (in the case of Secured Notes), may adversely affect the market value of the Charged Property, as well as the Issuer's or a Charging Subsidiary's ability to sell, lease or refinance the Charged Property. Any environmental liability imposed on the Issuer could, if material, affect its ability to meet its payment obligations under the Notes.

Risks related to Regulation

See "Description of the Social Housing Sector in England – Regulation" below.

Any breach of new or existing regulations could lead to the exercise of the Regulator of Social Housing's statutory powers. The Regulator of Social Housing publishes guidance on how it regulates. In practice, use of statutory powers is rare. Serious non-compliance with the economic standard is more likely to lead to a downgrade of the Regulator of Social Housing's published regulatory judgement and agreement with the Regulator of Social Housing of the corrective action to be taken. Any such intervention by the Regulator of Social Housing in respect of the Issuer may adversely impact its ability to meet its payment obligations under the Notes.

In response to the social housing White Paper, the Regulator of Social Housing introduced a new Standard on tenant satisfaction measures, which came into force in 2023. The Tenant Satisfaction Measures Standard requires Registered Providers of Social Housing to collect and (annually) report prescribed and meaningful tenant satisfaction data, enabling both tenants and the Regulator of Social Housing to better hold social landlords to account for their performance.

The Social Housing (Regulation) Act 2023 (SHRA 2023) strengthened the role of the Housing Ombudsman in order to provide tenants with a means of complaint and redress for inadequate housing provision by Registered Providers of Social Housing. The Housing Ombudsman's Complaints Handling Code (the Code) became statutory on 1 April 2024 and forms part of the legal framework within which landlords are required to handle complaints. Registered Providers of Social Housing are required to comply with the Code and submit an annual compliance assessment to the Housing Ombudsman.

These measures have increased legislative and regulatory obligations on the Issuer in relation to health and safety matters in recent years and also place further reporting obligations on the Issuer in terms of its communications with tenants. It is likely that there will continue to be associated costs for the Issuer in complying with these measures.

Any breach of the measures could lead to the exercise of the Regulator of Social Housing's statutory powers. The SHRA 2023 strengthened the Regulator of Social Housing's enforcement and investigatory powers, including by the removal of the cap on the level of fines it may impose. Any such intervention by the Regulator of Social Housing in respect of the Issuer may affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations under the Notes.

On 27 August 2025, the Regulator of Social Housing published a regulatory judgement for the Issuer which concluded that each of the governance, viability and consumer standards were met and graded the Issuer "G2" for governance, "V2" for viability and "C2" for consumer standards. Further detail is provided in the section headed "Description of the Issuer" below.

FACTORS WHICH ARE MATERIAL FOR THE PURPOSE OF ASSESSING THE MARKET RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH NOTES ISSUED UNDER THE PROGRAMME

Risks related to the structure of a particular issue of Notes

A range of Notes may be issued under the Programme. A number of these Notes may have features which contain particular risks for potential investors. Set out below is a description of the most common such features:

Index-Linked Notes

Index-Linked Notes may be issued on terms that the amount of interest payable on each interest payment date and/or the amount to be repaid upon redemption of the Notes will be calculated by reference to movements in the United Kingdom Consumer Prices Index (CPI) or the United Kingdom Consumer Prices Index including owner occupier's housing costs (CPIH) (each, an Index) during a reference period. Indices may go down as well as up.

Where Notes are issued, in respect of which the amount of interest payable is subject to adjustment by reference to an Index, a decrease in the Index over the reference period will reduce the interest amount for the relevant interest payment. In a deflationary environment, the annual interest received may be lower than the specified rate of interest.

Where the amount payable upon redemption of the Notes is subject to adjustment by reference to an Index, a decrease in the Index over the reference period may reduce the amount to be repaid upon redemption of the Notes to less than the nominal amount of the Notes or even zero, unless the applicable Final Terms specifies a minimum redemption amount which is equal to or higher than the nominal amount of the Notes. As a result, investors may lose part of their investment or, in the worst case, their entire invested amount.

The methodology used by the Office for National Statistics for calculating CPI or CPIH may change over time. Such a change in the methodology for calculating CPI or CPIH may affect the actual CPI or CPIH figure. Consequently, the amount of interest payable on each interest payment date and/or the amount to be repaid upon redemption of Index-Linked Notes may increase, or decrease, as a result of such a change to the CPI or CPIH methodology or basis of the calculation of the applicable index.

Condition 8.7(ii) provides that in the case of a fundamental change to the coverage or the basic calculation of the relevant Index in certain specified circumstances, adjustments to such Index may be made, or a substitute index (with or without adjustments) may be agreed.

At the time of issue of any Index-Linked Notes, the applicability or non-applicability of Condition 8.7(ii) in the case of a fundamental change to the Index may have a positive or negative impact on the amount of interest payable on each interest payment date and/or the amount to be repaid upon redemption of Index-Linked Notes. Each investor should consider carefully, and seek independent financial advice on, the impact of such changes on their investment.

An optional redemption feature may limit the market value of the Notes

An optional redemption feature is likely to limit the market value of Notes. During any period when the Issuer may elect to redeem Notes, the market value of those Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This also may be true prior to any redemption period. The Issuer may be expected to redeem Notes when its cost of borrowing is lower than the interest rate on the Notes. At those times, an investor generally would not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

Notes which are issued at a substantial discount or premium may experience price volatility in response to changes in market interest rates

The market values of securities issued at a substantial discount (such as Zero Coupon Notes) or premium to their nominal amount tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do prices for more conventional interest-bearing securities. Generally, the longer the remaining term of such securities, the greater the price volatility as compared to more conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities.

Sustainability-Linked Bonds may not be a suitable investment for all investors seeking exposure to assets with sustainability characteristics

The Issuer may issue Sustainability-Linked Bonds (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes) under the Programme. Such Notes will contain certain triggers linked to one or more sustainability key performance indicators as further described in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes and as so specified in the applicable Final Terms. Although the interest rate relating to such Notes is subject to upward adjustment in the event that a key performance indicator condition is not satisfied (as more fully described in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes), such Notes may not satisfy an investor's requirements or any future legal or quasi-legal standards for investment in assets with sustainability characteristics. Sustainability-Linked Bonds will not be marketed as green, social or sustainability bonds since the Issuer expects to use the net proceeds for general corporate purposes and the net proceeds will not be subject to the limitations associated with green, social or sustainability bonds.

The interest rate adjustments in respect of Sustainability-Linked Bonds depend on the operation and interpretation of the definitions of the key performance indicators as so specified in the applicable Final Terms

(and other relevant definitions) that may be inconsistent with the requirements or expectations of investors. The Issuer has not obtained a third-party analysis of the definitions of KPI 1, KPI 2 or KPI 3 or how such definitions (or any other relevant definitions) relate to any sustainability-related standards other than a second party opinion provided by DNV Business Assurance Services UK Limited.

Although the Issuer targets compliance with the KPI 1 Condition, the KPI 2 Condition and the KPI 3 Condition, as so specified in the applicable Final Terms, there can be no assurance of the extent to which it will be successful in doing so and the Sole Arranger and the Dealers and their respective affiliates cannot guarantee the performance of (and offer no assurance in respect of) any key performance indicator. Similarly, there can be no assurance that any future actions it takes in furtherance of these targets will meet investor expectations or any binding or non-binding legal standards regarding sustainability performance, whether by any present or future applicable law or regulations or by investors' own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates, in particular with regard to any direct or indirect environmental, sustainability or social impact. Adverse environmental or social impacts may occur during the design, construction and operation of any actions the Group makes in furtherance of this target or such actions may become controversial or criticised by activist groups or other stakeholders.

No assurance or representation is given by the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates, the Note Trustee or any other person as to the suitability, adequacy or reliability for any purpose whatsoever of any opinion, report or certification of any third party (whether or not solicited by the Issuer) which may be made available in connection with Sustainability-Linked Bonds or any of KPI 1, KPI 2 or KPI 3 (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any second party opinions). For the avoidance of doubt, any such opinion, report or certification is not, nor shall it be deemed to be, incorporated in and/or form part of this Base Offering Circular. Any such opinion, report or certification is not, nor should it be deemed to be, a recommendation by the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates, the Note Trustee or any other person to buy, sell or hold such Notes. The Noteholders have no recourse against the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates, the Note Trustee or the provider of any such opinion, report or certification for the contents of any such opinion, report or certification. Any such opinion, report or certification is only current as at the date that opinion, report or certification was initially issued. Prospective investors must determine for themselves the relevance of any such opinion, report or certification and/or the information contained therein and/or the provider of such opinion, report or certification for the purpose of any investment in such Notes. Currently, the providers of such opinions, reports and certifications are not subject to any specific regulatory or other regime or oversight. The Sustainability Finance Framework (as defined in "Use of Proceeds and Sustainability Finance Framework" below) may be updated from time to time and none of the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or the Note Trustee assumes any obligation or responsibility to release any update or revision to the Sustainability Finance Framework and/or information to reflect events or circumstances after the date of publication of the Sustainability Finance Framework. The Sustainability Finance Framework is not, nor shall it be deemed to be, incorporated in and/or form part of this Base Offering Circular. Prospective investors should have regard to the information set out in this Base Offering Circular and the Sustainability Finance Framework and consult with their legal and other advisers before making an investment in such Notes and must determine for themselves the relevance of such information for the purpose of any such investment together with any other information such investor deems necessary. In the event that Sustainability-Linked Bonds are listed or admitted to trading on any dedicated "sustainable" or other equivalently-labelled segment of any stock exchange or securities market (whether or not regulated), no representation or assurance is given by the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates, the Note Trustee or any other person that such listing or admission satisfies, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor or its investments are required to comply, whether by any present or future applicable law or regulations or by its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates, in particular with regard to any direct or indirect sustainable impact of any projects or uses. Furthermore, it should be noted that the criteria for any such listings or admission to trading may vary from time to time and from one stock exchange or securities market to another. Nor is any representation or assurance given or made by the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates, the Note Trustee or any other person that any such listing or admission to trading will be obtained in respect of such Notes or, if obtained, that any such listing or admission to trading will be maintained during the life of such Notes.

In the event that Sustainability-Linked Bonds are no longer listed or admitted to trading on any stock exchange or securities market as aforesaid, this may have a material adverse effect on the value and/or liquidity of such Notes and/or result in adverse consequences for certain investors with portfolio mandates to invest in securities such as such Sustainability-Linked Bonds.

No event of default will occur under Sustainability-Linked Bonds, and the Issuer will not be required to repurchase or redeem such Notes, if the Issuer fails to satisfy any or all of the KPI 1 Condition, the KPI 2 Condition and/or the KPI 3 Condition, as so specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Sustainability-Linked Bonds include certain triggers linked to one or more sustainability key performance indicators

Under the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, Sustainability-Linked Bonds include certain triggers linked to one or more sustainability key performance indicators as further described in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes and as so specified in the applicable Final Terms. The Issuer is solely responsible for meeting such key performance indicators and the Sole Arranger and the Dealers and any of their respective affiliates do not assume any obligation or responsibility to monitor the performance of any key performance indicator nor will they verify or monitor any of the commitments set out in the Sustainability Finance Framework. The failure to meet these targets will result in an increase in the rate of interest on the Notes, which would increase the Group's cost of funding, and could have an adverse impact upon the Group, its business prospects, its results of operations or its reputation.

Under the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, the KPI 1 Baseline, if applicable, will be recalculated in line with the Group's Recalculation Policy (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes) which may include reflecting any significant or structural changes to the Group, or changes in carbon emissions reporting methodology. Any recalculation of the KPI 1 Baseline may increase the amount of greenhouse gas emissions comprising the KPI 1 Baseline, and therefore increase the total volume of greenhouse gas emissions that may be produced by the Group while still being able to satisfy the KPI 1 Condition and avoid the occurrence of a Step Up Event relating to KPI 1, where applicable, to such Sustainability-Linked Bonds. Any recalculation of the KPI 1 Baseline may impact, positively or negatively, the ability of the Issuer to satisfy the KPI 1 Condition, which could in turn adversely affect the market price of the Notes. The metrics relevant to KPI 2 and KPI 3, where applicable, will not be recalculated in any event.

The regulation and reform of "benchmarks" may adversely affect the value of Notes linked to or referencing such "benchmarks"

Interest rates and indices which are deemed to be "benchmarks", including the euro interbank offered rate (EURIBOR) are the subject of national and international regulatory guidance and reform aimed at supporting the transition to robust benchmarks. Most reforms have now reached their planned conclusion (including the transition away from LIBOR), and “benchmarks” remain subject to ongoing monitoring. These reforms may cause such benchmarks to perform differently than in the past, to disappear entirely, or have other consequences which cannot be predicted. Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on any Notes referencing such a benchmark.

Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 (as amended) (the EU Benchmarks Regulation) applies, subject to certain transitional provisions, to the provision of in-scope benchmarks, the contribution of input data to an in-scope benchmark and the use of an in-scope benchmark within the EU. Among other things, it (i) requires benchmark administrators to be authorised or registered (or, if non-EU based, to be subject to an equivalent regime or otherwise recognised or endorsed) and (ii) prevents certain uses by EU supervised entities of in-scope benchmarks of administrators that are not authorised or registered (or, if non-EU based, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed). Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 as it forms part of domestic law in the UK by virtue of the EUWA (the UK Benchmarks Regulation) among other things, applies to the provision of benchmarks and the use of a benchmark in the UK. Similarly, it prohibits the use in the UK by UK supervised entities of benchmarks of administrators that are not authorised by the FCA or registered on the FCA register (or, if non-UK based, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed).

The EU Benchmarks Regulation and/or the UK Benchmarks Regulation (the "Benchmarks Regulation Reforms"), as applicable, could have a material impact on any Notes linked to or referencing a benchmark which is in-scope of one or both regulations in particular, if the methodology or other terms of the benchmark are changed in order to comply with the requirements of the EU Benchmarks Regulation and/or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable. Such changes could, among other things, have the effect of reducing, increasing or otherwise affecting the volatility of the published rate or level of the relevant benchmark. Investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks imposed by the Benchmarks Regulation Reforms, investigations and licensing issues in making any investment decisions with respect to Notes linked to a "benchmark".

More broadly, any of the international or national reforms, or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of benchmarks, could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a benchmark and complying with any such regulations or requirements.

Such factors may have (without limitation) the following effects on certain benchmarks: (i) discouraging market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to a benchmark; (ii) triggering changes in the rules or methodologies used in the benchmark and/or (iii) leading to the disappearance of the benchmark. Any of the above changes or any other consequential changes as a result of international or national reforms or other initiatives or investigations, could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any Notes linked to, referencing, or otherwise dependent (in whole or in part) upon, a benchmark.

The Terms and Conditions of Notes provide for certain fallback arrangements in the event that an Original Reference Rate and/or any page on which an Original Reference Rate may be published (or any other successor service) becomes unavailable or a Benchmark Event (as defined in the Terms and Conditions) otherwise occurs. Such fallback arrangements include the possibility that the Rate of Interest could be set by reference to a Successor Rate or an Alternative Rate (both as defined in the Terms and Conditions), with the application of an Adjustment Spread and may include amendments to the Terms and Conditions of the Notes to ensure the proper operation of the new benchmark, all as determined by the Issuer (acting in good faith and in consultation with an Independent Adviser). An adjustment spread could be positive or negative or zero and would be applied with a view to reducing or eliminating, to the fullest extent reasonably practicable in the circumstances, any economic prejudice or benefit (as applicable) to investors arising out of the replacement of an Original Reference Rate. However, it may not be possible to determine or apply an Adjustment Spread and even if an Adjustment Spread is applied, such Adjustment Spread may not be effective to reduce or eliminate economic prejudice to investors. The use of a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and an Adjustment Spread will still result in any Notes linked to or referencing an Original Reference Rate performing differently (which may include payment of a lower Rate of Interest) than they would if the Original Reference Rate were to continue to apply in its current form. There is also a risk that the relevant fallback provisions may not operate as expected or intended at the relevant time.

Furthermore, in certain circumstances, the ultimate fallback for the purposes of calculation of the Rate of Interest for a particular Interest Period may result in the Rate of Interest for the last preceding Interest Period being used. This may result in the effective application of a fixed rate for Floating Rate Notes based on the rate which was last observed on the Relevant Screen Page.

The market continues to develop in relation to risk free rates (including overnight rates) as reference rates

Where the applicable Final Terms for a Series of Floating Rate Notes identifies that the Rate of Interest for such Notes will be determined by reference to SONIA, the Rate of Interest will be determined on the basis of Compounded Daily SONIA, or by reference to a specified index (all as further described in the Terms and Conditions). Such rates are based on 'overnight rates'. Overnight rates differ from interbank offered rates in a number of material respects, including (without limitation) that such rates are backwards-looking, risk free overnight rates. As such, investors should be aware that overnight rates may behave materially differently as interest reference rates for Notes issued under the Programme compared to interbank offered rates. The use of overnight rates as reference rates for Eurobonds is in its early stages, and is subject to change and development, both in terms of the substance of the calculation and in the development and adoption of market infrastructure for the issuance and trading of bonds referencing such overnight rates.

Accordingly, prospective investors in any Notes referencing any overnight rates should be aware that the market continues to develop in relation to such rates in the capital markets. Market participants, industry groups and/or central bank-led working groups continue to explore compounded and weighted average rates and observation methodologies for such rates (including so-called 'shift', 'lag', and 'lock-out' methodologies) and such groups may also explore forward-looking 'term' reference rates derived from these overnight rates.

The market or a significant part thereof may adopt overnight rates in a way that differs significantly from those set out in the Terms and Conditions issued under the Programme. In addition, the methodology for determining any overnight rate index by reference to which the Rate of Interest in respect of certain Notes may be calculated could change during the life of any Notes. Furthermore, the Issuer may in the future issue Notes referencing SONIA that differ materially in terms of interest determination when compared with any previous SONIA-referenced Notes issued by it under the Programme. The continued development of overnight rates as interest reference rates for the Eurobond markets and the market infrastructure for adopting such rates, could result in reduced liquidity or increased volatility or could otherwise adversely affect the market price of any such Notes issued under the Programme from time to time.

Furthermore, the Rate of Interest on Notes which reference overnight rates is only capable of being determined immediately prior to the relevant Interest Payment Date. It may be difficult for investors in Notes which reference overnight rates to estimate reliably the amount of interest which will be payable on such Notes, and some investors may be unable or unwilling to trade such Notes without changes to their IT systems, both of which factors could adversely impact the liquidity of such Notes. Further, if Notes referencing an overnight rate become due and payable as a result of an Event of Default under Condition 13, or are otherwise redeemed early on a date which is not an Interest Payment Date, the final Rate of Interest payable in respect of such Notes shall only be determined immediately prior to the date on which the Notes become due and payable.

Publication of SONIA in its current form began in April 2018 and it therefore has a limited history. The future performance of SONIA may therefore be difficult to predict based on the limited historical performance. The level of SONIA during the term of the Notes may bear little or no relation to historical levels. Prior observed patterns, if any, in the behaviour of market variables and their relation to SONIA such as correlations, may change in the future.

The Bank of England as administrator of SONIA may make methodological or other changes that could change the value of SONIA, including changes related to the method by which SONIA is calculated, eligibility criteria applicable to the transactions used to calculate SONIA, or timing related to the publication of SONIA. In addition, the administrator may alter, discontinue or suspend calculation or dissemination of SONIA (in which case a fallback method of determining the interest rate on the Notes will apply). The administrator has no obligation to consider the interests of Noteholders when calculating, adjusting, converting, revising or discontinuing SONIA.

In addition, the manner of adoption or application of overnight rates in the Eurobond markets may differ materially when compared with the application and adoption of the same overnight rates for the same currencies in other markets, such as the derivatives and loan markets. Investors should carefully consider how any mismatch between the adoption of overnight rates across these markets may impact any hedging or other financial arrangements which they may put in place in connection with any acquisition, holding or disposal of Notes referencing overnight rates.

Risks related to Sustainability Bonds

The Issuer may issue Sustainability Bonds (as defined in "Use of Proceeds and Sustainability Finance Framework" below) under the Programme. In the event that the Issuer issues Sustainability Bonds, it is the Issuer's intention that the net proceeds from the issue of such Sustainability Bonds will be used to finance and/or refinance, in part or in full, new and/or existing Eligible Projects that fall exclusively into Eligible Green Categories and/or Eligible Social Categories as set out in the Sustainability Finance Framework. The Sustainability Finance Framework is not, nor shall it be deemed to be, incorporated in and/or form part of this Base Offering Circular. Prospective investors should have regard to the information set out in this Base Offering Circular, the applicable Final Terms and the Sustainability Finance Framework regarding such use of proceeds and consult with their legal and other advisers before making an investment in any Sustainability Bonds and must determine for themselves the relevance of such information for the purpose of any such investment together with any other information such investor deems necessary.

No assurance is given by the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or any other person that the use of the proceeds of issue of any Sustainability Bonds will satisfy, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor or its investments are required to comply, whether by any present or future applicable law or regulations or by its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates, in particular with regard to any direct or indirect sustainability or social impact of any project(s) or uses, the subject of or related to, any such project(s). Neither the Sole Arranger nor any Dealer shall be responsible for the ongoing monitoring of the use of proceeds in respect of any Sustainability Bonds nor will they verify or monitor any of the commitments set out in the Sustainability Finance Framework relating to such Sustainability Bonds.

It should be noted that the definition (legal, regulatory or otherwise) of, or market consensus as to what constitutes or may be classified as, a "sustainable" or an equivalently-labelled project or investment that may finance such project is evolving. The FCA has introduced its anti-greenwashing rule which requires communications to be (a) consistent with the sustainability characteristics of the product or service and (b) fair, clear and not misleading. On 23 April 2024, the FCA published its "Finalised non-handbook guidance on the anti-greenwashing rule". The guidance refers to "sustainability characteristics" as being, in the FCA's view, "environmental or social characteristics", though also notes that there is no single definition of sustainability. Accordingly, no assurance is or can be given by the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or any other person to investors that any projects or uses of the proceeds will meet any or all investor expectations regarding such "sustainable" or other equivalently-labelled performance objectives or that any adverse sustainable and/or other impacts will not occur during the implementation of any projects or uses of the proceeds. In addition, no assurance can be given by the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or any other person to investors that any Sustainability Bonds will comply with any present or future standards or requirements for being Sustainability Bonds (including Regulation (EU) 2020/852 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment (the "EU Taxonomy Regulation"), or will comply with the FCA's anti-greenwashing rule and, accordingly, the Sustainability Bond status of the Notes could be withdrawn at any time.

Any Sustainability Bonds will not be compliant with Regulation (EU) 2023/2631 (the EuGB Regulation) and are only intended to comply with the requirements and processes in the Sustainability Finance Framework. It is not clear if the establishment under the EuGB Regulation of the "European Green Bond" or "EuGB" label and the optional disclosures regime for bonds issued as "environmentally sustainable" could have an impact on investor demand for, and pricing of, green use of proceeds bonds that do not comply with the requirements of the "EuGB" label or the optional disclosures regime, such as the Sustainability Bonds. It could result in reduced liquidity or lower demand or could otherwise affect the market price of any Sustainability Bonds that do not comply with those standards proposed under the EuGB Regulation.

No assurance or representation is given by the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or any other person as to the suitability, adequacy or reliability for any purpose whatsoever of any opinion, report or certification of any third party (whether or not solicited by the Issuer) which may be made available in connection with the issue of any Sustainability Bonds. For the avoidance of doubt, any such opinion, report or certification is not, nor shall it be deemed to be, incorporated in and/or form part of this Base Offering Circular. Any such opinion, report or certification is not, nor should it be deemed to be, a recommendation by the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or any other person to buy, sell or hold any such Sustainability Bonds. The Noteholders have no recourse against the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, any of the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or the provider of any such opinion, report or certification for the contents of any such opinion, report or certification. Any such opinion, report or certification is only current as at the date that opinion, report or certification was initially issued. Prospective investors must determine for themselves the relevance of any such opinion, report or certification and/or the information contained therein and/or the provider of such opinion, report or certification for the purpose of any investment in any Sustainability Bonds. Currently, the providers of such opinions, reports and certifications are not subject to any specific regulatory or other regime or oversight. The Sustainability Finance Framework may be updated from time to time and none of the Issuer, the Sole Arranger or the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates assumes any obligation or responsibility to release any update or revision to the Sustainability Finance Framework and/or information to reflect events or circumstances after the date of publication of the Sustainability Finance Framework.

In the event that any Sustainability Bonds are listed or admitted to trading on any dedicated "sustainable" or other equivalently-labelled segment of any stock exchange or securities market (whether or not regulated), no representation or assurance is given by the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or any other person that such listing or admission satisfies, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor or its investments are required to comply, whether by any present or future applicable law or regulations or by its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates, in particular with regard to any direct or indirect sustainable impact of any projects or uses. Furthermore, it should be noted that the criteria for any such listings or admission to trading may vary from one stock exchange or securities market to another. Nor is any representation or assurance given or made by the Issuer, the Sole Arranger, the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates or any other person that any such listing or admission to trading will be obtained in respect of any such Sustainability Bonds or, if obtained, that any such listing or admission to trading will be maintained during the life of the Sustainability Bonds.

Whilst it is the Issuer's intention that the net proceeds from the issue of such Sustainability Bonds will be used to finance and/or refinance, in part or in full, new and/or existing Eligible Projects that fall exclusively into Eligible Green Categories and/or Eligible Social Categories as set out in the Sustainability Finance Framework, there can be no assurance that the relevant project(s) will be capable of being implemented in, or substantially in, such manner and/or in accordance with any timing schedule and that accordingly such proceeds will be totally or partially disbursed for such project(s). Nor can there be any assurance that such project(s) will be completed within any specified period or at all or with the results or outcome as originally expected or anticipated by the Issuer. Any such event or failure by the Issuer will not constitute an Event of Default under the Notes. If the proceeds from the issue of such Sustainability Bonds are not used to finance and/or refinance, in part or in full, new and/or existing Eligible Projects that fall exclusively into Eligible Green Categories and/or Eligible Social Categories as set out in the Sustainability Finance Framework, they will be applied by the Issuer (after deduction of expenses payable by the Issuer) in furtherance of the Issuer's objects as permitted by its Rules including, without limitation, on-lending to its Subsidiaries and the repayment of any existing indebtedness of the Issuer.

Any such event or failure to apply the proceeds of any Sustainability Bonds as aforesaid and/or the withdrawal of any such opinion, report or certification or any such opinion, report or certification attesting that the Issuer is not complying in whole or in part with any matters for which such opinion, report or certification is opining, reporting or certifying on and/or any such Sustainability Bonds no longer being listed or admitted to trading on any stock exchange or securities market as aforesaid may have a material adverse effect on the value of such Sustainability Bonds and also potentially the value of any other Sustainability Bonds and/or result in adverse consequences for certain investors with portfolio mandates to invest in securities to be used for a particular purpose.

Investors should carefully consider these matters when making their investment decision with respect to any such Sustainability Bonds.

Risks related to Notes generally

Set out below is a description of material risks relating to the Notes generally:

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes contain provisions which may permit their modification without the consent of all investors and confer significant discretions on the Note Trustee which may be exercised without the consent of the Noteholders and without regard to the individual interests of particular Noteholders.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes contain provisions for calling meetings (including by way of conference call or by use of a videoconference platform) of Noteholders to consider and vote upon matters affecting their interests generally, or to pass resolutions in writing or through the use of electronic consents. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders including Noteholders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting or, as the case may be, did not sign the written resolution or give their consent electronically, and including those Noteholders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes also provide that the Note Trustee may, without the consent of Noteholders and without regard to the interests of particular Noteholders, agree to (i) any modification of, or to the waiver or authorisation of any breach or proposed breach of, any of the provisions of the Notes or (ii) determine without the consent of the Noteholders that any Event of Default or Potential Event of Default shall not be treated as such or (iii) the substitution of another company as principal debtor under any Notes in place of the Issuer, in the circumstances described in Condition 18 (Substitution) and Condition 19 (Meetings of Noteholders, Modification, Waiver and Authorisation).

The value of the Notes could be adversely affected by a change in English law or administrative practice

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes are based on English law in effect as at the date of this Base Offering Circular. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change to English law or administrative practice after the date of this Base Offering Circular and any such change could materially adversely impact the value of any Notes affected by it.

Risks related to early redemption for taxation reasons

Under Condition 11 (Taxation), the Issuer will not be entitled to make any deduction or withholding on account of tax from payments in respect of the Notes unless such withholding or deduction is required by law. In the event that any deduction or withholding on account of tax is required by law, the Issuer shall be required (except in the limited circumstances set out in Condition 11 (Taxation)) to pay such additional amounts as will result in the receipt by the Noteholders of such amounts as would have been received by them if no such withholding or deduction had been required. Where the deduction or withholding is required as a result of a change in applicable law or regulations, the Issuer may exercise its option to redeem the Notes of the relevant Series in full at their Early Redemption Amount, plus accrued interest, pursuant to Condition 10.2 (Redemption for Tax Reasons). As mentioned above, in such circumstances an investor may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds in a comparable security at an effective interest rate as high as that of the Notes.

Investors who hold less than the minimum Specified Denomination may be unable to sell their Notes and may be adversely affected if definitive Notes are subsequently required to be issued

In relation to any issue of Notes which have denominations consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount, it is possible that such Notes may be traded in amounts in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination that are not integral multiples of such minimum Specified Denomination. In such a case a holder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds an amount which is less than the minimum Specified Denomination in its account with the relevant clearing system would not be able to sell the remainder of such holding without first purchasing a nominal amount of Notes at or in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination such that its holding amounts to a Specified Denomination. Further, a holder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds an amount which is less than the minimum Specified Denomination in its account with the relevant clearing system at the relevant time may not receive a definitive Note in respect of such holding (should a definitive Note be printed) and would need to purchase a nominal amount of Notes at or in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination such that its holding amounts to a Specified Denomination.

If such Notes in definitive form are issued, holders should be aware that definitive Notes which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

Risks related to the Security (in respect of Secured Notes)

Risks relating to the validity of the Security

Each Series of Secured Notes will be secured by the Series Security granted pursuant to the Note Trust Deed and the Security Documents, in favour of the Note Trustee and the Security Trustee, as applicable, for the benefit of the Noteholders of such Series and such security includes first fixed legal mortgages over the Series Charged Properties.

The validity of any security given by the Issuer or any Charging Subsidiary in connection with additions and substitutions of Series Charged Properties may depend on the solvency of the Issuer or such Charging Subsidiary at the time of the grant. If any security is found to be invalid as a result, this will affect the amounts available to Noteholders in the event of a default under the Secured Notes.

Fixed charges may take effect under English law as floating charges

Pursuant to the Note Trust Deed, the Issuer has purported to grant a fixed charge over, amongst other things, all rights and benefits under the Charged Account in respect of each Series. The law of England and Wales relating to the characterisation of fixed charges is unsettled. The fixed charges purported to be granted by the Issuer may take effect under English law only as floating charges if, for example, it is determined that the Note Trustee does not exert sufficient control over the charged assets for the security to be said to "fix" over those assets. If the charges take effect as floating charges instead of fixed charges, then the claims of the Note Trustee will be subject to claims which are given priority over a floating charge by law, including, amongst other things, prior charges, certain subsequent charges, the expenses of any winding up or administration and the claims of preferential creditors.

Claims of Creditors of the Issuer other than Secured Parties

Under English law, any creditor (who has not entered into non-petition clauses) would be able to commence insolvency or winding up proceedings against the Issuer or a Charging Subsidiary in respect of any unpaid debt. If this occurred, the security would be realised to meet the Issuer's payment obligations, but there is a risk that the security may be insufficient to satisfy all the Issuer's payment obligations in full.

Mortgagee in Possession Liability

There is a risk that the Security Trustee may be deemed to be a mortgagee in possession if it physically enters into possession of a Charged Property or performs an act of control or influence which may amount to possession, such as submitting a demand direct to tenants requiring them to pay rents to the Security Trustee. The consequence of being a mortgagee in possession would be that the Security Trustee may be obliged to account to the Issuer or the relevant Charging Subsidiary, as the case may be, for the income obtained from the Charged Property, be liable for any damage to the Charged Property, have a limited liability to repair the Charged Property and, in certain circumstances, may be obliged to make improvements or incur financial liabilities in respect of the Charged Property. A mortgagee in possession may also be liable to a tenant for any mismanagement of the relevant property and may incur liabilities to third parties in nuisance and negligence and, under certain statutes (including environmental legislation), the liabilities of a property owner. The incurrence of such costs and liabilities by the Security Trustee will be recoverable by it from the enforcement proceeds prior to any payment being made to the Issuer, thereby reducing the amount available to the Issuer to pay amounts owing under the Notes.

Risks relating to the moratorium regime applicable to housing associations

A special administration regime for Registered Providers of Social Housing in England came into force on 5 July 2018 and replaced the former moratorium regime.

Under this regime, no step may be taken by any person other than the Secretary of State for Housing, Communities and Local Government for the winding-up, entry into administration by or enforcement of security of a Registered Provider of Social Housing, unless 28 days' notice of that step has been given to the Regulator of Social Housing and elapsed, or the Regulator of Social Housing has waived the notice requirement.

During that 28-day period the Secretary of State or the Regulator of Social Housing, with the consent of the Secretary of State, may apply for a housing administration order.

The regime preserves a moratorium on disposals of land. However, each housing administration order will last for 12 months (subject to certain exceptions), during which there will be restrictions on disposing of social housing assets.

The housing administration regime may delay the Security Trustee's ability to enforce the Series Security where the Issuer or relevant Charging Subsidiary becomes insolvent. This may, in turn, result in a delay to the period in which a Noteholder would be repaid in the event of the Issuer defaulting in respect of its obligations in respect of the Secured Notes.

Risks relating to sufficiency of insurance

Although each Charged Property is required to be insured at appropriate levels and against customary risks, there can be no assurance that any loss incurred will be of a type covered by such insurance, nor can there be any assurance that the loss will not exceed the limits of such insurance. Any interruption in income or any loss or damage caused to a Charged Property not adequately covered by insurance could, if material, result in a shortfall in funds available to service the Issuer's payment obligations under the Secured Notes.

The Asset Cover Covenant in respect of Index-Linked Redemption Notes and Zero Coupon Notes is tested against amounts that may increase over time, while the value of the Charged Properties is only periodically revalued

For the purposes of the Asset Cover Covenant under Condition 5.1(c) (Asset Cover Covenant), the aggregate nominal amount of Zero Coupon Notes is deemed to be their Early Redemption Amount, which accretes over the life of the Notes, and the aggregate nominal amount of Index-Linked Redemption Notes is deemed to be their Final Redemption Amount (or, where Instalment Redemption applies, their Early Redemption Amount), in each case subject to the operation of the Index Ratio or (as the case may be) the Limited Index Ratio pursuant to Condition 8.3. Where such Index-Linked Redemption Notes are also Index-Linked Interest Notes, the indexation applied for these purposes will be that applied to determine the Adjusted Interest Amount in relation to the most recent Interest Payment Date on or prior to such date. If there has not yet been an Interest Payment Date in relation to the relevant Index-Linked Interest Notes on or prior to the relevant date, no Index Ratio or (as the case may be) Limited Index Ratio shall be applied.

Accordingly, the amount against which the Asset Cover Covenant is tested may change during the life of the relevant Notes including between Valuations of the Charged Properties. In the case of Index-Linked Redemption Notes which are also Index-Linked Interest Notes, the indexation applied will be that determined in relation to the most recent Interest Payment Date (or none, if there has not been an Interest Payment Date) which may make satisfaction of the Asset Cover Covenant on any date easier than if the indexation were determined on such date instead.

Risks related to the market generally

Set out below is a description of material market risks, including liquidity risk, exchange rate risk, interest rate risk and credit risk:

An active secondary market in respect of the Notes may never be established or may be illiquid and this would adversely affect the value at which an investor could sell their Notes

Notes may have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop. If a market for the Notes does develop, it may not be very liquid. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Notes easily or at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market. This is particularly the case for Notes that are especially sensitive to interest rate, currency or market risks, are designed for specific investment objectives or strategies or have been structured to meet the investment requirements of limited categories of investors. These types of Notes generally would have a more limited secondary market and more price volatility than conventional debt securities.

Exchange rate fluctuations and exchange rate controls may adversely affect an investor's return on its investments in the Notes and/or the market value of the Notes

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Notes in the Specified Currency. This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the Investor's Currency) other than the Specified Currency. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease (1) the Investor's Currency-equivalent yield on the Notes, (2) the Investor's Currency equivalent value of the principal payable on the Notes and (3) the Investor's Currency equivalent market value of the Notes.

Government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate or the ability of the Issuer to make payments in respect of the Notes. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

The value of Fixed Rate Notes may be adversely affected by movements in market interest rates

Investment in Fixed Rate Notes involves the risk that if market interest rates subsequently increase above the rate paid on the Fixed Rate Notes, this will adversely affect the value of the Fixed Rate Notes.

Credit ratings assigned to the Issuer or any Notes may not reflect all the risks associated with an investment in those Notes

One or more independent credit rating agencies may assign credit ratings to the Issuer, or the Notes. The ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed above, and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be revised, suspended or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

In general, European regulated investors are restricted under the CRA Regulation from using credit ratings for regulatory purposes in the EEA, unless such ratings are issued by a credit rating agency established in the EEA and registered under the CRA Regulation (and such registration has not been withdrawn or suspended, subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances). Such general restriction will also apply in the case of credit ratings issued by third country non-EEA credit rating agencies, unless the relevant credit ratings are endorsed by an EEA-registered credit rating agency or the relevant third country rating agency is certified in accordance with the CRA Regulation (and such endorsement action or certification, as the case may be, has not been withdrawn or suspended, subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances). The list of registered and certified rating agencies published by the ESMA on its website in accordance with the CRA Regulation is not conclusive evidence of the status of the relevant rating agency included in such list, as there may be delays between certain supervisory measures being taken against a relevant rating agency and the publication of the updated ESMA list. Certain information with respect to the credit rating agencies and ratings is set out on the cover of this Base Offering Circular.

Investors regulated in the UK are subject to similar restrictions under the UK CRA Regulation. As such, UK regulated investors are required to use for UK regulatory purposes ratings issued by a credit rating agency established in the UK and registered under the UK CRA Regulation. In the case of ratings issued by third country non-UK credit rating agencies, third country credit ratings can either be: (a) endorsed by a UK registered credit rating agency; or (b) issued by a third country credit rating agency that is certified in accordance with the UK CRA Regulation. Note this is subject, in each case, to (a) the relevant UK registration, certification or endorsement, as the case may be, not having been withdrawn or suspended, and (b) transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances.

If the status of the rating agency rating the Notes changes for the purposes of the CRA Regulation or the UK CRA Regulation, relevant regulated investors may no longer be able to use the rating for regulatory purposes in the EEA or the UK, as applicable, and the Notes may have a different regulatory treatment, which may impact the value of the Notes and their liquidity in the secondary market. Certain information with respect to the credit rating agencies and ratings is set out on the cover of this Base Offering Circular.

FORM OF THE NOTES

Each Tranche of Notes will be in bearer form and will initially be issued in the form of a temporary global note (a Temporary Global Note) or, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, a permanent global note (a Permanent Global Note and, together with a Temporary Global Note, each a Global Note) which, in either case, will:

(a) if the Global Notes are intended to be issued in new global note (NGN) form, as stated in the applicable Final Terms, be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common safekeeper (the Common Safekeeper) for Euroclear Bank SA/NV (Euroclear) and Clearstream Banking S.A. (Clearstream, Luxembourg); and

(b) if the Global Notes are not intended to be issued in NGN Form, be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common depositary (the Common Depositary) for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Where the Global Notes issued in respect of any Tranche are in NGN form, the applicable Final Terms will also indicate whether such Global Notes are intended to be held in a manner which would allow Eurosystem eligibility. Any indication that the Global Notes are to be so held does not necessarily mean that the Notes of the relevant Tranche will be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue or at any times during their life as such recognition depends upon satisfaction of the Eurosystem eligibility criteria. The Common Safekeeper for NGNs will either be Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or another entity approved by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Whilst any Note is represented by a Temporary Global Note, payments of principal, interest (if any) and any other amount payable in respect of the Notes due prior to the Exchange Date (as defined below) will be made (against presentation of the Temporary Global Note if the Temporary Global Note is not intended to be issued in NGN form) only to the extent that certification (in a form to be provided) to the effect that the beneficial owners of interests in the Temporary Global Note are not U.S. persons or persons who have purchased for resale to any U.S. person, as required by U.S. Treasury regulations, has been received by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable, has given a like certification (based on the certifications it has received) to the Principal Paying Agent.

On and after the date (the Exchange Date) which is 40 days after a Temporary Global Note is issued, interests in such Temporary Global Note will be exchangeable (free of charge) upon a request as described therein either for (i) interests in a Permanent Global Note of the same Series or (ii) for definitive Notes of the same Series with, where applicable, interest coupons and talons attached (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms), in each case against certification of beneficial ownership as described above unless such certification has already been given. The holder of a Temporary Global Note will not be entitled to collect any payment of interest, principal or other amount due on or after the Exchange Date unless, upon due certification, exchange of the Temporary Global Note for an interest in a Permanent Global Note or for definitive Notes is improperly withheld or refused.

The option for an issue of Notes to be represented on issue by a Temporary Global Note exchangeable for definitive Notes should not be expressed to be applicable in the applicable Final Terms if the Notes are issued with a minimum Specified Denomination such as €100,000 (or its equivalent in another currency) plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount such as €1,000 (or its equivalent in another currency).

Payments of principal, interest (if any) or any other amounts on a Permanent Global Note will be made through Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg (against presentation or surrender (as the case may be) of the Permanent Global Note if the Permanent Global Note is not intended to be issued in NGN form) without any requirement for certification.

The applicable Final Terms will specify that a Permanent Global Note will be exchangeable (free of charge), in whole but not in part, for definitive Notes with, where applicable, interest coupons and talons attached upon the occurrence of an Exchange Event. For these purposes, Exchange Event means that (i) a Secured Note Event of Default (as defined in Condition 13.1) or an Unsecured Note Event of Default (as defined in Condition 13.2) has occurred and is continuing, (ii) the Issuer has been notified that both Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg have been closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holiday, statutory or otherwise) or have announced an intention permanently to cease business or have in fact done so and no successor clearing system satisfactory to the Note Trustee is available or (iii) the Issuer has or will become subject to adverse tax consequences which would not be suffered were the Notes represented by the Permanent Global Note in definitive form and a certificate to such effect signed by two Directors of the Issuer is given to the Trustee. The Issuer will promptly give notice to Noteholders in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices) if an Exchange Event occurs. In the event of the occurrence of an Exchange Event, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg (acting on the instructions of any holder of an interest in such Permanent Global Note) or the Trustee may give notice to the Principal Paying Agent requesting exchange and, in the event of the occurrence of an Exchange Event as described in (iii) above, the Issuer may also give notice to the Principal Paying Agent requesting exchange. Any such exchange shall occur not later than 45 days after the date of receipt of the first relevant notice by the Principal Paying Agent.

The following legend will appear on all Notes (other than Temporary Global Notes) and interest coupons relating to such Notes where TEFRA D is specified in the applicable Final Terms:

"ANY UNITED STATES PERSON WHO HOLDS THIS OBLIGATION WILL BE SUBJECT TO LIMITATIONS UNDER THE UNITED STATES INCOME TAX LAWS, INCLUDING THE LIMITATIONS PROVIDED IN SECTIONS 165(j) AND 1287(a) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE. "

The sections referred to provide that United States holders, with certain exceptions, will not be entitled to deduct any loss on Notes or interest coupons and will not be entitled to capital gains treatment in respect of any gain on any sale, disposition, redemption or payment of principal in respect of Notes or interest coupons.

Notes which are represented by a Global Note will only be transferable in accordance with the rules and procedures for the time being of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be.

General

Pursuant to the Agency Agreement (as defined under "Terms and Conditions of the Notes"), the Principal Paying Agent shall arrange that, where a further Tranche of Notes is issued which is intended to form a single Series with an existing Tranche of Notes at a point after the Issue Date of the further Tranche, the Notes of such further Tranche shall be assigned a common code and ISIN which are different from the common code and ISIN assigned to Notes of any other Tranche of the same Series until such time as the Tranches are consolidated and form a single Series, which shall not be prior to the expiry of the distribution compliance period (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act) applicable to the Notes of such Tranche.

Any reference herein to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg shall, whenever the context so permits, be deemed to include a reference to any additional or alternative clearing system specified in the applicable Final Terms.

The Issuer may agree with any Dealer and the Note Trustee that Notes may be issued in a form not contemplated by the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, in which event a new Base Offering Circular will be made available which will describe the effect of the agreement reached in relation to such Notes.

FORM OF FINAL TERMS

[PROHIBITION OF SALES TO EEA RETAIL INVESTORS – The Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (EEA). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or both) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, MiFID II); or (ii) or a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (the Insurance Distribution Directive), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II. Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the PRIIPs Regulation) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.]

[MIFID II product governance / Professional investors and ECPs only target market – Solely for the purposes of [the/each] manufacturer's product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Notes has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Notes is eligible counterparties and professional clients only, each as defined in MiFID II; and (ii) all channels for distribution of the Notes to eligible counterparties and professional clients are appropriate. [Consider any negative target market]. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a distributor) should take into consideration the manufacturer['s/s'] target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the manufacturer['s/s'] target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.]

[UK MIFIR product governance / Professional investors and ECPs only target market – Solely for the purposes of [the/each] manufacturer's product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Notes has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Notes is only eligible counterparties, as defined in the FCA Handbook Conduct of Business Sourcebook (COBS), and professional clients, as defined in Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law in the UK by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (UK MiFIR); and (ii) all channels for distribution of the Notes to eligible counterparties and professional clients are appropriate. [Consider any negative target market]. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a distributor) should take into consideration the manufacturer['s/s'] target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules) is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the manufacturer['s/s'] target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.]

[Singapore SFA Product Classification: In connection with Section 309B of the Securities and Futures Act 2001 of Singapore, as modified or amended from time to time (the "SFA") and the Securities and Futures (Capital Markets Products) Regulations 2018 of Singapore (the "CMP Regulations 2018") the Issuer has determined, and hereby notifies all relevant persons (as defined in Section 309A(1) of the SFA), that the Notes are 'capital markets products other than prescribed capital markets products' (as defined in the CMP Regulations 2018) and Specified Investment Products (as defined in MAS Notice SFA 04-N12: Notice on the Sale of Investment Products and MAS Notice FAA-N16: Notice on Recommendations on Investment Products).][1]

[1] Legend to be included for any offers made in Singapore (to persons other than accredited investors and institutional investors (each term as defined in the SFA) where the Notes are "capital markets products other than prescribed capital markets products" (as defined in the Securities and Futures (Capital Markets Products) Regulations 2018 of Singapore) and Specified Investment Products (as defined in MAS Notice SFA 04:N12: Notice on the Sale of Investment Products and MAS Notice FAA-N16: Notice on Recommendations on Investments Products). Relevant Dealer(s) to consider whether it/they have received the necessary product classification from the Issuer prior to the launch of the offer, pursuant to Section 309B of the SFA.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE NOTES

The following are the Terms and Conditions of the Notes which will be incorporated by reference into each Global Note (as defined below) and each definitive Note, in the latter case only if permitted by the relevant stock exchange or other relevant authority (if any) and agreed by the Issuer and the relevant Dealer at the time of issue but, if not so permitted and agreed, such definitive Note will have endorsed thereon or attached thereto such Terms and Conditions. The applicable Final Terms (or the relevant provisions thereof) will be endorsed upon, or attached to, each Global Note and definitive Note. Reference should be made to "Applicable Final Terms" for a description of the content of the Final Terms which will specify which of such terms are to apply in relation to the relevant Notes.

This Note is one of a Series (as defined below) of Notes issued by London & Quadrant Housing Trust (the Issuer) and constituted by a Note Trust Deed (such Note Trust Deed as modified and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time, the Note Trust Deed) dated 12 November 2026 made between the Issuer and The Law Debenture Trust Corporation p.l.c. (the Note Trustee, which expression shall include any successor as Note Trustee).

References herein to the Notes shall be references to the Notes of this Series and shall mean:

(a) in relation to any Notes represented by a global Note (a Global Note), units of each Specified Denomination in the Specified Currency;

(b) any Global Note; and

(c) any definitive Notes issued in exchange for a Global Note.

Interest bearing definitive Notes have interest coupons (Coupons) and, in the case of Notes which, when issued in definitive form, have more than 27 interest payments remaining, talons for further Coupons (Talons) attached on issue. Any reference herein to Coupons or coupons shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be deemed to include a reference to Talons or talons. Global Notes do not have Coupons or Talons attached on issue.

The applicable Final Terms shall specify whether the Issuer's obligations in respect of a Series of Notes will be secured in accordance with the provisions of Condition 4 (Security) (such Notes, Secured Notes) or not so secured (such Notes, Unsecured Notes).

Copies of the Note Trust Deed, the Agency Agreement and, in the case of Secured Notes, the Account Agreement and the Security Documents are available for inspection during normal business hours at the specified office of each of the Paying Agents. If the Notes are to be admitted to trading on the main market of the London Stock Exchange, the applicable Final Terms will be published on the website of the London Stock Exchange through a regulatory information service. The Noteholders and the Couponholders are deemed to have notice of, and are entitled to the benefit of, all the provisions of the Note Trust Deed, the Agency Agreement, the Account Agreement, the Security Documents and the applicable Final Terms which are applicable to them. The statements in the Conditions include summaries of, and are subject to, the detailed provisions of the Note Trust Deed, the Agency Agreement, the Account Agreement and the Security Documents.

The security created pursuant to the Security Documents referred to above, and/or any deed or document supplemental thereto, which has been allocated for the benefit of the Series Secured Parties, is referred to herein as the Series Property Security.

(b) The security created pursuant to the Security Agreements will be apportioned to the Series Secured Parties on:

(i) a Numerical Apportionment Basis; or

(ii) a Specific Apportionment Basis, in each case, as specified in the applicable Final Terms and in accordance with and subject to the terms of the Security Trust Deed.

In respect of security allocated on a Numerical Apportionment Basis, a specific number of Units will be allocated to the Series Secured Parties. The initial number of Units in respect of each Series, and

In respect of security allocated on a Specific Apportionment Basis, the security in respect of such Series will comprise the specific Charged Properties allocated to the Series Secured Parties in respect of such Series and as agreed between the Issuer and the Note Trustee.

(d) The property charged and assigned pursuant to both the Security Documents and the Note Trust Deed referred to above, together with any other property or assets held by and/or assigned to the Security Trustee (and allocated for the benefit of the Series Secured Parties) or the Note Trustee for the benefit of the Series Secured Parties, and/or any deed or document supplemental thereto, is referred to herein as the Series Charged Property and the security created thereby (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Series Property Security) is referred to herein as the Series Security.

(e) No Series of Secured Notes will have access to the Series Security securing another Series of Secured Notes except to the extent set out in Condition 4.2(d) (Post-enforcement).

4.2 Post-enforcement

Following the enforcement of the Series Property Security, the net proceeds of enforcement of the Series Property Security shall be applied in the following order of priority:

(a) first, in or towards payment of all Relevant Trustee Expenses;

(b) secondly:

(i) where the Numerical Apportionment Basis applies in relation to the relevant Series, by allocating the balance among the NAB Beneficiaries by reference to their NAB Security Percentages (as defined in the Security Trust Deed), with the amount thereby allocated to the Note Trustee, in its capacity as Representative in respect of the relevant Series, to be applied as set out below; or

(ii) where the Specific Apportionment Basis applies in relation to the relevant Series, in or towards payment to the Note Trustee, in its capacity as Representative in respect of the relevant Series, to be applied as set out below;

(c) thirdly, to the extent not already covered, in payment of all outstanding Security Trustee expenses;

(i) first, in payment or satisfaction of the fees, costs, charges, expenses and liabilities incurred by the Note Trustee, any Appointee or any receiver in preparing and executing the trusts under the Note Trust Deed (including the costs of realising the Security and the Note Trustee's, any such Appointee's and any such receiver's remuneration), in each case, insofar as they relate to the relevant Series or, to the extent not referable to a specific Series, the Expense Apportioned Part thereof;

(ii) secondly, on a pro rata and pari passu basis, in payment of all amounts owing to the Paying Agents and the Agent Bank under the Agency Agreement and the Account Bank under the Account Agreement insofar as they relate to the relevant Series or, to the extent not referable to a specific Series, the Expense Apportioned Part thereof;

5. COVENANTS

5.1 Covenants in respect of Secured Notes

If this Note is a Secured Note, the Issuer covenants as set out in this Condition 5.1.

(a) General Covenant

For so long as any of the Notes remains outstanding (as defined in the Note Trust Deed), the Issuer covenants to comply with, and to procure that each Charging Subsidiary complies with, its various undertakings set out in the Note Trust Deed and the Security Documents including, but not limited to, undertakings as to the maintenance of the Charged Properties.

(b) Negative Pledge and Disposals

The Issuer covenants, and each Charging Subsidiary will covenant in the Note Trust Deed, in each case for so long as any of the Notes remains outstanding, save as expressly permitted by the Note Trust Deed and/or the Security Documents, not to create or permit to subsist, over any of the Series Charged Property, any mortgage or charge or any other security interest ranking in priority to, or pari passu with, the Series Security, excluding, for this purpose any security interest created by or pursuant to the Note Trust Deed or by operation of law.

The Issuer also covenants, and each Charging Subsidiary will covenant in the Note Trust Deed, that it shall not, save as expressly permitted by the Note Trust Deed and/or the Security Documents, sell, transfer, grant or lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of, or any interest in, the Series Charged Property without the prior written consent of the Note Trustee or the Security Trustee, as applicable, or as permitted under the Conditions, the Note Trust Deed and/or the Security Documents.

(c) Asset Cover Covenant

The Issuer covenants, for so long as any of the Notes remains outstanding, that it shall at all times ensure that the sum of:

(i) the Minimum Value of the Charged Properties in respect of the relevant Series of Notes; and

(ii) the Charged Cash in respect of such Series of Notes, will not be less than the aggregate nominal amount of the Notes of such Series that remain outstanding.

For the purposes of this Asset Cover Covenant:

(a) in the case of Zero Coupon Notes the aggregate nominal amount of such Notes on any date shall be deemed to be the Early Redemption Amount (as defined in Condition 10.9) of such Notes on such date; and

(b) in the case of Index-Linked Redemption Notes the aggregate nominal amount of such Notes (where Final Redemption is specified in the applicable Final Terms) shall be deemed to be the Final Redemption Amount of such Notes or (where Instalment Redemption is specified in the applicable Final Terms) shall be deemed to be the Early Redemption Amount of such Notes on such date, in each case subject to the operation of the Index Ratio or (as the case may be) the Limited Index Ratio pursuant to Condition 8.3 provided that (where the Notes are also Index-Linked Interest Notes) for the purposes of this calculation in relation to any date the Index Ratio or (as the case may be) the Limited Index Ratio shall be that which was applied to determine the Adjusted Interest Amount in relation to the most recent Interest Payment Date on or prior to such date. If there has not yet been an Interest Payment Date in relation to the relevant Index-Linked Interest Notes on or prior to the relevant date no Index Ratio or (as the case may be) Limited Index Ratio shall be applied.

In determining the principal amount outstanding in relation to any Zero Coupon Notes or Index Linked Redemption Notes for the purpose of the definitions of "Expense Apportioned Part" and (in the Security Trust Deed) "Commitment" the provisions in the preceding paragraphs (a) and (b) shall apply mutatis mutandis.

A Compliance Certificate confirming compliance with the Asset Cover Test, and setting out the relevant calculations, may, in the absence of manifest error, be relied on by the Note Trustee and, if so relied on, shall be conclusive and binding on the Issuer, the Noteholders and the Couponholders.

(d) Valuations

(i) The Issuer covenants, for so long as any of the Notes remains outstanding, that it shall deliver a Valuation to the Note Trustee and the Security Trustee in the period between 30 September and the date falling 60 days after 30 September in each year whereby the Valuer values:

(B) the remaining Charged Properties on a Desk Top Valuation Basis.

For the purposes of this Condition 5.1(d)(i):

I. the Charged Properties to be valued on a Full Valuation Basis in any year must not include any Charged Properties which have been valued on a Full Valuation Basis in the preceding two years; and

II. in any five year period, 100 per cent. of the Charged Properties must be valued on a Full Valuation Basis taking into account any additions and withdrawals of Charged Properties in accordance with the Conditions.

(ii) Notwithstanding Condition 5.1(d)(i), the Issuer may elect, by notice to the Note Trustee and (for so long as security is allocated to the relevant Series Secured Parties on a Numerical Apportionment Basis) to the other NAB Beneficiaries, to provide Valuations as follows:

(A) it shall deliver a Full Valuation to the Note Trustee and the Security Trustee at least once in every period of five calendar years. The first Full Valuation must be delivered in the period between the next 30 September following the relevant election and the date following 60 days thereafter, and subsequent Full Valuations must be delivered in the period between 30 September and the date falling 60 days after 30 September in the relevant year; and

(B) it shall deliver to the Note Trustee and the Security Trustee a Desk Top Valuation in the period between 30 September and the date falling 120 days thereafter in each year (beginning in the year following the year in which a Full Valuation is first provided in accordance with Condition 5.1(d)(ii)(A)) other than a year in respect of which a Full Valuation is required to be delivered pursuant to paragraph 5.1(d)(ii)(A).

For the avoidance of doubt, where such an election has been made and Valuations are provided in accordance with this Condition 5.1(d)(ii), the Issuer shall not be required to deliver a Valuation in accordance with Condition 5.1(d)(i).

(iii) Each Valuation shall set out in reasonable detail the Value of the Charged Properties as at a date no more than 90 days prior to the date of delivery of the Valuation.

(iv) Each Charging Subsidiary will be required to covenant (pursuant to the Note Trust Deed) to provide all reasonable assistance to the Issuer for the preparation and delivery to the Note Trustee of such Valuations.

Upon the request of Noteholders to convene any such meeting, as aforesaid, the Issuer shall notify all Noteholders of the date (which such date shall be no more than 21 days following such request), time and place of the meeting in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices). The Issuer shall act in good faith in addressing any questions regarding the financial position of it and of each Charging Subsidiary raised at any such meeting, provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be obliged to disclose any information which it, in its absolute discretion, considers to be of a confidential nature. For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Condition 5.1(e) are in addition to the meetings provisions set out in Condition 19.1 (Meetings of Noteholders).

6. CHARGED PROPERTIES AND CHARGED CASH

This Condition 6 only applies to Secured Notes.

6.1 Addition of New Series Charged Properties

The Issuer may, in respect of each Series of Secured Notes, (i) charge, and procure that any Charging Subsidiary charges, additional properties pursuant to the Security Documents and/or (ii) allocate, and procure that any Charging Subsidiary allocates, such additional properties as Series Charged Properties (the New Series Additional Properties) for the benefit of the NAB Beneficiaries (where the Numerical Apportionment Basis applies) or the Series Secured Parties (where the Specific Apportionment Basis applies) (and the Note Trustee, in its capacity as Representative, shall consent (without requiring the consent or sanction of the Noteholders or any other Series Secured Party) to such charging and/or allocation and countersign an amended Apportionment Certificate to reflect the same) subject to:

(a) the delivery by the Issuer or the relevant Charging Subsidiary to the Security Trustee of the condition precedent documents specified in Schedule 3 to the Security Trust Deed in a form satisfactory to the Security Trustee (acting reasonably) in respect of the charging of such New Series Additional Properties; and

(b) the delivery by the Issuer to the Note Trustee of:

(i) a completed New Property Approval Certificate certifying that, inter alia, the New Series Additional Properties are residential properties of a type and nature that are usually owned by Registered Providers of Social Housing; and

(ii) a Full Valuation in relation to the New Series Additional Properties prepared by the Valuer as at a valuation date no earlier than three months prior to the date on which the New Series Additional Properties are to be/were charged.

6.2 Substitution of Series Charged Properties

This Condition 6.2 applies where the Specific Apportionment Basis applies in respect of the relevant Series.

The Issuer or any Charging Subsidiary may substitute any one or more of the Charged Properties (the Series Substitute Properties) with other properties (the New Series Substitute Properties) (and the Note Trustee, in its capacity as Representative, shall consent (without requiring the consent or sanction of the Noteholders or any other Series Secured Party) to such substitution and countersign an amended Apportionment Certificate to reflect the same) subject to:

(a) the delivery by the Issuer or the relevant Charging Subsidiary to the Security Trustee of the condition precedent documents specified in Schedule 3 to the Security Trust Deed in a form satisfactory to the Security Trustee in respect of the charging of such New Series Substitute Properties; and

(ii) a Full Valuation in relation to the New Series Substitute Properties prepared by the Valuer as at a valuation date no earlier than three months prior to the date on which the New Series Substitute Properties are to be/were charged.

6.3 Release and/or Reallocation of Series Charged Properties

The Issuer or any Charging Subsidiary may withdraw or reallocate any one or more of the Series Charged Properties from the Series Security (and the Note Trustee, in its capacity as Representative, shall consent (without requiring the consent or sanction of the Noteholders or any other Series Secured Party) to such withdrawal or reallocation and countersign an amended Apportionment Certificate to reflect the same), provided that the Issuer delivers to the Note Trustee a completed Property Release/Reallocation Certificate, certifying that (a) the Issuer is (as at the date of the Property Release/Reallocation Certificate) in compliance with the Asset Cover Test and that, immediately following such release, the Issuer will be in compliance with the Asset Cover Test and (b) no Secured Note Event of Default or Secured Note Potential Event of Default has occurred and is continuing.

6.4 Statutory Disposals

The Issuer or any Charging Subsidiary shall have the right to withdraw a Series Charged Property from the Series Security pursuant to any Statutory Disposal without the need for the consent of the Security Trustee or the Note Trustee (in its capacity as Representative), provided however, that the Issuer and, in circumstances where a Charging Subsidiary is withdrawing one or more Series Charged Properties from the Series Security pursuant to a Statutory Disposal, the relevant Charging Subsidiary shall deliver to the Note Trustee, as soon as reasonably practicable after the Issuer or the relevant Charging Subsidiary has received notice of such Statutory Disposal, a completed Statutory Disposal Certificate, certifying that the relevant withdrawal relates to a Statutory Disposal.

Without prejudice to the aforementioned right to withdraw a Series Charged Property from the Series Security pursuant to any Statutory Disposal, the Issuer covenants that, if following such withdrawal the Issuer will no longer be in compliance with the Asset Cover Test, as soon as practicable thereafter (and, in any event, prior to the expiry of the applicable grace period in Condition 13.1(a)(iii) (Secured Note Events of Default), it shall (or shall procure that a Charging Subsidiary shall) charge and/or allocate additional properties as Series Charged Properties pursuant to Condition 6.1 (Addition of New Series Charged Properties) and/or it shall deposit money into the Charged Account relating to the relevant Series pursuant to Condition 6.6 (Charged Cash) in an aggregate amount sufficient to ensure that the Issuer will be in compliance with the Asset Cover Test.

6.5 Apportionment

6.6 Charged Cash

The Issuer may, at any time, deposit money into the Charged Account relating to a Series of Secured Notes to ensure compliance with the Asset Cover Test relating to that Series. The Issuer may only withdraw Charged Cash from such Charged Account if:

(a) it is, at the relevant time, in compliance with the Asset Cover Test and no Secured Note Event of Default or Secured Note Potential Event of Default has occurred and is continuing; and

(b) either:

(i) such Charged Cash is to be applied by the Issuer in the acquisition of a Property which is to be charged pursuant to the Security Documents and allocated for the benefit of the Series Secured Parties and, immediately following the acquisition, charging and allocation of such property, the Issuer will be in compliance with the Asset Cover Test; or

(ii) such Charged Cash is to be used for any other purpose permitted by its Rules and, immediately following the withdrawal, the Issuer will be in compliance with the Asset Cover Test.

For these purposes, the Note Trustee may call for and shall be at liberty to accept a certificate signed by any two Authorised Signatories of the Issuer (including, for the avoidance of doubt, a Compliance Certificate), as sufficient evidence that (a) the Issuer is, at the relevant time, in compliance with the Asset Cover Test and that no Secured Note Event of Default or Secured Note Potential Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and/or (b) the requirements of (i) or (ii) above, as the case may be, are met.

7. INTEREST

7.1 Interest on Fixed Rate Notes

Subject as provided in Condition 7.4 below, each Fixed Rate Note bears interest from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date at the rate(s) per annum equal to the Rate(s) of Interest. Interest will be payable in arrear on the Interest Payment Date(s) in each year up to (and including) the Maturity Date.

If the Notes are in definitive form, except as provided in the applicable Final Terms, the amount of interest payable on each Interest Payment Date in respect of the Fixed Interest Period ending on (but excluding) such date will amount to the Fixed Coupon Amount. Payments of interest on any Interest Payment Date will, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, amount to the Broken Amount so specified.

As used in the Conditions, Fixed Interest Period means the period from (and including) an Interest Payment Date (or the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the next (or first) Interest Payment Date.

Except in the case of Notes in definitive form where an applicable Fixed Coupon Amount or Broken Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms, interest shall be calculated in respect of any period by applying the Rate of Interest to:

(a) in the case of Fixed Rate Notes which are represented by a Global Note, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Fixed Rate Notes represented by such Global Note; or

(b) in the case of Fixed Rate Notes in definitive form, the Calculation Amount; and, in each case, multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction.

The resultant figure (including after application of any Fixed Coupon Amount or Broken Amount, to the Calculation Amount in the case of Fixed Rate Notes in definitive form) shall be rounded to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention.

Where the Specified Denomination of a Fixed Rate Note in definitive form is a multiple of the Calculation Amount, the amount of interest payable in respect of such Fixed Rate Note shall be the product of the amount (determined in the manner provided above) for the Calculation Amount and the amount by which the Calculation Amount is multiplied to reach the Specified Denomination, without any further rounding.

Day Count Fraction means, in respect of the calculation of an amount of interest, in accordance with this Condition 7.1:

(a) if "Actual/Actual (ICMA)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms:

(i) in the case of Notes where the number of days in the relevant period from (and including) the most recent Interest Payment Date (or, if none, the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the relevant payment date (the Accrual Period) is equal to or shorter than the Determination Period during which the Accrual Period ends, the number of days in such Accrual Period divided by the product of (A) the number of days in such Determination Period and (B) the number of Determination Dates (as specified in the applicable Final Terms) that would occur in one calendar year; or

(ii) in the case of Notes where the Accrual Period is longer than the Determination Period during which the Accrual Period ends, the sum of:

(A) the number of days in such Accrual Period falling in the Determination Period in which the Accrual Period begins divided by the product of (x) the number of days in such Determination Period and (y) the number of Determination Dates that would occur in one calendar year; and

(B) the number of days in such Accrual Period falling in the next Determination Period divided by the product of (x) the number of days in such Determination Period and (y) the number of Determination Dates that would occur in one calendar year; and

(b) if "30/360" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the period from (and including) the most recent Interest Payment Date (or, if none, the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the relevant payment date (such number of days being calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days with 12 30-day months) divided by 360.

In the Conditions:

Determination Period means each period from (and including) a Determination Date to (but excluding) the next Determination Date (including, where either the Interest Commencement Date or the final Interest Payment Date is not a Determination Date, the period commencing on the first Determination Date prior to, and ending on the first Determination Date falling after, such date); and sub-unit means, with respect to any currency other than euro, the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency and, with respect to euro, one cent.

7.2 Interest on Floating Rate Notes

(a) Interest Payment Dates

Subject as provided in Condition 7.4 below, each Floating Rate Note bears interest from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date and such interest will be payable in arrear on either:

(i) the Specified Interest Payment Date(s) in each year specified in the applicable Final Terms; or

(ii) if no Specified Interest Payment Date(s) is/are specified in the applicable Final Terms, each date (each such date, together with each Specified Interest Payment Date, an Interest Payment Date) which falls the number of months or other period specified as the Specified Period in the applicable Final Terms after the preceding Interest Payment Date or, in the case of the first Interest Payment Date, after the Interest Commencement Date.

Such interest will be payable in respect of each Interest Period. In the Conditions, Interest Period means the period from (and including) an Interest Payment Date (or the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the next (or first) Interest Payment Date or the relevant payment date if the Notes become payable on a date other than an Interest Payment Date.

If a Business Day Convention is specified in the applicable Final Terms and (x) if there is no numerically corresponding day in the calendar month in which an Interest Payment Date should occur or (y) if any Interest Payment Date would otherwise fall on a day which is not a Business Day, then, if the Business Day Convention specified is:

(A) in any case where Specified Periods are specified in accordance with Condition 7.2(a)(ii) above, the Floating Rate Convention, such Interest Payment Date (a) in the case of (x) above, shall be the last day that is a Business Day in the relevant month and the provisions of (ii) below shall apply mutatis mutandis or (b) in the case of (y) above, shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event (i) such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day and (ii) each subsequent Interest Payment Date shall be the last Business Day in the month which falls the Specified Period after the preceding applicable Interest Payment Date occurred; or

(B) the Following Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day; or

(C) the Modified Following Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day; or

(D) the Preceding Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

In the Conditions, Business Day means:

(a) a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in London and each Additional Business Centre (other than T2) specified in the applicable Final Terms;

(b) if T2 is specified as an Additional Business Centre in the applicable Final Terms, a day on which the Trans-European Automated Real-time Gross Settlement Express Transfer System or any successor or replacement for that system (T2) is open; and

(c) either (i) in relation to any sum payable in a Specified Currency other than euro, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre of the country of the relevant Specified Currency (which if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars shall be Sydney and Auckland, respectively) or (ii) in relation to any sum payable in euro, a day on which T2 is open.

(b) Rate of Interest

The Rate of Interest payable from time to time in respect of Floating Rate Notes will be determined in the manner specified in the applicable Final Terms.

(i) Screen Rate Determination – Term Rate

This Condition 7.2(b)(i) applies where the applicable Final Terms specifies both "Screen Rate Determination" and "Term Rate" to be 'Applicable'.

The Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will, subject to Condition 7.2(c) and as provided below, be either:

(A) the offered quotation; or

(B) the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the offered quotations, (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate (being EURIBOR) which appears or appear, as the case may be, on the Relevant Screen Page (or such replacement page on that service which displays the information) as at 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time) on the Interest Determination Date in question plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Agent Bank. If five or more of such offered quotations are available on the Relevant Screen Page, the highest (or, if there is more than one such highest quotation, one only of such quotations) and the lowest (or, if there is more than one such lowest quotation, one only of such quotations) shall be disregarded by the Agent Bank for the purpose of determining the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) of such offered quotations.

The Agency Agreement contains provisions for determining the Rate of Interest in the event that the Relevant Screen Page is not available or if, in the case of (A) above, no such offered quotation appears or, in the case of (B) above, fewer than three such offered quotations appear, in each case as at the time specified in the preceding paragraph.

The applicable Final Terms will specify whether or not a Minimum Rate of Interest shall apply and, if it does, whether it is zero or some other level.

(ii) Screen Rate Determination – Overnight Rate – Compounded Daily SONIA – Non-Index Determination

This Condition 7.2(b)(ii) applies where the applicable Final Terms specifies: (1) "Screen Rate Determination" and "Overnight Rate" to be 'Applicable'; (2) "Compounded Daily SONIA" as the Reference Rate; and (3) "Index Determination" to be 'Not Applicable'.

(A) The Rate of Interest for an Interest Accrual Period will be Compounded Daily SONIA with respect to such Interest Accrual Period plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms) the applicable Margin (if any), all as determined by the Agent Bank.

Compounded Daily SONIA means, with respect to an Interest Accrual Period, the rate of return of a daily compound interest investment (with the daily Sterling overnight reference rate as reference rate for the calculation of interest) as calculated by the Agent Bank as at the relevant Interest Determination Date in accordance with the following formula (and the resulting percentage will be rounded if necessary to the nearest fourth decimal place, with 0.00005 being rounded upwards):

d is the number of calendar days in:

(i) where "Lag" is specified as the Observation Method in the applicable Final Terms, the relevant Interest Accrual Period; or

(ii) where "Observation Shift" is specified as the Observation Method in the applicable Final Terms, the relevant Observation Period;

D is the number specified as such in the applicable Final Terms (or, if no such number is specified, 365);

d_o means:

(i) where "Lag" is specified as the Observation Method in the applicable Final Terms, the number of London Banking Days in the relevant Interest Accrual Period; or

(ii) where "Observation Shift" is specified as the Observation Method in the applicable Final Terms, the number of London Banking Days in the relevant Observation Period;

i is a series of whole numbers from one to "d_o", each representing the relevant London Banking Day in chronological order from, and including, the first London Banking Day in:

(i) where "Lag" is specified as the Observation Method in the applicable Final Terms, the relevant Interest Accrual Period to, and including, the last London Banking Day in the relevant Interest Accrual Period; or

(ii) where "Observation Shift" is specified as the Observation Method in the applicable Final Terms, the relevant Observation Period to, and including, the last London Banking Day in the relevant Observation Period;

London Banking Day means any day on which commercial banks are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in London;

n_i for any London Banking Day "i", means the number of calendar days from (and including) such London Banking Day "i" up to (but excluding) the following London Banking Day;

Observation Period means the period from (and including) the date falling "p" London Banking Days prior to the first day of the relevant Interest Accrual Period to (but excluding) the date falling "p" London Banking Days prior to (A) (in the case of an Interest Period) the Interest Payment Date for such Interest Period or (B) (in the case of any other Interest Accrual Period) the date on which the relevant payment of interest falls due;

p means:

(i) where "Lag" is specified as the Observation Method in the applicable Final Terms, the number of London Banking Days specified as the "Lag Period" in the applicable Final Terms (which for the avoidance of doubt shall not be less than five London Banking Days) (or, if no such number is so specified, five London Banking Days); or

(ii) where "Observation Shift" is specified as the Observation Method in the applicable Final Terms, the number of London Banking Days specified as the "Observation Shift Period" in the applicable Final Terms (which for the avoidance of doubt shall not be less than five London Banking Days) (or, if no such number is specified, five London Banking Days);

the SONIA reference rate, in respect of any London Banking Day (LBD_x), is a reference rate equal to the daily Sterling Overnight Index Average (SONIA) rate for such LBD_x as provided by the administrator of SONIA to authorised distributors and as then published on the Relevant Screen Page (or, if the Relevant Screen Page is unavailable, as otherwise published by such authorised distributors) on the London Banking Day immediately following LBD_x; and

SONIA$_i$ means the SONIA reference rate for:

(i) where "Lag" is specified as the Observation Method in the applicable Final Terms, the London Banking Day falling "p" London Banking Days prior to the relevant London Banking Day "i"; or

(ii) where "Observation Shift" is specified as the Observation Method in the applicable Final Terms, the relevant London Banking Day "i".

(B) If, where any Rate of Interest is to be calculated pursuant to Condition 7.2(b)(ii)(A) above, in respect of any London Banking Day on which an applicable SONIA reference rate is required to be determined, such SONIA reference rate is not made available on the Relevant Screen Page or has not otherwise been published by the relevant authorised distributors, then the SONIA reference rate in respect of such London Banking Day shall be the rate determined by the Agent Bank as:

(1) the sum of (i) the Bank of England's Bank Rate (the Bank Rate) prevailing at 5.00 p.m. (London time) (or, if earlier, close of business) on such London Banking Day; and (ii) the mean of the spread of the SONIA reference rate to the Bank Rate over the previous five London Banking Days in respect of which a SONIA reference rate has been published, excluding the highest spread (or, if there is more than one highest spread, one only of those highest spreads) and lowest spread (or, if there is more than one lowest spread, one only of those lowest spreads); or

(2) if the Bank Rate under (1)(i) above is not available at the relevant time, either (A) the SONIA reference rate published on the Relevant Screen Page (or otherwise published by the relevant authorised distributors) for the first preceding London Banking Day in respect of which the SONIA reference rate was published on the Relevant Screen Page (or otherwise published by the relevant authorised distributors) or (B) if this is more recent, the latest rate determined under (1) above, and, in each case, references to "SONIA reference rate" in Condition 7.2(b)(ii)(A) above shall be construed accordingly.

(C) In the event that the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Condition 7.2(b)(ii), the Rate of Interest shall be:

(1) that determined as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date on which the Rate of Interest was so determined (though substituting, where a different Margin, Maximum Rate of Interest and/or Minimum Rate of Interest is to be applied to the relevant Interest Accrual Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Accrual Period, the Margin, Maximum Rate of Interest and/or Minimum Rate of Interest (as the case may be) relating to the relevant Interest Accrual Period, in place of the Margin, Maximum Rate of Interest and/or Minimum Rate of Interest (as applicable) relating to that last preceding Interest Accrual Period); or

(2) if there is no such preceding Interest Determination Date, the initial Rate of Interest which would have been applicable to such Series of Notes for the first scheduled Interest Period had the Notes been in issue for a period equal in duration to the first scheduled Interest Period but ending on (and excluding) the Interest Commencement Date (applying the Margin and, if applicable, any Maximum Rate of Interest and/or Minimum Rate of Interest, applicable to the first scheduled Interest Period), in each case as determined by the Agent Bank.

(iii) Screen Rate Determination – Overnight Rate - Compounded Daily SONIA - Index Determination

This Condition 7.2(b)(iii) applies where the applicable Final Terms specifies: (1) "Screen Rate Determination" and "Overnight Rate" to be 'Applicable'; (2) "Compounded Daily SONIA" as the Reference Rate; and (3) "Index Determination" to be 'Applicable'.

(A) The Rate of Interest for an Interest Accrual Period will be the Compounded Daily SONIA Rate with respect to such Interest Accrual Period plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms) the applicable Margin (if any), all as determined by the Agent Bank.

Compounded Daily SONIA Rate means, with respect to an Interest Accrual Period, the rate of return of a daily compound interest investment (with the daily Sterling overnight reference rate as reference rate for the calculation of interest) (expressed as a percentage and rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) determined by the Agent Bank by reference to the screen rate or index for compounded daily SONIA rates administered by the administrator of the SONIA reference rate that is published or displayed by such administrator or other information service from time to time on the relevant Interest Determination Date, as further specified in the applicable Final Terms (the SONIA Compounded Index) and in accordance with the following formula:

d is the number of calendar days from (and including) the day in relation to which SONIA Compounded $\text{Index}_{\textbf{Start}}$ is determined to (but excluding) the day in relation to which SONIA Compounded $\text{Index}_{\textbf{End}}$ is determined;

London Banking Day means any day on which commercial banks are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in London;

Relevant Number is the number specified as such in the applicable Final Terms (or, if no such number is specified, five);

SONIA Compounded Index$_{Start}$ means, with respect to an Interest Accrual Period, the SONIA Compounded Index determined in relation to the day falling the Relevant Number of London Banking Days prior to the first day of such Interest Accrual Period; and SONIA Compounded Index$_{End}$ means, with respect to an Interest Accrual Period, the SONIA Compounded Index determined in relation to the day falling the Relevant Number of London Banking Days prior to (A) the Interest Payment Date for such Interest Accrual Period, or (B) such other date on which the relevant payment of interest falls due (but which by its definition or the operation of the relevant provisions is excluded from such Interest Accrual Period).

(B) If the relevant SONIA Compounded Index is not published or displayed by the administrator of the SONIA reference rate or other information service by 5.00 p.m. (London time) (or, if later, by the time falling one hour after the customary or scheduled time for publication thereof in accordance with the then-prevailing operational procedures of the administrator of the SONIA reference rate or of such other information service, as the case may be) on the relevant Interest Determination Date, the Compounded Daily SONIA Rate for the applicable Interest Accrual Period for which the SONIA Compounded Index is not available shall be "Compounded Daily SONIA" determined in accordance with Condition 7.2(b)(ii) above as if "Index Determination" were specified in the applicable Final Terms as being "Not Applicable", and for these purposes: (i) the "Observation Method" shall be deemed to be "Observation Shift" and (ii) the "Observation Shift Period" shall be deemed to be equal to the Relevant Number of London Banking Days, as if those alternative elections had been made in the applicable Final Terms.

(iv) Interest Accrual Period

As used herein, an Interest Accrual Period means (i) each Interest Period and (ii) any other period (if any) in respect of which interest is to be calculated, being the period from (and including) the first day of such period to (but excluding) the day on which the relevant payment of interest falls due (which, if the relevant Series of Notes becomes due and payable in accordance with Condition 13, shall be the date on which such Notes become due and payable).

(v) Determination of Rate of Interest following acceleration

If the relevant Series of Notes becomes due and payable in accordance with Condition 13, the final Rate of Interest shall be calculated for the Interest Accrual Period to (but excluding) the date on which the Notes become so due and payable, and such Rate of Interest shall continue to apply to the Notes for so long as interest continues to accrue thereon as provided in Condition 7.3 and the Note Trust Deed.

(c) Benchmark Replacement

This Condition 7.2(c) applies in respect of each issue of Floating Rate Notes unless "Benchmark Replacement" is specified in the applicable Final Terms to be 'Not Applicable'. In the event that "Benchmark Replacement" is specified in the applicable Final Terms to be 'Not Applicable', any references in these Conditions to Condition 7.2(c) shall be deemed deleted and shall have no effect.

(i) Independent Adviser

Notwithstanding Condition 7.2(b)(i), 7.2(b)(ii) and 7.2(b)(iii), if the Issuer determines that a Benchmark Event has occurred in relation to an Original Reference Rate when any Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) remains to be determined by reference to such Original Reference Rate, then the Issuer shall use its reasonable endeavours to appoint an Independent Adviser, as soon as reasonably practicable, to determine, following consultation with the Issuer, a Successor Rate, failing which an Alternative Rate (in accordance with Condition 7.2(c)(ii)) and, in either case, an Adjustment Spread (in accordance with Condition 7.2(c)(iii)) and any Benchmark Amendments (in accordance with Condition 7.2(c)(iv)).

An Independent Adviser appointed pursuant to this Condition 7.2(c) shall act in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner in consultation with the Issuer. In the absence of wilful default, bad faith or fraud, the Independent Adviser shall have no liability whatsoever to the Noteholders, the Note Trustee, the Paying Agents or the Agent Bank for any determination it makes pursuant to this Condition 7.2(c). No Independent Adviser appointed in connection with the Notes (acting in such capacity), shall have any relationship of agency or trust with the Noteholders.

If (i) the Issuer is unable to appoint an Independent Adviser; or (ii) the Independent Adviser fails to determine a Successor Rate or, failing which, an Alternative Rate in accordance with this Condition 7.2(c)(i) prior to the relevant Interest Determination Date, the Rate of Interest applicable to the next succeeding Interest Period shall be equal to the Rate of Interest last determined in relation to the Notes in respect of the immediately preceding Interest Period. If there has not been a first Interest Payment Date, the Rate of Interest shall be the initial Rate of Interest. Where a different Margin or Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period from that which applied to the immediately preceding Interest Period, the Margin, Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to the relevant Interest Period shall be substituted in place of the Margin, Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to that immediately preceding Interest Period. For the avoidance of doubt, this sub-paragraph shall apply to the relevant next succeeding Interest Period only and any subsequent Interest Periods are subject to the subsequent operation of, and to adjustment as provided in, this Condition 7.2(c).

(ii) Successor Rate or Alternative Rate

If the Independent Adviser, following consultation with the Issuer and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, determines that:

(A) there is a Successor Rate, then such Successor Rate shall (subject to adjustment as provided in Condition 7.2(c)(iii)) subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for all future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the further operation of this Condition 7.2(c)); or

(B) there is no Successor Rate but that there is an Alternative Rate, then such Alternative Rate shall (subject to adjustment as provided in Condition 7.2(c)(iii)) subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for all future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the subsequent operation of this 7.2(c)).

(iii) Adjustment Spread

The Adjustment Spread (or the formula or methodology for determining the Adjustment Spread) shall be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be).

Following any such determination by the Independent Adviser, following consultation with the Issuer, of the Adjustment Spread, the Issuer shall give notice thereof in accordance with Condition 7.2(c)(iv). The Principal Paying Agent or the Agent Bank, as applicable, shall apply such Adjustment Spread to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) for each subsequent determination of a relevant Rate of Interest (or any component part(s) thereof) by reference to such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable).

(iv) Benchmark Amendments

If any Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and Adjustment Spread is determined in accordance with this Condition 7.2(c) and the Independent Adviser, following consultation with the Issuer and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, determines (i) that amendments to the Conditions, the Note Trust Deed or the Agency Agreement are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread (such amendments, the Benchmark Amendments) and (ii) the terms of the Benchmark Amendments, then the Issuer shall, following consultation with the Independent Adviser and subject to the Issuer giving notice thereof in accordance with Condition 7.2(c)(v), without any requirement for the consent or approval of Noteholders, vary the Conditions, the Note Trust Deed and/or the Agency Agreement to give effect to such Benchmark Amendments with effect from the date specified in such notice.

At the request of the Issuer, but subject to receipt by the Note Trustee of a certificate signed by two Authorised Signatories of the Issuer pursuant to Condition 7.2(c)(v), the Note Trustee shall (at the expense and direction of the Issuer), without any requirement for the consent or approval of the Noteholders or the Couponholders (or, in the case of Secured Notes, any other Series Secured Party), be obliged to use its best endeavours to implement any Benchmark Amendments (including, inter alia, by the execution of a deed supplemental to or amending the Note Trust Deed) and the Note Trustee shall not be liable to any party for any consequences thereof (irrespective of whether such Benchmark Amendment(s) relate(s) to a Basic Terms Modification (as defined in the Note Trust Deed)), provided that the Note Trustee shall not be obliged so to implement, if in the opinion of the Note Trustee doing so would impose more onerous obligations upon it or expose it to any additional duties, responsibilities or liabilities or reduce or amend the rights and/or the protective provisions afforded to it in the Conditions and/or the Note Trust Deed and/or any documents to which it is a party (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any supplemental note trust deed) in any way.

In connection with any such variation in accordance with this Condition 7.2(c)(iv), the Issuer and the Independent Adviser shall comply with the rules of any stock exchange on which the Notes are for the time being listed or admitted to trading.

(v) Notices

Any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread and the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments determined under this Condition 7.2(c) will be notified promptly by the Issuer to the Note Trustee, the Paying Agents, the Agent Bank (if applicable) and, in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices), the Noteholders. Such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the effective date of the Benchmark Amendments, if any.

No later than notifying the Note Trustee of the same, the Issuer shall deliver to the Note Trustee a certificate signed by two Authorised Signatories of the Issuer:

(A) confirming (I) that a Benchmark Event has occurred, (II) the Successor Rate or, as the case may be, the Alternative Rate, (III) any Adjustment Spread and (IV) the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments, in each case as determined in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 7.2(c); and

(B) certifying that the Benchmark Amendments are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread.

The Note Trustee shall be entitled to rely on such certificate (without enquiry or liability to any person) as sufficient evidence thereof. The Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) specified in such certificate will (in the absence of manifest error in the determination of the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) and without prejudice to the ability of the Note Trustee to rely on such certificate as aforesaid) be binding on the Issuer, the Note Trustee, the Principal Paying Agent, the Agent Bank and the Noteholders.

(vi) Survival of Original Reference Rate

Without prejudice to the obligations of the Issuer or the Independent Adviser under Conditions 7.2(c)(i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v), the Original Reference Rate and the fallback provisions provided for in Condition 7.2(b) and the Agency Agreement will continue to apply unless and until a Benchmark Event has occurred and the Note Trustee has been notified of the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be), the Adjustment Spread and any Benchmark Amendments, in accordance with Condition 7.2(c)(v).

(vii) Definitions

As used in this Condition 7.2(c):

Adjustment Spread means either a spread (which may be positive, negative or zero), or the formula or methodology for calculating a spread, in either case, which the Independent Adviser, following consultation with the Issuer and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, determines is required to be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) to reduce or eliminate, to the fullest extent reasonably practicable in the circumstances, any economic prejudice or benefit (as the case may be) to Noteholders as a result of the replacement of the Original Reference Rate with the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) and is the spread, formula or methodology which:

(a) in the case of a Successor Rate, is formally recommended in relation to the replacement of the Original Reference Rate with the Successor Rate by any Relevant Nominating Body; or (if no such recommendation has been made, or in the case of an Alternative Rate);

(b) the Independent Adviser, following consultation with the Issuer and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner determines, is recognised or acknowledged as being the industry standard for over-the-counter derivative transactions which reference the Original Reference Rate, where such rate has been replaced by the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be); or (if the Independent Adviser, in consultation with the Issuer, determines that no such industry standard is recognised or acknowledged);

(c) the Independent Adviser, in its discretion, following consultation with the Issuer and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, determines to be appropriate;

Alternative Rate means an alternative benchmark or screen rate which the Independent Adviser, following consultation with the Issuer and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, determines in accordance with Condition 7.2(c)(ii) has replaced the Original Reference Rate in customary market usage in the international debt capital markets for the purposes of determining floating rates of interest (or the relevant component part thereof) in the same Specified Currency as the Notes;

Benchmark Amendments has the meaning given to it in Condition 7.2(c)(iv);

Benchmark Event means;

(a) the Original Reference Rate ceasing to be published for a period of at least 5 Business Days or ceasing to exist; or

(b) the later of (i) the making of a public statement by the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that it will, on or before a specified date, cease publishing the Original Reference Rate permanently or indefinitely (in circumstances where no successor administrator has been appointed that will continue publication of the Original Reference Rate) and (ii) the date falling six months prior to the date specified in (i); or

(c) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that (i) the Original Reference Rate has been permanently or indefinitely discontinued or (ii) the Original Reference Rate is no longer representative of an underlying market; or

(d) the later of (i) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that the Original Reference Rate will, on or before a specified date, be permanently or indefinitely discontinued and (ii) the date falling six months prior to the date specified in (i); or

(e) the later of (i) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate as a consequence of which the Original Reference Rate will, on or before a specified date, be prohibited from being used either generally, or in respect of the Notes and (ii) the date falling six months prior to the date specified in (i); or

(f) it has or will prior to the next Interest Determination Date become unlawful for the Agent Bank or the Issuer to determine any Rate of Interest and/or calculate any payments due to be made to any Noteholders using the Original Reference Rate;

Independent Adviser means an independent financial institution of international repute or an independent financial adviser with appropriate expertise appointed by the Issuer at its own expense under Condition 7.2(c)(i) and notified in writing to the Note Trustee;

Original Reference Rate means the benchmark or screen rate (as applicable) specified in the applicable Final Terms for the purposes of determining the relevant Rate of Interest (or any component part(s) thereof) in respect of the Notes or (if applicable) any other successor or alternative rate (or any component part(s) thereof) determined and applicable to the Notes pursuant to the earlier operation of this Condition 7.2(c);

Relevant Nominating Body means, in respect of a benchmark or screen rate (as applicable):

(a) the central bank for the currency to which the benchmark or screen rate (as applicable) relates, or any central bank or other supervisory authority which is responsible for supervising the administrator of the benchmark or screen rate (as applicable); or

(b) any working group or committee sponsored by, chaired or co-chaired by or constituted at the request of (a) the central bank for the currency to which the benchmark or screen rate (as applicable) relates, (b) any central bank or other supervisory authority which is responsible for supervising the administrator of the benchmark or screen rate (as applicable), (c) a group of the aforementioned central banks or other supervisory authorities or (d) the Financial Stability Board or any part thereof; and

Successor Rate means a successor to or replacement of the Original Reference Rate which is formally recommended by any Relevant Nominating Body.

(d) Minimum Rate of Interest and/or Maximum Rate of Interest

If the applicable Final Terms specifies a Minimum Rate of Interest for any Interest Period, then, in the event that the Rate of Interest in respect of such Interest Period (or any Interest Accrual Period falling within such Interest Period) determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) above is less than such Minimum Rate of Interest, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period (or any Interest Accrual Period falling within such Interest Period) shall be such Minimum Rate of Interest.

If the applicable Final Terms specifies a Maximum Rate of Interest for any Interest Period, then, in the event that the Rate of Interest in respect of such Interest Period (or any Interest Accrual Period falling within such Interest Period) determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) above is greater than such Maximum Rate of Interest, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period (or any Interest Accrual Period falling within such Interest Period) shall be such Maximum Rate of Interest.

(e) Determination of Rate of Interest and calculation of Interest Amounts

The Agent Bank will, at or as soon as practicable after each time at which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, determine the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period (or other Interest Accrual Period).

The Agent Bank will calculate the amount of interest (the Interest Amount) payable on the Floating Rate Notes for the relevant Interest Period (or other Interest Accrual Period) by applying the Rate of Interest to:

(i) in the case of Floating Rate Notes which are represented by a Global Note, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Notes represented by such Global Note; or

(ii) in the case of Floating Rate Notes in definitive form, the Calculation Amount;

and, in each case, multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention. Where the Specified Denomination of a Floating Rate Note in definitive form is a multiple of the Calculation Amount, the Interest Amount payable in respect of such Note shall be the product of the amount (determined in the manner provided above) for the Calculation Amount and the amount by which the Calculation Amount is multiplied to reach the Specified Denomination without any further rounding.

Day Count Fraction means, in respect of the calculation of an amount of interest in accordance with this Condition 7.2:

(i) if "Actual/Actual (ISDA)" or "Actual/Actual" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365 (or, if any portion of that Interest Period falls in a leap year, the sum of (I) the actual number of days in that portion of the Interest Period falling in a leap year divided by 366 and (II) the actual number of days in that portion of the Interest Period falling in a non-leap year divided by 365);

(ii) if "Actual/365 (Fixed)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365;

(iii) if "Actual/365 (Sterling)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365 or, in the case of an Interest Payment Date falling in a leap year, 366;

(iv) if "Actual/360" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360;

where:

$\mathbf{Y_1}$ is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

$\mathbf{Y_2}$ is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

$\mathbf{D_1}$ is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless such number is 31, in which case D1 will be 30; and

$\mathbf{D_2}$ is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31 and D1 is greater than 29, in which case D2 will be 30;

(vi) if "30E/360" or "Eurobond Basis" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

Y_1 is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

Y_2 is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

M_1 is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

M_2 is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

D_1 is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D1 will be 30; and

D_2 is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D2 will be 30;

(vii) if "30E/360 (ISDA)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

Y_1 is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

D_2 is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless (i) that day is the last day of February but not the Maturity Date or (ii) such number would be 31, in which case D2 will be 30.

(f) Linear Interpolation

Where Linear Interpolation is specified as applicable in respect of an Interest Period in the applicable Final Terms, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be calculated by the Agent Bank by straight line linear interpolation by reference to two rates based on the relevant Reference Rate , one of which shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next shorter than the length of the relevant Interest Period and the other of which shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Period provided however that if there is no rate available for a period of time next shorter or, as the case may be, next longer, then the Agent Bank shall determine such rate at such time and by reference to such sources as it determines appropriate.

Designated Maturity means, in relation to Screen Rate Determination, the period of time designated in the Reference Rate.

(g) Notification of Rate of Interest and Interest Amounts

(i) Except where the applicable Final Terms specifies both "Screen Rate Determination" and "Overnight Rate" to be 'Applicable', the Agent Bank will cause the Rate of Interest and each Interest Amount for each Interest Period and the relevant Interest Payment Date to be notified to the Issuer, the Note Trustee and any stock exchange on which the relevant Floating Rate Notes are for the time being listed and notice thereof to be published in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices) as soon as possible after their determination but in no event later than the fourth London Business Day thereafter. Each Interest Amount and Interest Payment Date so notified may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made by way of adjustment) without prior notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period. Any such amendment will promptly be notified to each stock exchange on which the relevant Floating Rate Notes are for the time being listed and to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices).

(ii) Where the applicable Final Terms specifies both "Screen Rate Determination" and "Overnight Rate" to be 'Applicable', the Agent Bank, as applicable, will cause the Rate of Interest and each Interest Amount for each Interest Accrual Period and the relevant Interest Payment Date to be notified to the Issuer, the Note Trustee and any stock exchange on which the relevant Floating Rate Notes are for the time being listed and notice thereof to be published in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices) as soon as possible after their determination but in no event later than the second London Business Day thereafter. Each Rate of Interest, Interest Amount and Interest Payment Date so notified may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made by way of adjustment) without prior notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the relevant Interest Accrual Period. Any such amendment will promptly be notified to each stock exchange on which the relevant Floating Rate Notes are for the time being listed and to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices).

For the purposes of this Condition 7.2(g), the expression London Business Day means a day (other than a Saturday or a Sunday) on which banks and foreign exchange markets are open for general business in London.

(h) Inability or failure of Agent Bank to make determinations or calculations

The Agent Bank shall not be obliged to make any determination or calculation required by the Conditions if it is not legally permitted to do so. If for any reason at any relevant time the Agent Bank is unable, or fails, to determine the Rate of Interest or to calculate any Interest Amount in accordance with subparagraph (b)(i) above, the Issuer shall be obliged to appoint an alternative agent approved by the Note Trustee to make such determination or calculation or a successor Agent Bank in accordance with paragraph (j) below.

(j) Agent Bank

The Issuer shall procure that, so long as any of the Notes remains outstanding, there is at all times an Agent Bank for the purposes of the Notes and the Issuer may, subject to the prior written approval of the Note Trustee, terminate the appointment of the Agent Bank. In the event of the appointed office of any bank being unable or unwilling to continue to act as the Agent Bank or failing duly to determine the Rate of Interest and the Interest Amount for any Interest Period, the Issuer shall, subject to the prior written approval of the Note Trustee, appoint the London office of another major bank engaged in the London interbank market to act in its place. The Agent Bank may not resign its duties or be removed without a successor having been appointed.

7.5 Interest on Index-Linked Interest Notes

This Condition 7.5 applies to Index-Linked Interest Notes only. The applicable Final Terms will contain provisions applicable to the determination of Index-linked interest and must be read in conjunction with this Condition 7.5 and Condition 8 for full information on the manner in which interest is calculated on the Index-Linked Interest Notes.

(a) Interest Payment Dates

Each Index-Linked Interest Note bears interest from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date and such interest will be payable in arrear on either:

(i) the Specified Interest Payment Date(s) in each year specified in the applicable Final Terms; or

(ii) if no Specified Interest Payment Date(s) is/are specified in the applicable Final Terms, each date (each such date, together with each Specified Interest Payment Date, an Interest Payment Date) which falls the number of months or other period specified as the Specified Period in the applicable Final Terms after the preceding Interest Payment Date or, in the case of the first Interest Payment Date, after the Interest Commencement Date.

Such interest will be payable in respect of each Interest Period (or, if applicable, other Interest Accrual Period).

If a Business Day Convention is specified in the applicable Final Terms and (x) if there is no numerically corresponding day in the calendar month in which an Interest Payment Date should occur or (y) if any Interest Payment Date would otherwise fall on a day which is not a Business Day, then, if the Business Day Convention specified is:

(A) in any case where Specified Periods are specified in accordance with Condition 7.5(a)(ii) above, the Floating Rate Convention, such Interest Payment Date (a) in the case of (x) above, shall be the last day that is a Business Day in the relevant month and the provisions of (ii) below shall apply mutatis mutandis or (b) in the case of (y) above, shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event (i) such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day and (ii) each subsequent Interest Payment Date shall be the last Business Day in the month which falls the Specified Period after the preceding applicable Interest Payment Date occurred; or

(B) the Following Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day; or

(C) the Modified Following Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day; or

(D) the Preceding Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

(b) Rate of Interest

The Rate of Interest payable from time to time in respect of Index-Linked Interest Notes will be specified, or determined in the manner specified, in the applicable Final Terms.

The provisions of Condition 7.2(d) shall apply to this Condition 7.5 mutatis mutandis.

(c) Determination of applicable Index Ratio or Limited Index Ratio and calculation of Interest Amounts

The Calculation Agent will, at or as soon as practicable after each time at which the Index Ratio or Limited Index Ratio (as applicable) applicable to any payment of interest in respect of the Notes becomes capable of being determined, determine the Index Ratio or Limited Index Ratio (as applicable) applicable to the relevant payment of interest.

The Calculation Agent will calculate the amount of interest (the Interest Amount) payable on the Index-Linked Interest Notes for the relevant Interest Period (or other Interest Accrual Period) by applying the Rate of Interest to:

(i) in the case of Index-Linked Interest Notes which are represented by a Global Note, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Notes represented by such Global Note; or

(ii) in the case of Index-Linked Interest Notes in definitive form, the Calculation Amount, and, in each case, multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction (which shall have the meaning specified in Condition 7.1 or Condition 7.2) and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention. Such Interest Amount will then be adjusted in accordance with Condition 8.2. Where the Specified Denomination of an Index-Linked Interest Note in definitive form is a multiple of the Calculation Amount, the Interest Amount payable in respect of such Note shall be the product of the amount (determined and adjusted in the manner provided above) for the Calculation Amount and the amount by which the Calculation Amount is multiplied to reach the Specified Denomination without any further rounding.

(d) Notification of Interest Amounts

The Calculation Agent will cause the Interest Amount for each Interest Period (or, if applicable, other Interest Accrual Period) and the relevant Interest Payment Date to be notified to the Note Trustee, the Issuer and the Principal Paying Agent and any stock exchange on which the Notes are for the time being listed and notice thereof to be published in accordance with Condition 17 as soon as possible after their determination but in no event later than the fourth London Business Day (as defined in Condition 7.2(g)) thereafter. Each Interest Amount, Rate of Interest (if applicable) and Interest Payment Date so notified may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made by way of adjustment) without prior notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period (or other Interest Accrual Period). Any such amendment will be promptly notified to each stock exchange on which the Notes are for the time being listed and to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 17.

(e) Inability or failure of Calculation Agent to make determinations or calculations

The Calculation Agent shall not be obliged to make any determination or calculation required by the Conditions if it is not legally permitted to do so. If for any reason at any relevant time the Calculation Agent is unable, or fails, to determine the Index Ratio or Limited Index Ratio applicable to any payment of interest in respect of the Notes or defaults in its obligation to calculate any Interest Amount for any Interest Period (or other Interest Accrual Period), in each case in accordance with sub-paragraph (c) above or as otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, as the case may be, the Issuer shall be obliged to appoint an alternative agent approved by the Note Trustee to make such determination or calculation or a successor Calculation Agent in accordance with sub-paragraph (g) below. Each such determination or calculation shall be deemed to have been made by the Calculation Agent.

(f) Certificates to be final

All certificates, communications, opinions, determinations, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of the provisions of this Condition 7.5 by the Calculation Agent shall (in the absence of wilful default, bad faith or manifest error) be binding on the Issuer, the Paying Agents, the Note Trustee, the Calculation

Agent and all Noteholders and Couponholders and (in the absence of wilful default or bad faith) no liability to the Issuer, the Note Trustee, the Noteholders or the Couponholders shall attach to the Calculation Agent in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of its powers, duties and discretions pursuant to such provisions.

(g) Calculation Agent

The Issuer shall procure that, so long as any Index-Linked Notes remain outstanding, there is at all times a Calculation Agent for the purposes of such Notes and the Issuer may, subject to the prior written approval of the Note Trustee, terminate the appointment of the Calculation Agent. In the event of the Calculation Agent being unable or unwilling to continue to act as the Calculation Agent or failing duly to make any determination or calculation required of it under these Conditions, the Issuer shall, subject to the prior written approval of the Note Trustee, appoint a reputable financial institution of good standing to act as Calculation Agent in its place. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties or be removed without a successor having been appointed.

Limited Index Linked Notes means Index-Linked Notes to which a Maximum Indexation Factor and/or a Minimum Indexation Factor (as specified in the relevant Final Terms) applies.

8.2 Index-Linked Interest Provisions

If Index-Linked Interest is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the amount of interest (the Adjusted Interest Amount) payable in respect of the Notes on any day on which interest falls due shall be determined by the Calculation Agent by multiplying (i) the Interest Amount determined in accordance with Condition 7.5(c) by (ii) the Index Ratio or (in the case of Limited Index Linked Notes) the Limited Index Ratio applicable to the month in, or date on (as the case may be), which the relevant interest payment falls due, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency (half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with market convention).

References in these Conditions and the applicable Final Terms to "Interest Amount" shall (except for the purposes of the determination referred to in part (i) of this Condition 8.2) be deemed to be references to the Adjusted Interest Amount.

8.3 Index-Linked Redemption Provisions

If Index-Linked Redemption is specified in the applicable Final Terms, unless the applicable Final Terms provide otherwise any applicable Final Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount, Optional Redemption Amount, Residual Call Amount and/or Instalment Amount per Calculation Amount of the Notes shall be the amount determined by the Calculation Agent by multiplying the applicable amount per Calculation Amount specified in the applicable Final Terms by the Index Ratio or (in the case of Limited Index Linked Notes) the Limited Index Ratio applicable to the month in, or date on (as the case may be), which the due date for redemption falls and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency (half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with market convention), provided that:

(a) if a Minimum Final Redemption Amount, Minimum Early Redemption Amount, Minimum Optional Redemption Amount, Minimum Residual Call Amount or any relevant Minimum Instalment Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms and such amount is greater than the amount calculated by the Calculation Agent in accordance with this Condition 8.3, the Final Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount, Optional Redemption Amount, Residual Call Amount and/or Instalment Amount (as applicable) per Calculation Amount shall be, respectively, the Minimum Final Redemption Amount, Minimum Early Redemption Amount, Minimum Optional Redemption Amount, Minimum Residual Call Amount and/or relevant Minimum Instalment Amount (as applicable) so specified in the applicable Final Terms; and/or

(b) if a Maximum Final Redemption Amount, Maximum Early Redemption Amount, Maximum Optional Redemption Amount, Maximum Residual Call Amount and/or any relevant Maximum Instalment Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms and such amount is less than the amount calculated by the Calculation Agent in accordance with this Condition 8.3, the Final Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount, Optional Redemption Amount, Residual Call Amount and/or relevant Instalment Amount (as applicable) per Calculation Amount shall be, respectively, the Maximum Final Redemption Amount, Maximum Early Redemption Amount, Maximum Optional Redemption Amount, Maximum Residual Call Amount and/or relevant Maximum Instalment Amount (as applicable) so specified in the applicable Final Terms.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Modified Spens Amount, Make-Whole Amount or Other Amount (if any) applicable in respect of the Notes pursuant to Condition 10.3 will not be subject to indexation in accordance with this Condition 8.3.

8.4 Changes in Circumstances Affecting the Index: change in base

If at any time and from time to time the Index is changed by the substitution of a new base therefor, then with effect from the month, or (as the case may be) the first date, from and including that in, or on, which such substitution takes effect (i) the definition of "Index" and "Index Figure" shall be deemed to refer to the new month or date (as applicable) in substitution for 2015 (or, as the case may be, to such other month or date (as applicable) as may have been substituted therefor), and (ii) the new Base Index Figure shall be the product of the existing Base Index Figure and the Index Figure for the date on which such substitution takes effect, divided by the Index Figure for the date immediately preceding the date on which such substitution takes effect.

8.5 Changes in Circumstances Affecting the Index: delay in publication of the Index

If the Index Figure relating to any month (a Relevant Month) which is required to be taken account for the purposes of the determination of the Index Figure applicable to any month or date (as the case may be) is not published on or before the 14th Business Day before the date on which any payment that is subject to adjustment in accordance with Condition 8.2 or 8.3 above is due (the date for payment), the Index Figure relating to such Relevant Month shall be (i) such substitute index figure (if any) as in the determination of the Indexation Adviser has been published by the United Kingdom Debt Management Office (or other relevant governmental authority) or the Bank of England, as the case may be, for the purposes of indexation of payments on the Indexed Benchmark Gilt (if any) or, failing such publication, on any one or more issues of index-linked Treasury Stock that is indexed to the same Index as the Notes, as selected by the Indexation Adviser or (ii) if no such determination is made by such Indexation Adviser within seven days, the Index Figure last published (or, if later, the substitute index figure last determined pursuant to Condition 8.4 above) before the date for payment.

8.6 Application of Changes

Where the provisions of Condition 8.5 above apply, the determination of the Indexation Adviser as to the Index Figure applicable to the month in which the date for payment falls or the date for payment, as the case may be, shall be conclusive and binding on the Issuer, the Note Trustee, the Noteholders and Couponholders. If, an Index Figure having been applied pursuant to Condition 8.5(ii) above, the Index Figure relating to any Relevant Month or relevant calculation month, as the case may be, is subsequently published while a Note is still outstanding, then:

(a) in relation to a payment of principal or interest in respect of such Note determined by reference to the Index Ratio other than upon final redemption of such Note, the principal or interest (as the case may be) next payable after the date of such subsequent publication shall be increased or reduced, as the case may be, by an amount equal to the shortfall or excess, as the case may be, of the amount of the relevant payment made (on the basis of the Index Figure applicable by virtue of Condition 8.5(ii) above) above or below the amount of the relevant payment that would have been due if the Index Figure subsequently published had been published on or before the 14th Business Day before the date for payment; and

(b) in relation to a payment of principal or interest upon final redemption, no subsequent adjustment to amounts paid will be made.

8.7 Cessation of, or Fundamental Changes to, the Index

If (i) the Note Trustee has been notified by the Calculation Agent that the Index has ceased to be published or (ii) only if Condition 8.7(ii) is specified in the Final Terms as applicable to the Notes, any change is made to the coverage or the basic calculation of the Index which constitutes a fundamental change which would, in the opinion of (A) the Issuer be materially prejudicial to the interests of the Issuer, or (B) the Note Trustee (acting solely on the advice of the Indexation Adviser), be materially prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders, the Issuer will give written notice of such occurrence to the Note Trustee in the case of (A) or the Note Trustee will give written notice of such occurrence to the Issuer in the case of (B), and the Issuer and the Note Trustee (acting solely on the advice of the Indexation Adviser) together shall seek to agree for the purpose of the Notes one or more adjustments to the Index or a substitute index (with or without adjustments) with the intention that the same should leave both the Issuer and the Noteholders in substantially a no better and no worse position than they would have been had the Index not ceased to be published or, if applicable, the relevant fundamental change not been made. For the avoidance of doubt, the Note Trustee shall be entitled to rely absolutely and without any liability on the advice received from the Indexation Adviser.

If the Issuer and the Note Trustee (acting solely on the advice of the Indexation Adviser) fail to reach agreement as mentioned above within 20 Business Days following the giving of notice as mentioned in the immediately preceding paragraph, a bank or other person in London shall be appointed by the Issuer with the written approval of the Note Trustee (acting solely on the advice of the Indexation Adviser) (in each case, such bank or other person so appointed being referred to as the Expert), to determine for the purpose of the Notes one or more adjustments to the Index or a substitute index (with or without adjustments) with the intention that the same should leave both the Issuer and the Noteholders in substantially a no better and no worse position than they would have been had the Index not ceased to be published or the relevant fundamental change not been made.

The Index shall be adjusted or replaced by a substitute index as agreed by the Issuer and the Note Trustee (acting solely on the advice of the Indexation Adviser) or as determined by the Expert pursuant to the foregoing paragraphs, as the case may be, and references in these Conditions to the Index and to any Index Figure shall be deemed amended in such manner as the Note Trustee (acting solely on the advice of the Indexation Adviser) and the Issuer agree are appropriate to give effect to such adjustment or replacement. Such amendments shall be effective from the date of such notification and binding upon the Issuer, the Note Trustee and the Noteholders, and the Issuer shall give notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 17 of such adjustment, replacement and/or amendments as promptly as practicable following such notification.

Any Indexation Adviser and/or Expert appointed pursuant to the provisions of this Condition 8 shall act as an expert and not as an arbitrator and all fees, costs and expenses of the Indexation Adviser and/or Expert and of the Issuer and the Note Trustee in connection with such appointment shall be borne by the Issuer, and neither the Indexation Adviser, the Note Trustee nor the Expert shall be liable to Noteholders or Couponholders for determinations made by it pursuant to the provisions of this Condition 8.

9. PAYMENTS

9.1 Method of payment

Subject as provided below:

(a) payments in a Specified Currency other than euro will be made by credit or transfer to an account in the relevant Specified Currency maintained by the payee with a bank in the principal financial centre of the country of such Specified Currency (which, if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars, shall be Sydney and Auckland, respectively); and

(b) payments will be made in euro by credit or transfer to a euro account (or any other account to which euro may be credited or transferred) specified by the payee.

Payments will be subject in all cases to (i) any fiscal or other laws and regulations applicable thereto in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 11 (Taxation) and (ii) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the Code) or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, any official interpretations thereof, or (without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 11 (Taxation)) any law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto.

9.2 Presentation of definitive Notes and Coupons

Payments of principal in respect of definitive Notes will (subject as provided below) be made in the manner provided in Condition 9.1 only against presentation and surrender (or, in the case of part payment of any sum due, endorsement) of definitive Notes, and payments of interest in respect of definitive Notes will (subject as provided below) be made as aforesaid only against presentation and surrender (or, in the case of part payment of any sum due, endorsement) of Coupons, in each case at the specified office of any Paying Agent outside the United States (which expression, as used herein, means the United States of America (including the States and the District of Columbia and its possessions)).

Fixed Rate Notes in definitive form (other than Long Maturity Notes (as defined below)) should be presented for payment together with all unmatured Coupons appertaining thereto (which expression shall for this purpose include Coupons falling to be issued on exchange of matured Talons), failing which the amount of any missing unmatured Coupon (or, in the case of payment not being made in full, the same proportion of the amount of such missing unmatured Coupon as the sum so paid bears to the sum due) will be deducted from the sum due for payment. Each amount of principal so deducted will be paid in the manner mentioned above against surrender of the relative missing Coupon at any time before the expiry of 10 years after the Relevant Date in respect of such principal (whether or not such Coupon would otherwise have become void under Condition 12 (Prescription)) or, if later, five years from the date on which such Coupon would otherwise have become due, but in no event thereafter.

Upon any Fixed Rate Note in definitive form becoming due and repayable prior to its Maturity Date, all unmatured Talons (if any) appertaining thereto will become void and no further Coupons will be issued in respect thereof.

Upon the date on which any Floating Rate Note, Index-Linked Note or Long Maturity Note in definitive bearer form becomes due and repayable, unmatured Coupons and Talons (if any) relating thereto (whether or not attached) shall become void and no payment or, as the case may be, exchange for further Coupons shall be made in respect thereof. A Long Maturity Note is a Fixed Rate Note (other than a Fixed Rate Note which on issue had a Talon attached) whose nominal amount on issue is less than the aggregate interest payable thereon provided that such Note shall cease to be a Long Maturity Note on the Interest Payment Date on which the aggregate amount of interest remaining to be paid after that date is less than the nominal amount of such Note.

If the due date for redemption of any definitive Note is not an Interest Payment Date, interest (if any) accrued in respect of such Note from (and including) the preceding Interest Payment Date or, as the case may be, the Interest Commencement Date shall be payable only against surrender of the relevant definitive Note.

9.3 Payments in respect of Global Notes

Payments of principal and interest (if any) in respect of Notes represented by any Global Note will (subject as provided below) be made in the manner specified above in relation to definitive Notes or otherwise in the manner specified in the relevant Global Note, where applicable against presentation or surrender, as the case may be, of such Global Note at the specified office of any Paying Agent outside the United States. A record of each payment made, distinguishing between any payment of principal and any payment of interest, will be made either on such Global Note by the Paying Agent to which it was presented or in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable.

9.4 General provisions applicable to payments

The holder of a Global Note shall be the only person entitled to receive payments in respect of Notes represented by such Global Note and the obligations of the Issuer will be discharged by payment to, or to the order of, the holder of such Global Note in respect of each amount so paid. Each of the persons shown in the records of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg as the beneficial holder of a particular nominal amount of Notes represented by such Global Note must look solely to Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg as the case may be, for his share of each payment so made by the Issuer to, or to the order of, the holder of such Global Note.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Condition, if any amount of principal and/or interest in respect of Notes is payable in U.S. dollars, such U.S. dollar payments of principal and/or interest in respect of such Notes will be made at the specified office of a Paying Agent in the United States if:

(a) the Issuer has appointed Paying Agents with specified offices outside the United States with the reasonable expectation that such Paying Agents would be able to make payment in U.S. dollars at such specified offices outside the United States of the full amount of principal and interest on the Notes in the manner provided above when due;

(b) payment of the full amount of such principal and interest at all such specified offices outside the United States is illegal or effectively precluded by exchange controls or other similar restrictions on the full payment or receipt of principal and interest in U.S. dollars; and

(c) such payment is then permitted under United States law without involving, in the opinion of the Issuer, adverse tax consequences to the Issuer.

9.5 Payment Day

If the date for payment of any amount in respect of any Note or Coupon is not a Payment Day, the holder thereof shall not be entitled to payment until the next following Payment Day in the relevant place and shall not be entitled to further interest or other payment in respect of such delay. For these purposes, Payment Day means any day which (subject to Condition 12 (Prescription)) is:

(a) a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits):

  (i) in the case of Notes in definitive form only, in the relevant place of presentation; and

  (ii) in each Additional Financial Centre (other than T2) specified in the applicable Final Terms;

(b) if T2 is specified as an Additional Financial Centre in the applicable Final Terms, a day on which T2 is open; and

(c) either (1) in relation to any sum payable in a Specified Currency other than euro, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre of the country of the relevant Specified Currency (which if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars shall be Sydney and Auckland, respectively) or (2) in relation to any sum payable in euro, a day on which T2 is open.

9.6 Interpretation of principal and interest

Any reference in the Conditions to principal in respect of the Notes shall be deemed to include, as applicable:

(a) any additional amounts which may be payable with respect to principal under Condition 11 (Taxation) or under any undertaking or covenant given in addition thereto, or in substitution therefor, pursuant to the Note Trust Deed;

(b) the Final Redemption Amount of the Notes;

(c) the Early Redemption Amount of the Notes;

(d) any Instalment Amount in respect of the Notes;

(e) the Optional Redemption Amount (if any) of the Notes;

(f) the Residual Call Amount (if any) of the Notes; and

(g) any premium and any other amounts (other than interest) which may be payable by the Issuer under or in respect of the Notes.

Any reference in the Conditions to interest in respect of the Notes shall be deemed to include, as applicable, any additional amounts which may be payable with respect to interest under Condition 11 (Taxation) or under any undertaking or covenant given in addition thereto, or in substitution therefor, pursuant to the Note Trust Deed.

10. REDEMPTION AND PURCHASE

10.1 Redemption at maturity

Unless previously redeemed or purchased and cancelled as specified below, each Note will be redeemed by the Issuer:

(a) where Final Redemption is specified in the applicable Final Terms, at its Final Redemption Amount in the relevant Specified Currency on the Maturity Date, all as specified in the applicable Final Terms; or

(b) where Instalment Redemption is specified in the applicable Final Terms, in part on each Instalment Date in the Instalment Amount in the relevant Specified Currency, all as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

10.2 Redemption for tax reasons

The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time (if the Note is neither a Floating Rate Note nor an Index-Linked Interest Note) or on any Interest Payment Date (if the Note is either a Floating Rate Note or an Index-Linked Interest Note), on giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice to the Note Trustee and the Principal Paying Agent and, in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices), the Noteholders (which notice shall be irrevocable), if the Issuer satisfies the Note Trustee immediately before the giving of such notice that:

(a) on the occasion of the next payment due under the Notes, the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts as provided or referred to in Condition 11 (Taxation) as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of a Tax Jurisdiction (as defined in Condition 11 (Taxation)) or any change in the application or official interpretation of such laws or regulations, which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the date on which agreement is reached to issue the first Tranche of the Notes; and provided that no such notice of redemption shall be given earlier than 90 days prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer would be obliged to pay such additional amounts were a payment in respect of the Notes then due.

Prior to the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this Condition, the Issuer shall deliver to the Note Trustee (i) a certificate signed by two Authorised Signatories of the Issuer stating that the Issuer is entitled to effect such redemption and setting forth a statement of facts showing that the conditions precedent to the right of the Issuer so to redeem have occurred and (ii) an opinion of independent legal advisers of recognised standing to the effect that the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay such additional amounts as a result of such change or amendment. The Note Trustee shall be entitled to accept without further enquiry such certificate and legal opinion as sufficient evidence of the satisfaction of the conditions precedent set out above, in which event it shall be conclusive and binding on the Noteholders and the Couponholders.

Notes redeemed pursuant to this Condition 10.2 will be redeemed at their Early Redemption Amount referred to in Condition 10.9 below together (if appropriate) with interest accrued to (but excluding) the date of redemption.

10.3 Redemption at the option of the Issuer (Issuer Call)

If Issuer Call is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer may, at any time (if this Note is neither a Floating Rate Note nor an Index-Linked Interest Note) or on any Interest Payment Date (if this Note is either a Floating Rate Note or an Index-Linked Interest Note), having given:

(a) not less than 15 nor more than 30 days' notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices); and

(b) notice to the Note Trustee and the Principal Paying Agent not less than 15 days before the giving of the notice referred to in (a),

(which notices shall be irrevocable and shall specify the date fixed for redemption), redeem all of the Notes or, subject as provided in Condition 10.6, some only (provided, however, that in respect of a redemption in part, such redemption shall be in respect of not less than £5,000,000 in aggregate nominal amount of Notes of the relevant Series).

Redemption of Notes pursuant to this Condition shall be made at the Optional Redemption Amount(s) specified in the applicable Final Terms, together with any interest accrued up to (but excluding) the date of redemption.

The Optional Redemption Amount will be:

(i) other than in relation to Index-Linked Notes, if Modified Spens Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the amount determined as set out below; or

(ii) other than in relation to Index-Linked Notes, if Make-Whole Amount or Other Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the amount determined as set out in the applicable Final Terms; or

(iii) otherwise, such amount as is specified in the applicable Final Terms.

If Modified Spens Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the Optional Redemption Amount shall be the amount equal to the higher of the following:

(A) par; and

(B) the price (expressed as a percentage) (as reported in writing to the Issuer and the Note Trustee by a financial adviser nominated by the Issuer and whose identity is approved by the Note Trustee (the Nominated Financial Adviser)) (and rounded to three decimal places (0.0005 being rounded upwards)) at which the Gross Redemption Yield on the Notes (if the Notes were to remain outstanding until their original maturity) on the Determination Date would be equal to the sum of (i) the Gross Redemption Yield at 3:00 pm (London time) on the Determination Date of the Benchmark Gilt and (ii) the Spens Margin.

For the purposes of this Condition:

Benchmark Gilt means the UK Government Gilt specified as such in the applicable Final Terms or such other conventional (i.e. not index-linked) UK Government Gilt as the Issuer (with the advice of the Nominated Financial Adviser) may determine to be the most appropriate conventional UK Government Gilt;

Determination Date means two Business Days prior to the dispatch of the notice referred to in (a) above;

Gross Redemption Yield means a yield calculated by the Nominated Financial Adviser on the basis set out by the United Kingdom Debt Management Office in the paper "Formulae for Calculating Gilt Prices from Yields" page 4, Section One: Price/Yield Formulae ("Conventional Gilts") (published on 8 June, 1998, as amended or supplemented from time to time) on a semi-annual compounding basis (converted (in the case of Notes with annual Interest Payment Dates) to an annualised yield or (in the case of Notes which do not have annual or semi-annual Interest Payment Dates) to a yield on such basis as shall be equivalent to the frequency of interest payments on the Notes (as determined by the Nominated Financial Adviser) and rounded up (if necessary) to four decimal places) or, if such formula does not reflect generally accepted market practice at the time of redemption, a gross redemption yield calculated in accordance with generally accepted market practice at such time as determined by the Nominated Financial Adviser (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner); and Spens Margin means the margin specified as such in the applicable Final Terms.

10.4 Maturity Call Option

Other than in relation to Index-Linked Notes, if Maturity Call Option is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer may at any time from the Call Option Date specified in the applicable Final Terms (which shall be no earlier than 90 days before the Maturity Date) to the Maturity Date, having given:

(a) not less than 15 nor more than 30 days' notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices); and

(b) notice to the Note Trustee and the Principal Paying Agent not less than 15 days before the giving of the notice referred to in (a),

(which notices shall be irrevocable and shall specify the date fixed for redemption), redeem all the Notes or, subject as provided in Condition 10.6, some only at the Final Redemption Amount, together with any interest accrued up to (but excluding) the date of redemption.

10.5 Residual Call Option

If Residual Call Option is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms and, at any time, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Notes is 20 per cent. or less of the aggregate nominal amount of the Notes issued, the Issuer may, at any time (if this Note is neither a Floating Rate Note nor an Index-Linked Interest Note) or on any Interest Payment Date (if this Note is either a Floating Rate Note or an Index-Linked Interest Note), having given;

(a) not less than 15 nor more than 30 days' notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices); and

(b) notice to the Note Trustee and the Principal Paying Agent not less than 15 days before the giving of the notice referred to in (a),

(which notices shall be irrevocable and shall specify the date fixed for redemption), redeem the Notes in whole, but not in part, at the Residual Call Amount specified in the applicable Final Terms, together with any interest accrued up to (but excluding) the date of redemption, provided that, if the Issuer has exercised the Issuer Call option as specified in Condition 10.3 in respect of part only of a relevant Series of Notes, the provisions of this Condition 10.5 shall not apply to the same Series of Notes for a period of 12 months from the applicable date of redemption of the Notes of such Series.

Prior to the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this Condition, the Issuer shall deliver to the Note Trustee a certificate signed by two Authorised Signatories of the Issuer stating that the Issuer is entitled to effect such redemption and setting forth a statement of facts showing that the condition precedent to the right of the Issuer so to redeem has occurred. The Note Trustee shall be entitled to accept without further enquiry such certificate as sufficient evidence of the satisfaction of the condition precedent set out above, in which event it shall be conclusive and binding on the Noteholders and the Couponholders.

10.6 Provisions relating to Partial Redemption

In the case of a partial redemption of Notes, Notes to be redeemed (Redeemed Notes) will (i) in the case of Redeemed Notes represented by definitive Notes, be drawn individually by lot, not more than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption and (ii) in the case of Redeemed Notes represented by a Global Note, be selected in accordance with the rules of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, (to be reflected in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg as either a pool factor or a reduction in nominal amount, at their discretion). In the case of Redeemed Notes represented by definitive Notes, a list of the serial numbers of such Redeemed Notes will be published in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices) not less than 15 days prior to the date fixed for redemption. Such notice will also specify the date fixed for redemption, the redemption amount and the aggregate nominal amount of the Redeemed Notes, the serial numbers of the Notes previously called for redemption and not presented for payment and the aggregate nominal amount of the Notes which will be outstanding after the partial redemption.

10.7 Redemption at the option of the Noteholders (Investor Put)

If Investor Put is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, upon the holder of any Note giving to the Issuer in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices) not less than the minimum nor more than the maximum period of notice specified in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer will, upon the expiry of such notice, redeem such Note on the Optional Redemption Date and at the Optional Redemption Amount together, if appropriate, with interest accrued to (but excluding) the Optional Redemption Date.

To exercise the right to require redemption of this Note the holder of this Note must, if this Note is in definitive form and held outside Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, deliver, at the specified office of any Paying Agent at any time during normal business hours of such Paying Agent falling within the notice period, a duly completed and signed notice of exercise in the form (for the time being current) obtainable from any specified office of any Paying Agent (a Put Notice) and in which the holder must specify a bank account to which payment is to be made under this Condition and the Put Notice must be accompanied by this Note or evidence satisfactory to the Paying Agent concerned that this Note will, following delivery of the Put Notice, be held to its order or under its control.

If this Note is represented by a Global Note or is in definitive form and held through Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, to exercise the right to require redemption of this Note the holder of this Note must, within the notice period, give notice to the Principal Paying Agent of such exercise in accordance with the standard procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg (which may include notice being given on the holder's instruction by Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or any common depositary or common safekeeper, as the case may be, for it to the Principal Paying Agent by electronic means) in a form acceptable to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg from time to time.

10.8 Redemption upon an Index Redemption Event

In the case of Index-Linked Notes, if either (i) the Index Figure for three consecutive months is required to be determined on the basis of an Index Figure previously published as provided in Condition 8.5(ii) and the Note Trustee has been notified by the Calculation Agent that publication of the Index has ceased or (ii) notice is published by His Majesty's Treasury, or on its behalf, following a change in relation to the Index, offering a right of redemption to the holders of the Indexed Benchmark Gilt, and (in either case) no amendment or substitution of the Index has been advised by the Indexation Adviser to the Issuer and such circumstances are continuing (an Index Redemption Event), the Issuer may, upon giving not more than 60 nor less than 30 days' notice to the Note Trustee and the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 17, redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes at their Early Redemption Amount determined in accordance with Condition 10.9, together (if appropriate) with interest accrued to (but excluding) the date of redemption.

10.9 Early Redemption Amounts

For the purpose of Condition 10.2 above, redemption upon the occurrence of an Index Redemption Event and Condition 13:

(a) each Note (other than a Zero Coupon Note or an Index-Linked Redemption Note) will be redeemed at its Early Redemption Amount specified in the applicable Final Terms;

(b) each Zero Coupon Note will be redeemed at its Early Redemption Amount calculated in accordance with the following formula:

Early Redemption Amount = $RP \times (1 + AY)^y$

where:

RP means the Reference Price;

AY means the Accrual Yield expressed as a decimal; and y is the Day Count Fraction specified in the applicable Final Terms which will be either (i) 30/360 (in which case the numerator will be equal to the number of days (calculated on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of 12 months of 30 days each) from (and including) the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption or (as the case may be) the date upon which such Note becomes due and repayable and the denominator will be 360) or (ii) Actual/360 (in which case the numerator will be equal to the actual number of days from (and including) the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption or (as the case may be) the date upon which such Note becomes due and repayable and the denominator will be 360) or (iii) Actual/365 (in which case the numerator will be equal to the actual number of days from (and including) the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption or (as the case may be) the date upon which such Note becomes due and repayable and the denominator will be 365).

(c) each Index-Linked Redemption Note will be redeemed at an amount calculated in accordance with Condition 8.3.

10.10 Calculations

Each calculation, by or on behalf of the Issuer, for the purposes of this Condition 10 shall, in the absence of manifest error, be final and binding on all persons.

10.11 Purchases

The Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries may at any time purchase Notes (provided that, in the case of definitive Notes, all unmatured Coupons and Talons appertaining thereto are purchased therewith) at any price in the open market or otherwise. Such Notes purchased by the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries may be held, reissued, resold or, at the option of the Issuer, surrendered to any Paying Agent for cancellation.

10.12 Cancellation

All Notes which are redeemed will forthwith be cancelled (together with all unmatured Coupons and Talons attached thereto or surrendered therewith at the time of redemption). All Notes so cancelled and any Notes purchased and cancelled pursuant to Condition 10.11 (together with all unmatured Coupons and Talons cancelled therewith) shall be forwarded to the Principal Paying Agent and cannot be reissued or resold.

10.13 Late payment on Zero Coupon Notes

If the amount payable in respect of any Zero Coupon Note upon redemption of such Zero Coupon Note pursuant to this Condition 10 above or upon its becoming due and repayable as provided in Condition 13 is improperly withheld or refused, the amount due and repayable in respect of such Zero Coupon Note shall be the amount calculated as provided in Condition 10.9(b) above as though the references therein to the date fixed for the redemption or the date upon which such Zero Coupon Note becomes due and payable were replaced by references to the date which is the earlier of:

(a) the date on which all amounts due in respect of such Zero Coupon Note have been paid; and

(b) five days after the date on which the full amount of the moneys payable in respect of such Zero Coupon Notes has been received by the Principal Paying Agent or the Note Trustee and notice to that effect has been given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 17.

11. TAXATION

All payments of principal and interest in respect of the Notes and Coupons by or on behalf of the Issuer will be made without withholding or deduction for or on account of any present or future taxes or duties of whatever nature imposed or levied by or on behalf of any Tax Jurisdiction unless such withholding or deduction is required by law. In such event, the Issuer will pay such additional amounts as shall be necessary in order that the net amounts received by the holders of the Notes or Coupons after such withholding or deduction shall equal the respective amounts of principal and interest which would otherwise have been receivable in respect of the Notes or Coupons, as the case may be, in the absence of such withholding or deduction; except that no such additional amounts shall be payable with respect to any Note or Coupon:

(a) presented for payment in the Tax Jurisdiction; or

(b) the holder of which is liable for such taxes or duties in respect of such Note or Coupon by reason of his having some connection with a Tax Jurisdiction other than the mere holding of such Note or Coupon; or

(c) presented for payment more than 30 days after the Relevant Date except to the extent that the holder thereof would have been entitled to an additional amount on presenting the same for payment on such thirtieth day assuming that day to have been a Payment Day (as defined in Condition 9.5 (Payment Day)).

As used herein Tax Jurisdiction means the UK or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax or any other jurisdiction or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax to which payments made by the Issuer of principal and interest on the Notes become generally subject.

12. PRESCRIPTION

The Notes and Coupons will become void unless claims in respect of principal and/or interest are made within a period of 10 years (in the case of principal) and five years (in the case of interest) after the Relevant Date therefor.

There shall not be included in any Coupon sheet issued on exchange of a Talon any Coupon the claim for payment in respect of which would be void pursuant to this Condition or Condition 9.2 (Presentation of definitive Notes and Coupons) or any Talon which would be void pursuant to Condition 9.2 (Presentation of definitive Notes and Coupons).

or any other steps or action in relation to the Note Trust Deed, the Notes, the Coupons or any of the other Programme Documents or otherwise or to direct the Security Trustee, as aforesaid, unless (a) it has been so directed by an Extraordinary Resolution of the holders of the Notes or so requested in writing by the holders of at least 25 per cent. in nominal amount of the Notes then outstanding and (b) it has been secured and/or indemnified and/or prefunded to its satisfaction.

The Note Trustee may refrain from taking any action, step or proceeding in any jurisdiction if the taking of such action, step or proceeding in that jurisdiction would, in its opinion based upon legal advice in the relevant jurisdiction, be contrary to any law of that jurisdiction. This Condition 13.2 only applies to Unsecured Notes.

(a) Unsecured Note Events of Default

(x) it is or becomes unlawful for the Issuer to perform or comply with any of its obligations under or in respect of the Notes or the Note Trust Deed.

(b) Enforcement in respect of Unsecured Notes

The Note Trustee may at any time, at its discretion and without notice, take such proceedings and/or other steps or action (including lodging an appeal in any proceedings) against or in relation to the Issuer as it may think fit to enforce the provisions of the Note Trust Deed, the Notes, the Coupons and/or any of the other Programme Documents or otherwise, but it shall not be bound to take any such proceedings or any other steps or action in relation to the Note Trust Deed, the Notes, the Coupons or any of the other Programme Documents, as aforesaid, unless (a) it has been so directed by an Extraordinary Resolution of the holders of the Notes or so requested in writing by the holders of at least 25 per cent. in nominal amount of the Notes then outstanding and (b) it has been secured and/or indemnified and/or prefunded to its satisfaction.

The Note Trustee may refrain from taking any action, step or proceeding in any jurisdiction if the taking of such action, step or proceeding in that jurisdiction would, in its opinion based upon legal advice in the relevant jurisdiction, be contrary to any law of that jurisdiction. Furthermore, the Note Trustee may also refrain from taking such action, step or proceeding if it would otherwise render it liable to any person in that jurisdiction or if, in its opinion based upon such legal advice, it would not have the power to do the relevant thing in that jurisdiction by virtue of any applicable law in that jurisdiction or if it is determined by any court or other competent authority in that jurisdiction that it does not have such power.

No Noteholder or Couponholder shall be entitled (i) to take any steps or action against the Issuer to enforce the performance of any of the provisions of the Note Trust Deed, the Notes, the Coupons or any of the other Programme Documents; or (ii) to take any other action (including lodging an appeal in any proceedings) in respect of or concerning the Issuer, in each case unless the Note Trustee, having become bound so to take any such steps, actions or proceedings, is unable or fails so to do within 60 days and the inability or failure shall be continuing.

14. REPLACEMENT OF NOTES, COUPONS AND TALONS

Should any Note, Coupon or Talon be lost, stolen, mutilated, defaced or destroyed, it may be replaced at the specified office of the Principal Paying Agent upon payment by the claimant of such costs and expenses as may be incurred in connection therewith and on such terms as to evidence and indemnity as the Issuer may reasonably require. Mutilated or defaced Notes, Coupons or Talons must be surrendered before replacements will be issued.

15. PAYING AGENTS

The initial Paying Agents are set out above. If any additional Paying Agents are appointed in connection with any Series, the names of such Paying Agents will be specified in Part B of the applicable Final Terms.

The Issuer is entitled, with the prior written approval of the Note Trustee, to vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent and/or appoint additional or other Agents and/or approve any change in the specified office through which any Paying Agent acts, provided that:

(a) there will at all times be a Principal Paying Agent;

(b) so long as the Notes are listed on any stock exchange or admitted to listing by any other relevant authority, there will at all times be a Paying Agent with a specified office in such place as may be required by the rules and regulations of the relevant stock exchange or other relevant authority; and

(c) if at any time (i) any withholding or deduction of any amount for or on account of any taxes or duties upon the Notes or Coupons is required upon the Notes or Coupons being presented for payment in a Tax Jurisdiction; and (ii) such withholding or deduction would not be required were the Notes or Coupons to be presented for payment outside such Tax Jurisdiction, there will at such times be a Paying Agent in a jurisdiction within Europe, other than such Tax Jurisdiction.

In addition, the Issuer shall forthwith appoint a Paying Agent having a specified office in New York City in the circumstances described in Condition 9.4 (General provisions applicable to payments). Notice of any variation, termination, appointment or change in Paying Agents will be given to the Noteholders promptly by the Issuer in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices).

In acting under the Agency Agreement, the Agents act solely as agents of the Issuer and, in certain circumstances specified therein, of the Note Trustee and do not assume any obligation to, or relationship of agency or trust with, any Noteholder or Couponholder. The Agency Agreement contains provisions permitting any entity into which any Paying Agent is merged or converted or with which it is consolidated or to which it transfers all or substantially all of its assets to become the successor agent.

16. EXCHANGE OF TALONS

On and after the Interest Payment Date on which the final Coupon comprised in any Coupon sheet matures, the Talon (if any) forming part of such Coupon sheet may be surrendered at the specified office of any Paying Agent in exchange for a further Coupon sheet including (if such further Coupon sheet does not include Coupons to (and including) the final date for the payment of interest due in respect of the Note to which it appertains) a further Talon, subject to the provisions of Condition 12 (Prescription).

17. NOTICES

All notices regarding the Notes will be deemed to be validly given if published in a leading English language daily newspaper of general circulation in London. It is expected that any such publication in a newspaper will be made in the Financial Times in London. The Issuer shall also ensure that notices are duly published in a manner which complies with the rules of any stock exchange or other relevant authority on which the Notes are for the time being listed or by which they have been admitted to trading including publication on the website of the relevant stock exchange or relevant authority if required by those rules. Any such notice will be deemed to have been given on the date of the first publication or, where required to be published in more than one newspaper, on the date of the first publication in all required newspapers. If publication as provided above is not practicable, a notice will be given in such other manner, and will be deemed to have been given on such date, as the Note Trustee shall approve.

Until such time as any definitive Notes are issued, there may, so long as any Global Notes representing the Notes are held in their entirety on behalf of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, be substituted for such publication in such newspaper(s) or such websites the delivery of the relevant notice to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg for communication by them to the holders of the Notes and, in addition, for so long as any Notes are listed on a stock exchange or are admitted to trading by another relevant authority and the rules of that stock exchange or relevant authority so require, such notice will be published on the website of the relevant stock exchange or relevant authority and/or in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the place or places required by those rules. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given to the holders of the Notes on the day after the day on which the said notice was given to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Notices to be given by any Noteholder shall be in writing and given by lodging the same, together (in the case of any Note in definitive form) with the relative Note or Notes, with the Principal Paying Agent. Whilst any of the Notes are represented by a Global Note, such notice may be given by any holder of a Note to the Principal Paying Agent through Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, in such manner as the Principal Paying Agent and Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, may approve for this purpose.

18. SUBSTITUTION

The Note Trust Deed contains provisions permitting the Note Trustee to, subject to any required amendment of the Note Trust Deed, without the consent of the Noteholders or the Couponholders or, in respect of a Series of Secured Notes, any Series Secured Party, to agree with the Issuer to the substitution in place of the Issuer (or of any previous substitute under this Condition) as the principal debtor under the Notes, the Coupons and the Note Trust Deed of another company, registered society or other entity subject to:

(a) the Note Trustee being satisfied that the interests of the Noteholders will not be materially prejudiced by the substitution; and

(b) certain other conditions set out in the Note Trust Deed being complied with.

For the avoidance of doubt, these provisions do not apply to a Permitted Reorganisation, in respect of which the consent of the Note Trustee shall not be required.

Any such substitution shall be binding on all Noteholders and Couponholders and shall be notified to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices) as soon as practicable thereafter.

19. MEETINGS OF NOTEHOLDERS, MODIFICATION, WAIVER AND AUTHORISATION

19.1 Meetings of Noteholders

The Note Trust Deed contains provisions for convening meetings of the Noteholders (including by way of conference call or by use of a videoconference platform) to consider any matter affecting their interests, including the sanctioning by Extraordinary Resolution of a modification of the Notes, the Coupons or any of the provisions of the Note Trust Deed. Such a meeting may be convened by the Issuer or the Note Trustee and shall be convened by the Issuer if required in writing by Noteholders holding not less than ten per cent. in nominal amount of the Notes for the time being remaining outstanding (other than in respect of a meeting requested by Noteholders to discuss the financial position of the Issuer and, in respect of Secured Notes, the Charging Subsidiaries, which shall be requested in accordance with, and shall be subject to, (in the case of Secured Notes) Condition 5.1(e)(ii) (Information Covenant)) or (in the case of Unsecured Notes) Condition 5.2(c)(ii) (Information Covenant). The quorum at any such meeting for passing an Extraordinary Resolution is one or more persons holding or representing in aggregate more than 50 per cent. in nominal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding, or at any adjourned meeting one or more persons being or representing Noteholders whatever the nominal amount of the Notes so held or represented, except that at any meeting the business of which includes any matter defined in the Note Trust Deed as a Basic Terms Modification, including, inter alia, modifying the date of maturity of the Notes or any date for payment of interest thereon, reducing or cancelling the amount of principal or the rate of interest payable in respect of the Notes or altering the currency of payment of the Notes or the Coupons, the quorum shall be one or more persons holding or representing in aggregate not less than 66 per cent. in nominal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding, or at any such adjourned meeting one or more persons holding or representing in aggregate not less than 33 per cent. in nominal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding. In addition, the Note Trust Deed provides that (i) a resolution passed at a meeting duly convened and held in accordance with the Note Trust Deed by a majority consisting of not less than 75 per cent. of the votes cast on such resolution, (ii) a resolution in writing signed by or on behalf of the holders of not less than 75 per cent. in nominal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding or (iii) consent given by way of electronic consents through the relevant clearing system(s) (in a form satisfactory to the Note Trustee) by or on behalf of the holders of not less than 75 per cent. in nominal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding, shall, in each case, be effective as an Extraordinary Resolution of the Noteholders. An Extraordinary Resolution passed by the Noteholders shall be binding on all the Noteholders, whether or not (in the case of Extraordinary Resolutions passed at any meeting) they are present at any meeting and whether or not they voted on the resolution, and on all Couponholders.

19.2 Modification, Waiver, Authorisation and Determination

The Note Trustee may agree, without the consent of the Noteholders, Couponholders or, in respect of a Series of Secured Notes, any Series Secured Party, to any modification (except as stated in the Note Trust Deed) of, or to the waiver or authorisation of any breach or proposed breach of, any of the Conditions or any of the provisions of the Note Trust Deed or any other Programme Document, or determine, without any such consent as aforesaid, that any Potential Event of Default or Event of Default shall not be treated as such (provided that, in any such case, it is not, in the opinion of the Note Trustee, materially prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders) or may agree, without any such consent as aforesaid, to any modification which, in its opinion, is of a formal, minor or technical nature or to correct a manifest error or an error which is, in the opinion of the Note Trustee, proven. For the avoidance of doubt, no modification shall be made to Condition 4.2 (Post-enforcement) without the consent of each Series Secured Party.

In addition, the Note Trustee shall (subject to the provisions of Condition 7.2(c) (Benchmark Replacement)) be obliged to use its best endeavours to implement any modifications to the Note Trust Deed, the Agency Agreement and the Conditions as may be required in order to give effect to Condition 7.2(c) (Benchmark Replacement) in connection with effecting any Benchmark Amendments without the requirement for the consent or sanction of the Noteholders, Couponholders or, in respect of a Series of Secured Notes, any Series Secured Party. Any such modification shall be binding on the Noteholders and the Couponholders of that Series and, unless the Note Trustee agrees otherwise, shall be notified to the Noteholders of that Series as soon as practicable thereafter.

19.3 Note Trustee to have regard to interests of Noteholders as a class

In connection with the exercise by it of any of its trusts, powers, authorities and discretions (including, without limitation, any modification, waiver, authorisation, determination or substitution), the Note Trustee shall have regard to the general interests of the Noteholders as a class but shall not have regard to any interests arising from circumstances particular to individual Noteholders or Couponholders (whatever their number) and, in particular but without limitation, shall not have regard to the consequences of any such exercise for individual Noteholders or Couponholders (whatever their number) resulting from their being for any purpose domiciled or resident in, or otherwise connected with, or subject to the jurisdiction of, any particular territory or any political sub-division thereof and the Note Trustee shall not be entitled to require, nor shall any Noteholder or Couponholder be entitled to claim, from the Issuer, (in the case of Secured Notes) any Charging Subsidiary, the Note Trustee or any other person any indemnification or payment in respect of any tax consequence of any such exercise upon individual Noteholders or Couponholders except to the extent already provided for in Condition 11 (Taxation) and/or any undertaking or covenant given in addition to, or in substitution for, Condition 11 (Taxation) pursuant to the Note Trust Deed.

19.4 Notification to the Noteholders

Any such modification, waiver, authorisation and/or determination shall be binding on the Noteholders, the Couponholders and, in the case of Secured Notes, the other Series Secured Parties and (unless the Note Trustee agrees otherwise) shall be notified by the Issuer to the Noteholders as soon as practicable thereafter in accordance with Condition 17 (Notices).

20. INDEMNIFICATION AND PROTECTION OF THE NOTE TRUSTEE AND THE SECURITY TRUSTEE AND THE NOTE TRUSTEE AND THE SECURITY TRUSTEE CONTRACTING WITH THE ISSUER AND THE CHARGING SUBSIDIARIES

The Note Trust Deed and, in the case of Secured Notes, the Security Trust Deed contain provisions for the indemnification of the Note Trustee and the Security Trustee, respectively, and for their relief from responsibility and liability towards the Issuer, the Charging Subsidiaries (in the case of Secured Notes), the Noteholders, the Couponholders and (in the case of Secured Notes) the other Series Secured Parties, including (i) provisions relieving them from taking action unless secured and/or indemnified and/or prefunded to their satisfaction and (ii) provisions limiting or excluding their liability in certain circumstances. In respect of each Series of Secured Notes, the Note Trustee and the Security Trustee are each exempted from any liability in respect of any loss, diminution in value or theft of all or any part of the Series Charged Property, from any obligation to insure all or any part of the Series Charged Property (including, in either such case, any documents evidencing, constituting or representing the same or transferring any rights, benefits and/or obligations thereunder), or to procure the same to be insured.

The Note Trust Deed and, in the case of Secured Notes, the Security Trust Deed also contain provisions pursuant to which the Note Trustee and the Security Trustee, respectively, are entitled, inter alia, (a) to enter into or be interested in any contract or financial or other transaction or arrangement with the Issuer, any Subsidiary or any other Transaction Party or any person or body corporate associated with the Issuer, any Subsidiary or any Transaction Party, (b) to accept or hold the trusteeship of any other trust deed constituting or securing any other securities issued by or relating to the Issuer, any Subsidiary or any Transaction Party or any such person or body corporate so associated or any other office of profit under the Issuer, any Subsidiary or any Transaction Party or any such person or body corporate so associated and (c) to retain and not be liable to account for any profit made or any other amount or benefit received thereby or in connection therewith. Neither the Note Trustee nor the Security Trustee shall be bound to take any step or action in connection with the Note Trust Deed or the Notes or the Security Trust Deed, as applicable, or obligations arising pursuant thereto or pursuant to the other Programme Documents, where it is not satisfied that it is indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded against all its liabilities and costs incurred in connection with such step or action and may demand, prior to taking any such step or action, that there be paid to it in advance such sums as it considers (without prejudice to any further demand) shall be sufficient so as to indemnify it.

The Note Trust Deed provides that, when determining whether an indemnity or any security or pre-funding is satisfactory to it, the Note Trustee shall be entitled (i) to evaluate its risk in any given circumstance by considering the worst-case scenario and (ii) to require that any indemnity or security given to it by the Noteholders or any of them be given on a joint and several basis and be supported by evidence satisfactory to it as to the financial standing and creditworthiness of each counterparty and/or as to the value of the security and an opinion as to the capacity, power and authority of each counterparty and/or the validity and effectiveness of the indemnity or security.

In the case of Secured Notes, neither the Note Trustee nor the Security Trustee shall have any responsibility for the validity, sufficiency or enforceability of the Series Security. Neither the Note Trustee nor the Security Trustee shall be responsible for monitoring the compliance by any of the other Transaction Parties with their obligations under the Programme Documents.

21. FURTHER ISSUES

The Issuer shall be at liberty from time to time without the consent of the Noteholders or the Couponholders to create and issue further Notes having terms and conditions the same as the Notes (including, in the case of Secured Notes, secured on the same assets) or the same in all respects save for the amount and date of the first payment of interest thereon and the date from which interest starts to accrue, and so that the same shall be consolidated and form a single Series with the outstanding Notes.

22. CONTRACTS (RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES) ACT 1999

No person shall have any right to enforce any term or Condition of this Note under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999, but this does not affect any right or remedy of any person which exists or is available apart from that Act.

23. GOVERNING LAW AND SUBMISSION TO JURISDICTION

23.1 Governing law

The Note Trust Deed, the Agency Agreement, the Account Agreement, the Security Documents, the Notes and the Coupons, and any non-contractual obligations or matters arising out of or in connection with them, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law.

23.2 Submission to jurisdiction

(a) Subject to Condition 23.2(c), the English courts have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or in connection with the Note Trust Deed, the Notes and/or the Coupons, including any dispute as to their existence, validity, interpretation, performance, breach or termination or the consequences of their nullity and any dispute relating to any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Note Trust Deed, the Notes and/or the Coupons (a Dispute) and accordingly each of the Issuer and the Note Trustee and any Noteholders or Couponholders in relation to any Dispute submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

(b) For the purposes of this Condition 23.2, the Issuer waives any objection to the English courts on the grounds that they are an inconvenient or inappropriate forum to settle any Dispute.

(c) To the extent allowed by law, the Note Trustee, the Noteholders and the Couponholders may, in respect of any Dispute or Disputes, take (i) proceedings in any other court with jurisdiction; and (ii) concurrent proceedings in any number of jurisdictions.

23.3 Other documents

The Issuer has in the Agency Agreement, the Account Agreement and the Security Documents submitted to the jurisdiction of the English Courts.

USE OF PROCEEDS AND SUSTAINABILITY FINANCE FRAMEWORK

The net proceeds from each issue of Notes will be applied by the Issuer (after deduction of expenses payable by the Issuer) in furtherance of the Issuer's objects as permitted by its Rules including, without limitation, on-lending to its Subsidiaries and the repayment of any existing indebtedness of the Issuer. If, in respect of an issue, there is a particular identified use of proceeds, this will be stated in the applicable Final Terms.

Sustainability Finance Framework

The Issuer has established its sustainability finance framework (the Sustainability Finance Framework). Under the Sustainability Finance Framework, the Issuer may issue green, social or sustainability bonds to finance and/or refinance, in part or in full, new and/or existing Eligible Projects that fall exclusively into Eligible Green Categories and/or Eligible Social Categories all as set out and described in the Sustainability Finance Framework (Sustainability Bonds) and/or issue Sustainability-Linked Bonds (as defined in the Terms and Conditions). Such Sustainability Bonds are not issued as European Green Bonds in accordance with Regulation 2023/2631 (the EuGB Regulation).

The Sustainability Finance Framework contains four core components:

(a) Use of proceeds: the Issuer applies proceeds under the Sustainability Finance Framework to finance or refinance, in part or in full, new and/or existing Eligible Projects that fall exclusively into Eligible Green Categories and/or Eligible Social Categories as set out in the Sustainability Finance Framework. Dependent on the nature of the project, the investment in such Eligible Projects will provide clear and positive environmental and/or social benefits that contribute towards the 'Environmental Objectives' described in the EU Taxonomy Regulation and/or the delivery of UN Sustainable Development Goals. The look-back period for refinanced Eligible Projects is 36 months from the relevant date of issuance with financing being a minimum share of 70 per cent. versus refinancing over the same period on an aggregate basis.

(b) Process for project evaluation and selection: the Issuer's ESG Financing Panel (the ESG Financing Panel) is responsible for the governance of the Sustainability Finance Framework including the evaluation and selection process in order to facilitate external verification (if required), the selection and approval of Eligible Projects, the investment of proceeds received and the tracking and reporting of net proceeds. The ESG Financing Panel is chaired by an Executive Director of the Issuer or delegated to the Chair of the Senior Leadership Group and made up of senior members of the Finance, Property Services, Strategy & Planning, L&Q Foundation and Development teams of the Issuer.

(c) Management of proceeds: The Issuer will maintain a Sustainability Financing Projects Register and the allocation of net proceeds to those projects. The ESG Financing Panel will take responsibility for managing this process and will review the register annually. The Issuer has committed to allocating an amount equal to the net proceeds raised to Eligible Projects within 24 months of issuance and pending the full allocation of such net proceeds to Eligible Projects, any unallocated funds may be invested and managed in line with the Issuer's treasury policy.

(d) Reporting: the Issuer will provide annual reporting on, among other things, the allocation of net proceeds to Eligible Projects and the impact, including environmental and social impact, of the investments and expenditures funded by the proceeds raised. Where appropriate, such allocation and impact reports will be made publicly available.

The Issuer may, without any obligation and in the future, update the Sustainability Finance Framework. Any such update of the Sustainability Finance Framework will be accompanied by an update to the second party opinion referred to below. The Sustainability Finance Framework is available on the Issuer's website at: https://www.lqgroup.org.uk/en/investors/investor-information. For the avoidance of doubt, the Sustainability Finance Framework and the second party opinion(s) referred to below and in the Sustainability Finance Framework are not, nor shall they be deemed to be, incorporated in and/or form part of this Base Offering Circular.

The Issuer has appointed DNV Business Assurance Services UK Limited (DNV) (an independent expert in assurance and risk management) to review the Sustainability Finance Framework. DNV has evaluated the Issuer's Sustainability Finance Framework and has issued a second party opinion to certify the alignment of the Sustainability Finance Framework against certain principles and guidelines. The second party opinion provided by DNV is available for viewing on the Issuer's website.

Any additional information related to the use of proceeds will be set out in the applicable Final Terms.

On 16 June 2026, the Issuer announced the completion of the sale of its Private Rented Sector business, L&Q PRS Co Ltd (PRS), for £1,045 million. PRS, which trades as Metra Living, owns and manages a portfolio of circa 3,200 homes within Greater London and the sale included the transfer of its operational platform and team and its £300 million of external debt facilities. The Issuer continues to provide freeholder services to PRS homes leased within the Issuer's buildings. The sale of PRS is part of the Issuer's long-term strategy focused on simplifying its organisation, prioritising its core purpose as a social housing provider and strengthening its financial capacity.

Profits from each subsidiary can be, and are expected to be, passed on to the Issuer as "gift aid" taxable surpluses pursuant to Chapter 2 of Part 6 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010.

Business Objectives and Principles

To ensure the Group remains truly focused on what matters most to residents, the foundation of the Issuer's strategy is to provide social homes and landlord services that everyone can be proud of. The overall purpose of the strategy will be delivered by focusing on three commitments:

- to provide social homes to meet housing need;
- to provide good landlord services; and
- to be efficient and maximise impact.

This simple strategy is underpinned by the following values:

- Step up: taking the right action to achieve its purpose. To ensure this value is implemented, the Issuer's staff help each other get the job done well, prioritise tasks that will make the biggest difference and learn from what has gone before.
- See things through: taking ownership to get to the best solutions for all residents and customers. To ensure this value is implemented, the Issuer's staff use processes to deliver reliable, repeatable and consistent services, make the most of internal expertise and share what they're doing with others.
- Support each other: doing things with care to make things better for everyone. To ensure this value is implemented, the Issuer's staff speak up to champion the Group's culture, ensure people are heard and valued and give and ask for feedback to aid improvement for all.

Governance, Viability and Consumer Ratings

On 27 August 2025, the Regulator of Social Housing issued a regulatory judgement which concluded that the Issuer met each of the governance, viability and consumer standards and awarded the Issuer with a "G2" governance rating, a "V2" viability rating and a "C2" consumer rating. This is a routine process of regulation which assesses an organisation's performance as outlined in the Regulator of Social Housing's Governance and Financial Viability standard (for the governance and viability gradings) and in the Consumer Standards (for the consumer grading). The "G2" rating means that the Issuer meets the requirements on governance set out in the Governance and Financial Viability standard but needs to improve some aspects of its governance arrangements to support continued compliance, including its performance reporting to the Board and the approach to assessing the effectiveness of governance arrangements. The "V2" rating means that the Issuer meets the requirements on viability set out in the Governance and Financial Viability standard and has the financial capacity to deal with a reasonable range of adverse scenarios but needs to manage material risks to ensure continued compliance. The "C2" rating means that the Issuer meets the requirements on consumer standards but that improvement is needed in delivering some of the outcomes of the consumer standards, including the prioritisation of certain repairs as well as ensuring a consistent approach to tackling anti-social behaviour.

Credit Rating

The Group has an issuer credit rating of "A-" from Fitch, "A3" from Moody's and "BBB+" from S&P.

Recent Developments

There have been no recent events particular to the Issuer that are, to a material extent, relevant to the evaluation of the Issuer's solvency.

DESCRIPTION OF THE SOCIAL HOUSING SECTOR IN ENGLAND

Regulation

The Housing and Regeneration Act 2008 (as amended by the Localism Act 2011 and the Housing and Planning Act 2016 (HPA 2016)) (HRA 2008) makes provision for the regulation of social housing provision in England.

The Regulator of Social Housing (RSH) is an independent regulator and statutory non-departmental public body, established under the HRA 2008. It is sponsored by the Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government (MHCLG) with responsibility for the regulation of Registered Providers of Social Housing. The RSH's statutory objectives and powers of enforcement are set out in the HRA 2008.

The RSH sets statutory economic and consumer standards that apply to Registered Providers of Social Housing (the Standards) as a means of defining the outcomes that social landlords must deliver for tenants.

Registered Providers of Social Housing are expected to comply with the Standards and to establish arrangements to ensure that they are accountable to their tenants, the RSH and relevant stakeholders.

In relation to the RSH's economic regulation objective, there are three Standards that are classified as Economic Standards. These are:

- the Governance and Financial Viability Standard;
- the Value for Money Standard; and
- the Rent Standard.

In relation to the RSH's consumer regulation objective, there are four Standards that are classified as Consumer Standards:

- the Safety and Quality Standard;
- the Transparency, Influence and Accountability Standard (the TIA Standard);
- the Tenancy Standard; and
- the Neighbourhood and Community Standard.

A further Competence and Conduct Standard came into force in October 2026, subject to a three- to four-year transition period, relating to the introduction of professional qualification requirements for senior staff of Registered Providers of Social Housing.

The RSH has issued three codes of practice to support and amplify the requirements of the Governance and Financial Viability Standard, the Value for Money Standard and the Consumer Standards. It has published a suite of information explaining its operational approach to regulation, programmed and unprogrammed inspections, assessments of Registered Providers of Social Housing's compliance with the Standards, dealing with regulatory issues and taking action on serious failures.

Separately from the RSH's statutory Standards and codes of practice, the Shared Ownership Code establishes standards intended to improve consistency, transparency and consumer protection in the provision and management of shared ownership homes. The Issuer is an adopter of the Shared Ownership Code and is committed to complying with its requirements. The Shared Ownership Code applies across relevant aspects of the shared ownership customer journey, including marketing and sales, information and communications, affordability and transparency, service charges, repairs and maintenance, staircasing, resale and complaints.

Compliance with the Shared Ownership Code sits alongside, but is distinct from, the Issuer's statutory and regulatory obligations as a Registered Provider of Social Housing.

Regulatory oversight and intervention

The RSH firmly endorses a co-regulatory approach, meaning that housing associations' boards are responsible for their organisations and are held to account for how they are run and the outcomes they deliver. The RSH forms judgements to reflect its view of how well each Registered Provider of Social Housing is delivering the outcomes of the Standards. It carries out programmed inspections of all large landlords (those who own 1,000 or more social homes) on a four-yearly cycle and issues gradings for governance (G1 to G4), viability (V1 to V4) and consumer standards (C1 to C4). The RSH is also able to carry out inspections that are not programmed, including of small landlords, if the RSH judges it to be appropriate.

Following changes introduced by the Social Housing (Regulation) Act 2023 (SHRA 2023), the Consumer Standards were significantly revised and strengthened with effect from 1 April 2024. Prior to that, the RSH took a reactive approach to regulating the Consumer Standards. Its intervention and enforcement powers were restricted to cases in which there were reasonable grounds to suspect actual or a significant risk of serious detriment to tenants. The "serious detriment" test was removed by the SHRA 2023 and, since 1 April 2024, the RSH has applied the same scrutiny and focus across all the Standards.

The current Economic Standards (with the exception of the Rent Standard) have remained largely unchanged for more than ten years, being widely perceived to operate well in facilitating stability within the English social housing sector and maintaining levels of general investor confidence. During this period, the sector has undergone profound change including increased financial and operational pressures, more complex funding structures, the growth of for-profit providers and rising expectations on building safety, stock quality and decarbonisation. On 9 June 2026, the RSH published a discussion paper, More and Better Social Homes, to open a dialogue with the sector on the recalibration of the economic regulatory regime. The RSH is considering how its regulatory approach can become more targeted, data-driven and risk-based to help the sector meet the challenges of today and the future. A key theme of the call to evidence is delivery of "more and better social homes". The RSH anticipates consulting on revised Economic Standards in 2027, with the new Standards being implemented the following year.

The RSH has a wide range of statutory intervention powers available to it to tackle sub-standard performance by Registered Providers of Social Housing under the HRA 2008 (as extended, strengthened and supplemented by the SHRA 2023). These include imposition of penalties and/or compensation, procuring emergency remedial action, undertaking a statutory inquiry, performance improvement notices and plans, appointment and removal of board members, transfers of land and amalgamations. However, the RSH intends generally to work cooperatively with Registered Providers of Social Housing to achieve any necessary corrective actions, and is more likely to intervene in circumstances where self-improvement has not succeeded, or where a Registered Provider of Social Housing is unable or unwilling to respond positively (in each case, within an appropriate timeline), or where the RSH concludes that such an approach is not appropriate (for instance, where urgent action is necessary or there is an immediate and significant risk to a Registered Provider of Social Housing's tenants).

Transparency

Since 1 April 2023, Registered Providers of Social Housing have been required to collect and (annually) report prescribed and meaningful tenant satisfaction data against prescribed Tenant Satisfaction Measures (TSMs), with the stated aim of enabling both tenants and the RSH to better hold social landlords to account for their performance. The first set of TSM data was published on 1 April 2024.

Also in pursuit of increased transparency, Social Tenant Access to Information Requirements (STAIRs) was introduced in October 2026. STAIRs includes both proactive disclosure of management information related to governance, decision-making, spending and performance as well as reactive responses to requests for relevant information from tenants. From October 2026, Registered Providers of Social Housing are required to proactively publish information relating to the management of their social housing. From April 2027, they will also be required to respond to information requests from tenants. These requirements will be implemented through updates to the TIA Standard and the Consumer Standards Code of Practice. The Housing Ombudsman is the designated complaints body for STAIRs-related matters.

Housing Quality

In recent years, a confluence of factors has been driving substantial increased investment by Registered Providers of Social Housing in the improvement of their existing housing stock.

Awaab's Law

The UK social housing sector has been subject to intense scrutiny following the death of a child in 2020 from a respiratory condition largely caused by extensive and untreated damp and mould in a local authority-owned home. In response, the SHRA 2023 included new requirements with a view to maintaining housing quality standards and holding Registered Providers of Social Housing to account for failures to deal adequately with disrepair, poor-quality housing and health and safety concerns. Following consultation on detailed implementation proposals, on 27 October 2025, The Hazards in Social Housing (Prescribed Requirements) (England) Regulations 2025, commonly known as Awaab's Law, officially came into force, beginning a two-year phased introduction of mandatory timeframes for remediation of significant hazards to health and safety in social housing. The MHCLG has also published non-statutory guidance for both social landlords and tenants in social housing, and has signalled a "test and learn" approach, meaning the framework may evolve as each phase is implemented.

Phase 1 of Awaab's Law introduced strict mandatory timeframes which apply to damp and mould hazards that present a significant risk of harm (significant hazards) and all emergency hazards. Registered Providers of Social Housing must investigate any potential emergency hazards, and, if the investigation confirms emergency hazards, undertake relevant safety work as soon as reasonably practicable. The investigation and the work must both take place within 24 hours of becoming aware of the hazard. On 30 November 2026, Phase 2 will extend the requirements to seven additional hazard categories: electrical hazards, falls, fire and explosion risks, excess cold, excess heat, structural collapse and falling elements and domestic hygiene issues such as pest infestations. In 2027, Phase 3 will include most remaining hazards under the Housing Health and Safety Rating System excluding overcrowding. Awaab's Law inserts terms to this effect into social housing tenancy agreements and tenants can take legal action through the courts for breach of contract. The Housing Health and Safety Rating System was also significantly revised and updated in June 2026, and the MHCLG recently published guidance on how the revised system will operate, be assessed and enforced by local authorities.

Housing Ombudsman

Since 2020, the RSH and the Housing Ombudsman have been increasingly proactive in their oversight capacities in seeking to ensure Registered Providers of Social Housing give due attention and undertake timely corrective action in respect of housing quality issues, including the issuance of specific regulatory guidance. The RSH may investigate individual complaints where it considers that the issue may be material to a landlord's delivery of the outcomes required by a Standard, and the Housing Ombudsman also has statutory powers to deal with individual complaints.

The SHRA 2023 strengthened the role of the Housing Ombudsman in order to provide tenants with a means of complaint and redress for inadequate housing provision by Registered Providers of Social Housing. A revised Complaints Handling Code (the Code), setting out good practice for Registered Providers of Social Housing in responding to complaints fairly and effectively, was given a statutory footing with effect from 1 April 2024. Registered Providers of Social Housing are required to carry out an annual assessment against the Code to ensure their complaints handling remains in line with its requirements and to publish the results. The Housing Ombudsman has a statutory duty to monitor compliance (regardless of whether complaints are received), and is actively enforcing the Code. These changes have resulted in the Housing Ombudsman experiencing a significant increase in enquiries and complaints, determinations made and remedies awarded (including financial compensation), with a rise in cases of almost 500 per cent. over 5 years, reaching over 13,000 cases in 2025-26.

Electrical Safety

The Electrical Safety Standards in the Private Rented Sector (England) (Amendment) (Extension to the Social Rented Sector) Regulations 2025 introduced mandatory electrical safety checks within the social rented sector. This brings the statutory requirements for the social rented sector into alignment with the requirements already applicable to private sector landlords. The regulations came into force on 1 May 2026 for existing tenancies and 1 November 2025 for social housing tenancies granted after 1 December 2025. Alongside this, the RSH has added a new Tenant Satisfaction Measure relating to electrical safety checks. In practice, many Registered Providers of Social Housing already follow a five-yearly cycle for electrical inspections.

Decent Homes Standard

The Decent Homes Standard defines minimum standards which apply to all social housing in England. An updated and modernised draft of the Decent Homes Standard was published in January 2026 containing significant changes to the previous version (which had not been updated since 2006). The updated version includes new requirements relating to the state of repair, complete absence of damp and mould, safety and security of homes and minimum energy efficiency standards (see below). It no longer has age limits for building components but rather focuses on the actual condition as the primary factor. It goes further by specifying the minimum level of facilities required for a residence to meet the criteria for a "decent home". The updated Decent Homes Standard will apply to all rented properties in both the social housing and the private rented sectors from 2035. The extended implementation period gives landlords time to phase work and spread costs to support spending on routine repairs and new supply.

The revised Decent Homes Standard includes minimum energy efficiency standards (MEES) and, to this end, a separate consultation ran simultaneously in Q3 of 2025 on improving energy efficiency in social rented homes. The consultation outcome published in April 2026 confirmed that, from April 2030, all new and existing social rented properties will be required to meet EPC C using reformed EPC metrics (see below) relating to fabric performance, smart readiness or heating system. Registered Providers of Social Housing will be required to meet one metric by 2030 and two metrics by 2039. Providers will have a choice of what metrics are best suited to their stock. Any property with a valid EPC certificate meeting the current EPC C standard will be considered compliant for the validity period of its EPC certificate. There will also be a time-limited ten-year spend exemption of £10,000 for the first metric and £10,000 for the second metric.

Cost implications

There have been, and inevitably will continue to be, cost implications for Registered Providers of Social Housing arising from compliance with the obligations and regulatory requirements that have already been implemented and those that are still to come into force. Registered Providers of Social Housing are reliant on the availability of skilled labour to deliver programmes of major repairs and maintenance, comply with safety requirements (including building safety, see below), and deliver key services to tenants.

Housing Grant

Grant funding (Grant) is allocated by central government periodically under the Affordable Homes Programmes to support the capital costs of developing affordable housing for rent or sale on shared ownership terms. Allocation of funding outside London under these programmes is administered by Homes England, an executive non-departmental public body sponsored by the MHCLG. Grant for affordable housing development within London is administered by the Greater London Authority (GLA).

Historically, Grant has been a critical part of the funding mix for Registered Providers of Social Housing, sustaining their ability to provide housing for rent at below-market-level rents or on subsidised home ownership terms. Under the Affordable Homes Programme 2021-2026 (AHP 2021-26), over £7.39 billion was made available for the supply of new-build affordable housing in England outside London, with a "top up" funding of £400 million and £240 million announced in October 2024 and February 2025 respectively, and a £2 billion bridging fund announced in March 2025. A further £4 billion was made available under the Homes for Londoners: Affordable Homes Programme 2021-2026.

At the June 2025 Spending Review, the UK Government announced a new ten-year funding programme to succeed the AHP 2021-26 (the Social and Affordable Homes Programme or SAHP) amounting to £39 billion. £2 billion of this had previously been announced as bridge funding and was made available on the same terms as AHP 2021-26. Up to 30 per cent. (£11.7 billion) is allocated to housing delivery in London through the GLA. The remainder continues to be administered through Homes England. On 28 October 2026 it was announced that a further £1.5 billion would be made available under the SAHP, bringing the total value to more than £40 billion. Over time, the UK Government is seeking to move towards full devolution of funds and delivery of affordable housing. As an interim step, the six Established Mayoral Strategic Authorities (EMSAs) have provided details of their strategic priorities in the SAHP guidance. Partners using Grant to deliver social and affordable housing in EMSA areas must demonstrate how the funding will support the relevant EMSA priorities alongside national priorities.

Grant under the AHP 2021-26 and SAHP may support a variety of tenures including social rent, affordable rent and shared ownership. As a general rule, AHP 2021-26 grant could not be used for regeneration, major repairs or the purchase of homes built under section 106 agreements.

The SAHP will continue to focus on new supply but it will also support some regeneration schemes that provide a net increase in homes on a site, subject to satisfying additionality rules.
SAHP funding may be accessed either:

- on an ongoing basis under the Continuous Market Engagement (CME) funding route, either scheme-by-scheme or (new to this programme) across a portfolio of sites for partners able to demonstrate delivery confidence across schemes at different stages, the latter approach being designed to de-risk and accelerate delivery. Grant is paid in stages as delivery milestones for the funded homes are met, with Grant becoming recoverable if the funded homes are not completed; or

- under the Strategic Partnership route (i) for Registered Providers of Social Housing delivering at scale, local authorities, developers (that either plan to sell homes to Registered Providers of Social Housing for additional affordable housing over and above planning requirements or are Registered Providers of Social Housing contracting with developers to acquire additional affordable housing at scale) and (ii) a new category for specialist and supported housing delivery. Grant is paid in stages as delivery milestones are met, but is only formally counted against a Strategic Partner's allocation ('attributed') once the new Grant-funded homes are completed. The volume of paid-but-unattributed Grant is capped, so continued access to funding depends on converting allocations into completions. The first 33 successful Strategic Partners outside of London were announced in August 2026, with the GLA expected to announce allocations for London imminently. Homes England expects to run further rounds during the programme.

Under both routes, all homes must start on site by 31 March 2036 and complete by 31 March 2039, with early completions (by 31 March 2029) prioritised.

The City Hall Developer Investment Fund is a further £324 million pot of funding announced in October 2025 and administered by the GLA for London-based housing development projects that will achieve practical completion by summer 2029 or earlier. The funding could take the form of grant, loans at sub-market interest rates, senior or mezzanine debt or equity investment. The Government and the GLA have described the £324 million as an initial allocation, with the potential for the fund to grow with additional investment.

Shared Ownership

Shared ownership income is generated on the initial sale of the property (known as the first tranche) which is sold to the shared owner; on subsequent sales of further "tranches" or portions of the property to the shared owner (known as staircasings); and in the form of subsidised rent on the part of the property which the shared owner does not own until the property is fully owned by the shared owner.

On 8 September 2020, the Secretary of State for Housing, Communities and Local Government announced a new model for shared ownership as it applies in England reducing the minimum initial share a person can buy in a property from 25 per cent. to 10 per cent.; allowing the purchase of additional shares in the property in 1 per cent. instalments, with heavily reduced fees; and introducing a ten-year period for new shared owners where the landlord will cover the cost of any repairs and maintenance.

On 26 October 2026, the Housing Minister announced that the income eligibility caps for shared owners will be raised in 2027, from £80,000 to £90,000 outside of London, and from £90,000 to £110,000 within London.

The landlord's responsibility for general repairs inside the home is limited to where costs are not covered by the appropriate warranty or guarantee. The maximum cost that can be claimed by a shared owner for essential repairs inside the home is £500 per year, and this amount can be carried over to the following year if unused. The ten-year repair cover only applies to new-build homes for the first decade of the property's life or until the shared owner staircases to 100 per cent. (whichever is earlier). If a property is resold through the shared ownership scheme, the remaining years will be transferred to the new shared owner.

A "Right to Shared Ownership" has been introduced and made available on the vast majority of rented homes delivered through the UK Government's Affordable Homes Programme, subject to tenants meeting the required eligibility criteria.

The Leasehold and Freehold Reform Act 2024 (the LFRA 2024) was given royal assent on 24 May 2024. This Act introduces more rights, powers and protections to long leaseholders and bans the sale of new leasehold houses. Shared ownership leases are expressly permitted, provided they meet the conditions set out in paragraph 7 of schedule 1 of the LFRA 2024, but it imposes statutory requirements on permitted leases in relation to the content of promotional material and advance transaction warning notices. Breach of these requirements could invoke financial penalties. It also clarifies the legal position of shared ownership leaseholders in respect of lease extensions and valuation mechanisms, collective enfranchisement and right to acquire the freehold. These provisions of the LFRA 2024 are not yet in force. Likewise, within the proposals for a new commonhold legal framework that will replace leasehold, shared ownership leases of flats are expected to continue via an exemption, subject to formal UK Government consultation on the details of how this can be achieved.

Social Housing Rents

Rent levels and rental increases for social rent and affordable rent within the social housing sector are strictly controlled in line with UK Government policy. Registered Providers of Social Housing are required to set and increase social rents as prescribed in the Rent Standard and the Policy Statement on Rents for Social Housing published by the MHCLG. Service charges are outside the scope of the Rent Standard.

Since 1 April 2020, social rent and affordable rent were permitted to increase each year by up to Consumer Price Index (CPI) plus 1 per cent. However, due to the sharp inflation in 2022-2023, the UK Government imposed a cap on any increase to social rent or affordable rent at the lower of (i) 7 per cent. or (ii) CPI plus 1 per cent., with limited exceptions. Many Registered Providers of Social Housing also committed to a voluntary equivalent cap to the rental increase on their shared ownership leases. In the four years immediately prior (2016 to 2020), Registered Providers of Social Housing were required by the Welfare Reform and Work Act 2016 (the WRWA 2016) to reduce the social rent payable by their tenants by 1 per cent. annually.

The mandated rent reductions of 2016 to 2020 and the cap imposed in 2023-2024 (notably in the context of building safety requirements, rising repair costs, interest rates and inflation being in excess of such cap) have significantly weakened the sector's financial capacity. The MHCLG acknowledged this and committed to rent policy reform as a means to rebuild financial capacity. In January 2026, the MHCLG announced a ten-year rent settlement allowing annual rent increases of up to CPI plus 1 per cent. for 10 years from 1 April 2026. This has been implemented in the current Rent Standard and Policy Statement on Rents for Social Housing with effect from 1 April 2026 for a ten-year period to 2036.

In the second limb of social housing rent policy reform, a consultation commenced in July 2025 in relation to a proposed ten-year period of rent convergence. Convergence allows Registered Providers of Social Housing to gradually increase rents that are below the social rent formula to correct the disparities caused by historical regulation and achieve alignment across their social rented stock. The final mechanics were published in January 2026 and have also been implemented in the Rent Standard 2026. For properties where the rent is below formula rent, Registered Providers of Social Housing will be permitted to increase the weekly rent on their social rent homes by up to an additional £1 from 1 April 2027 over and above the CPI plus 1 per cent. limit, before rising to an additional £2 each year from 1 April 2028, until formula rent is reached. The consultation outcome estimated that rent convergence will generate an additional £2.7 billion in rental income for Private Registered Providers of Social Housing and £3.1 billion for local authority Registered Providers of Social Housing over the ten-year period.

Since 2011, where a Registered Provider of Social Housing has entered a housing supply delivery agreement with Homes England or the GLA, that agreement may allow the Registered Provider of Social Housing to charge 'affordable rent' if certain conditions apply. 'Affordable rent' means the rent (inclusive of service charge) for a new tenant under a new tenancy may be up to 80 per cent. of market rent (unless this is lower than the social rent for the property in which case the rent will be set at social rent plus service charges). The grant agreement in respect of funding given under the AHP 2021-26 and the SAHP is a housing supply delivery agreement to charge an affordable rent.

The Policy Statement on Rents for Social Housing and Rent Standard applicable from April 2026 includes a new category of affordable rent which does not need any form of agreement with Homes England, the GLA or the Secretary of State. The only criterion for letting at affordable rent is that the property has never been let at social rent. This provides more flexibility with new housing stock.

Reform of real estate legal framework

Tenancy reform

The Renters' Rights Act 2025 (the RR Act) received royal assent on 27 October 2025. The RR Act impacts all residential tenancies including social and other low-cost rented accommodation as well as market rent. It requires Registered Providers of Social Housing to consider many practical changes to their businesses including to their policies, third-party contractual arrangements, tenancies, nominations agreements, the management of shared ownership leases, headleases, and any market rent elements of their business.

The reforms of the RR Act became effective in relation to market rent products owned by social landlords or their subsidiaries on 1 May 2026. On its implementation date, all assured shorthold tenancies converted to assured periodic tenancies. Fixed-term tenancies no longer exist and tenancies continue on a periodic basis until ended by the tenant or by the landlord in accordance with their contractual and statutory rights. Landlords of market rent tenancies are no longer able to use Section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 ('no fault' eviction) to regain possession, subject to some transitional provisions if notices were served before this date. To compensate for the removal of Section 21, there are a number of additional mandatory grounds for possession. Landlords must follow the Section 8 eviction procedure and apply to the courts if the tenants do not leave voluntarily. In response to concerns that the courts will not have capacity to deal with legitimate applications in a timely manner, the Government has confirmed that more funding will be provided to the courts and the possession process will be relocated within a new digital end-to-end possession service in the county courts.

The rules governing this digital possession service are contained in The Online Procedure (Rules and Practice Directions) Rules 2026, which came into force for possession proceedings on 7 September 2026.

The RR Act also introduced other protections for private sector tenants such as:

- making it illegal for landlords to discriminate against tenants in receipt of benefits or with children when choosing to let their property;
- landlords cannot rely on rent increase clauses within their tenancy agreements but must instead rely on an amended Section 13 Housing Act 1988 procedure which limits the frequency of rent increases to no more than once a year in accordance with a prescribed statutory process, including 2 months' notice. Tenants may challenge the level of rent increases;
- prescribed information must be provided by landlords to their tenants, with non-compliance being a civil and potentially criminal offence; and
- local councils' enforcement powers are strengthened by the ability to issue civil financial penalties (up to £7,000) and they have new investigatory powers to enforce housing standards more effectively.

The Government intends that the tenancy reforms of the RR Act will be extended to apply to social housing tenancies from October 2027. The regulatory Standards, primarily the Tenancy Standard and the Rent Standard, will be impacted by the reforms and will need to be updated. In 2026, the MHCLG consulted on a new Tenure Direction that will require the RSH to create a specific regulatory Standard on tenure to align the sector with the updated assured tenancy framework introduced by the RR Act.

The RR Act also establishes the legal framework for a digital database of all private landlords, which will be known as the Private Rented Sector Database. Registration requirements are likely to include any market rent tenancies let by social landlords. Following implementation of the database, a new Private Rented Sector Landlord Ombudsman will be created to provide a redress service for private rented sector tenants and support for landlords handling tenant complaints. These measures will be funded by mandatory landlord registration and contributions and will be introduced from late 2026 onwards.

Leasehold reform

As mentioned above, the LFRA 2024 seeks to introduce significant reforms to long leasehold ownership and freehold property owners on private estates. Its headline changes include a ban on new leasehold houses, changes to the rights of existing long leasehold owners to extend their lease and to buy their freehold (enfranchisement), and removal of certain legislative barriers to the same. Most of the LFRA 2024 requires an extensive programme of secondary legislation for its implementation, and is therefore being delivered in stages. The two-year qualifying criteria for certain lease extensions and freehold purchases were removed in January 2025 and changes to the Right to Manage were implemented in March 2025.

The LFRA 2024 also introduces greater transparency around service charges and measures to alleviate the cost burden on leaseholders wishing to bring challenges against landlord poor practice. In furtherance of implementing these provisions, a consultation ran until 26 September 2025, with the Government releasing its response on 15 July 2026. This represents the most significant shake-up of the law relating to residential service charges since the introduction of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985. The consultation confirmed a major package of leasehold reforms aimed at improving transparency and strengthening leaseholders' rights, including mandatory annual building management reports, standardised service charge information, greater access to records, enhanced insurance disclosure requirements, and restrictions on landlords recovering litigation costs from leaseholders. These measures are likely to lead to more challenges by leaseholders and could result in higher litigation costs for Registered Providers of Social Housing. Most measures are expected to be implemented from 2027 onwards. However, although Registered Providers of Social Housing are not exempt from the reforms, the Government has confirmed that they will be subject to a modified regime in recognition of the enhanced regulatory and accounting arrangements that already apply to them. Provision of information to social housing tenants will be primarily mandated by STAIRs, rather than the LFRA 2024.

Separate responses are awaited on the Government's proposals related to the major works regime, mandatory reserve funds, and mandatory qualifications for managing agents.

The LFRA 2024 also extends equivalent rights of redress and transparency to freehold owners on private estates. A consultation was launched in December 2025 on a new regulatory framework designed to give homeowners on freehold estates greater rights and protections, increase accountability for estate managers, make proposals aimed at improving transparency around estate management charges and removing disproportionate enforcement remedies and addressing other long-standing concerns.

A further consultation was launched in December 2025 on reducing the prevalence of private estate management arrangements. The consultation was aimed at tackling problems arising on privately managed freehold estates where roads, drainage, green spaces and other amenities remain unadopted by public authorities and are instead maintained by private management companies. Amongst other items, this consultation seeks views on implementing common standards for adoptable amenities and mandatory adoption for certain public amenities. While social landlords are not the primary target audience, the proposals could affect them where they own units on private estates managed by third-party estate companies, and where they act as a developer of mixed-tenure estates. Maintenance responsibilities could be removed from social landlords (in the above circumstances), where adoption of public amenities is taken up by local authorities. The proposals could also require greater transparency and may result in improved dispute resolution mechanisms.

The Government ran two further consultations between July and September 2026. The first of these consultations, "Leasehold enfranchisement valuation rates", looked at key valuation rates in regulations, with the aim of giving leaseholders greater certainty about the cost of extending a lease or purchasing the freehold. The consultation sought views on setting the deferment and capitalisation rates used in the calculation. The second consultation, "Leasehold enfranchisement costs", concerned the Government's proposal to protect leaseholders from having to pay certain costs incurred by their landlord – such as legal, valuation and administrative costs – when exercising enfranchisement rights or extending leases.

Registered Providers of Social Housing will be substantially affected by the changes under the LFRA 2024 in varying degrees, based on the legal basis and tenures utilised for affordable housing development, private market and/or mixed tenure developments and shared ownership activities in which they are engaged.

Commonhold

The LFRA 2024 implemented some of the Law Commission's 2020 recommendations on leasehold enfranchisement and the right to manage. The Government has committed to taking forward the Law Commission's companion report, Reinvigorating commonhold: the alternative to leasehold ownership, also published in 2020. To that end, on 3 March 2025, the MHCLG published the Commonhold White Paper which proposed landmark reforms to replace the leasehold tenure. Commonhold ownership is a form of freehold ownership where individual property owners each own their unit outright. This allows individual properties within a building or larger development to be owned on a freehold basis. Commonhold tenure was introduced in 2004 by the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002. However, it has not been widely adopted. The Commonhold White Paper proposed a comprehensive new commonhold framework and a ban on the sale of leasehold flats, so that commonhold becomes the default tenure for new housing and mixed-use developments (the ban on the sale of new leasehold houses already being provided for in LFRA 2024).

The draft Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Bill was published in January 2026 (as a 'Command Paper') for pre-legislative scrutiny by the Housing, Communities and Local Government Select Committee to allow for consultation before formal introduction of the draft new legislation to Parliament. Its publication was accompanied by a substantive package of legislative reform proposals, including new commonhold rules that aim to make commonhold more accessible and fit for purpose as the default tenure on new flats, a consultation on Moving to commonhold: banning leasehold for new flats (which closed on 24 April 2026), abolition of forfeiture in favour of a fairer enforcement regime, a cap on ground rents in existing leases at £250 a year changing to a peppercorn after 40 years, and the repeal of the draconian enforcement remedies currently available for estate rent charges on freehold estates. The draft Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Bill envisages collective conversion of existing leasehold units to commonhold, on a threshold of at least 50 per cent. of qualifying leaseholders, as a route aligned with collective enfranchisement, as well as a ban on the use of leasehold for most new-build flats (shared ownership will be permitted leases, and blocks built exclusively for rent – including social rent – are excluded while used only for that purpose). The pre-legislative scrutiny report, published on 27 May 2026, supported the majority of the proposals and added further recommendations including, significantly for Registered Providers of Social Housing, independent statutory regulation of property managing agents. The Government's response to the scrutiny report was due within two months of its publication, with the final text of the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Bill expected to be introduced in Parliament by the end of 2026, along with the outcome of the Moving to commonhold: banning leasehold for new flats consultation.

Commonhold, being essentially a new tenure, has the potential to affect most areas of operation for Registered Providers of Social Housing and wider elements of the property industry. The G15 group of the largest London housing associations (including the Issuer) flagged in its response to the Moving to Commonhold: banning leasehold for new flats consultation that "as designed, the model is likely to increase complexity, costs and governance challenges, particularly in mixed-tenure developments" for social landlords. The G15 highlighted a number of areas where further work is needed to ensure the model is workable and supports continued housing delivery. These include system readiness, the interaction with shared ownership, the management of mixed-tenure buildings, and the alignment between responsibility and decision-making, noting that providers may remain accountable for statutory standards (such as the Decent Homes Standard) while lacking the control needed to secure agreement to works. They reiterated the need for a phased and carefully managed transition, supported by clear frameworks for lenders, developers, managing agents and regulators.

Welfare Benefit Reform

Household Benefit Cap

Under the Welfare Reform Act 2012 (as amended, the WRA 2012), the total household benefit cap (the combined income from a number of welfare benefits for those that are of working age) is £22,020 per year for couples or single parents with resident children (or £25,323 in Greater London) and £14,753 per year for single people without children (or £16,967 in Greater London).

Exemptions to the total household benefit cap can apply to tenants who qualify for working tax credit; are above the qualifying age for pensions credit; obtain certain benefits for sickness and disability; or claim a war pension. The benefit cap will not apply in circumstances where a tenant or a tenant's partner is in receipt of (or is responsible for a child or young person who is in receipt of) benefits such as disability living allowance, personal independence payment or carer's allowance.

Occupation Size Criteria/Bedroom Entitlement

Under the WRA 2012, there is a size criterion for working age social housing tenants in receipt of housing benefit known as the "removal of the spare room subsidy" or "bedroom tax". The arrangements allow each of certain defined categories of people (such defined categories being: (a) a couple, (b) an adult (over 16), (c) two children of the same sex, (d) two children under the age of 10, (e) any other child, (f) those with a disability, and (g) a non-resident overnight carer) to be entitled to one bedroom. Exceptions will also be applied to properties adapted under a sanctuary scheme. Where a household has one extra bedroom, housing benefit is reduced by 14 per cent. of the rent charge. Where a household has two or more extra rooms, the reduction to housing benefit is 25 per cent.

Universal Credit

Universal Credit, introduced under the WRA 2012, replaced six legacy means-tested benefits and tax credits for working-age families (income support, income-based jobseeker's allowance, income-related employment and support allowance, housing benefit, child tax credit and working tax credit) with a single means-tested monthly payment, transferred directly into a household bank account of choice. Deductions may be made at source for overpayments, arrears and advance loans.

There are three types of alternative payment arrangements available for claimants:

(a) direct payment of the housing cost element to landlords (known as managed payments) for those claimants who may need extra support in managing the payments;

(b) splitting of payments between members of a couple (in exceptional circumstances); and

(c) more frequent payment of benefit where a claimant is two months or more behind in paying rent or where a claimant has continually underpaid their rent and has accrued arrears of an amount equal to or more than one month's rent.

If the Department for Work and Pensions (the DWP) does not set up a managed payment, Registered Providers of Social Housing can request a managed payment and inform the DWP of other reasons why a managed payment might be needed. Landlords can request deductions from a claimant's Universal Credit to repay existing rent arrears, known as third-party deductions. Deductions will be a minimum of 10 per cent. and a maximum of 20 per cent. of a claimant's Universal Credit standard allowance.

Right to Buy

Since October 1980, tenants of council-owned properties have had a form of statutory right to buy their home (RTB). Many councils subsequently transferred their stock to housing associations, and on such transfers the RTB was preserved. Under the scheme, eligible tenants have a right to purchase their home at a discount. Assured tenants of housing associations do not have the RTB on the same terms as council (or former council) tenants. A tenant with the RTB carries this right with them provided they move to a property owned by the same Registered Provider of Social Housing (or to a group company).

From 2012 onwards, the maximum cash discounts were boosted significantly from regional levels (ranging from £16,000 to £38,000) to a new national level with higher maximum discounts in London, with annual increases in line with the percentage change in the CPI rate of inflation. By 2024, the maximum discounts available reached £136,400 in London and £102,400 outside of London.

Limited voluntary right to buy (VRTB) schemes for secure tenants of Registered Providers of Social Housing were trialled in 2015 and 2018, subject to certain conditions that were negotiated by the National Housing Federation as representative body for Registered Providers of Social Housing. One of the conditions was that a new affordable property must be built for every home sold under VRTB, but this condition was not met. These pilot schemes have now closed, and the VRTB has not been implemented nationally.

A statutory right to acquire (RTA) applies to certain tenants of Registered Providers of Social Housing under the Housing Act 1996. Under the RTA, eligibility is dependent on the tenant living in a "qualifying property" as defined in the legislation. The RTA operates in broadly the same way as the statutory right to buy, except for two key differences: (i) the Registered Provider of Social Housing may sell an alternative property, and (ii) the discount is substantially smaller (maximum £16,000) and does not vary depending on the number of qualifying years as a tenant.

RTB, VRTB and RTA sales have had a detrimental impact on the volume of stock available for social rented housing and have been a major contributory factor in the current shortage of UK housing. The UK Government therefore introduced changes, effective from 21 November 2024, that reduced RTB discounts to their pre-2012 levels and reduced the discount further if the landlord has spent money on building, buying, repairing or maintaining the home over a certain period of time. If the landlord has spent more than the current value of the property, no discount will be available.

The UK Government does not intend to abolish the RTB and similar schemes yet, but these changes are likely to have a strong impact on take up. A further consultation on wider reforms to RTB was undertaken in late 2024, covering tenant eligibility, exemptions, discount as a percentage of property value, restriction on future sales and lettings of homes bought using RTB, supporting the replacement of social housing and measures preventing any newly built social and affordable homes from being purchased under the RTB for the first 35 years after being built. In addition, the RTB will not be extended to housing associations.

The Social Housing Bill, introduced in the House of Lords on 14 May 2026, seeks to implement these measures. The Social Housing Bill extends the qualifying tenancy period from three to ten years; restructures discounts to start at 5 per cent. of the property value, rising by 1 per cent. for each year of tenancy to a maximum of 15 per cent. or the cash cap (whichever is lower); exempts newly built social and affordable homes from the RTB for 35 years after completion; exempts rural homes; extends the discount repayment period on resale from five to ten years; gives the former landlord an indefinite right of first refusal on resale; prevents repeat use of the scheme; and aligns the RTA with the reformed RTB (RTA discounts themselves are unchanged). Significantly for Registered Providers of Social Housing, the Social Housing Bill also introduces a requirement for Private Registered Providers to notify the relevant local authority and other providers before disposing of social housing dwellings outside the sector. Councils retain 100 per cent. of RTB receipts, which from 2026-27 can be combined with grant funding to deliver replacement homes. If passed by the House of Lords, the Bill will be considered by the House of Commons and is expected to become law before the end of 2026.

Housing Shortage

In recognition and response to the cumulative shortage of housing, since being elected in July 2024, the Labour Government has reiterated its commitment to deliver 1.5 million new homes, with specific reference to a necessary increase in new social housing. This is an ambitious target. Development of new-build social housing is secondary to core housing association activities. Many Registered Providers of Social Housing have scaled back development programmes in the wake of high inflation and to prioritise the remediation of existing damp, mould and other housing quality issues (see above), fire safety (see below) and decarbonisation retrofit works (see below). The reform of UK building regulation (see below) has also contributed to the slowdown of development activity generally. Gateway 2 approvals (see below) are taking much longer than the statutory eight to twelve weeks and this has been causing project delays and exacerbating the decline in new-build completions that are desperately needed. In addition, the Government consulted in 2025 on changes to landfill tax that, if implemented, will significantly impact the cost of building new homes.

The current UK Government is taking a multi-faceted approach to reinvigorating residential development. It has created a National Housing Bank as the delivery vehicle for government financial support for housebuilding. The Government says that the National Housing Bank will help to deliver 60,000 new homes in this parliamentary term and 500,000 overall. The National Housing Bank is a publicly owned entity established as a subsidiary of Homes England and has £16 billion of financial capacity to support housebuilding through government guarantees, loans and equity investment, including £2.5 billion of low-interest (0.1 per cent.), long-term (25-year) loans allocated for social housing development. These loans will be used to deliver the same social and affordable tenures and strategic priorities as Grant funding under the SAHP, with up to 10 per cent. being available for acquiring homes built under section 106 schemes. £1.5 billion (60 per cent.) will be devolved to the GLA towards alleviating the acute challenges facing new-build provision in the capital. Registered Providers of Social Housing will be able to bid for the unsecured and subordinated funding after the initial Grant allocations have been made under SAHP, with the bidding window expected to open in Autumn 2026.

The UK Government has also committed to reform of the planning system in order to remove barriers to construction of new homes, through the Planning and Infrastructure Act 2025 that received royal assent on 18 December 2025. The Planning and Infrastructure Act 2025 includes various measures to streamline local plans, update the National Planning Policy Framework and reform planning committees. The reforms aim to boost housing and infrastructure development as well as support wider economic growth and achieve environmental goals. The changes to the planning system will interface with a new 10 Year Infrastructure

Plan (published 19 June 2025) and are together expected to assist Registered Providers of Social Housing who are looking to increase development activity over the next decade.

From June to August 2026, HM Revenue & Customs and HM Treasury ran a consultation on proposed VAT relief for land intended for construction of social housing. On 28 October 2026, the UK Government confirmed the zero rate of VAT on land sold to Registered Providers of Social Housing from 1 April 2027. It is hoped this measure will simplify and accelerate the construction of social housing by removing an unfavourable VAT position when taking title of the land at an earlier stage in the development cycle, and support the ability of Registered Providers of Social Housing and councils to more effectively use funding to invest in new homes.

Building Safety

On 14 June 2017 a fire on the fourth floor of Grenfell Tower quickly spread up the walls of the 23-storey residential building due to its combustible exterior cladding panels and insulation. The tragedy resulted in the loss of 72 lives and highlighted significant deficiencies in building safety regulations and fire safety measures. It has since led to widespread reviews and changes in building safety standards in the UK. Various legislation has been enacted pursuant to the Phase 1 Report issued by the Grenfell Tower Public Inquiry and the recommendations of Dame Judith Hackitt in her independent review of fire safety and building regulations. The Phase 2 Report, issued in September 2024, recommended further changes that will impact the residential construction industry. In February 2025 the UK Government accepted the findings of the Phase 2 Report and promised to implement the vast majority of its recommendations.

Fire Safety Remediation

The Grenfell Tower fire immediately brought to light the necessity of large-scale remediation works, for which landlords are legally responsible. Over 1 in 7 existing social housing buildings in England have been found to be affected, and many Registered Providers of Social Housing have had to allocate substantial resources to address fire safety issues in their housing stock. The pace of remediation is slow, with landlords reporting to the RSH in the fourth Fire Safety Remediation Quarterly Survey of 2025-26 having completed remediation works on only 35.5 per cent. of affected buildings.

Originally, the UK Government established the Building Safety Fund (BSF) (relating to buildings higher than 18 metres) and a Cladding Safety Scheme (CSS) (relating to buildings 11 to 18 metres high) to assist with remediation costs. However, Registered Providers of Social Housing initially found it difficult to access these funds as easily as private owners due to certain eligibility criteria and in fact private landlords had received 90 per cent. of the available funding up to mid-2025. In June 2025, the UK Government confirmed over £1 billion of new investment to accelerate the remediation of social housing. The eligibility criteria for the CSS has now been expanded to address the previous impediments for social housing providers, with a short window for applications for remediation funding for eligible buildings under 11 metres during late summer 2026.

The UK Government's Remediation Acceleration Plan of December 2024, updated in July 2025 and June 2026 (RAP), acknowledged barriers such as capacity, access to funding, capability and lengthy cost-recovery processes. In a move towards resolving the volume of social housing buildings in England which still have unsafe cladding, the MHCLG has invited all social landlords with one or more residential buildings over 11 metres to sign up to a voluntary Joint Plan to Accelerate Remediation of Social Housing, incorporating a commitment to meet target dates for the remediation of unsafe cladding on residential buildings over 11 metres. Signing up to the Joint Plan gives Registered Providers of Social Housing access to support and other measures aimed at accelerating the remediation works, but they must commit to pursuing out-of-court routes, for example, mediation or adjudication, to resolve cost recovery disputes.

The MHCLG intends to introduce a statutory 'Duty to Remediate' and enshrine RAP target dates in law through the Building Safety (Remediation of Unsafe Cladding etc) Bill (the Remediation Bill). Once enacted, it will be an offence to obstruct the assessment or remediation of an unsafe building over 11 metres in height without reasonable excuse. Those hindering progress will face financial penalties as a deterrent. The Remediation Bill will introduce a register of all residential 11-18 metre buildings in England and introduce duties to assess and produce remediation compliance plans and ultimately to remediate both buildings over 18 metres and those between 11 and 18 metres, with consequences for non-compliance including fines and/or imprisonment for landlords.

Where the deadline for remediation has passed, and enforcement options have not been effective, the First-tier Tribunal may grant permission to a local authority or Homes England to carry out the remedial works themselves and recover the costs of the same from the landlord or, if a landlord fails to repay, enforce the sale of the building to fund repayment. The draft Remediation Bill was introduced to Parliament on 14 October 2026.

The Government also intends, through new legislation, to strengthen sanctions and enforcement for non-compliance of Remediation Orders.

These plans may be superseded by a private members' bill, the Leaseholder Remediation (Building Safety) Bill, that was first introduced to Parliament in June 2026. This Bill, inter alia, proposes new provisions intended to further accelerate the remediation of building safety defects in residential leasehold properties. It proposes a statutory obligation for the Government to publish, within 6 months of passing the Bill, a Remediation Acceleration Plan including target dates for completion of such remediation works and details of how the government intends to resource and monitor its targets. It also proposes a prohibition on any developer that is a responsible person of an unremedied systemic defect, commencing, continuing or completing any new residential development, and applying for planning permission for a new residential development. This would provide a strong incentive for developers to cooperate and fix defects as quickly as possible. See below regarding the Leaseholder Remediation (Building Safety) Bill proposals.

Building Safety Act 2022

The Building Safety Act 2022 (together with related secondary legislation, the BSA) introduced fundamental reform of building safety requirements with the aim of ensuring that residents are safe in their homes. The BSA laid a new framework of building safety requirements that impact the complete lifecycle of all residential buildings, from planning and design, through to procurement and construction and then also post-construction, to occupation and property management. It affects many aspects of the business of a Registered Provider of Social Housing, in particular the construction, maintenance and management of high-rise residential buildings.

A Building Safety Regulator has been established, with statutory responsibility for oversight of the new building control regulatory regime, supervision of all building control bodies and enforcement of building safety standards. It is also responsible for implementing and enforcing a new, more stringent regulatory regime for defined higher-risk residential buildings (HRBs), both existing and yet to be constructed.

Construction of HRBs

The new building control regime for HRBs includes more prescriptive and intricate building control processes, handover of key compliance and safety information, mandatory occurrence reporting, mandatory registration for building control inspectors and (as applicable to all building works including, but not limited to, HRBs) new dutyholder and competence requirements.

A three-stage (referred to as Gateways) building control process has been introduced in relation to the construction of new HRBs and/or building works to existing HRBs. Applications for Gateway approval are overseen by the Building Safety Regulator as the building control authority for those buildings. Each Gateway must be applied for at the relevant stage of the project: Gateway 1 relates to planning permission (where applicable) and Gateway 2 approval must be obtained prior to the commencement of the construction phase. Gateway 3 approval must be obtained following completion and prior to occupation of the HRB. The building must also be entered onto the register of HRBs as a pre-condition of the building being occupied. The Government has recently introduced reforms of the Building Safety Regulator in relation to its processes, investment and recruitment, and certain disproportionately rigorous building control requirements, to help expedite Gateway applications.

From 1 October 2026, developers of new residential buildings that provide at least 10 dwellings or at least 30 purpose-built student accommodation bedspaces and requiring building control approval need to pay a building safety levy, but certain developments are exempt, including (inter alia) affordable housing and non-social homes built by not-for-profit Registered Providers of Social Housing.

Liability for remediation

The BSA now:

- requires landlords and associated persons to undertake and pay for remediation works for defects in "relevant buildings" (containing at least two dwellings being at least 11 metres high or having at least five storeys). It also limits the recovery of remediation costs from leaseholders;

- enhances the rights of property owners, leaseholders and occupiers to bring claims for defective work in their buildings, defective construction products and non-compliant work;

- retrospectively extends relevant limitation periods and widens the scope of who can be held liable to include associated entities; and

- ushers in draconian new sanctions and restrictions for companies that refuse to remediate their buildings.

The Leaseholder Remediation (Building Safety) Bill, proposes to significantly extend the BSA protections for qualifying leaseholders from the costs of historical building safety failures. This Bill includes a general prohibition on passing costs of systemic defects in buildings that would apply equally to buildings that contain at least one leasehold, without reference to its height, regardless of when the defect arose and irrespective of any agreement or lease provision. Any purported service charge levied at a protected leaseholder on or after 14 February 2022 would be void and can be recovered no later than six years from payment. The 'systemic defect' definition is extremely wide, with the burden of proof explicitly falling upon the building owner (current or at time of the work), developer, any contractor who carried out the work and any manufacturer or supplier of components or materials (collectively known as the responsible persons) to demonstrate that the defect does not fall within the Bill's remit. All responsible persons will have joint and several liability for the defects. Insolvency would not extinguish liability.

The Leaseholder Remediation (Building Safety) Bill also proposes new criminal offences, a licensing scheme, direct cause of action for leaseholders against manufacturers and suppliers, a new ombudsman and a deadline of 6 months for emergency work and 2 years for all other remediation work. It would give the Building Safety Regulator power to investigate, issue remediation notices to responsible persons (which triggers an obligation to provide a programme of remediation works within 28 days), apply to the High Court for injunctions and prosecute offences. The Bill is still in its infancy and will undergo substantive scrutiny and comment during its passage through Parliament. However, if enacted in its current form, this Bill would have far-reaching ramifications and greatly alter the approach to remediation of building safety defects for Registered Providers of Social Housing in their capacity as building owners, landlords and/or leaseholders.

Occupation of HRBs

During the entire occupation phase of each completed (and registered) HRB, the law defines specified persons as "Accountable Persons" and a "Principal Accountable Person" for the building. Accountable Persons and the Principal Accountable Person carry statutory responsibility for the safety of the building, with prescribed duties covering registration, ongoing safety assessments, mandatory occurrence reporting, repairs, resident engagement, complaints management, and keeping and provision of prescribed information (referred to as Golden Thread Information). Accountable Persons are not able to contract out their liability for their obligations, though they are able to appoint third parties to assist with specific duties.

Since October 2023, it has been a criminal offence to fail to register an occupied HRB with the Building Safety Regulator or to allow a newly constructed HRB to be occupied before it has been registered. The Remediation Bill *(*see above in "Fire Safety Remediation") will include proposals for mandatory registration of all residential buildings between 11 and 18 metres in height. If passed, this will mean that there is a "complete register" of all residential buildings above 11 metres.

The BSA implies rights and obligations into certain leases of premises that consist of or include a dwelling in an HRB. Residents are required to cooperate with landlords and to ensure they do not undermine the fire and structural safety of the building in which they live. The BSA also imports a new building safety service charge regime, providing for landlords to recharge limited standard building safety costs to leaseholders.

A breach of the new building safety regime will be an offence, with potential for incurring fines and/or imprisonment for serious breaches. Individuals with dutyholder responsibilities may also be held liable where a breach occurred as a result of that person's consent or connivance.

Fire Safety Order

The Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005 (Fire Safety Order) contains the majority of existing fire safety requirements applicable in England and Wales. It represents a consolidated regime under which any person with some level of control over premises would be required to take reasonable steps to identify and reduce the risk from fire and ensure that people could safely escape in the event of a fire.

The Fire Safety Order is primarily enforced by local fire and rescue authorities. Fire Safety Act 2021 was enacted to clarify that the fire risk assessment of any building covered by the Fire Safety Order must include the risks posed by the building's structure and external walls (including cladding, balconies, doors and windows), as well as all doors between domestic premises and common parts. The Fire Safety (England) Regulations 2022 further amended the Fire Safety Order to legally require "responsible persons" to keep records and share certain information with residents and local fire and rescue services on the design and materials of existing multiple-occupied residential buildings in England. They also require responsible persons in buildings over 11 metres to undertake checks of fire doors in flat entrances at least every 12 months and of communal doors at least every 3 months.

Under the Fire Safety Order, the "responsible person" for each relevant building (being the person in control, usually as owners or managers, of relevant premises) must assess the risk of fire arising from the whole structure and take steps to mitigate any such risks. The BSA extends the statutory responsibilities of the "responsible person" under the Fire Safety Order in relation to fire risk assessments and accessibility of certain information.

Construction personnel and products

With a view to bringing coherence to a fragmented regulatory system, in February 2025 the UK Government announced its plans to bring in a single construction regulator with jurisdiction over construction products regulation as well as building safety regulation. A call for evidence ran during Summer 2026 to gather information needed to form a new strategy for built environment professions, trades and occupations.

Trust in construction products is a vital element of ensuring that residential buildings are safe. Landlords therefore want to ensure that only properly regulated material is used in the buildings for which they are responsible. Golden Thread requirements are likely to include information on the construction products used in that building. In February 2025, the MHCLG published a green paper on reforms to the construction products regime, aiming to address gaps in regulatory coverage and make manufacturers responsible for assessing the safety risks associated with their products. The proposals include:

- labelling of all construction products with critical safety information;

- a requirement for full and updated test data of their products to be provided by the manufacturer to the national regulator;
- a strengthened assurance in product testing and conformity bodies;
- a central library of construction products;
- clearer responsibilities across the whole of the supply chain; and
- stronger enforcement powers and penalties for non-compliance.

The MHCLG also intends to review and improve legal routes for redress from construction product manufacturers, by enhancing enforcement powers and resources. A White Paper was published in February 2026, setting out key headline proposals such as a general safety requirement for all products, enhanced requirements for critical construction products, improved product information and enhanced enforcement powers with greater sanctions. Regulations to begin implementation of the general safety requirement are expected to be introduced by the end of 2026, for commencement in 2027, with other reforms requiring primary legislation in future legislative sessions 'subject to parliamentary time'.

Insurance

Registered Providers of Social Housing have experienced a significant shift in, and hardening of, the insurance market, which has affected price and availability of the insurances required to operate their business. There is limited capacity and appetite within the insurance market to underwrite social housing risks, although the market has improved more recently with rates reducing.

As well as catalysing building and fire safety reform, the Grenfell Tower fire has resulted in a sharp change in the insurance market in respect of residential buildings. Concerns around poor building methods and cladding and insulation are leading to greater caution among insurers in relation to insuring large residential buildings such as high-rise and multiple occupancy blocks. Insurers now require more data in relation to remediation works and the composition of the properties to be insured. If Registered Providers of Social Housing are unable to provide this level of information, the pool of willing insurers is further reduced. The increased value and frequency of insurance claims related to climate-related events such as fires, flooding and subsidence and modern threats to cybersecurity are also aggravating the difficulties experienced by Registered Providers of Social Housing in relation to insurance and increasing premiums.

Some Registered Providers of Social Housing, local authorities and other landlords have reported that they are unable to obtain competitive or comparative quotes or, in some cases, any quotes, for their buildings and leasehold insurance. Where insurance is available, many have faced extreme price hikes on the renewal of their insurances. Some insurers only offer more restrictive terms under which the insured party may not be able to recover full rebuilding costs after major damage to a building. Registered Providers of Social Housing have no choice but to engage, meet insurer requirements and pay the increased premiums. However, more recently there has been interest from a wider range of insurers, which has increased competition, driving a broader availability of cover at reduced rates. Aligned to this is the need for Registered Providers of Social Housing to continue to remediate fire safety defects in buildings in order to reduce risk, maintain insurer confidence and ultimately improve the availability and cost of insurance cover.

The Government has confirmed its commitment to tackling excessive insurance premiums and as such has confirmed that the Fire Safety Reinsurance Facility has been renewed. Building owners are encouraged by the Government to take advantage of the facility where it is required to ensure the best possible deal for residents. The Government also intends to tackle, through recent consultations, the provision of information on building insurance to leaseholders (under the LFRA 2024 – see above), having already tackled excessive commissions through recent FCA leasehold buildings insurance reform.

Energy reform, Climate Change, "Net Zero" – Targets and the Impact on the Social Housing Sector

The Climate Change Act 2008 introduced a legal duty for the UK Government to act to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and provides the framework for the UK's approach to climate change. The Climate Change Act 2008 as amended by the Climate Change Act 2008 (2050 Target Amendment) Order 2019 committed the UK (by law) to a 100 per cent. reduction of greenhouse gas emissions by 2050, compared to 1990 levels. (Net Zero).

The Climate Change Act 2008 requires the UK Government to set legally-binding "carbon budgets" to act as formal milestones towards the 2050 target. A carbon budget is essentially a cap enshrined in law on the amount of greenhouse gases emitted in the UK over a five-year period, set at least 12 years in advance of when they will be in place. The UK Government must put policies in place to ensure the cap on greenhouse gas emissions is met (i.e. not exceeded).

The UK has also committed to meet international emissions reduction targets under the Paris Agreement to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change. Under the Paris Agreement, by 2030 the UK must reduce total greenhouse gas emissions by at least 68 per cent., compared to 1990 levels.

Decarbonising the UK's housing stock is a key priority in order to meet these targets. Key recommendations under the Sixth Carbon Budget relating to buildings include increasing energy efficiency of building stock and switching to low-carbon heating.

The current Government's national energy-efficiency policy looks to consolidate and harmonise such support under a single but multi-faceted programme. The Warm Homes Plan includes a strengthened framework and a new national delivery body (the Warm Homes Agency), which will consolidate the administration of funding schemes that were previously split across multiple government departments and Ofgem. The Warm Homes Plan combines regulatory reform, infrastructure investment and targeted support and commits around £15 billion of public investment to upgrade up to 5 million homes by 2030, with grants, loans and targeted support for low-income households, renters and social housing residents. The Government is working towards devolution of delivery of the Warm Homes Plan to mayoral combined authorities. For Registered Providers of Social Housing, it is hoped that the strengthened regulatory framework and availability of funding via the Warm Homes: Social Housing Fund and the Warm Homes Fund (see below*)* will drive large-scale retrofit programmes, earlier compliance with energy-efficiency requirements and improved conditions for tenants (with a focus on damp, mould and heat loss).

Funding for retrofit

Since 2021 the Government has provided financial aid to Registered Providers of Social Housing through the Warm Homes: Social Housing Fund and its predecessor, the Social Housing Decarbonisation Fund, for the installation of energy efficiency upgrades and low carbon heating technologies, and in April 2026 it announced additional funding to support solar panel installations. In 2025 it committed to continue this support for at least a further 5 years and this was reiterated in the Warm Homes Plan, which sets out the Government's intention to combine the Warm Homes: Social Housing Fund with the Warm Homes: Local Grant and a combined funding allocation of £4.4 billion spread across a five-year period from 2025/26 and 2029/2030. Registered Providers of Social Housing who bid successfully must currently contribute a minimum of 50 per cent. of eligible costs by way of co-funding.

In London, the Warm Homes: Social Housing Fund and the Warm Homes: Local Grant are administered by Warmer Homes London, a consortium between the GLA, London Councils and housing associations, who have each committed additional funding and resources on top of the £121 million received from the Government. As part of their plans for devolution within England, the Government has devolved administration of the Warm Homes: Social Housing Fund to Greater Manchester Combined Authority and West Midlands Combined Authority. Therefore, instead of applying through the national process, eligible Registered Providers of Social Housing in Greater Manchester and the West Midlands apply directly to the regional scheme by reference to the rules and award process set by the relevant authority. The Government is working towards further devolution to the North East, South Yorkshire, West Yorkshire, and Liverpool City Region Mayoral Combined Authorities during the current rounds of the national schemes, to transition delivery by, at the latest, 2028. For projects split across areas and/or elsewhere in the country, Registered Providers of Social Housing are required to apply for funding from the appropriate scheme for each project.

In addition to grant funding under the Warm Homes: Social Housing Fund, the Warm Homes Plan includes a substantial programme of financial support delivered through consumer lending, loans, guarantees and investment mechanisms (the Warm Homes Fund). Since 2025, the Government has pledged to continue to work with public financial institutions such as the National Wealth Fund to support delivery of the Warm Homes Plan. The National Wealth Fund has to date provided guarantees to support £1.65 billion of private sector loans to housing associations for retrofit and decarbonisation works.

Reform of the Energy Performance of Buildings regime

Energy Performance Certificates (EPCs) are used as a key measurement tool for assessing the performance of UK buildings. EPCs are widely used beyond their original scope, for example as the basis for regulatory requirements and eligibility for grant funding. They are often used to meet sustainability reporting requirements and/or as a Key Performance Indicator for sustainability-linked funding. From December 2024 to February 2025 the UK Government ran a public consultation on Reforms to the Energy Performance of Buildings regime, in order to update the metrics and requirements that feed into EPC ratings. A partial response was published in January 2026, with a response on the remainder promised later in 2026. Reformed EPC requirements are likely to combine multiple metrics relating to fabric, heating systems and smart readiness, with a time-limited spend exemption of £10,000 per home.

Minimum Energy Efficiency Standards (MEES)

The Energy Efficiency (Private Rented Property) (England and Wales) Regulations 2015 (SI 2015/962) prescribe a minimum level of energy efficiency for private lets and give private tenants certain rights in relation to energy efficiency improvements with landlord consent. In 2017, the Government indicated an aspiration of "as many private rented homes as possible being upgraded to EPC Band C by 2030, where practical, cost-effective and affordable" and looked to apply the same criteria across the social rented sector.

In September 2023 the Government cancelled its own targets but many Registered Providers of Social Housing have continued to work towards the same 2030 target in respect of their new and existing stock. The legislative agenda was revived with new consultations (i) from 7 February to 2 May 2025 (Improving the energy performance of privately rented homes) proposing higher MEES for the private rent sector and (ii) from 2 July 2025 to 12 September 2025 (Improving the energy efficiency of socially rented homes in England) proposing the introduction of MEES in the social rented sector. A response to the social rented sector consultation was published in April 2026 confirming the introduction of a MEES in the social rented sector and setting out the minimum standards that tenants should be able to expect from their homes. In summary, all new or existing properties must have an EPC C or higher against any one EPC metric by 1 April 2030 using reformed EPCs, with Registered Providers of Social Housing being able to choose from either fabric performance, smart readiness or heating systems. Registered Providers of Social Housing must also reach EPC C or higher against a second EPC metric by 1 April 2039 (from the same list) unless a valid exemption applies.

The implementation of the social rented sector MEES will be included as a regulatory requirement in the revised *Decent Homes Standard (*as set out above), with the aim of lifting hundreds of thousands of homes out of fuel poverty.

Energy security measures and heat networks

Heat networks are pivotal in the UK's net-zero strategy, with a government ambition to grow from around 3 per cent. to 20 per cent. of the heat market by 2050. A large amount of social housing is heated by such systems. Until now there has been little regulation of the mixed assortment of public, private and third-sector operators and little pricing transparency. A new regulatory framework for heat networks has been created under the Energy Act 2023 (EA 2023) and the Heat Networks (Market Framework) (Great Britain) Regulations 2025 (as amended).

The new regulatory regime sits within the wider objectives of the EA 2023 of helping to increase the resilience and reliability of energy systems across the UK, support the delivery of the UK's climate change commitments and reform the UK's energy system while minimising costs to consumers and protecting them from unfair pricing. Together, the legislation establishes a comprehensive authorisation and consumer protection regime for heat networks that is designed to maintain continuity of supply, including when a heat network operator or supplier experiences financial distress.

Ofgem (on behalf of the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority, Ofgem) is responsible for regulation of 'relevant heat networks' across Great Britain, with powers to monitor, grant or manage authorisations to operate or supply heating, cooling or hot water via a relevant heat network, set authorisation conditions and enforce compliance. Carrying out a regulated activity without authorisation is a criminal offence, with personal liability in some circumstances for officers including directors and senior managers.

Any person, including Registered Providers, landlords and building owners, who operates a heat network or supplies heat, cooling or hot water through a relevant heat network is required to register by 26 January 2027 (existing heat networks are deemed authorised in the interim). The operation and supply activities carried out on their relevant heat networks are carried out under the new regulatory regime. When fully operational, the regime will encompass:

- Consumer protections including binding standards of conduct for suppliers and operators, an obligation to ensure fair and transparent pricing, guaranteed standards of performance such as repair times and outage response (not yet in force), support for vulnerable customers (including a requirement to establish a Priority Services Register), restrictions on disconnection practices, protections for customers using pre-payment arrangements and a right to refer complaints to a relevant dispute resolution body, such as the Energy Ombudsman.

- Mandatory minimum standards relating to the design, installation and operation of existing and future heat networks through a Heat Network Technical Assurance Scheme (HNTAS) underpinned by new technical standards. This is not yet in force and is expected to be phased in from 2027 onwards, once detailed requirements have been finalised.

- Coordinated network expansion to increase the number of buildings connected to district heat networks through zoning (with certain buildings within designated zones potentially required to connect), balanced by regulatory oversight through the General Authorisation Conditions to protect consumers given the monopoly characteristics of networks. The zoning regime is being implemented separately from the General Authorisation Conditions and is not yet fully in force.

- Continuity of supply protections covering availability of resources, financial responsibility and continuity arrangements, supported by a new special administration regime that will allow a court to appoint an administrator to manage the authorised person's affairs, business and property with the aim of supporting the continued maintenance and development of a heat network and continued supply to consumers at the lowest cost reasonably practicable where commercial outcomes have failed or been exhausted and there is a risk customers will lose supply.

All authorised persons are required to comply with General Authorisation Conditions that apply to them, covering matters such as consumer protection, fair pricing/billing, fit and proper person requirements for certain managers, continuity planning, performance reporting, independent audits, standards of conduct and record-keeping. Existing governance and contractual arrangements will likely need to be updated in order to ensure that a Registered Provider who is an authorised person can comply with the new requirements. Where the authorised person is also a Registered Provider, the General Authorisation Conditions apply alongside existing housing legislation, the social housing regulatory framework and housing administration process. It is currently unclear how the heat network regulatory regime would interact with the housing regulatory regime in all circumstances. Neither regime is generally subordinate to the other, so those to whom both apply will need to consider the requirements of both regimes and ensure that their arrangements comply with each as applicable. The regimes are nevertheless generally complementary, meaning that outright conflicts are likely to be rare.

Future Homes and Building Standard (FHBS)

The FHBS is a set of building regulations and guidance for new homes and non-domestic buildings in England with the aim of ensuring that new homes and non-domestic buildings are built with low carbon heating and high levels of energy efficiency, so that buildings constructed to these standards will not require retrofitting to become zero carbon in use as the electricity grid decarbonises. The FHBS mandates, among other things, on-site renewable electricity generation (such as solar panels), high levels of energy efficiency, clear information provision to homeowners. Updated statutory guidance includes routes to compliance for homes connected to heat networks, guidance on limiting heat loss from low-carbon heating technologies, and upgrades to how building services should be commissioned, installed and certified. Minimum fabric requirements will remain broadly aligned with current criteria. The regulations to implement FHBS will come into force from March 2027 (and for HRBs, September 2027) with a transition period for projects already in progress. FHBS will apply to any new build homes provided by Registered Providers and to certain retrofit building works on existing buildings.

Impact of climate change

Climate change is expected to have an impact on the built environment in the UK. For housing, the risks associated with climate change could include overheating, subsidence, indoor air quality, flood and water scarcity and damage from extreme weather events. In December 2021, a new legal requirement was introduced in the Building Regulations (Approved Document O) to reduce the risk of overheating in residential buildings. Based on feedback to the consultation that preceded the FHBS, the government additionally plans to undertake a comprehensive technical review seeking improvements to the requirement (in Approved Document O) that new residential buildings must be designed and built to mitigate the risk of overheating. This does not address adaptation in the existing building stock and landlords are also having to consider retrofit of existing properties to deal with climate-related risks.

Reporting on environmental, social and governance (ESG) metrics

The Sustainability Reporting Standard for Social Housing (SRS) was launched in November 2020 as a voluntary reporting framework to enable housing providers to measure, manage and report on their ESG performance in a transparent, comparable and consistent manner. It was developed collaboratively by certain Registered Providers of Social Housing, funders and other stakeholders in the social housing sector. In 2021, Sustainability for Housing was established to oversee the embedding of the SRS in the sector and to ensure its continued development in line with market trends and regulatory requirements.

As at 28 October 2026, 140 Registered Providers of Social Housing and 38 investors have adopted the SRS. The adopting housing providers manage nearly 2.5 million homes across the whole of the UK and the adopting funders represent the majority of private investment into UK social housing. Registered Providers of Social Housing adopters commit to annual reporting against the SRS and to public disclosure of their report. Lender and investor adopters commit to integrating the SRS into investment and credit policies, processes and/or product design. 50 housing providers have reported for three consecutive years, allowing progress tracking for those providers on the various metrics reported in the SRS.

The SRS also seeks to facilitate ongoing alignment with relevant international reporting frameworks and regulatory developments. Sustainability for Housing Limited regularly analyses reporting trends and feedback from adopters to ensure the SRS remains relevant, usable, useful and up to date. The latest SRS (version 2.1) was released in April 2026 and adopters will report against the new version in the October 2026 reporting cycle. Sustainability for Housing also publishes guidance to support reporting and analysis, with updated guidance most recently issued in April 2026 that aims to standardise reporting practices and improve consistency. The Issuer is an adopter of the SRS.

Reform of the UK Public Procurement Regime

Public procurement is governed by the Procurement Act 2023, which came into force on 24 February 2025. The Procurement Act 2023 constitutes wholesale reform and replacement of the previous public procurement legislation, much of which was derived from EU law. It provides a unified framework of streamlined procedures to speed up and simplify the public procurement of works, goods and services covering public contracts, utilities contracts, concessions, framework agreements, defence and security.

Specified financial thresholds apply, depending on the type of contract, and a lighter touch regime continues to apply to certain social, health, education and similar services, with its own higher thresholds. Certain contracts sit outside the Procurement Act 2023 altogether, whatever their value. As before, these include contracts for the acquisition or disposal of an interest in land, employment contracts and certain financial services arrangements.

Registered Providers of Social Housing have incurred increased procurement administration and associated costs due to the transition to the new legislation. The Group is responding through updated procedures and the development of a hub and spoke supply chain operating model. The Centre of Excellence is intended to promote best practice, improve reporting and compliance, provide training to the business, and support consistent application of the new regime across relevant procurement activity.

Moratorium and Housing Administration

In order to protect the interests of tenants and to preserve the housing stock of a Registered Provider of Social Housing within the social housing sector and within the regulatory regime, a 28-day moratorium is automatically triggered when certain steps are taken in relation to a Registered Provider of Social Housing such as presenting a winding up petition, application being made for its winding up or an administration order, the appointment of an administrator or the intention to enforce security over its property. During such moratorium period any disposal of land (including the enforcement of any security) by the Registered Provider of Social Housing without the RSH's prior consent will be void. Exceptions are made for specific types of lettings, and disposals pursuant to a right to buy or right to acquire. The RSH may then appoint an interim manager of the Registered Provider of Social Housing and/or seek to agree proposals about the future ownership and management of the provider's land with its secured creditors. The Security Trustee is required to notify the RSH of its intention to enforce the security created pursuant to the Security Documents and it cannot enforce its security during the resulting moratorium without the consent of the RSH.

The Issuer is a registered society within the meaning of the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014 and is therefore not subject to administration under the Insolvency Act 1986. However, the HPA 2016, the Insolvency of Registered Providers of Social Housing Regulations 2018 and the Housing Administration (England and Wales) Rules 2018 introduced a special administration regime called housing administration which was brought into force on 5 July 2018 and is available in addition to the moratorium regime. This provides for a court to appoint a qualified insolvency practitioner known as a "housing administrator" to manage the affairs, business and property of a Registered Provider of Social Housing, following an application from the Secretary of State or (with the permission of the Secretary of State) the RSH.

An interim moratorium will run from the date of issue of an application for a housing administration order until the application is either dismissed or a housing administration order takes effect. Upon the making of a housing administration order, a Registered Provider of Social Housing shall become subject to a moratorium, for so long as such Registered Provider of Social Housing is subject to a housing administration order, during which secured creditors may not enforce their security without the consent of the housing administrator or the permission of a court.

Each housing administration order will last for 12 months (subject to certain exceptions), but may be extended. In certain circumstances, a court may make an order enabling a housing administrator to dispose of property belonging to a Registered Provider of Social Housing which is subject to a fixed charge, albeit only on terms that the fixed charge holder receives the proceeds up to the value of the security and those proceeds are topped up to "market value" if the property is sold for less than this.

Defined benefit pension schemes

Most Registered Providers of Social Housing participate in (and/or have participated in) one or more defined benefit (DB) pension schemes, which are subject to the funding legislation outlined in the Pensions Act 2004 which came into force on 30 December 2005.

The 'moral hazard' regime, introduced by the Pensions Act 2004, aims to protect the position of DB pension schemes by granting powers to the Pensions Regulator to require employers to provide additional support to schemes in certain circumstances. These powers allow the Pensions Regulator to issue contribution notices (CNs) and financial support directions (FSDs) to either the scheme employer or a person associated or connected with the scheme employer. FSDs are more general in nature and permit the UK Pensions Regulator to require employers to provide additional financial support for the pension scheme's obligations where the regulator believes it is reasonable to do so to maintain the solvency of a scheme. CNs may be imposed following the occurrence of specific actions (or failures to act) that have negatively affected the DB pension scheme.

DB scheme liabilities have received renewed focus since the enactment of the Pensions Schemes Act 2021 (PSA). The PSA strengthened the powers of the UK Pensions Regulator to intervene in corporate activities that threaten DB pension scheme benefits and recoveries by introducing new grounds for the issuance of both CNs and FSDs. It also introduced new criminal and civil penalties for misconduct in relation to a DB scheme.

Community Benefit Society Status

Many Registered Providers of Social Housing are registered as community benefit societies (CBSs) with the Financial Conduct Authority (the FCA) under the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014 (the CCBSA 2014). This is an alternative business structure to, for example, companies and partnerships. Those that are charities are exempt from registration with the Charity Commission but are otherwise subject to charity law. In 2024, the Law Commission was asked by HM Treasury to review the CCBSA 2014 to ensure that it is fitting to the nature and needs of co-operatives and community benefit societies, and to ensure that regulation is proportionate and effective. The Law Commission ran a consultation from September to December 2024, seeking views on their proposals.

The consultation paper discusses a long list of reforms; the length of the list reflects the fact that parts of CBS law have not been systematically reviewed for over a century. Some of the proposals would negatively impact on Registered Providers of Social Housing which are CBSs as follows:

- removal of "exempt charity" status: Currently, CBSs are classified as exempt charities, meaning they do not register with the Charity Commission and are subject to different regulatory requirements in relation to charity law compliance. The Law Commission proposed that these societies should cease being exempt charities and instead be required to register with the Charity Commission like other charities. This change would mean that Registered Providers of Social Housing who are CBSs would face dual regulation by both the Charity Commission and the RSH, potentially complicating compliance requirements, adding to their regulatory burden with additional reporting obligations and governance requirements and becoming subject to more stringent oversight by the Charity Commission in relation to property disposals.

- membership and voting rights: One of the central proposals in the Law Commission consultation paper was the introduction of a statutory definition of co-operatives and CBSs that emphasises open membership and democratic governance. The consultation suggested a "one member, one vote" rule as a fundamental principle for both types of societies. This rule would aim to ensure that each member has equal voting power in decision-making processes but it would disrupt current governance practices and require Registered Providers of Social Housing, who often have a closed shareholding, to restructure their membership frameworks. If implemented as proposed, Registered Providers of Social Housing would find themselves with large numbers of shareholders with each having a vote, meaning that mergers (and particularly rescue mergers) could be made more difficult.

Given the unhelpful implications of the proposals for Registered Providers of Social Housing who are CBSs, many stakeholders have responded to the consultation accordingly. It has been reported that the Law Commission's early policy position paper indicates an intention to retain exempt charity status for Registered Providers of Social Housing and not to mandate voluntary and open memberships. The publication of the Law Commission's final recommendations for reform is awaited. It will then be for the UK Government to decide on whether to progress any recommendation.

INTRODUCTION TO THE VALUATION REPORT

Where the applicable Final Terms states that a Series of Notes will be Secured Notes and that the Security in respect of such Series will be allocated on a Numerical Apportionment Basis, the Notes will be secured by, inter alia, an allocation of Charged Properties from a shared security pool. On an ongoing basis, the Issuer, in agreement with the Security Trustee, apportions such number of parts of the Charged Properties between all the Beneficiaries (including the Issuer) as is appropriate. The following valuation report (the Valuation Report) prepared by the Valuer therefore relates to the total shared security pool, an appropriate part of which will be allocated to secure the Notes of each Series, such part as is required to enable the Issuer to satisfy the Asset Cover Covenant set out in Condition 5.1(c) (Asset Cover Covenant) above.

The Valuation Report was prepared by CBRE Ltd, of Henrietta House, Henrietta Place, London, W1G 0NB (the Valuer) with the effective valuation date of 12 November 2026. It is included in this Base Offering Circular at the Issuer's request and with the consent of the Valuer and the Valuer has authorised the contents of the "Valuation Report" for the purpose of this Base Offering Circular.

As at the date of this Base Offering Circular, the Issuer confirms that no material changes have occurred since the effective date of the Valuation Report.

Summary of valuations

A summary of the values as at 12 November 2026 of the Charged Properties in the total shared security pool set out in the Valuation Report is set out below:

	EUV-SH / MV-ST as appropriate*				Total
	Units	Valued on EUV-SH basis	Units	Valued on MV-ST basis
	No.	£	No.	£	£
Charged Properties	2,380	£248,281,345	5,046	£1,299,276,160	£1,547,557,505

Numerical Apportionment Basis

Where the applicable Final Terms specifies that the Security in respect of a Series is allocated on a Numerical Apportionment Basis, of the 7,426 Units which comprise the total shared security pool at any time, a specific number of Units will be allocated to the Series Secured Parties. The initial number of Units in respect of each Series, and the Minimum Value thereof, shall be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Specific Apportionment Basis

Where the applicable Final Terms specifies that the Security in respect of a Series is allocated on a Specific Apportionment Basis, the Security in respect of such Series will comprise the specific Charged Properties allocated to the Series Secured Parties in respect of such Series and as agreed between the Issuer and the Note Trustee. The list of such Charged Properties and the relevant valuation report in respect thereof will be set out in a supplement to the Base Offering Circular or a drawdown offering circular.

* A further 959 Units (for example, the freehold interests in flats where long-leasehold interests have been sold off) have had no separate value attributed to them.

Instruction

To value (the "Valuation") the relevant unencumbered freehold or leasehold interests in the Properties on the basis of Existing Use Value – Social Housing ("EUV-SH") and Market Value Subject to Tenancies ("MV-T") as at the Valuation Date in accordance with the terms of engagement entered into between CBRE and L&Q (the "Addressee") dated 14 September 2026.

The valuation has been prepared in accordance with the latest version of the RICS Valuation – Global Standards (incorporating the International Valuation Standards) and the UK national supplement (the "Red Book") current as at the Valuation Date.

The valuations are compliant with the International Valuation Standards and (where applicable) the Financial Conduct Authority's ("FCA") UK Listing Rules (the "UK Listing Rules") and the London Stock Exchange requirements. We can also confirm that this valuation report has been prepared for L&Q in connection with the preparation of a base prospectus, to be approved by the FCA under the Prospectus Rules: Admission to Trading on a Regulated Market sourcebook ("PRM").

The Properties have been valued by a valuer who is qualified for the purpose of the Valuation in accordance with the Red Book. We confirm that we have sufficient local and national knowledge of the particular property market involved and have the skills and understanding to undertake the Valuation competently.

Purpose

The Valuation has been prepared for a Regulated Purpose as defined in the RICS Valuation – Global Standards and the UK National Supplement current as at the Valuation Date (the "Red Book").

We understand that our valuation report and the appendices to it (together the "Valuation Report") are required for inclusion in the Base Offering Circular to be published by L&Q in connection with the update of the £2,500,000,000 Euro Medium Term Note Programme (the "Offering Circular" and the "Programme") of London & Quadrant Housing Trust and each Series of Notes issued thereunder and the application for admission of such Notes to the official list of the FCA and to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market.

Our valuation is provided solely for this intended use and no other purpose or use is permitted.

The Properties

The properties comprise 8,385 no. residential affordable homes held by L&Q (the "Properties"). The Properties comprise Freehold and Leasehold dwellings, as summarised by the below table:

Tenure	No. Units
Freehold	6,930
Leasehold	1,455
TOTAL	8,385

Docusign Envelope ID: BA3F5147-456E-827D-8055-ABAFCE55FE7F

Aggregate Value of the Properties subject to Title Restrictions

£1,547,557,505 (One Billion, Five Hundred and Forty-Seven Million, Five Hundred and Fifty-Seven Thousand, Five Hundred and Five Pounds)

Our opinion of aggregate value (the "Portfolio Reported Value") reflects the sum of 7,426 units valued in accordance with the valuation basis of EUV-SH or MV-T as determined by the restrictions within the Certificate of Title.

We include at Appendix A the Valuation Schedule. Within this portfolio, 959 units are not attributed a value.

There are no negative values to report.

We are required to show the split of values between freehold-equivalent and leasehold properties and these values are:

Tenure	No. Units	MV-T	EUV-SH	Total MV-T (reflecting CoT)	Total EUV-SH (reflecting CoT)	Total Reported Value
Freehold	6,145	4,807	1,338	£1,252,993,820	£139,330,780	£1,392,324,600
Leasehold	1,281	239	1,042	£46,282,340	£108,950,565	£155,232,905
TOTAL*	7,426	5,046	2,380	£1,299,276,160	£248,281,345	£1,547,557,505

MV-T and EUV-SH figures are stated net of the £291,295 damp and mould allowance referred to in the Property Details section.

Our valuation represents 100% interests in each of the Properties (wholly owned and controlled). Where a Property is owned by way of a joint tenancy in a trust for sale, or through an indirect investment structure, our Valuation does not represent any apportioned percentage of ownership of the value of the Property. Our Valuation does not necessarily represent the value of the interests in any indirect investment structure through which the Property is held.

Our opinion of EUV-SH and MV-T is based upon the Scope of Work and the Valuation Assumptions attached in the appendices – and has been primarily derived using comparable recent market transactions on arm's length terms.

The basis of EUV-SH is defined in UK VPGA 7 of the RICS Valuation - Global Standards – UK National Supplement. MV-T is an extension of Market Value as defined within VPS 2 of the RICS Valuation - Global Standards (the "Red Book").

The definitions of all bases of value are set out in full in the Valuation Principles and Assumptions in the appendices.

Assumptions

An Assumption is defined in the Red Book Glossary and VPS 2 to be a "supposition taken to be true" (an "Assumption").

Assumptions are facts, conditions or situations affecting the subject of, or approach to, a valuation that it has been agreed need not be verified by the valuer as part of the valuation process. Assumptions are made when it is reasonable for the valuer to accept that something is true without the need for specific investigation.

Docusign Envelope ID: BA3F5147-456E-827D-8055-ABAFCE55FE7F

The details on which our valuation is based are as set out in this report. We can confirm that there have been no variations and/or departures from the CBRE Valuation Principles and Assumptions in the appendices.

L&Q has confirmed and we confirm that our Assumptions are correct as far as L&Q and we, respectively, are aware. If any of the information or assumptions on which the valuation is based are subsequently found to be incorrect, the valuation figures may also be incorrect and should be reconsidered.

Valuation Approach

We have arrived at the Portfolio Reported Value using the following approaches (as defined in the latest version of the RICS Global – Valuation Standards):

- The market approach, comparing the subject asset with market transactions in the same, or closely similar, type of asset within an appropriate time horizon.
- The income approach (including the profits method of valuation), based on capitalisation or conversion of present and predicted income (cash flows), which may take a number of different forms, to produce a single current capital value.

TN 619.4 III.I 130 (vi)

The FCA has published Primary Market Technical Note TN 619.4, Guidelines on disclosure requirements under the Prospectus Rules: Admission to Trading on a Regulated Market (PRM) and Guidance on specialist issuers, which sets out the FCA's guidance for issuers and their advisers in relation to prospectus disclosure requirements and specialist issuers, including property companies. Although the Technical Note does not form part of the FCA Handbook, it represents FCA guidance under section 139A of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and the FCA expects issuers to have regard to it where relevant. Accordingly, this valuation report has been prepared having regard to, and is compliant with, paragraphs 128 to 130 (inclusive) of Part III.1 (Property companies) of TN 619.4.

TN 619.4 III.I 130 (vi) requires us to comment on any differences between the valuation figure in this Valuation Report and the valuation figures included in L&Q's latest published annual accounts. We have been provided with L&Q's audited financial statements which are in respect of the period ending 31 March 2026 and were published on 23 September 2026.

We do not consider it possible to compare the Valuation reported herein with any figures appearing in L&Q's latest published audited financial statements. The Valuation has been prepared in accordance with the RICS Red Book (as defined herein) to enable parties relying on the Valuation to assess the value recoverable if the charges over the Properties were enforced as at the effective date of the Valuation. It is CBRE's understanding that any values set out in the audited financial statements of L&Q are prepared on an historic cost basis, which considers how much the properties have cost and will continue to cost L&Q. This differs from the basis of valuation required for the Purpose of this Valuation Report.

We would also note that any figures published in the audited financial statements represents a valuation based on the entirety of the housing stock held by L&Q. This Valuation Report represents the value to a funder in possession of a portion of that stock. Consequently, in addition to being impractical, any comparison would not be an accurate comparison.

Current Market Conditions

Due to ongoing tensions in the Middle East, there is heightened global economic uncertainty. The situation remains extremely fluid with a variety of possible outcomes. Potential risks include the impact on energy infrastructure in the Gulf states and the transit of oil and gas through the Strait of Hormuz. There are implications for global supply chains, as well as the cost of capital and transaction activity.

Docusign Envelope ID: BA3F5147-456E-827D-8055-ABAFCE55FE7F

The financial markets are pricing in significantly higher levels of inflation that will likely see a tightening of monetary policy in the coming months.

Experience has shown that consumer and investor behaviour can quickly change during periods of heightened volatility. Lending or investment decisions should consider the potential for a continuation of recent volatility, which may affect market conditions disproportionately, depending on asset class.

It is important to note that the conclusions set out in this report are valid as at the Valuation Date only. Where appropriate, we recommend that the valuation is closely monitored, as we continue to track how markets respond to evolving events.

The Building Safety Act

The Building Safety Act received Royal Assent on 28 April 2022. The Act sets out a clear, proportionate framework for the design, construction and management of safer, high quality-homes. In this Act, the focus is on 'Higher-Risk Residential Buildings', which are defined as buildings which are above 18 metres or 7 storeys in height and contain at least two residential units. The Act introduces a new building control body - the Building Safety Regulator (established within the Health and Safety Executive) whose function will be to secure building safety and improve the standard of buildings. The Act also clearly states that owners of Higher-Risk Residential Buildings will be responsible for safety - from planning to occupation - and are required to demonstrate that they have effective, proportionate measures in place to manage safety risks and keep a 'golden thread' of building safety information. This is then managed by the 'accountable person' who will be responsible for the occupied building.

Furthermore, homeowners will have 15 years to claim compensation for sub-standard work and owners of properties built up to 30 years prior to this change coming into effect will be able to bring a claim for compensation for defective work. The Building Safety Regulator will also be able to impose sanctions on those who do not comply. The Residential Property Developer Tax (from 1 April 2022) and the Building Safety Levy (from 1 October 2026) have also been introduced to ensure that the industry contributes towards remedial building safety work.

There will be a period of transition to the new regime, and registration for existing occupied Higher-Risk Residential Buildings was in October 2023. From October 2023, the Building Safety Regulator became the new building control authority for Higher-Risk Residential Buildings.

Our report is valid at the Valuation Date and has taken into account the due diligence required under the requirements of the current legislation. However, uncertainty may exist regarding any additional requirements made by the Building Safety Regulator following their commission in October 2023.

On 29 March 2024, the Government published changes to Approved Document B, which includes the introduction of second staircases in "tall" buildings for development. The Government has imposed a requirement for second staircases in all new buildings that are taller than 18 metres in height. The Approved Document B changes also include guidance on evacuation shafts and escape routes. The end date for the transitional period for the changes to be implemented is 30 September 2026. Our valuation has been undertaken assuming the regulatory environment as at the date of valuation. The guidance within the existing Approved Document B (2019 edition incorporating 2020 and 2022 amendments) can continue to be followed where:

- A building notice, initial notice or building control approval application with full plans is given or made to the relevant building control authority by 30 September 2026; and
- Building work has started and "sufficiently progressed" before, or within the period of 18 months beginning on, 30 September 2026.

Please see our Building Safety section of this report for further details.

Building Safety

To mitigate and minimise the uncertainty relating to Building Safety, L&Q formulated a detailed strategy to 2031, the L&Q Future Shape 2026-2031 (the "Strategy"), employed a dedicated Fire and Building Safety team and, together with appropriate external consultants, is undertaking extensive investigative works across the entirety of its properties.

We have been provided with a copy of the Strategy as part of our Previous Valuations which set out that by the end of 2026 L&Q aimed to have:

- Completed the fire safety inspections of External Wall Systems (EWS) of multi-occupancy buildings of all heights;
- Inspected the EWS of all buildings through the Fire Risk Assessment process;
- Fully remediated, where necessary, buildings of 7 storeys or 18 metres or more in height thereby ensuring the EWS is safe; and,
- Provided EWS1 safety certification, where required, to all residents in buildings within the scope of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (RICS) EWS1 scheme.

In addition to the Strategy document, we have been provided with, but not limited to, the following:

- L&Q's "EMTN 2026 Update - Fire Safety Data" for the Properties associated with this Valuation, received on 20 August 2026 and updated on 9 September 2026 (V4) (and updates via email);
- Rendall and Rittner's "Printworks – Facade Update September 2026" in respect of 22 Amelia Street, received on 9 September 2026; and,
- L&Q's website and report titled 'Building and Fire Safety - Everything you need to know about fire safety in your home or building'. The document previously received 20 July 2021.

We have not been provided with relevant technical documents relating for every building valued, however, throughout the course of this Valuation and the Previous Valuations, we have held a number of meetings and discussions with L&Q's internal Fire and Building Safety team to understand its risk-based approach in relation to all buildings across its ownership (both freehold and leasehold) including those that have not yet been inspected or subject to detailed assessment.

L&Q's approach is centred on key building data being run through a matrix to determine the order in which buildings are inspected. The matrix has been developed to ensure that fire safety risks are weighted to create a risk-based inspection and assessment programme. The matrix has regard to, inter alia; number of storeys, building height, number of dwellings, tenant profile, escape route, insulation, cavity barriers, construction, cladding/external wall system materials, existence of balconies, location of car parking.

This list is not exhaustive, however, in our view, L&Q have adopted a "worst case" approach to this risk matrix, thereby maximising the prospect that all high-risk buildings have already been identified. Based on our valuation experience, we consider this to be amongst the most detailed programmes that we have been exposed to.

In accordance with the RICS Guidance Note: Valuation of properties in multi storey, multi-occupancy residential buildings with cladding, most of the subject properties do not meet the criteria where an EWS1 form is required due to them being under six storeys. However, this is not a guarantee that there are no fire safety risks associated with the Property, nor that remedial works will not be required in the future. Neither the individual preparing the Valuation nor this firm shall have any liability to you, or to any third party with whom you share the Valuation, for any losses arising as result of the existence of any such fire safety risks.

Based on the information provided on 20 August 2026 (and subsequent iterations of this document and updates via email) specific to the Properties associated with this Valuation and to which we are attributing a value, we consider it likely that building safety risks may be material to value to 848no. Properties. These include Properties located in the following buildings, which have been identified as being above 18m or 7 storeys. According to the Building Safety Act, they are classified as 'higher-risk buildings'. There is therefore a heightened requirement for responsible persons to have reliable and accurate building safety due diligence, in accordance with the Act and associated legislation. We have also included buildings which have EWS1 forms signed by Adam Kiziak of Tri Fire Ltd, who was suspended by the Institution of Fire Engineers in August 2024 and expelled in February 2025.

We understand that L&Q established an independent review panel to ensure the accuracy of EWS1 forms issued by Tri Fire. At the time of our 2025 Valuation the L&Q FE Panel had reviewed 44 blocks, revealing a 93% correlation between the original EWS1 forms and the panel's findings. L&Q anticipated this trend would continue for the remaining blocks under review and considered the Tri Fire reports to be valid and accurate. While some residents initially encountered difficulties obtaining mortgages with Tri Fire's EWS1 forms, L&Q worked with UK Finance and other organisations to resolve this. UK Finance has since confirmed that they will accept Tri Fire's EWS1 forms, ensuring that residents should not face obstacles when selling or remortgaging their homes due to these forms.

Since our 2025 Valuation, L&Q has initiated a programme of revised Fire Risk Appraisals of External Walls (FRAEWs) for all blocks previously assessed by Tri Fire, which is being carried out on a risk-based approach. Where revised FRAEWs have been completed they have identified that works are required at Franklin House (Carlton Vale), Sedum House (Beaumont Road), Chaseway Lodge and Shillingshaw Lodge (Butchers Road). At Franklin House the original developer has confirmed it will fund the works. At Sedum House an application to Homes England's Cladding Safety Scheme is in progress. At Chaseway Lodge and Shillingshaw Lodge L&Q is in discussion with the original developer to fund the works and, failing that, will apply for funding through the Cladding Safety Scheme. L&Q anticipates that the remaining revised FRAEWs (including Robert Lewis House) will be received by the end of 2026 financial year, with Cassini Apartments expected by December 2027. For Brickland Court the managing company has provided a revised EWS1 (Hydrock, March 2023) with a B1 rating. On the basis that no remediation costs are expected to fall on L&Q, we have not applied a building safety deduction to the affected units in this Valuation; however, we draw attention to the inherent uncertainty pending the outcome of the revised FRAEWs and reserve the right to amend our opinion of value should this position change.

We have been advised that, for every block identified above, the cost of any remediation works is expected to be met either by the original developer (in line with the developer pledge), or by Homes England through the Cladding Safety Scheme, or that no works are required. Accordingly, no remediation costs are expected to fall on L&Q. The current position for each block, as advised by L&Q, is summarised in the table below.

In preparing our valuation, CBRE has considered the information provided by L&Q's specialist team, including whole-block cost estimates (as at September 2026) for the blocks where works have been identified and confirmation of the party expected to meet those costs. As no remediation costs are expected to fall on L&Q, no cost deduction has been applied on a unit-by-unit basis in this Valuation. We have relied solely on the information provided by L&Q and have not carried out any additional investigation into the costs of remediation.

For the purposes of our valuation, we have assumed that the responsible parties are cooperating and collating the 'golden thread' of information required - this includes a 'Building Safety Case' which was required to be completed by April 2024. We have assumed that the responsible parties are working towards compliance with the Act and associated legislation in accordance with the set timeframes. In the event of non-compliance with these requirements, we reserve the right to amend our opinion of value. We are not responsible for the correct information being collated.

This is not a guarantee that there are no further fire safety risks associated with the construction of the external wall system, nor that remedial works will not be required in the future (as may be identified by the Building Safety Inspector); or that the cost of any future additional remedial works will not impact the value.

The Renters' Rights Act

The Renters' Rights Act received Royal Assent on 27 October 2025. The Act represents major reform of the private rented sector (PRS) and aims to improve housing quality and tenant protection.

Key provisions include:

- Banning 'no fault' Section 21 evictions. Landlords must now rely on statutory grounds under section 8 to regain possession. Non-fault grounds will require a four-month notice period (previously two months).
- Introduction of a property portal which all private sector landlords will be required to use to show compliance with legal standards.
- Introduction of a Government approved mandatory Ombudsman for Landlords.

Docusign Envelope ID: BA3F5147-456E-827D-8055-ABAFCE55FE7F

- All fixed term Assured Shorthold Tenancies to move to a system of periodic 'rolling' tenancies.
- It will be illegal for Landlords to discriminate against prospective tenants with children or those in receipt of benefits.
- Landlords may only increase rents once per year provided that the increase reflects the market rate. Tenants will also have the right to challenge any proposed increase they believe to be unfair which will go through the courts. Two months' notice will be required for any rental increases.
- The Act seeks to end 'bidding wars' on rents and Landlords will be prohibited from accepting offers above the 'asking rent'.

Whilst the Act is now law, significant further regulations are needed for the Act to be fully brought into force. The Government has advised that the Act will be brought in over three phases. Phase 1, effective from 1 May 2026, has implemented the new tenancy regime for both new and existing tenancies, moving to a system of periodic tenancies, and thereby ending fixed-term tenancies and abolishing section 21 'no-fault' evictions. Phase 2, from late 2026 will introduce the Database of PRS properties and establish a Landlord Ombudsman. Phase 3 will focus on raising standards through the extension of Awaab's Law and a modernised Decent Homes Standard. The timetable for implementing these changes will be subject to consultation.

We make no assurance that the reforms will not have an impact on our valuation assumptions.

Independence

We confirm that during the last three years, CBRE Ltd (or other companies forming part of the same group of companies within the UK) have advised on the Portfolio and acted for the client. However, the total fees (including the fee for this assignment), earned by CBRE Ltd from the borrower are less than 5.0% of the total UK revenues.

It is not anticipated that this situation will vary in the financial year to 31 December 2026.

Previous Involvement and Conflicts of Interest

L&Q is aware that CBRE Ltd has previously valued all the Properties for Regulated Purposes as defined in the Red Book (the "Previous Valuations"). The Previous Valuations were provided in reports dated 22 September 2020, 10 September 2021, 17 January 2022, 9 September 2022, 3 October 2023, 30 September 2024 and 7 October 2025 and were required for inclusion in the Base Offering Circulars dated 22 September 2020, 10 September 2021, 9 September 2022, 3 October 2023, 30 September 2024, and 7 October 2025 in connection with both the establishment and previous updates to the Programme and in the Offering Circular dated 17 January 2022 in connection with the issuance of £300 million secured sustainability-linked Notes due 2032 under the Programme.

L&Q is also aware that CBRE Ltd has provided, and continues to provide, unrelated valuation and other advisory services to the dealers appointed in respect of the Programme (the "Dealers") variously and, in relation to certain Dealers within the group, CBRE Ltd is subject to framework and/or service agreements to provide valuation services.

We are not aware of any conflicts of interest that would prevent us from exercising the required levels of independency and objectivity.

Copies of our conflict of interest checks have been retained within the working papers.

Scope of Work

Sources of Information

We have carried out our work based upon information supplied to us by L&Q, as set out within this report, which we have assumed to be correct and comprehensive.

The information supplied to us by L&Q includes, but is not limited to:

- "Default report for EMTN Existing Stock 2026 Valuation" (Asset Core download), received on 9 September 2026;
- "EMTN 2026 Update - Fire Safety Data", received on 20 August 2026 (and subsequent iterations of this document and updates via email);
- "Draft CoT (LQ T5) - DEVS V1(29256617.1) - CBRENI 01082025", received on 1 August 2025;
- "Full Portfolio - Project Wren - CBRENI 01082025 with DEVS Comments(29485700.1) - AMcS 22082025", 2nd draft of CoT received on 22 August 2025;
- "Full Portfolio - Project Wren - CBRENI 01082025 with DEVS Comments(29485700.1) - AMcS 08092025", final agreed CoT received on 8 September 2025 (provided as part of the 2025 valuation; as there are no new units within the Portfolio in 2026, these documents remain relevant)

The Portfolio

The Valuation Report contains a brief summary relating to the Properties, on which our Valuation has been based.

Inspection

As instructed, we have undertaken external and internal inspections of a number of the Properties within the valuation period. The completion of these inspections means that all Properties will have been subject to, at the very least, an external inspection over the five-year period.

During the period Monday 17 August 2026 to Friday 21 August 2026, we inspected:

- 1,656 units (20% of the portfolio) externally and;
- 129 units (2% of the portfolio) internally.

For clarity, a 'unit' refers to an individual dwelling e.g. a single flat or a single house.

Exact inspection dates for each unit seen are listed in the attached Inspection Schedule at Appendix B.

The remainder of the Properties have been valued on a desktop basis meaning that no physical inspection has been undertaken as part of this instruction. We have inspected a number of the properties as part of previous instructions and L&Q has informed us that there have been no material changes to these Properties, nor the nature of their location since our previous inspection. We have assumed this advice to be correct. If at a later date information is provided to the contrary, we reserve the right to amend our valuation.

Where properties have not been reinspected, the valuer will not carry out the usual range of enquiries performed during a full inspection of these properties and will make the appropriate assumptions based on the information provided or available that, without a full inspection, cannot be verified.

It remains the case that property inspections for valuation purposes are dependent on tenants providing access for inspections, particularly in terms of internal access. The valuer may have been unable to carry out the usual range of enquiries performed during a full inspection of the properties. Where necessary we have made appropriate assumptions based on the information provided or available that, without a full inspection, cannot be verified.

Floor Areas	We have not measured the Properties; neither have we been provided with floor areas for the units comprising the Properties. Our valuation assumes that all units are of a market-typical size for their type and configuration. Our sample property inspections coupled with confirmations from L&Q have informed us that the housing stock comprising the Properties may be considered market-typical. We are not aware of any units that may be considered unduly compromised in terms of area and/or configuration.
Rental Income	The Valuation we have provided reflects the rental income as at the Valuation Date, as set out within this report, which you have confirmed to be correct and comprehensive. It also reflects any issues concerning the anticipated cash-flow that you have advised us of, as set out within this report.
Environmental Considerations	We have not been instructed to make any investigations in relation to the presence or potential presence of contamination in land or buildings or the potential presence of other environmental risk factors and to assume that if investigations were made to an appropriate extent then nothing would be discovered sufficient to affect value. We have not carried out investigation into past uses, either of the property or of any adjacent lands, to establish whether there is any potential for contamination from such uses or sites, or other environmental risk factors and have therefore assumed that none exists.
ESG and Sustainability Considerations	In carrying out this valuation, we have considered the impact of sustainability factors on the value of the property. Based on our inspections and our review of the SAP data provided we have not identified any risk factors which, in our opinion, would affect value. However, CBRE gives no warranty as to the absence of such risk factors in relation to sustainability.
Services and Amenities	We understand that the Properties are located in an area served by mains gas, electricity, water and drainage. None of the services have been tested by us.
Repair and Condition	We have not carried out building surveys, tested services, made independent site investigations, inspected woodwork, exposed parts of the structure which were covered, unexposed or inaccessible, nor arranged for any investigations to be carried out to determine whether or not any deleterious or hazardous materials or techniques have been used, or are present, in any part of the Properties. We are unable, therefore, to give any assurance that the Properties are free from defect.
Town Planning	We have not undertaken planning enquiries as part of this valuation. We have assumed that all of the Properties have been constructed in accordance with the relevant planning consent or have the benefit of planning permission. We have not been provided with any copies of Section 106 Agreements or planning consents in respect of the Properties. CBRE has previously been furnished with Certificate of Title for the various tranches of units which were the subject of previous iterations of this valuation. We have relied on these documents to inform our basis of value reported here. In respect of the units which were newly charged as part of the 2025 charging programme, we have relied upon the Draft CoT (LQ T5) - DEVS V1(29256617.1) - CBRENI 01082025, the 2nd Draft CoT - Full Portfolio - Project Wren - CBRENI 01082025 with DEVS Comments(29485700.1) - AMcS 22082025 and the Final agreed CoT - Full Portfolio - Project Wren - CBRENI 01082025 with DEVS Comments(29485700.1) - AMcS 08092025 produced by Devonshires Solicitors LLP and received by CBRE on 1 August 2025, 22 August 2025 and 8 September 2025 respectively. There are no new units included within the Portfolio in 2026 and, as such, we have not been provided with any further Certificate of Title; we have therefore continued to rely upon the above documents, which remain relevant. In line with the documentation provided, our valuation is based on there being no contingent liabilities attached to the properties or unsatisfied planning conditions that may have been attached to the original planning consents.

We have assumed that there are no outstanding obligations relating to any planning consents at the properties and that none of the properties are subject to Enforcement Action.

Titles, Tenures and Lettings

Details of title/tenure under which the Properties are held and of lettings to which it is subject are as supplied to us. We have not generally examined nor had access to all the deeds, leases or other documents relating thereto. Where information from deeds, leases or other documents is recorded in this report, it represents our understanding of the relevant documents. We should emphasise, however, that the interpretation of the documents of title (including relevant deeds, leases and planning consents) is the responsibility of your legal adviser.

We have not conducted credit enquiries on the financial status of any tenants. We have, however, reflected our general understanding of purchasers' likely perceptions of the financial status of tenants.

Valuation Assumptions

Introduction

An Assumption is defined in the Red Book Glossary and VPS 2 to be a "supposition taken to be true" (an "Assumption").

Assumptions are facts, conditions or situations affecting the subject of, or approach to, a valuation that it has been agreed need not be verified by the valuer as part of the valuation process. Assumptions are made when it is reasonable for the valuer to accept that something is true without the need for specific investigation.

L&Q has confirmed, and we confirm, that our Assumptions are correct as far as L&Q and we, respectively, are aware. In the event that any of these Assumptions prove to be incorrect then our valuations should be reviewed. The principal Assumptions which we have made are stated within this Valuation Report.

– For the avoidance of doubt, the Assumptions made do not affect compliance with the approach to our opinion of aggregate value.

Capital Values

Existing Use Value – Social Housing ("EUV-SH")

The basis of Existing Use Value for Social Housing is defined in UK VPGA 7 of the RICS Valuation - Global Standards - UK National Supplement as follows:

"Existing Use Value for Social Housing (EUV-SH) is an opinion of the best price at which the sale of an interest in a property would have been completed unconditionally for a cash consideration on the Valuation Date, assuming:

- a willing seller;
- that prior to the Valuation Date there had been a reasonable period (having regard to the nature of the property and the state of the market) for the proper marketing of the interest for the agreement of the price and terms and for the completion of the sale;
- that the state of the market, level of values and other circumstances were on any earlier assumed date of exchange of contracts, the same as on the date of valuation;
- that no account is taken of any additional bid by a prospective purchaser with a special interest;
- that both parties to the transaction had acted knowledgeably, prudently and without compulsion;
- that the property will continue to be let by a body pursuant to delivery of a service for the existing use;
- the vendor would only be able to dispose of the property to organisations intending to manage their housing stock in accordance with the regulatory body's requirements;
- that properties temporarily vacant pending re-letting should be valued, if there is a letting demand, on the basis that the prospective purchaser intends to re-let them, rather than with vacant possession; and
- that any subsequent sale would be subject to all the same assumptions above."

Market Value Subject to Tenancies ("MV-T")

The basis of Market Value is defined in VPS 2 of the Red Book as follows:

"The estimated amount for which an asset or liability should exchange on the valuation date between a willing buyer and a willing seller in an arm's length transaction after proper marketing and where the parties had each acted knowledgeably, prudently and without compulsion."

Market Value subject to Tenancies is in accordance with the above definition, with the addition of the point below:

"That the properties would be subject to any secure or assured tenancies that may prevail, together with any other conditions or restrictions to which property may be subject."

MV-T means a valuation made on the basis of the current Market Value as defined by the RICS at VPS 2 of the RICS Valuation – Global Standards (incorporating the IVSC International Valuation Standards) (effective from 31 January 2025) (or, if a subsequent edition of the RICS Valuation – Global Standards has been published at the relevant time, the relevant valuation standard of the then most recently published edition of the RICS Valuation – Global Standards) of the relevant Properties, taking into account the existing tenancies that grant security of tenure to the current tenant of such Properties or, if the RICS Valuation – Global Standards are no longer published at such time, on a basis agreed between the Issuer, the Note Trustee, and a Valuer and (for so long as security is allocated to the Series Secured Parties on a Numerical Apportionment Basis) the Representatives of each other NAB Beneficiary. Capitalised terms used in this definition and not otherwise defined in this report have the meaning given to such terms in the Offering Circular.

Passing Rent

Passing Rents quoted in this report are the rents which are currently payable under the terms of the tenancy agreements. Passing Rents exclude service charges, operating expenditure and VAT and are prior to deduction of any non-recoverable costs.

Net Rent

Net Rents quoted in this report are the Passing Rents less operating expenditure.

Rental Values

Unless stated otherwise rental values indicated in our report are those which have been adopted by us as appropriate in assessing the capital value and are not necessarily appropriate for other purposes. We have not been instructed to provide, and have not provided, an opinion of Market Rent (as defined in the Red Book) for the Properties. Our cashflows adopt the Passing Rents supplied by L&Q and, where we have had to assess a rent, we have had regard to appropriate affordable rental levels for the relevant tenure.

Environmental Matters

In the absence of any information to the contrary, we have assumed that:

a) the Properties are not contaminated and is not adversely affected by any existing or proposed environmental law;

b) any processes which are carried out on the Properties which are regulated by environmental legislation are properly licensed by the appropriate authorities;

c) in England and Wales, the Properties possess current Energy Performance Certificates ("EPCs") as required under the Government's Energy Performance of Buildings Directive – and that they have an energy efficient standard of 'E', or better. We would draw your attention to the fact that under the Energy Efficiency (Private Rented Property) (England and Wales) Regulations 2015 it became unlawful for landlords to rent out a business and residential premise from 1st April 2018 – unless the site has reached a minimum EPC rating of an 'E', or secured a relevant exemption. In Scotland, we have assumed that the Properties possess current EPCs as required under the Scottish Government's Energy Performance of Buildings (Scotland) Regulations – and that they meet energy standards equivalent to those introduced by the 2002 building regulations. We would draw your attention to the fact the Assessment of Energy Performance of Non-Domestic Buildings (Scotland) Regulations 2016 came into force on 1st September 2016. From this date, building owners are required to commission an EPC and Action Plan for sale or new rental of non-domestic buildings bigger than 1,000 sq m that do not meet 2002 building regulations energy standards. Action Plans contain building improvement measures that must be implemented within 3.5 years, subject to certain exemptions;

d) Under the Minimum Energy Efficiency Standards ("MEES") introduced by the Energy Efficiency (Private Rented Property) (England and Wales) Regulations 2015, privately rented homes must currently achieve a minimum EPC rating of Band E, unless a valid exemption is registered. Socially rented homes are not currently subject to a minimum EPC requirement. The Government has since confirmed significant changes to these requirements. For the private rented sector, it has confirmed a minimum standard equivalent to EPC Band C, to be met by 1 October 2030 for both new and existing tenancies. For the social rented sector, it has confirmed that all new and existing social rented homes in England must achieve EPC Band C, measured against a reformed EPC framework, by 1 April 2030, with a second metric to be met by 1 April 2039, unless a valid exemption is registered. These requirements will form part of the reformed Decent Homes Standard, which is due to apply from 2035;

e) the Properties are either not subject to flooding risk or, if they are, that sufficient flood defences are in place and that appropriate building insurance could be obtained at a cost that would not materially affect the capital value; and

f) invasive species such as Japanese Knotweed are not present on the Properties.

High voltage electrical supply equipment may exist within, or in close proximity of, the Properties. The National Radiological Protection Board (NRPB) has advised that there may be a risk, in specified circumstances, to the health of certain categories of people. Public perception may, therefore, affect marketability and future value of the Properties. Our Valuation reflects our current understanding of the market and we have not made a discount to reflect the presence of this equipment.

We note that a proportion of the Properties currently have an EPC rating below Band C, as set out in the Energy Performance Certificates section of this report, and that works may therefore be required to meet the new standards. Our Valuation reflects market conditions and regulations in force at the Valuation Date. We have made no specific allowance for the cost of any future works that may be required to improve the energy efficiency of the Properties, which we have assumed would be reflected in the Registered Provider's business plan and planned maintenance programme.

Repair and Condition

In the absence of any information to the contrary, we have assumed that:

a) there are no abnormal ground conditions, nor archaeological remains, present which might adversely affect the current or future occupation, development or value of the Properties;

b) the Properties are free from rot, infestation, structural or latent defect;

c) no currently known deleterious or hazardous materials or suspect techniques, including but not limited to Composite Panelling, ACM Cladding, High Alumina Cement (HAC), Asbestos, have been used in the construction of, or subsequent alterations or additions to, the Properties; and

d) the services, and any associated controls or software, are in working order and free from defect.

We have otherwise had regard to the age and apparent general condition of the Properties. Comments made in the property details do not purport to express an opinion about, or advise upon, the condition of uninspected parts and should not be taken as making an implied representation or statement about such parts.

Title, Tenure, Lettings, Planning,

Unless stated otherwise within this report, and in the absence of any information to the contrary, we have assumed that:

Docusign Envelope ID: BA3F5147-456E-827D-8055-ABAFCE55FE7F

Taxation and Statutory & Local Authority Requirements

a) the Properties possess a good and marketable title free from any onerous or hampering restrictions or conditions;

b) the buildings have been erected either prior to planning control, or in accordance with planning permissions, and have the benefit of permanent planning consents or existing use rights for their current use;

c) the Properties are not adversely affected by town planning or road proposals;

d) the buildings comply with all statutory and local authority requirements including building, fire and health and safety regulations, and that a fire risk assessment and emergency plan are in place;

e) only minor or inconsequential costs will be incurred if any modifications or alterations are necessary in order for occupiers of the Properties to comply with the provisions of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 (in Northern Ireland) or the Equality Act 2010 (in the rest of the UK);

f) all rent reviews are upward only and are to be assessed by reference to full current market rents;

g) there are no tenant's improvements that will materially affect our opinion of the rent that would be obtained on review or renewal;

h) tenants will meet their obligations under their leases, and are responsible for insurance, payment of business rates, and all repairs, whether directly or by means of a service charge;

i) there are no user restrictions or other restrictive covenants in leases which would adversely affect value;

j) where more than 50% of the floorspace of the Properties are in residential use, the Landlord and Tenant Act 1987 (the "Act") gives certain rights to defined residential tenants to acquire the freehold/head leasehold interest in the Properties. Where this is applicable, we have assumed that necessary notices have been given to the residential tenants under the provisions of the Act, and that such tenants have elected not to acquire the freehold/head leasehold interest. Disposal on the open market is therefore unrestricted;

k) where appropriate, permission to assign the interest being valued herein would not be withheld by the landlord where required;

l) vacant possession can be given of all accommodation which is unlet or is let on a service occupancy;

m) Land Transfer Tax (or the local equivalent) will apply at the rate currently applicable.

In the UK, Stamp Duty Land Tax (SDLT) in England and Northern Ireland, Land and Buildings Transaction Tax (LABTT) in Scotland or Land Transaction Tax (LTT) in Wales, will apply at the rate currently applicable;

n) should the Property be located within a local authority 'Selective Licensing Area' for private rented accommodation, all licencing obligations have been met and correct and up to date licenses have been obtained by the owner; and

o) The Residential Property Developer Tax (RPDT) came into force on 1 April 2022 as part of a package to fund the cost of remediating cladding issues (along with the Building Safety Levy). The RPDT is charged on qualifying UK residential development activities where annual trading profits exceed £25 million, at a rate of 4%. The tax applies to the development of land or property held as trading stock by a developer or a related entity and residential property development activities include dealing, designing, seeking planning permission, constructing or adapting, marketing and managing. There are legislative nuances, exceptions and potential reliefs relating to; the status of both developer and development. The RPDT is collected alongside corporation tax. No allowance has been made within our valuation as it is levied at a corporate level, rather than an asset level.

SERVICES, AMENITIES AND STATE OF REPAIR

We have not been supplied with the year of construction, a stock condition survey or any similar technical reports for the properties. We have inspected 20% of the Properties externally, and 2% internally. Where internal access was granted, we have reflected the unit's current condition in our opinion of value.

For all other Properties, we assume that they have been constructed in accordance with all planning and any other statutory obligations. Further, we have assumed that all are in a fair condition considering their age and nature of use. We have been informed by L&Q that, as at the Valuation Date, there are no major capital expenditure repairs scheduled to the Properties.

DAMP AND MOULD

We have been provided with a schedule from L&Q outlining the number of properties that are subject to remediation works due to damp and mould. Accompanying this schedule, we have also been provided with the associated costs to rectify these issues both on a per job and per property basis.

Docusign Envelope ID: BA3F5147-456E-827D-8055-ABAFCE55FE7F

In the course of our inspections, we did not note any additional properties that were not included in the schedule provided by L&Q that would require additional damp and mould remediation works.

We have therefore adopted a headline capital expenditure allowance, made outside of our valuation model on a unit-by-unit basis for properties that are subject to remediation works. The average cost of £745 per property with required remediation has been adopted and totals £291,295 across the 391 affected properties.

TOWN PLANNING

We have not undertaken planning enquiries as part of this valuation. We have assumed that all Properties have been constructed in accordance with the relevant planning consent or have the benefit of planning permission.

We have not been provided with any copies of Section 106 Agreements or planning consents in respect of the Properties. CBRE has previously been furnished with Certificate of Title for the various Tranches of units which were the subject of previous iterations of this valuation. We have relied on these documents to inform our basis of value reported here.

In respect of the Tranche 6, which were newly charged units as part of the 2025 charging programme, we have relied upon the Certificate of Title titled "Draft CoT (LQ T5) - DEVS V1(29256617.1) - CBRENI 01082025", "Full Portfolio - Project Wren - CBRENI 01082025 with DEVS Comments(29485700.1) - AMcS 22082025" and "Full Portfolio - Project Wren - CBRENI 01082025 with DEVS Comments(29485700.1) - AMcS 08092025", produced by Devonshires Solicitors LLP and received by CBRE on 1 August 2025, 22 August 2025 and 8 September 2025 respectively. There are no new units included within the Portfolio in 2026 and, as such, we have not been provided with any further Certificate of Title; we have therefore continued to rely upon the above documents, which remain relevant. In line with the documentation provided, our valuation is based on there being no contingent liabilities attached to the properties or unsatisfied planning conditions that may have been attached to the original planning consents.

We have assumed that there are no outstanding obligations relating to any planning consents at the properties and that none of the properties are subject to Enforcement Action.

ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES

We have not been instructed to make any investigations in relation to the presence or potential presence of contamination in land or buildings or the potential presence of other environmental risk factors. We assume that if investigations were made to an appropriate extent then nothing would be discovered sufficient to affect value. However, we give no warranty as to the absence of such environmental risk factors and reserve our right to amend our valuation should any information to the contrary be provided.

ENERGY PERFORMANCE CERTIFICATES

In England and Wales, the Property/Properties possesses current Energy Performance Certificates (EPCs) as required under the Government's Energy Performance of Buildings Directive – and that they have an energy efficient standard of 'E', or better. Under the Energy Efficiency (Private Rented Property) (England and Wales) Regulations 2015 it became unlawful for landlords to rent out business or residential premise from 1st April 2018 – unless the site has reached a minimum EPC rating of an 'E', or secured a relevant exemption. In Scotland, we have assumed that the Property/Properties possesses current EPCs as required under the Scottish Government's Energy Performance of Buildings (Scotland) Regulations – and that they meet energy standards equivalent to those introduced by the 2002 building regulations. The Assessment of Energy Performance of Non-Domestic Buildings (Scotland) Regulations 2016 requires building owners to commission an EPC and Action Plan for sale or new rental of non-domestic buildings bigger than 1,000 sq m that do not meet 2002 building regulations energy standards. Action Plans contain building improvement measures that must be implemented within 3.5 years, subject to certain exemptions.

The UK Government has indicated that they intend to raise the minimum standards for EPCs in private rented accommodation to EPC C by 2030. This is not yet legislated but follows from the policies of previous governments to establish a high standard of energy efficiency. Our Valuation reflects market conditions and regulations effective at the Valuation Date; we make no additional allowances for any future works that may be undertaken to improve the energy efficiency of the subject asset(s).

We have not been provided with a copy of the Energy Performance Certificates for the Properties; however we have been provided with the schedule of EPC ratings for 99.67% of the Properties in the portfolio. A summary of the EPC ratings provided to us is below:

EPC RATING	NO. UNITS	% OF PROPERTIES
A	37	0.44%
B	596	7.11%
C	5731	68.35%
D	1950	23.26%
E	57	0.68%
F	6	0.07%
G	0	0.00%
Not provided	8	0.07%
Total	8,385	100%

Considering the nature of the tenancies, it is not unusual that some of the units have no EPCs, and we have assumed that the Addressee is abiding by the current EPC regime and that a valid EPC for these Properties is being put in place. We have further assumed that minimum energy efficiency ratings of 'E' (in line with statutory requirements) would be achieved, and that no onerous levels of expenditure would be required that would have a material impact on our opinion of value.

For units with an EPC E rating or above, we have assumed this to be correct and comprehensive and accompanied by an unexpired Energy Performance Certificate.

For the six units which are below an EPC E rating, we have assumed that no onerous levels of expenditure are required that would have a material impact on our opinion of value in order to increase the rating to an E or above, and/or that a relevant EPC exemption has been registered.

Should we be provided with any further information, we reserve the right to amend this valuation.

VAT

We have not been advised whether the property is elected for VAT. All rents and capital values stated in this report are exclusive of VAT.

Legal Considerations

TENURE

CBRE has previously received documentation in respect the freehold and leasehold interests within the portfolio as part of the suite of information for earlier iterations of this valuation. These include the following:

- Certificate of Title - dated 22 September 2020
- Certificate of Title for Tranche 2 - dated 10 September 2021
- Supplemental Certificate of Title Tranche 1 uplift - dated 9 September 2022
- Certificate of Title for Tranche 4 – dated 10 August 2023
- UK01-#2016481968 – CoT (LQ T4) – DEVS V8 – clean version (26981640.1) received 4 September 2024

These documents having been provided to, among others, the Security Trustee in respect of the Properties and other properties.

We were further provided in 2025 with the following documents:

- Draft CoT (LQ T5) - DEVS V1(29256617.1) - CBRENI 01082025
- Full Portfolio - Project Wren - CBRENI 01082025 with DEVS Comments(29485700.1) - AMcS 22082025
- Full Portfolio - Project Wren - CBRENI 01082025 with DEVS Comments(29485700.1) - AMcS 08092025

This most recent document relates to the units within Tranche 6, which were newly charged in 2025. We have relied upon the information provided in these documents as being correct in our determination of the basis of value for Tranche 6 of the portfolio.

In 2026 we have not been provided with any additional documentation with regards to any Certificate of Title or any summaries thereof. This is due to there being no new charged units and all units having previously been part of the subject portfolio.

We have therefore relied upon the information provided in the above documents that were shared in previous years. We have relied upon this information being correct in our determination of the basis of value for the Properties.

The previously received Certificates of Title contained therein a number of restrictions relating to S106 Agreements, Global Rental Nominations, Unilateral Undertaking Restrictions, permitted use restrictions, mortgagee exclusion clauses, and planning restrictions. Subsequent documents refer to Deeds of Variations which vary S106 Agreement, Nominations Agreement and mortgagee in possession restrictions.

If we are subsequently provided with any revisions to the Certificate, or relating to the properties at a future point, which contradict the above, we reserve the right to alter our opinion of Reported Value as appropriate.

Further commentary on previous Certificates of Title received is detailed within our reports dated 7 October 2025, 30 September 2024, 3 October 2023, 9 September 2022, 10 September 2021 and 22 September 2020.

TENANCIES

We have been supplied with a Schedule of Tenancies as part of the Schedule of Accommodation received from L&Q. We have relied upon the information provided as being correct, otherwise we reserve the right to alter our opinion of Reported Value as appropriate.

We understand from information provided to us that the breakdown of tenancy type across the Properties is as follows:

CBRE

Valuation Methodology Statement

AFFORDABLE HOUSING (EUV-SH)

We have valued the affordable accommodation on the basis of Existing Use as Social Housing (EUV-SH) using our bespoke discounted cash flow (DCF) model that follows an industry standard approach and we have valued each unit individually.

Social Rent

Typically, Social Rent properties will be tenanted by people through a Nominations Agreement with the Local Authority. Social Rent levels are set in line with 'target rents', set through the national rent regime referencing property size and local incomes and meet policy 3.10 of the London Plan and the definition of affordable housing, 'affordable housing for rent', in the National Planning Policy Framework 2018.

Affordable Rent

Affordable Rents were first established in the 2015-2018 funding programme and they have two types, capped and discounted. The predominant rent is discounted, which is defined as being no greater than the lower of (i) 80% of the market rent and (ii) the Local Housing Allowance. Some Local Authorities do not accept these Affordable Rent as they believe them to be unaffordable to those earning average local earnings and therefore impose restrictions on the percentage of market rent that can be charged.

Intermediate Rent

Typically let on Assured Shorthold Tenancies (ASTs), the rent charged for an Intermediate Rent property is normally 20% lower than what tenants would expect to pay for a similar home in a similar area if renting from a private landlord.

Sheltered

Occupiers have their own self-contained flats, which are usually clustered with other sheltered dwellings. Schemes are generally located within close proximity to a town centre. Occupiers do not receive personal care, but each scheme will typically have a warden who is typically there 9am to 5pm during the week and there will be a pull cord to use in emergencies. Flats have a C3 residential use class under the Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) Order 2010.

Discount Rates

We have discounted the net rents at an appropriate discount rate that reflects our judgement of the overall level of risk associated with the cashflows in conjunction with our view of external factors with may affect the DCF including our view of the current economic conditions and the long-term cost of borrowing.

Factors determining our choice of discount rate include:

- the sustainability and likely rate of future growth of the existing income;
- the location, nature, condition and specification of the Properties; and
- the cost of borrowing (for an acquiring organisation).

Management Costs

We have assumed management rates for the units on a cost per unit per annum basis. Our assumption of the level of management costs applicable to the subject Properties is based on our experience of valuing similar portfolios for other Housing Associations as well as being provided with actual/current operating costs from similar RPs. We have assumed that our management costs will grow over the duration of the DCF in line with CPI.

Voids and Bad Debts

We have assumed voids and bad debts in our cashflow, these are calculated on a percentage of gross rent basis. Again, our assumptions are based on our experience of valuing similar portfolios and properties for other housing associations active in similar geographic locations.

Maintenance, Responsive and Major Repairs

Having inspected a proportion of the Properties to assess condition, we have made the assumption that they are all in a good state of repair. We have therefore assumed that the associated repair costs, including general maintenance, responsive repairs and major repairs will reflect this condition of the stock. We have assumed that these costs will grow over the duration of the DCF in line with CPI.

We draw your attention to the fact that, in recent years, the UK construction market has experienced a period of uncertainty regarding the cost of materials resulting from, inter alia, the global pandemic, inflationary economic environment and the impact of the Ukraine conflict.

As at the Valuation Date, whilst some of these global pressures have decreased, construction costs remain high which could significantly impact the cost of repairs and maintenance of the Properties. We recommend that you keep the valuation contained in this report under frequent review whilst the current circumstances pervade.

Consumer Price Index

To establish appropriate CPI inflation rates to apply, we have had regard to the Bank of England's Gilt rates published monthly and consulted with CBRE's specialist Long Income team. Following consultation, we have adopted 2.30% CPI rates from 2032 onwards in our DCF.

The Bank of England held Bank Rate at 3.75% on 16 September 2026, with three members of the Monetary Policy Committee voting for an increase, while headline inflation rose to 3.10% in August 2026 and is forecast to rise further over the coming quarters.

We draw your attention to the fact that the current economic situation and the level of interest rates seen in recent years has led to mounting pressure facing the housing market. Whilst as at the Valuation Date, there is limited empirical evidence to demonstrate the outcome on residential pricing, we recommend that you keep the valuation under frequent review.

CASHFLOW INPUTS AND ASSUMPTIONS - MV-T

Our valuation of the MV-T properties is based upon the Market Value (as defined in the Red Book) of the properties considering the existing tenancies that grant security of tenure to the current tenant. Typically, MV-T is only relevant to those properties which can be let on the open market (at a Market Rent) and disposed of, free from restrictions, on the open market (Market Value).

We would normally expect MV-T to be applicable to those properties which are legally unencumbered and may be disposed of by a mortgagee in possession on the open market.

Unit level apportionment - The cash flow phases the disposal of the MV-T units over the sales period set out above. Taken directly from the model, the unit level outputs would therefore vary according to the point in that period at which each unit is assumed to be sold with vacant possession, with units assumed to be sold earlier carrying a higher value and those assumed to be sold later a lower value. It is not possible to know at the Valuation Date when any individual unit will become vacant and be sold, and a purchaser of the Portfolio would not be able to price the units on that basis either.

We have therefore adopted the aggregate MV-T produced by the model for each rented tenure, expressed it as a percentage of the aggregate MV-VP of the MV-T units within that tenure, and applied that percentage uniformly to the MV-VP of each MV-T unit. This results in MV-T at 68.9% of MV-VP for the Affordable Rent units (£292.52 million against MV-VP of £424.35 million), 68.9% of MV-VP for the General Needs Social Rent units (£1,610.78 million against MV-VP of £2,337.21 million), 68.9% for the Intermediate Rent units (£32.38 million against MV-VP of £46.97 million) and 69.0% for the Supported Housing (Sheltered) units (£11.97 million against MV-VP of £17.35 million), being 68.9% overall. The approach changes only the distribution of value between units; the aggregate MV-T of £1,947.64 million is unchanged.

We consider this the more prudent basis of apportionment. It avoids overstating or understating the value of any individual unit by reference to an assumed sale date that cannot be known at the Valuation Date, and reflects the way in which a purchaser would view the MV-T units as a single pool.

The summary tables below set out the broad assumptions considered within our assessment of MV-T relative to Market Value – Vacant Possession ("MV-VP"). Our approach assumes an active asset management programme that seeks to realise MV-T within a typical process of managed disposals.

We have adopted an initial hold period and sales rate which we feel is reflective of the portfolio as a whole, with particular regard to the typical length of tenancy and nature of the stock.

TAXATION

Tax legislation, including in the country where the investor is domiciled or tax resident and in the Issuer's country of incorporation, may have an impact on the income that an investor receives from the Notes.

United Kingdom Taxation

The following is a summary of the Issuer's understanding of current UK law and published HMRC practice relating only to UK withholding tax treatment of payments of interest (as that term is understood for UK tax purposes) in respect of Notes. It does not deal with any other UK taxation implications of acquiring, holding or disposing of Notes. The UK tax treatment of prospective Noteholders depends on their individual circumstances and may be subject to change in the future. Prospective Noteholders who may be subject to tax in a jurisdiction other than the UK or who may be unsure as to their tax position should seek their own professional advice.

Payments of interest on the Notes may be made without deduction of or withholding on account of UK income tax provided that the Notes carry a right to interest and the Notes are and continue to be listed on a "recognised stock exchange" within the meaning of section 1005 of the Income Tax Act 2007. The London Stock Exchange is a recognised stock exchange. Securities will be treated as listed on the London Stock Exchange if they are included in the Official List (within the meaning of and in accordance with the provisions of Part 6 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (FSMA)) and admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange. Provided, therefore, that the Notes carry a right to interest and are and remain so listed on a "recognised stock exchange", interest on the Notes will be payable without withholding or deduction on account of UK tax.

In other cases, an amount must generally be withheld from payments of interest on the Notes which has a UK source on the Notes on account of UK income tax at the relevant rate (currently the basic rate of 20 per cent. and is due to be increased to the savings basic rate of 22 per cent. with effect from 6 April 2027), subject to any available exemptions and reliefs. However, where an applicable double tax treaty provides for a lower rate of withholding tax (or for no tax to be withheld) in relation to a Noteholder, HMRC can issue a notice to the Issuer to pay interest to the Noteholder without deduction of tax (or for interest to be paid with tax deducted at the rate provided for in the relevant double tax treaty).

FATCA DISCLOSURE

Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act

Pursuant to certain provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, commonly known as FATCA, a foreign financial institution (as defined by FATCA) may be required to withhold on certain payments it makes (foreign passthru payments) to persons that fail to meet certain certification, reporting or related requirements. The issuer may be a foreign financial institution for these purposes. A number of jurisdictions (including the UK) have entered into, or have agreed in substance to, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement FATCA (IGAs), which modify the way in which FATCA applies in their jurisdictions. Under the provisions of IGAs as currently in effect, a foreign financial institution in an IGA jurisdiction would generally not be required to withhold under FATCA or an IGA from payments that it makes. Certain aspects of the application of the FATCA provisions and IGAs to instruments such as Notes, including whether withholding would ever be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as Notes, are uncertain and may be subject to change. Even if withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as Notes, such withholding would not apply prior to the date that is two years after the date on which final regulations defining foreign passthru payments are published in the U.S. Federal Register and Notes characterised as debt (or which are not otherwise characterised as equity and have a fixed term) for U.S. federal tax purposes that are issued on or prior to the date that is six months after the date on which final regulations defining foreign passthru payments are published generally would be grandfathered for purposes of FATCA withholding unless materially modified after such date. However, if additional Notes (as described under Condition 21 (Further Issues) that are not distinguishable from previously issued Notes are issued after the expiration of the grandfathering period and are subject to withholding under FATCA, then withholding agents may treat all Notes, including the Notes offered prior to the expiration of the grandfathering period, as subject to withholding under FATCA.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE

The Dealers have, in a Programme Agreement (such Programme Agreement as modified and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time, the Programme Agreement) dated 12 November 2026, agreed with the Issuer a basis upon which they or any of them may from time to time agree to purchase Notes. Any such agreement will extend to those matters stated under "Form of the Notes" and "Terms and Conditions of the Notes". In the Programme Agreement, the Issuer has agreed to reimburse the Dealers for certain of their expenses in connection with the establishment and any future update of the Programme and the issue of Notes under the Programme and to indemnify the Dealers against certain liabilities incurred by them in connection therewith.

SELLING RESTRICTIONS

United States

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in certain transactions exempt from or not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act.

The Notes are subject to U.S. tax law requirements and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or its possessions or to a United States person, except in certain transactions permitted by U.S. Treasury regulations. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder. The applicable Final Terms will identify whether TEFRA C rules or TEFRA D rules apply.

Each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it will not offer, sell or deliver Notes (a) as part of their distribution at any time or (b) otherwise until 40 days after the completion of the distribution of all Notes of the Tranche of which such Notes are a part, within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in accordance with Regulation S of the Securities Act. Each Dealer has further agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to agree, that it will send to each dealer to which it sells any Notes during the distribution compliance period a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Notes within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act.

Until 40 days after the commencement of the offering of any Series of Notes, an offer or sale of such Notes within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act if such offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with an available exemption from registration under the Securities Act.

Auditors

The auditors of the Issuer are KPMG LLP, Chartered Accountants, of 15 Canada Square, London E14 5GL, who have audited the Issuer's statutory accounts, without qualification, in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in the UK for each of the two financial years ended on 31 March 2026 and 31 March 2025. Dealers transacting with the Issuer

Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform other financial advisory and other services for the Issuer and its affiliates in the ordinary course of business. Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates may have positions, deal or make markets in the Notes issued under the Programme, related derivatives and reference obligations, including (but not limited to) entering into hedging strategies on behalf of the Issuer and its affiliates, investor clients, or as principal in order to manage their exposure, their general market risk, or other trading activities. Certain of the Dealers may from time to time also enter into swap and other derivative transactions with the Issuer and its affiliates.

In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Dealers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of the Issuer and its affiliates. Certain of the Dealers or their affiliates that have a lending relationship with the Issuer routinely hedge their credit exposure to the Issuer consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Dealers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in securities, including potentially the Notes issued under the Programme. Any such positions could adversely affect future trading prices of Notes issued under the Programme. The Dealers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.

Index-Linked Notes

CPI is a measure of inflation in the United Kingdom and is produced to international standards and is in line with European regulations. The CPI is the inflation measure which has been increasingly used by the UK Government and has been the basis of the Bank of England's target for inflation since December 2003. Approximately 180,000 separate price quotations are used each month in compiling CPI. It takes two or three weeks for the ONS to compile the index, so it publishes each month's CPI figure during the following month, i.e. the figure relating to January will be published in February.

CPIH is a measure of UK consumer price inflation that includes owner occupiers' housing costs (OOH). These are the costs of housing services associated with owning, maintaining and living in one's own home. OOH does not include costs such as utility bills, minor repairs and maintenance, which are already included in the main CPI index. CPIH uses an approach called rental equivalence to measure OOH. Rental equivalence uses the rent paid for an equivalent house as a proxy for the costs faced by an owner occupier. It takes two or three weeks for the ONS to compile the index, so it publishes each month's CPIH figure during the following month, i.e. the figure relating to January will be published in February.

Note Trustee's action

The Conditions and the Note Trust Deed provide for the Note Trustee to take action on behalf of the Noteholders in certain circumstances, but only if the Note Trustee is indemnified and/or secured and/or pre-funded to its satisfaction. It may not always be possible for the Trustee to take certain actions, notwithstanding the provision of an indemnity and/or security and/or pre-funding to it. Where the Note Trustee is unable to take any action, the Noteholders are permitted by the Conditions and the Note Trust Deed to take the relevant action directly.
