

Telefonaktiebolaget LM Ericsson (publ)

(incorporated in the Kingdom of Sweden with limited liability)

U.S.$5,000,000,000

Euro Medium Term Note Programme

Under this U.S.$5,000,000,000 Euro Medium Term Note Programme (the “Programme”), Telefonaktiebolaget LM Ericsson (publ) (“Ericsson” or the “Issuer”) may from time to time issue notes (the “Notes”) denominated in any currency agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer (as defined below). The aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding will not at any time exceed U.S.$5,000,000,000 (or the equivalent in other currencies calculated as described in the Programme Agreement described herein) subject to increase as described herein.

An investment in Notes issued under the Programme involves certain risks. For a discussion of these risks see “Risk Factors”.

This Offering Circular has been approved as a base prospectus by the Financial Conduct Authority (the “FCA”), as competent authority under Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 as it forms part of UK domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (“EUWA”) (the “UK Prospectus Regulation”). The FCA only approves this Offering Circular as meeting the standards of completeness, comprehensibility and consistency imposed by the UK Prospectus Regulation. Such approval should not be considered as an endorsement of the Issuer or of the quality of the Notes that are the subject of this Offering Circular. Investors should make their own assessment as to the suitability of investing in the Notes.

Application has been made to the FCA for Notes (other than Exempt Notes (as defined below)) issued under the Programme during the period of twelve months from the date of this Offering Circular to be admitted to the official list of the FCA (the “Official List”) and to the London Stock Exchange plc (the “London Stock Exchange”) for such Notes to be admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange’s main market (the “Market”).

References in this Offering Circular to Notes being “listed” (and all related references) shall mean that such Notes have been admitted to trading on the Market and have been admitted to the Official List. The Market is a UK regulated market for the purposes of Regulation No 600/2014 on markets in financial instruments as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (“UK MiFIR”). This Offering Circular (as supplemented as at the relevant time, if applicable) is valid for 12 months from its date in relation to Notes which are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market in the United Kingdom (the “UK”). The obligation to supplement this Offering Circular in the event of a significant new factor, material mistake or material inaccuracy does not apply when this Offering Circular is no longer valid. References in this Offering Circular to “Exempt Notes” are to Notes for which no prospectus is required to be published under the UK Prospectus Regulation. The FCA has neither approved nor reviewed information contained in this Offering Circular in connection with Exempt Notes.

Notice of the aggregate nominal amount of Notes, interest (if any) payable in respect of Notes, the issue price of Notes and certain other information which is applicable to each Tranche (as defined in “Terms and Conditions of the Notes” below) of Notes will (other than in the case of Exempt Notes) be set forth in a final terms document (the “Final Terms”) which will be delivered to the FCA and the London Stock Exchange, in each case on or before the date of issue of the Notes of such Tranche. Copies of Final Terms in relation to Notes to be listed on the London Stock Exchange will also be published on the website of the London Stock Exchange through a regulatory information service. In the case of Exempt Notes, notice of the aggregate nominal amount of Notes, interest (if any) payable in respect of Notes, the issue price of Notes and certain other information which is applicable to each Tranche will be set forth in a pricing supplement document (the “Pricing Supplement”).

The Issuer has a long-term rating of Ba1 by Moody’s Italia S.r.l. (“Moody’s”), an issuer credit rating of BBB- by S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited (“S&P”) and a long-term rating of BBB- by Fitch Ratings Ltd (“Fitch”). Fitch is established in the UK and Moody’s and S&P are established in the European Union (the “EU”) and are each registered under Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 (as amended) (the “CRA Regulation”).

Notes issued under the Programme may be rated or unrated by either of the rating agencies referred to above. Where a Tranche of Notes is rated, such rating will be disclosed in the Final Terms (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) and will not necessarily be the same as the rating assigned to the Issuer by the relevant rating agency. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency. Please also refer to “Credit ratings may not reflect all risks” in the “Risk Factors” section of this Offering Circular.

Amounts payable on Floating Rate Notes may, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes), be calculated by reference to EURIBOR. As at the date of this Offering Circular, the European Money Markets Institute (as administrator of EURIBOR) is included in the FCA’s register of administrators under Article 36 of the Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011 as it forms part of UK domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the “UK Benchmarks Regulation”).

This document is issued in replacement of an Offering Circular dated 30 October 2020 and issued by Ericsson and accordingly supersedes that earlier Offering Circular. This does not affect any Notes issued by Ericsson prior to the date of this Offering Circular.

The Issuer accepts responsibility for the information contained in this Offering Circular, the Final Terms and, in the case of Exempt Notes, the Pricing Supplement for each Tranche of Notes issued under the Programme. To the best of the knowledge of the Issuer the information contained in this Offering Circular is in accordance with the facts and the Offering Circular makes no omission likely to affect its import.

This Offering Circular is to be read in conjunction with all documents which are deemed to be incorporated herein by reference (see “Documents Incorporated by Reference” below). This Offering Circular shall be read and construed on the basis that such documents are so incorporated and form part of this Offering Circular.

Other than in relation to the documents which are deemed to be incorporated by reference (see “Documents Incorporated by Reference”), the information on the websites to which this Offering Circular refers does not form part of this Offering Circular and has not been scrutinised or approved by the FCA.

The Notes to be issued under the Programme may be issued on a continuing basis to one or more of the Dealers specified in “Description of the Programme” below and any additional Dealer appointed under the Programme from time to time, which appointment may be for a specific issue or on an ongoing basis (each a “Dealer” and together the “Dealers”). References in this Offering Circular to the “relevant Dealer” shall, in the case of an issue of Notes being (or intended to be) subscribed by more than one Dealer, be to all Dealers agreeing to purchase such Notes.

Save for the Issuer, no other party has separately verified the information contained herein. Accordingly, no representation, warranty or undertaking, express or implied, is made and no responsibility or liability is accepted by the Dealers as to the accuracy or completeness of the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Offering Circular or any other information provided by the Issuer in connection with the Programme or the Notes or their distribution.

No person is or has been authorised to give any information or to make any representation not contained in or not consistent with this Offering Circular or any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or the Notes and, if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer or any of the Dealers.

Neither this Offering Circular nor any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or any Notes (i) is intended to provide the basis of any credit or other evaluation or (ii) should be considered as a recommendation or constituting an invitation or offer by the Issuer or any of the Dealers that any recipient of this Offering Circular or any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or any Notes should purchase any Notes. Each investor contemplating purchasing any Notes should make its own independent investigation of the financial condition and affairs, and its own appraisal of the creditworthiness, of the Issuer. Neither this Offering Circular nor any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or the issue of any Notes constitutes an offer by or on behalf of the Issuer or any of the Dealers to any person to subscribe for or to purchase any Notes.

Neither the delivery of this Offering Circular nor the offering, sale or delivery of any Notes shall in any circumstances imply that the information contained herein concerning the Issuer is correct at any time subsequent to the date hereof or that any other information supplied in connection with the Programme is correct as of any time subsequent to the date indicated in the document containing the same. The Dealers expressly do not undertake to review the financial condition or affairs of the Issuer during the life of the Programme or to advise any investor in the Notes of any information coming to their attention. Investors should review, inter alia, the most recently published documents incorporated by reference into this Offering Circular when deciding whether or not to purchase any Notes.

IMPORTANT – EEA RETAIL INVESTORS – If the Final Terms in respect of any Notes (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) includes a legend entitled “Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors”, the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (“EEA”). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended “MiFID II”); (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (the “Insurance Distribution Directive”), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (the “Prospectus Regulation”). Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the “PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

IMPORTANT – UK RETAIL INVESTORS – If the Final Terms in respect of any Notes (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) includes a legend entitled “Prohibition of Sales to UK Retail Investors”, the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the UK. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; or (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the FSMA and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Article 2 of the UK Prospectus Regulation. Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the “UK PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.

MiFID II PRODUCT GOVERNANCE/TARGET MARKET – The Final Terms in respect of any Notes (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) may include a legend entitled “MiFID II Product Governance” which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a “distributor”) should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the Product Governance rules under EU Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the “MiFID II Product Governance Rules”), any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the MIFID II Product Governance Rules.

UK MiFIR PRODUCT GOVERNANCE / TARGET MARKET – The Final Terms in respect of any Notes (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) may include a legend entitled “UK MiFIR Product Governance” which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any distributor should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the “UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules”) is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules, any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules.

Notification under Section 309B(1)(c) of the Securities and Futures Act (Chapter 289) of Singapore – Unless otherwise stated in the Final Terms in respect of any Notes (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes), all Notes issued or to be issued under the Programme shall be prescribed capital markets products (as defined in the Securities and Futures (Capital Markets Products) Regulations 2018 of Singapore) and Excluded Investment Products (as defined in MAS Notice SFA 04-N12: Notice on the Sale of Investment Products and MAS Notice FAA-N16: Notice on Recommendations on Investment Products).

SALES TO PERMITTED ONTARIO INVESTORS

The Notes may be sold only to purchasers purchasing, or deemed to be purchasing, as principal that are accredited investors, as defined in National Instrument 45-106 Prospectus Exemptions or subsection 73.3(1) of the Securities Act (Ontario), and are permitted clients, as defined in National Instrument 31-103 Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations. Any resale of the Notes must be made in accordance with an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the prospectus requirements of applicable securities laws. Securities legislation in certain provinces or territories of Canada may provide a purchaser with remedies for rescission or damages if this Base Prospectus (including any amendment thereto) contains a misrepresentation, provided that the remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser’s province or territory. The purchaser should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the purchaser’s province or territory for particulars of these rights or consult with a legal advisor. If applicable, pursuant to section 3A.3 (or, in the case of securities issued or guaranteed by the government of a non-Canadian jurisdiction, section 3A.4) of National Instrument 33-105 Underwriting Conflicts (NI 33-105), the Dealers are not required to comply with the disclosure requirements of NI 33-105 regarding underwriter conflicts of interest in connection with this offering.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION RELATING TO THE USE OF THIS OFFERING CIRCULAR AND OFFERS OF NOTES GENERALLY

This Offering Circular does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any Notes in any jurisdiction to any person to whom it is unlawful to make such offer or solicitation in such jurisdiction. The distribution of this Offering Circular and the offer or sale of Notes may be restricted by law in certain jurisdictions. The Issuer and the Dealers do not represent that this document may be lawfully distributed, or that any Notes may be lawfully offered, in compliance with any applicable registration or other requirements in any such jurisdiction, or pursuant to an exemption available thereunder, or assume any responsibility for facilitating any such distribution or offering. In particular, no action has been taken by the Issuer or the Dealers which would permit a public offering of any Notes outside the UK or distribution of this document in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. Accordingly, no Notes may be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, and neither this Offering Circular nor any advertisement or other offering material may be distributed or published in any jurisdiction, except under circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations and the Dealers have represented that all offers and sales by them will be made on the same terms. Persons into whose possession this Offering Circular or any Notes come must inform themselves about, and observe, any such restrictions on the distribution of this Offering Circular and the offering and sale of Notes. In particular, there are restrictions on the distribution of this Offering Circular and the offer or sale of Notes in the United States, the EEA (including, for these purposes, Italy and Belgium), the UK, Japan, the People's Republic of China, Hong Kong and Singapore (see "Subscription and Sale" below).

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended, (the "Securities Act") and are subject to U.S. tax law requirements. Subject to certain exceptions, Notes may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or to U.S. persons (see "Subscription and Sale" below).

The Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors. Each potential investor in the Notes must determine the suitability of that investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor may wish to consider, either on its own or with the help of its financial and other professional advisers, whether it:

- (i) has sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the Notes and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Offering Circular or any applicable supplement;
- (ii) has access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the Notes and the impact the Notes will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (iii) has sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Notes, including Notes where the currency for principal or interest payments is different from the potential investor's currency;
- (iv) understands thoroughly the terms of the Notes and is familiar with the behaviour of financial markets; and
- (v) is able to evaluate possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

Legal investment considerations may restrict certain investments. The investment activities of certain investors are subject to legal investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. Each potential investor should consult its legal advisers to determine whether and to what extent (1) Notes are legal investments for it, (2) Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowing and (3) other restrictions apply to its purchase or pledge of any Notes. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisers or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules.

RISK FACTORS

In purchasing Notes, investors assume the risk that the Issuer may become insolvent or otherwise be unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. There is a wide range of factors which individually or together could result in the Issuer becoming unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. It is not possible to identify all such factors as the Issuer may not be aware of all relevant factors and certain factors which it currently deems not to be material may become material as a result of the occurrence of events outside the Issuer's control. The Issuer has identified in this Offering Circular a number of factors which could materially adversely affect its business and ability to make payments due under the Notes.

In addition, factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with Notes issued under the Programme are also described below.

The Issuer believes that the factors described below represent the principal risks inherent in investing in Notes issued under the Programme, but the inability of the Issuer to pay interest, principal or other amounts on or in connection with any Notes may occur for other reasons and the Issuer does not represent that the statements below regarding the risks of holding any Notes are exhaustive. Prospective investors should also read the detailed information set out elsewhere in this Offering Circular and reach their own views prior to making any investment decision.

Factors that may affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme

Risks related to business activities and industry

Ongoing geopolitical and trade uncertainty from a range of factors may have a material adverse impact on the Issuer, its subsidiaries and associated companies (the "Ericsson Group") business, operations, business prospects and consequently on operating results, financial conditions and the Ericsson Group's ability to meet its targets.

Geopolitical alliances are shifting as global tensions, including between the US and China, drive growing economic, technological, military, and political competition across the world. At the same time, there are numerous ongoing local and regional conflicts, of which the increasing tensions in the region between the Ukraine and Russia are of particular significance. It is not yet clear how these new dynamics will play out across the world, but the Ericsson Group expects more difficulty navigating through this variable geopolitical geometry, as old alliances fracture and new ones emerge. These tensions, including trade restrictions, and increased safeguards for national security purposes, can impact global market conditions and continue to be challenging for global supply chains in general and Information and Communication Technology ("ICT") supply chains in particular. These uncertainties include the effects of trade disputes and other political tensions involving the governments of the European Union, the US, China and Russia.

There are also uncertainties surrounding the future bilateral trading relationship between China and several countries as a result of the restrictions on Chinese vendors in fifth generation ("5G") networks that have been adopted. Of special relevance for the Ericsson Group in this context is the trade relationship between Sweden and China, since the Ericsson Group, even though it has a global presence, has its headquarters in Sweden and therefore risks being affected by any deterioration of the Swedish-Chinese relationship. For example, the decision by the Swedish Post and Telecommunication Authority to exclude Huawei and ZTE products from 5G networks is still subject to judicial appeal.

As continued business operations in China are part of the Ericsson Group's current and future growth plans, further changes in the economic and political policies in or relating to China could have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business. During recent years, the Ericsson Group has also seen the global free trade system, which has hitherto allowed increased efficiency and economic growth, facing sustained challenges, including towards the World Trade Organisation (“WTO”) dispute settlement body. Any increased prospect of government policies and actions violating WTO agreements could negatively impact the Ericsson Group’s ability to benefit from open markets and free trade.

The mandated, or otherwise required, localisation of manufacturing and research and development (“R&D”), as well as their digital counterparts (including localisation of IT-infrastructure and restrictions on data flows), has been steadily growing and has been motivated by either protectionism, indigenous industrial policies or national security. There is a risk of moves away from global value chains and towards more regional or national alternatives. Governments may continue to impose conditions that require the use of local suppliers and local production or partnerships with local companies for R&D and IT-infrastructure, require the license or other transfer of intellectual property, or engage in other efforts to promote local businesses and local competitors, which could have a significant adverse impact on the Ericsson Group to pursue a business globally.

The geopolitical situation can have consequences on the entire industry, with the possibility of further industry split, separation of global value chains and separation of global standards for mobile telecommunications. These developments have also led to several countries evaluating how to ensure uninterrupted access to telecommunication network infrastructure, for example through promoting disaggregation of the Radio Access Network and support of national communication network infrastructure champions as alternative to the established global vendors such as the Ericsson Group, although the timing and extent of this remains unclear.

All of the above- may have a material and potentially lasting adverse impact on the Ericsson Group’s international product development and supply chains and necessitates a flexible and adaptive organisational setup, therefore impacting its profitability and business as a whole. Such adverse impacts may include, for example:

- reduced or loss of market share, for example in China, and weakened market position;
- reduced or lost market access;
- decreased ability for unrestricted use of the Ericsson Group’s global supply chain for all markets, for example as a result of import or export restrictions in the US and China;
- increased trade restrictions, tariffs and increased costs which may not be recoverable;
- separation of global standards for mobile telecommunication;
- sourcing restrictions and constraints for access to hardware and software products and components;
- reduced efficiency in R&D and restrictions in use of R&D resources;
- deferrals of purchases, with lower revenues not fully compensated through reduced costs;
- excess and obsolete inventories and excess manufacturing capacity;
- financial difficulties or failures among the Ericsson Group’s suppliers;
- impairment losses related to the Ericsson Group’s intangible assets as a result of lower forecasted sales of certain products; and

- increased difficulties in forecasting sales and financial results as well as increased volatility in the Ericsson Group's reported results.

Challenging global economic conditions may adversely impact the demand, cost and pricing for the Ericsson Group's products and services as well as limit its ability to grow.

The challenging global economic conditions, for example due to the pandemic, downturn in the global economy, political unrest and uncertainty, labour and supply shortages, increasing inflation and rising interest rates, or geopolitical risks and trade frictions may have adverse, wide-ranging effects on demand for the Ericsson Group's products and for the products of its customers. This could cause operators and other customers to postpone investments or initiate other cost-cutting measures to maintain or improve their financial position. This could also result in significantly reduced expenditures for the Ericsson Group's products and services, including network infrastructure, in which case the Ericsson Group's operating results would suffer. If demand for its products and services were to fall, the Ericsson Group could experience material adverse effects on its revenues, cash flow, capital employed and value of its assets and it could incur operating losses. Furthermore, if demand is significantly weaker or more volatile than expected, the Ericsson Group's credit rating, borrowing opportunities and costs, as well as the trading price of its shares, could be adversely impacted.

Should global economic conditions fail to improve or should they worsen or should political unrest and uncertainty, labour and supply shortages or increasing inflation and rising interest rates, or geopolitical problems or trade frictions fail to improve or should they worsen, other business risks that the Ericsson Group faces could intensify and could also negatively impact the business prospects of the operators and other customers. Some operators and other customers, in particular in markets with weak currencies, may incur funding difficulties and slower traffic development, which may negatively affect their investment plans and cause them to purchase less of the Ericsson Group's products and services. An increase in inflation may impact the Ericsson Group's cost base through increased costs of labour and supply of material, products and services. Although inflation is a normal part of business and the Ericsson Group has measures in place to address this, it may not be possible to fully compensate such increased costs through increased sales prices to the Ericsson Group's customers, leading to lower margins and decreased financial performance.

The potential adverse effects of an economic downturn include:

- reduced demand for products and services, resulting in increased price competition or deferrals of purchases, with lower revenues not fully compensated through reduced costs;
- excess and obsolete inventories and excess manufacturing capacity;
- financial difficulties or failures among the Ericsson Group's suppliers;
- increased demand for customer finance, difficulties in collection of accounts receivables and increased risk of counter party failures;
- impairment losses related to the Ericsson Group's intangible assets as a result of lower forecasted sales of certain products;
- increased difficulties in forecasting sales and financial results as well as increased volatility in the Ericsson Group's reported results;
- changes in the value in the Ericsson Group's pension plan assets resulting from, for example, adverse equity and credit market developments and/or increased pension liabilities resulting from, for example, lower discount rates. Such development may trigger additional pension trust capitalisation needs negatively affecting the Ericsson Group's cash balance; and

- end-user demand could also be adversely affected by reduced consumer spending on technology, changed operator pricing, security breaches and trust issues.

The Ericsson Group's business depends upon the continued growth of mobile communications and the success of its existing and targeted customer base. If growth slows or if the Ericsson Group's customers do not manage to maintain or grow relevance in the digital value chain or if its products and/or services are not successful, the Ericsson Group's customers' investment in networks may slow or stop, harming the Company's business and operating results.

A substantial portion of the Ericsson Group's business depends on the continued growth of mobile communications in terms of both the number of subscriptions and usage per subscriber, which in turn drives the continued deployment and expansion of network systems by the Ericsson Group's customers. If operators fail to increase the number of subscribers and/or usage does not increase, or if they fail to utilise opportunities from the technological evolution, the Ericsson Group's business and operating results could be materially adversely affected. Also, if operators fail to monetise services, fail to adapt their business models or experience a decline in operator revenues or profitability, their willingness to further invest in their existing and new networks may decrease which will reduce their demand for the Ericsson Group's products and services and have an adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, operating results and financial condition.

Traffic development on cellular networks could be affected if more traffic is offloaded to WI-FI-networks. Further alternative services provided over the internet have profound effects on operator voice/SMS revenues, with possible reduced capital expenses consequences. The Ericsson Group's strategy depends on the development and success of global standards. This could be affected adversely in the future by industry forces more interested in de-facto standards and or geopolitical forces leading to standards fragmentation and increased difficulties of creating economies of scale.

Fixed and mobile networks converge and new technologies, such as IP and broadband, enable operators to deliver services in both fixed and mobile networks. The Ericsson Group is dependent on the uptake of such services, and the outcome of regulatory and standardisation activities, such as spectrum allocation. If delays in uptake, standardisation or regulation occur, this could adversely affect the Ericsson Group's business, operating results and financial condition.

Pandemics, such as for example the one caused by the novel Coronavirus ("COVID-19") could severely impact the Ericsson Group's business and local and global operations.

Pandemics, such as for example the one caused by COVID-19 in March 2020 and its continued prolonged effect, could severely impact the Ericsson Group's local and global operations related to e.g. Service Delivery, Research & Development, Sales and Supply, as well as its customers and suppliers, which could result in significant financial and other consequences. As an example, the COVID-19 pandemic has caused challenges and risks relating to travel and lockdowns, limiting access to sites, transportation and logistics and impacting the flow of goods, as well as having major parts of the workforce working remotely. The infection rates in the Ericsson Group's markets could increase, giving further disturbances to its operations, including in network deployments and impacting corresponding revenues. Although the Ericsson Group further strengthens business continuity measures to be able to continue to support its customers' needs and mitigate any impact to the Ericsson Group's business, disruptions to the global economy and to the operations and business of its customers, suppliers, and partners could cause disturbances in the Ericsson Group's operations and may have material adverse effects on the Ericsson Group's business and financial position. Moreover, the extensive working from home may limit creativity and efficiency in parts of the Ericsson Group's operations, as well as negatively impact the health and motivation for some of its employees.

The extent to which the COVID-19 pandemic will impact the Ericsson Group's business, financial performance and liquidity, including its ability to execute near-term and long-term business strategies and initiatives in the expected time frame, will depend on future developments, including the duration and severity of the pandemic, the emergence of new variants, changes in infection rates, the vaccine participation rate, the effectiveness of vaccines and the speed with which vaccines can be distributed, as well as regulations and requirements impacting the return of employees to the office and the Ericsson Group's ability to visit customer sites, none of which can be predicted. Any of the foregoing factors, or other cascading effects of the COVID-19 pandemic that are not currently foreseeable, could have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, results of operations, financial condition and/or cash flows. Additionally, as pandemic conditions wane, the Ericsson Group cannot predict how quickly the marketplaces in which it operates will return to pre-pandemic levels.

The Ericsson Group may not be successful in implementing its strategy or in achieving improvements in its profitability or in estimating addressable markets or market Compound Annual Growth Rate ("CAGR") in the markets in which the Ericsson Group operates.

There can be no assurance that the Ericsson Group will be able to successfully implement its strategy to achieve future profitability, growth or create shareholder value. When deemed necessary, the Ericsson Group has undertaken and expects to continue to undertake specific restructuring or cost-saving initiatives; however, there are no guarantees that such initiatives will be sufficient, successful or executed in time to deliver any improvements in the Ericsson Group's earnings. Furthermore, the Ericsson Group's 2020 Annual Report includes certain estimates with respect to addressable markets as well as with respect to growth rate in the market segments in which the Ericsson Group operates, including the segments "Networks", "Digital Services", "Managed Services" and "Emerging Business and Other". If the underlying assumptions on which the Ericsson Group's estimates are based prove not to be accurate, the actual performance or addressable markets and CAGR may be materially different from the estimates presented in the Ericsson Group's 2020 Annual Report, which could have a materially adverse effect upon the Ericsson Group's financial condition.

The Ericsson Group may not be successful in executing its strategy to capture the 5G market opportunity in terms of, for example, scale, time and volume of business.

The 5G market opportunity will depend on availability of attractive spectrum for 5G, and time of spectrum allocations, amount of spectrum, type of frequency bands such as low bands (below 1 GHz), mid-bands (3 – 6 GHz) and high bands (above 24 GHz), as well as terms of spectrum licences, such as cost and licence period of time, may not be according to needs and plans, which could delay or reduce the 5G market. In addition, the Operator usage of this spectrum could be restricted by regulatory authorities for shorter or longer time and in different geographical areas, due to unforeseen reasons such as interference with other electronic equipment at sensitive locations, e.g. airports, and the Ericsson Group cannot guarantee that it will not become the subject of related liability claims (such as product liability or claims associated with the configuration or installation of equipment), all of which could have a material adverse impact on the Ericsson Group's business, operating results, financial condition, reputation and brand.

Operator speed and scale to adopt 5G could also change due to market situations, including resolution of M&A transactions as well as government incentives to deploy 5G. Operator 5G deployment plans could also be delayed by operational aspects such as site access, permits and availability of installation crews. There is also a risk that the scale and time of 5G deployments will change due to the availability of 5G devices, not only for launch but also due to the speed with which device prices will decline to drive mass market adoption.

In addition to this, the timing, size and technology choices of market opportunities beyond enhanced mobile broadband, such as fixed wireline access, industrial Internet of Things ("IoT") and private networks, may materialise differently than estimated, which could have a materially adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business.

Finally, the Ericsson Group or its suppliers may encounter unforeseen technical challenges that may affect its ability to develop, supply or deploy 5G networks.

All of the above risks may have a negative impact on the ability of the Ericsson Group to implement its strategy and its business as a whole.

The Ericsson Group engages in acquisitions and divestments which may be disruptive and require it to incur significant expenses, and it may not be successful in consummating such transactions or protecting the value of acquisitions during integration following consummation.

In addition to in-house innovation efforts, the Ericsson Group makes acquisitions in order to obtain various benefits such as reduced time-to-market access to technology and competence, increased scale or to broaden its product portfolio or customer base. One recent example is the acquisition of Cradlepoint. Acquisitions could result in the incurrence of contingent liabilities and an increase in amortisation expenses related to intangible assets or impairment of goodwill, which could have a material adverse effect upon the Ericsson Group's business, operating results, financial condition and liquidity. Risks the Ericsson Group could face with respect to acquisitions include:

- insufficiencies of technologies and products acquired, such as unexpected quality problems;
- difficulties in the integration of the operations, technologies, products and personnel of the acquired company;
- risks of entering markets in which the Ericsson Group has no or limited prior experience;
- potential loss of key employees;
- diversion of management's attention away from other business concerns; and
- expenses of any undisclosed or potential legal liabilities of the acquired company, including failure to comply with laws or regulations.

From time to time the Ericsson Group also divests parts of its business to optimise its product portfolio or operations. Any decision to dispose of or otherwise exit businesses may result in the recording of special charges, such as workforce reduction costs and industry and technology-related write-offs. The risks associated with such acquisitions and divestments could have a material adverse effect upon the Ericsson Group's business, operating results, financial condition and liquidity. Risks that the Ericsson Group could face with respect to divestments include:

- difficulties in the separation of the operations, technologies, products and personnel of the business divested;
- potential loss of key employees; and
- expenses of any undisclosed or potential legal liabilities of the business divested.

In addition, the Ericsson Group cannot assure that it will be successful in consummating acquisitions or divestments on favourable terms or at all. For example, although the Ericsson Group expects its agreement, dated 22 November 2021, to acquire Vonage Holdings Corp. ("Vonage") to be consummated during the first half of 2022, it may take up to a year to satisfy the conditions to closing this acquisition. Moreover, it is possible that certain of the conditions to the closing of this acquisition may not be satisfied or waived and, if that were to happen, the agreement would terminate without a closing. The closing conditions include the receipt of regulatory clearances and the approval of the agreement by a special meeting of the shareholders of Vonage. If the agreement were to terminate under specified circumstances where the Ericsson Group has failed to obtain certain clearances from the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States, the Ericsson Group may have to pay a USD 200,000,000 termination fee to Vonage. Any delay or inability to consummate an acquisition or divestiture may impede the Ericsson Group's ability to execute its strategic plan and achieve the benefits that it anticipated from these transactions.

The Ericsson Group is in, and may enter into new, joint venture (“JV”) arrangements and has, and may have, new partnerships which may not be successful and expose it to future costs.

The Ericsson Group's JV and partnership arrangements may fail to perform as expected for various reasons, including an incorrect assessment of its needs and synergies, its inability to take action without the approval of its partners, its difficulties in implementing its business plans, and/or the lack of capabilities or financial instability of its strategic partners. The Ericsson Group's ability to work with these partners or develop new products and solutions, for example as part of its 5G portfolio, may become constrained, which could harm its competitive position in the market.

Additionally, the Ericsson Group's share of any losses from, or commitments to contribute additional capital or borrowings to, such JV's and partnerships may adversely affect the Ericsson Group's business, operating results, financial condition and cash flow.

The telecommunications industry investment levels fluctuate and are affected by many factors, including the economic environment and decisions made by operators and other customers regarding deployment of technology and their timing of purchases.

The telecommunications industry has historically experienced downturns in which operators substantially reduced their capital spending on new equipment. While the Ericsson Group expects the network operator equipment market, telecommunications services market and ICT market to grow in the coming years, the uncertainty surrounding global economic growth and the geopolitical situation may materially harm actual market conditions, which could have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business. Moreover, market conditions are subject to substantial fluctuation, and could vary geographically and across technologies. Even if global conditions improve, conditions in the specific industry segments in which the Ericsson Group participates could be weaker than in other segments. In that case, the Ericsson Group's revenue and operating results may be adversely affected. If capital expenditures by operators and other customers are weaker than the Ericsson Group anticipates, the Ericsson Group's revenues, operating result and profitability may be adversely affected. The level of demand from operators and other customers who buy the Ericsson Group's products and services can vary over short periods of time, including from month to month. Due to the uncertainty and variations in the telecommunication industry as well as in the ICT industry, accurately forecasting revenues, results and cash flow remains difficult.

Sales volumes and gross margin levels can be reduced by an unfavourable mix and order time of the Ericsson Group's products and services.

The Ericsson Group's sales to operators and other customers represent a mix of equipment, software and services, which normally generate different gross margins. The operators still represent the main part of its business and are also the main focus for sales going forward. The Ericsson Group provides all its customers with solutions based on its own products as well as third-party products, which normally have lower margins than the Ericsson Group's own products. As a consequence, the Ericsson Group's reported gross margin in a specific period will be affected by the overall mix of products and services as well as the relative content of third-party products. In the Ericsson Group's "Digital Services" and "Emerging Business and Other" segments, third-party products and services represent a larger portion of the Ericsson Group's business than its traditional sales, which impacts the Ericsson Group's business models. Further, network expansions and upgrades have much shorter lead times for delivery than initial network build outs. Orders for such network expansions and upgrades are normally placed at short notice by customers, often less than a month in advance, and consequently variations in demand are difficult to forecast. As a result, changes in the Ericsson Group's product and service mix and the short order time for certain of its products may affect the Ericsson Group's ability to accurately forecast sales and margins or detect in advance whether actual results will deviate from market consensus and expectations. Product and delivery lead times of certain products may be prolonged due to possibly restricted market availability of certain components caused e.g. by the pandemic and subsequent supply chain delays. Short-term variation could have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, operating results, financial condition and cash flow.

The Ericsson Group may not be able to properly respond to market trends in the industries in which it operates, including virtualisation of network functions.

The Ericsson Group is affected by market conditions and trends within the industries in which it operates, including the convergence of IT and telecom industries. Technological developments largely drive convergences enabling digitalisation and a move from dedicated hardware to software and cloud based services. This also includes a disaggregation of the Radio Access Network, although the timing and extent of this remains unclear. This is changing the competitive landscape of the Ericsson Group's business as well as value chains and business models and affects the Ericsson Group's objective setting, risk assessment and strategies. The change makes access to the market easier for new competitors, including new competitors to the Ericsson Group's business which have entered and may continue to enter the market and negatively impact the Ericsson Group's market share in selected areas. If the Ericsson Group fails to understand or anticipate the market trends and development, or fails to acquire the necessary competencies to develop and sell products, services and solutions that are competitive in this changing business environment, the Ericsson Group's business, operating results and financial condition will suffer.

The Ericsson Group faces intense competition from its existing competitors as well as new entrants and this could materially adversely affect its results.

The markets in which the Ericsson Group operates in are highly competitive in terms of price, functionality, service quality, customisation, timing of development, and the introduction of new products and services. The Ericsson Group faces intense competition from significant competitors many of which are very large companies, with substantial technological and financial resources and established relationships with operators. The Ericsson Group's operator customers, which represent the main part of its business, are also large and highly sophisticated and exercise significant buying power through, amongst other things, the common use of competitive bidding process. The Ericsson Group also encounters increased competition from new market entrants and alternative technologies are evolving industry standards. In addition, if the Ericsson Group chooses to enter new market segments, it might underestimate the skills and practices of the competitors within these segments. The Ericsson Group's competitors may implement new technologies before the Ericsson Group, offer more attractively priced or enhanced products, services or solutions, or they may offer other incentives that the Ericsson Group does not provide. Some of the Ericsson Group's competitors may also have greater resources in certain business segments or geographic areas than the Ericsson Group does. Increased competition and the crystallisation of any the risks mentioned above could result in reduced profit margins, loss of market share, increased research and development costs as well as increased sales and marketing expenses, which could have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, operating results, financial condition and market share.

Additionally, the Ericsson Group operates in markets characterised by rapidly changing technology and also the nature in which this technology is being brought to market is rapidly changing. This has, and may continue to result in continuous price pressure on the Ericsson Group's products and services. If the Ericsson Group's counter measures, including enhanced products and business models or end to end cost reductions cannot be achieved or do not occur in a timely manner, there could be adverse impacts on its business, operating results, financial condition and market share.

Vendor consolidation may lead to stronger competitors who are able to benefit from integration, scale and greater resources, which could increase competition in the Ericsson Group's market.

Industry convergence and consolidation among equipment and services suppliers could potentially result in stronger competitors that are competing as end-to-end suppliers as well as competitors more specialised in particular areas, which could, for example, impact certain of the Ericsson Group's segments such as "Digital Services", and "Emerging Business and Other". If established actors in adjacent markets acquire players with new technologies in the Ericsson Group's markets, new strong competitors could emerge. Consolidation may also result in competitors with greater resources than the Ericsson Group has. Both of these events could have a materially adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, operating results, financial condition and market share.

The Ericsson Group relies on a limited number of suppliers of components, production capacity and R&D and IT services, which exposes it to supply disruptions and cost increases.

The Ericsson Group's ability to deliver according to market demands and contractual commitments depends significantly on obtaining a timely and adequate supply of materials, components, production capacity and other vital services on competitive terms. Although the Ericsson Group strives to avoid single-source supplier solutions, this is not always possible. This also includes development and supply of key Application Specific Integrated Circuit ("ASIC") and Field Programmable Gate Array ("FPGA") components, for which Ericsson has a dependency to very few suppliers. Accordingly, there is a risk that the Ericsson Group will be unable to obtain the key supplies it needs to produce its products and provide its services on commercially reasonable terms on time, or at all.

Failure by any of the Ericsson Group's suppliers could delay or interrupt its product or services supply or operations and significantly limit sales or increase its costs. To find an alternative supplier or re-design products to replace components may take significant time which could cause significant delays or interruptions in the delivery of its products and services and result in a reduction in sales. The Ericsson Group has from time to time experienced interruptions of supply and it may experience such interruptions in the future.

Furthermore, its procurement of supplies requires the Ericsson Group to predict future customer demands. If the Ericsson Group fails to anticipate customer demand properly, an over or under supply of components and production capacity could occur. In many cases, some of its competitors utilise the same manufacturers and if they have purchased capacity ahead of the Ericsson Group, it could be blocked from acquiring the required products. This factor could limit the ability to supply the Ericsson Group's customers and increase costs. At the same time, the Ericsson Group commits to certain capacity levels or component quantities, which, if unused, will result in charges for unused capacity, unrecoverable costs or the scrapping of costs used to procure such components. The Ericsson Group is also exposed to financial counterpart risks to suppliers when it pays in advance for supplies. Such supply disruptions and cost increases may negatively affect the Ericsson Group's business, operating results and financial condition.

A significant portion of the Ericsson Group's revenue is currently generated from a limited number of key customers, and operator consolidation may increase its dependence on key customers and key markets. The Ericsson Group is also significantly dependent on the sales of certain of its products and services.

The Ericsson Group derives most of its business from large, multi-year agreements with a limited number of significant customers. Many of these agreements are reviewed on a yearly basis to renegotiate the price for the Ericsson Group's products and services and do not contain committed purchase volumes. The Ericsson Group's largest customer represented approximately 11 per cent. of its sales in 2020, while its ten largest customers accounted for 53 per cent. of its sales in 2020. A loss of, or a reduced role with, a key customer could have a significant adverse impact on sales, profit and market share for an extended period. In addition, the Ericsson Group's dependence on the sales of certain of its products and services may have a significant adverse impact on sales, profit and market share.

In recent years, service providers have undergone significant consolidation, resulting in fewer operators with activities in several countries. This trend is expected to continue, and intra-country consolidation is likely to accelerate as a result of competitive pressure. A market with fewer and larger operators will increase the Ericsson Group's reliance on key customers and may negatively impact the Ericsson Group's bargaining position and profit margins. Moreover, if the combined companies operate in the same geographic areas, networks may be shared and less network equipment and fewer associated services may be required. Network investments could be delayed by the consolidation process, which may include, among others, actions relating to merger or acquisition agreements, securing necessary regulatory approvals, or integration of businesses. Network operators also share parts of their network infrastructure through cooperation agreements rather than legal consolidations, which may adversely affect demand for network equipment. Accordingly, operator consolidation may have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, operating results, market share and financial condition.

Service providers are increasingly looking for ways to save cost by co-investing in and sharing their assets based on their commercial plans, including network infrastructure, site and IT-infrastructure. In addition, some of the service providers may become more willing to invest in hyperscalers to build and run the telecom's access networks. Moreover, service providers, including the Ericsson Group's key customers, may be adversely impacted by new competition, especially in rural mobile broadband growth affected by the emerging competition from the greenfield satellite broadband sector. Accordingly, the Ericsson Group's business may experience a material adverse effect, including impacts on the Ericsson Group's sales, operating results, market share and financial condition.

Certain long-term agreements with customers include commitments to future price reductions, requiring the Ericsson Group to constantly manage and control its cost base.

Long-term agreements with the Ericsson Group's customers are typically awarded on a competitive bidding basis. In some cases, such agreements also include a commitment to future price reductions. In order to maintain its gross margin with such price reductions, the Ericsson Group continuously strives to reduce the costs of its products through design improvements, negotiation of better purchase prices from its suppliers, allocation of more production to low-cost countries and increased productivity in its own production. However, there can be no assurance that its actions to reduce costs will be sufficient or quick enough to maintain its gross margin in such contracts, which may have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business operating results and financial condition.

If the Ericsson Group's customers' financial conditions decline, it will be exposed to increased credit and commercial risks.

After completing sales to customers, the Ericsson Group may encounter difficulty collecting accounts receivables and could be exposed to risks associated with uncollectable accounts receivables. The Ericsson Group regularly assesses the credit worthiness of its customers and based on that assessment it determines a credit limit for each customer. Challenging financial conditions have impacted some of its customers' ability to pay their invoices. The Ericsson Group may be unable to avoid future losses on its trade receivables. The Ericsson Group has also experienced demands for customer financing, and in adverse financial markets or more competitive environments for the customers, those demands may increase. Upon the financial failure of a customer, the Ericsson Group may experience losses on credit extended and loans made to such customer, losses relating to its commercial risk exposure, and the loss of the customer's ongoing business. If customers fail to meet their obligations to the Ericsson Group, it may experience reduced cash flows and losses in excess of reserves, which could have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's operating results and financial condition.

Product, solution or service quality issues could lead to reduced revenue and gross margins and declining sales to existing and new customers, as well as penalties, claims and liquidity damage.

Sales contracts normally include warranty undertakings for faulty products and often include provisions regarding penalties and/or termination rights in the event of a failure to deliver ordered products or services on time or with required quality and possibly also for damages incurred on customer businesses. Although the Ericsson Group undertakes a number of quality assurance measures to reduce such risks, product quality or service performance issues may negatively affect the Ericsson Group's reputation, business, operating results and financial condition. This could also include poor quality of artificial intelligence ("AI") based solutions, or third-party products being part of solutions. If significant warranty obligations arise due to reliability or quality issues, the Ericsson Group's operating results and financial position could be negatively impacted by costs associated with fixing software or hardware defects including replacement, high service and warranty expenses, high inventory obsolescence expense, delays in collecting accounts receivable or declining sales to existing and new customers, and reputational damage.

The development of the Ericsson Group's managed services business is increasingly relying on acceptance of value-based business models.

The Ericsson Group has invested in increased use of automation and artificial intelligence ("AI") to deliver managed services and network optimisation to customers, as part of its service offering or packaged software capabilities. Monetisation of these investments rely on a value-based commercial model that shows increased benefit for the customer and proper returns to the Ericsson Group's development efforts. Failure to stay competitive in this area and to get customer acceptance for new business models could have an adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, operating results and financial condition. Further, most managed services contracts span more than one year, with long sales cycles for new contracts. Risk of termination and a reduced scope of existing contracts may have a negative impact on the Ericsson Group's sales and earnings.

The Ericsson Group depends upon the development of new products and enhancements to its existing products, and the success of its substantial research and development investments is uncertain.

Rapid technological and market changes in the industry in which the Ericsson Group operates require it to make significant investments in technological innovation. The Ericsson Group invests significantly in new technology, products and solutions, for example related to 5G. In order for the Ericsson Group to be successful, those technologies, products and solutions must often be accepted by relevant standardisation bodies and/or by the industries and markets as a whole. The failure of the Ericsson Group's research and development efforts to be technically or commercially successful could have adverse effects on its business, operating results and financial condition. If the Ericsson Group invests in the development of technologies, products and solutions that do not function as expected, are not adopted by the industry, are not ready in time, or are not successful in the marketplace, the Ericsson Group's sales and earnings may materially suffer. Additionally, it is common for research and development projects to encounter delays due to changing requirements and unforeseen problems. Delays in production and research and development may increase the cost of research and development efforts and put the Ericsson Group at a disadvantage against its competitors, and can also include delays of communicated product availability dates. This could have a material adverse effect upon the Ericsson Group's business, customer relationships, operating results and financial condition.

The Ericsson Group may not be successful in reaching the Digital Services business objectives.

The Ericsson Group may be unable to meet its Digital Services business objectives and several other risks related to market, technology and operations can impact the turnaround plan.

5G market development and subscriber growth, as well as the uptake of virtualisation and consequent adoption of the Ericsson Group's new products and automated delivery could be slower than expected. Increased competition from both emerging and established competitors may impact the Ericsson Group's market position.

The Ericsson Group could be too slow to adapt and adopt new technologies like AI and Machine Learning to drive more automation in products and solutions. The product overhaul to cloud native solutions mandated by customers could also take longer than expected. In addition, the increasing influence of open source initiatives such as Open Network Automation Platform (“ONAP”) could drive a best of breed approach in the Ericsson Group's customers, driving prices down and adversely impact its full suite offerings.

In the operational dimension, the Ericsson Group may be unable to successfully execute on continued efficiency measures in end-to-end processes; inability in implementing and successfully driving organisational-wide transformation programs across the develop-sell-deliver dimension for operating model simplification; as well as being unable to mitigate risks in customer projects and product launches, which could have a material adverse effect upon the Ericsson Group's business.

The Ericsson Group's ability to benefit from intellectual property rights (“IPR”), which are critical to its business, may be limited by changes in regulation relating to patents, inability to prevent infringement, the loss of licences to or from third parties, infringement claims brought against it by competitors and others and changes in the area of open standards when it comes to licensing of open standard essential patents.

Although the Ericsson Group has a large number of patents, there can be no assurance that they will not be challenged, invalidated, or circumvented, or that any rights granted in relation to the patents will in fact provide the Ericsson Group with competitive advantages.

The Ericsson Group utilises a combination of trade secrets, confidentiality policies, non-disclosure and other contractual arrangements in addition to relying on patent, copyright and trademark laws to protect its IPR. However, these measures may not be adequate to prevent or deter infringement or other misappropriation. In addition, the Ericsson Group relies on many software patents, and limitations on the patentability of software may materially affect its business.

Moreover, the Ericsson Group may not be able to detect unauthorised use or take appropriate and timely steps to establish and enforce its proprietary rights. In fact, existing legal systems of some countries in which the Ericsson Group conducts business offer only limited protection of IPR, if at all. The Ericsson Group's solutions may also require it to license technologies from third parties. It may be necessary in the future to seek or renew licences and there can be no assurance that they will be available on acceptable terms, or at all. Moreover, the inclusion in the Ericsson Group's products of software or other intellectual property licensed from third parties on a non-exclusive basis could limit its ability to protect proprietary rights in its products.

Many key aspects of telecommunications and data network technology are governed by industry-wide standards usable by all market participants. As the number of market entrants and the complexity of technology increases the possibility of functional overlap and inadvertent infringement of IPR also increases, which has been the case with the introduction of 5G technology. In addition to industry-wide standards, other key industry-wide software solutions are currently developed by market participants as free and open source software. Contributing to the development and distribution of software developed as free and open source software may limit the Ericsson Group's ability to enforce applicable patents in the future. Third parties have asserted, and may assert in the future, claims directly against the Ericsson Group or against its customers, alleging infringement of their IPR. Defending such claims may be expensive, time-consuming and divert the efforts of the Ericsson Group's management and/or technical personnel. As a result of litigation, the Ericsson Group could be required to pay damages and other compensation directly or to indemnify its customers for such damages and other compensation, develop non-infringing products/technology or enter into royalty or licensing agreements. However, the Ericsson Group cannot be certain that such licences will be available to the Ericsson Group on commercially reasonable terms, or at all, and such judgments could have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, reputation, operating results and financial condition. Using free and open source software may allow third parties to further investigate the Ericsson Group's software due to the accessibility of source code. This may in turn make this software more prone to assertions from third parties.

Investigations held by antitrust authorities, court judgments and legislative change could potentially affect the Ericsson Group's ability to benefit from its patent portfolio when licensing patents necessary to conduct an open standard (for example, 4G and 5G technology), which could have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, reputation, operating results and financial condition. The Ericsson Group holds a leading patent portfolio in open standards and possible changes regarding such a portfolio may materially affect the Ericsson Group's reputation, business, operating results and financial condition. The Ericsson Group's ability to benefit from IPR may be limited by the loss of patent licences to or from third parties. Patent licensing agreements are generally multi-year and term based and the process for renewal of these licences normally requires negotiations, particularly in conjunction with technology shifts and the introduction of new standards, such as 5G. Such renewals and negotiations may take time to resolve, sometimes involve litigation and may have a material adverse impact on the Ericsson Group's business and financial position, including on the timing for and level of revenues from the IPR licensing contract portfolio.

Challenging global economic conditions and political unrest and uncertainty, geopolitical risks and trade frictions could have adverse effects on the Ericsson Group's licensing revenues, as well as on its ability to acquire licences.

The Ericsson Group may not be successful in continuing to attract and retain highly qualified employees to remain competitive.

The Ericsson Group believes that its future success largely depends on its continued ability to hire, develop, motivate and retain engineers and other qualified employees who develop successful new products/solutions, support its existing product range and provide services to its customers and create great customer experience.

Competition for highly qualified people in the industries in which the Ericsson Group operates remains intense. This competition is only further increased by the fact that other industries are looking for similar talent. The Ericsson Group is continuously developing its corporate culture and its philosophies with the aim to create a positive work experience that makes it easy for it to focus on its business and its customers as well as inspiring its people to grow and to find "their great". However, there are no guarantees that the Ericsson Group will be successful in attracting and retaining employees with the right skills in the future, and failure in retaining and recruiting could have a material adverse effect on its business and brand.

The Ericsson Group's operations are complex and several critical operations are centralised in a single location. Any disruption of its operations, whether due to natural or man-made events, may be highly damaging to the operation of its business.

The Ericsson Group's business operations and those of its suppliers are vulnerable to interruption by fire, earthquake, hurricane, flood or other natural disasters, power loss, computer viruses, computer systems failure, telecommunications failure, pandemics, quarantines, national catastrophe, terrorist activities, war and other events beyond its control. If any disaster were to occur, the Ericsson Group's or its suppliers' ability to operate could be seriously impaired and the Ericsson Group could experience material harm to its business, operating results and financial condition. Having outsourced significant portions of its operations, such as parts of IT, finance and human resource (“HR”) operations, the Ericsson Group depends on the performance of external companies, including their security and reliability measures. Regardless of protection measures, systems and communications networks are susceptible to disruption due to failure, vandalism, computer viruses, security or privacy breaches, natural disasters, power outages and other events. The Ericsson Group also has a concentration of operations on certain sites, including R&D, production, network operation centres, ICT centres and logistic centres and shared services centres, where business interruptions could cause material damage and costs. The delivery of goods from suppliers, and to customers, could also be hampered for the reasons stated above. Interruptions to the Ericsson Group’s systems and communications may have an adverse effect on the Ericsson Group’s operations and financial condition.

The Ericsson Group may not achieve some or all of the expected benefits of its restructuring activities and the restructuring may adversely affect its business.

Restructuring activities may be costly and disruptive to the Ericsson Group’s business, and it may not be able to achieve and retain the cost savings and benefits that were initially anticipated. Additionally, as a result of its restructuring, the Ericsson Group may experience a loss of continuity, a loss of accumulated knowledge and/or inefficiency during transitional periods. Reorganisation and restructuring can require a significant amount of management and other employees’ time and focus, which may divert attention from operating and growing the Ericsson Group’s business. Restructuring activities can create unanticipated consequences and negative impacts on the business, such as the Ericsson Group’s ability to develop, sell and deliver, and it cannot be sure that any ongoing or future restructuring efforts will be successful or generate expected cost savings. Factors that may impede a successful implementation include the retention of key employees, the impact of regulatory matters, and adverse economic market conditions. If the Ericsson Group fails to achieve some or all of the expected benefits of restructuring, it could have a material adverse effect on its competitive position, business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, reputation and share price.

Risks related to the Ericsson Group’s financial situation

The Ericsson Group’s debt increases its vulnerability to general adverse economic and industry conditions, limits its ability to borrow additional funds, and may limit its flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in its business and industry.

As at 31 December 2020, the Ericsson Group’s outstanding debt was SEK 30.2 billion and while the Ericsson Group is rated investment grade by Standard & Poor’s (BBB-) and Fitch (BBB-), it is rated one step below investment grade with Moody’s (Ba1). This degree of debt and the Ericsson Group’s credit ratings could have important consequences, including:

- increasing the Ericsson Group’s vulnerability to general economic and industry conditions;
- requiring a substantial portion of cash flow from operations to be dedicated to the payment of principal and interest on the Ericsson Group’s indebtedness, thereby reducing its ability to use its cash flow to fund its operations, capital expenditures and future business opportunities;
- restricting the Ericsson Group from making strategic acquisitions or causing it to make non-strategic divestitures;
- limiting the Ericsson Group’s ability to obtain additional financing for adjusted-working capital, capital expenditures, debt service requirements, acquisitions and general corporate or other purposes; and
- limiting the Ericsson Group’s ability to adjust to changing market conditions and placing the Ericsson Group at a competitive disadvantage compared to its competitors.

The Ericsson Group may choose to incur substantial additional indebtedness in the future. If new indebtedness is added to its current debt levels, the related risks that the Ericsson Group now faces could increase.

If its financial performance was to deteriorate, the Ericsson Group may not be able to generate sufficient cash to service all of its indebtedness and may be forced to take other actions to satisfy its obligations under its indebtedness, which may not be successful.

The Ericsson Group's ability to make scheduled payments on or to refinance its debt obligations depends on its financial condition and operating performance, which is subject to prevailing economic and competitive conditions and to certain financial, business and other factors beyond its control. While the Ericsson Group believes that it currently has adequate cash flows to service its indebtedness, if its financial performance was to deteriorate significantly, the Ericsson Group might be unable to maintain a level of cash flows from operating activities sufficient to permit it to pay the principal, premium, if any, and interest on its indebtedness.

If, due to such a deterioration in its financial performance, the Ericsson Group's cash flows and capital resources were to be insufficient to fund its debt service obligations, the Ericsson Group may be forced to reduce or delay investments and capital expenditures, or to sell assets, seek additional capital or restructure or refinance its indebtedness. These alternative measures may not be successful and may not permit the Ericsson Group to meet its scheduled debt service obligations. In addition, if the Ericsson Group was required to raise additional capital in the current financial markets, the terms of such financing, if available, could result in higher costs and greater restrictions on its business. In addition, if the Ericsson Group needs to refinance its existing indebtedness, the conditions in the financial markets at that time could make it difficult to refinance its existing indebtedness on acceptable terms or at all. If such alternative measures proved unsuccessful, the Ericsson Group could face substantial liquidity problems and might be required to dispose of material assets or operations to meet its debt service and other obligations.

Due to having a significant portion of its costs in SEK and revenues in other currencies, the Ericsson Group's business is exposed to foreign exchange fluctuations that could negatively impact its revenues and operating results.

The Ericsson Group incurs a significant portion of its expenses in SEK. As a result of its international operations, the Ericsson Group generates, and expects to continue to generate, a significant portion of its revenue in currencies other than SEK. To the extent the Ericsson Group is unable to match revenue received in foreign currencies with costs paid in the same currency, exchange rate fluctuations could have a negative impact on its consolidated income statement, balance sheet and cash flows when foreign currencies are exchanged or translated to SEK, which increases volatility in reported results. As market prices are predominantly established in U.S. dollars or euro, the Ericsson Group presently has a net revenue exposure in foreign currencies which means that a stronger SEK exchange rate would generally have a negative effect on its reported results. The Ericsson Group's attempts to reduce the effects of exchange rate fluctuations through a variety of natural and financial hedging activities may not be sufficient or successful, resulting in an adverse impact on the Ericsson Group's results and financial condition.

The Ericsson Group relies on various sources for short-term and long-term capital for the funding of its business. Should such capital become unavailable or available in insufficient amounts or on unreasonable terms, the Ericsson Group's business, financial condition and cash flow may materially suffer.

The business of the Ericsson Group requires a significant amount of cash. If the Ericsson Group does not generate sufficient amounts of capital to support its operations, service its debt and continue its research and development and customer finance programs, or if it cannot raise sufficient amounts of capital at the required times and on reasonable terms, its business, financial condition and cash flow are likely to be adversely affected. Access to funding may decrease or become more expensive as a result of the Ericsson Group's operational and financial condition, market conditions, or due to deterioration in the Ericsson Group's credit rating. There can be no assurance that additional sources of funds that the Ericsson Group may need from time to time will be available, on reasonable terms or at all.

If the Ericsson Group cannot access capital on a commercially viable basis, its business, financial condition and cash flow could materially suffer.

Impairment of goodwill, other intangible assets, property and equipment (“PP&E”) and right-of-use (“RoU”) leased by the Ericsson Group has impacted and may continue to negatively impact its financial condition and results of operations. An impairment of goodwill, other intangible assets, PP&E and RoU could adversely affect its financial condition or results of operations.

The Ericsson Group has a significant amount of these assets; for example patents, customer relations, trademarks, software, PP&E and RoU.

Goodwill is the only intangible asset the Ericsson Group has recognised to have indefinite useful life. Other intangible assets are mainly amortised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives, and the assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events such as product discontinuances, product dispositions or other changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be fully recoverable. Those intangible assets not yet in use are tested for impairment annually.

Historically, the Ericsson Group has recognised impairment charges mainly due to restructuring, which is usually limited, but occasionally significant. For example, during 2020 a limited write-down of SEK 100 million of goodwill was made, whereas in 2017 the write-down of intangibles and goodwill was SEK –17.2 billion. Additional impairment charges may be incurred in the future and could be significant due to various reasons, including strategy changes, restructuring actions or adverse market conditions that are either specific to the Ericsson Group or the broader industries in which it operates or more general in nature and that could have an adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's operating results and financial condition.

Negative deviations in actual cash flows compared to estimated cash flows as well as new estimates that indicate lower future cash flows might result in recognition of impairment charges. Estimates require management judgment as well as the definition of cash-generating units for impairment testing purposes. Other judgments might result in significantly different results and may differ from the actual financial condition in the future.

Legal and regulatory risk

The Ericsson Group may fail or be unable to comply with laws or regulations and could experience penalties and adverse rulings in enforcement or other proceedings. Compliance with changed laws or regulations may subject the Ericsson Group to increased costs or reduced products and services demand. Compliance failure as well as required operational changes could have a material adverse impact on its business, financial condition and brand.

The industries in which the Ericsson Group operates are subject to laws and regulations. While the Ericsson Group strives for compliance, it cannot assure that violations do not occur. If the Ericsson Group fails to or is unable to comply with applicable laws and regulations, it could experience penalties and adverse rulings in enforcement or other proceedings, which could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and reputation.

Further changes in laws or regulations could subject the Ericsson Group to liability, increased costs, or reduced products and services demand and have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and brand.

Changes to regulations may adversely affect both the Ericsson Group's customers' and its own operations. For example, regulations imposing more stringent, time-consuming or costly planning and zoning requirements or building approvals for radio base stations and other network infrastructure could adversely affect the timing and costs of network construction or expansion, and ultimately the commercial launch and success of these networks. Similarly, tariff and roaming regulations or rules on network neutrality could also affect operators' ability or willingness to invest in network infrastructure, which in turn could affect the sales of the Ericsson Group's systems and services. Additionally, delay in radio frequency spectrum allocation, and allocation between different types of usage may adversely affect operator spending or force the Ericsson Group to develop new products to be able to compete.

Further, the Ericsson Group develops many of its products and services based on existing regulations and technical standards. Changes to existing regulations and technical standards, or the implementation of new regulations and technical standards relating to products and services not previously regulated, could adversely affect its development efforts by increasing compliance costs and causing delay. Demand for those products and services could also decline. Regulatory changes related to, for example, licence fees, environment, health and safety, privacy (including the cross-border transfer of personal data for example between the EU and the U.S.), and other regulatory areas, may increase costs and restrict the Ericsson Group's operations or the operations of network operators. Also indirect impacts of such changes and regulatory changes in other fields, such as pricing regulations, could have an adverse impact on the Ericsson Group's business even though the specific regulations may not apply directly to the Ericsson Group or its products.

The substantial international operations of the Ericsson Group are subject to uncertainties which could affect its operating results.

The Ericsson Group conducts business throughout the world and is subject to the effects of general global economic conditions as well as conditions unique to specific countries or regions. The Ericsson Group has customers in more than 180 countries, with a significant proportion of its sales to emerging markets in the Asia Pacific region, Latin America, Eastern Europe, the Middle East and Africa.

The extensive operations of the Ericsson Group are subject to additional risks, including civil disturbances, acts of terrorism, economic and geopolitical instability and conflict, the potential misuse of technology leading to human rights violations, pandemics, the imposition of exchange controls, economies which are subject to significant fluctuations, nationalisation of private assets or other governmental actions affecting the flow of goods and currency, effects from changing climate and difficulty of enforcing agreements and collecting receivables through local legal systems.

Further, in certain markets in which the Ericsson Group operates, there is a risk that national governments actively favour or establish local vendors in their respective markets at the expense of foreign competitors. The implementation of such measures could adversely affect the Ericsson Group's sales, its market shares and its ability to purchase critical components.

The Ericsson Group must always comply with applicable export control regulations and sanctions or other trade embargoes in force. The political situation in parts of the world remains uncertain and the level of sanctions are still relatively high from a historical perspective and this level could even increase, thus impacting the possibility to operate in these markets. A universal element of these sanctions is the financial restrictions with respect to individuals and/or legal entities, but sanctions can also restrict certain exports and ultimately lead to a complete trade embargo towards a country. During the last years, the global free trade system has been under sustained attack, which has increased the risk of states adopting policies and actions that violate WTO agreements. Further, there is a risk in many countries of unexpected changes in regulatory requirements, tariffs and other trade barriers, price or exchange controls, restrictions of imports, or other governmental policies which could limit the Ericsson Group's operations and decrease its profitability.

Furthermore, export control regulations, sanctions or other forms of trade restrictions targeting countries in which the Ericsson Group is active may result in a reduction of commitment in those countries. As an example, escalation of trade tensions between the US and China has resulted in additional trade restrictions and increased tariffs, which if further negatively developed could harm the Ericsson Group's ability to compete effectively in Chinese markets or with Chinese companies. The need to terminate activities as a result of further trade restrictions may also expose the Ericsson Group to customer claims and other inherent risks. Although the Ericsson Group seeks to comply with all export control and sanctions regulations, there can be no assurance that it is, or will be compliant with all relevant regulations at all times. Such potential violations could have material adverse effects on the Ericsson Group's business, operating results, reputation and brand.

The Ericsson Group's business operations are complex involving the development, production and delivery of telecom solutions to customers in a very large number of jurisdictions. Each jurisdiction has its own tax legislation and regulations and the Ericsson Group has to comply with the relevant rules in each of these countries. These rules involve income taxes and indirect taxes such as VAT and sales taxes as well as withholding taxes on domestic and cross border payments and social security charges related to its employees. Constant changes of the rules and the interpretation of the legislation also create exposures regarding taxes. This results in complex tax issues and tax disputes that may lead to additional tax payment obligations. Being a global operation, the Ericsson Group also faces the risk of being taxed for the same income in more than one jurisdiction (double taxation). This could have adverse effects on the Ericsson Group's operating results, reputation and brand.

There has been a concern reported by some media and others that certain countries may use features of their telecommunications systems in ways that could result in potential violations of human rights. This may adversely affect the telecommunications business and may have a negative impact for people, the Ericsson Group's reputation and brand.

All of the above may have a material and potentially lasting adverse impact on the Ericsson Group's business, including sales, market share, market access and supply chain and R&D activities, its financial condition and results of operations.

The Ericsson Group may be subject to further adverse consequences following the 2019 resolutions with the United States Department of Justice ("DOJ") and the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") of the previously disclosed investigations under the FCPA and the correspondence received from the DOJ in October 2021, stating that the DOJ has determined that Ericsson breached its obligations under the DPA.

The Ericsson Group is required to comply with anti-corruption laws in the jurisdictions in which it does business, including the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (the "FCPA"). Actions by the Ericsson Group's employees, or by third party intermediaries acting on its behalf, in violation of these laws, whether carried out in the United States or elsewhere in connection with the conduct of its business may expose the Ericsson Group to significant liability for violations of the FCPA or other anti-corruption laws and may have a material adverse effect on its reputation, business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, or prospects.

In December 2019, the Ericsson Group announced the resolution of the previously disclosed investigations by the DOJ and SEC regarding its compliance with the FCPA. The resolution with the DOJ, which relates to conduct in China, Djibouti, Indonesia, Kuwait and Vietnam, provides for: a three-year deferred prosecution agreement ("DPA"); a fine in the amount of USD 520,650,432; and a guilty plea by its Egyptian subsidiary to criminal charges of violations of the anti-bribery provisions of the FCPA. The resolution with the SEC, which relates to conduct in China, Djibouti, Indonesia, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia and Vietnam, provides for: consent to the entry of a judgement to resolve civil claims related to allegations of violations of the anti-bribery, books and records, and internal controls provisions of the FCPA; and a financial sanction in the amount of USD 458,380,000, plus prejudgement interest in the amount of USD 81,540,000. The Ericsson Group also agreed to the retention of an independent compliance monitor for the term of three years pursuant to the resolutions with both the DOJ and SEC. The DOJ DPA, SEC civil consent, and guilty plea by the Ericsson Group's Egyptian subsidiary have all received court approval.

Under its DPA with the DOJ, the Ericsson Group admitted to the conduct described in the statement of facts attached to the DPA, and the DOJ agreed to defer prosecution of the Ericsson Group for the three-year term of the DPA, after which period the charges will be dismissed with prejudice if the Ericsson Group does not violate the terms of the DPA. In October 2021, the Ericsson Group received correspondence from the DOJ stating that it has determined that Ericsson breached its obligations under the DPA by failing to provide certain documents and factual information and that Ericsson will have the opportunity to respond in writing to explain the nature and circumstances of such breach, as well as the actions Ericsson has taken to address and remediate the situation. The Ericsson Group is currently in discussions with the DOJ regarding the correspondence. If the DOJ determines that the Ericsson Group has violated the terms of the DPA, the DOJ may in its sole discretion commence prosecution, including for the charged conspiracy to violate the anti-bribery and books and records and internal controls provisions of the FCPA that were included in the information filed in conjunction with the DPA. In such circumstances, the DOJ would be permitted to rely upon the admissions the Ericsson Group made in the DPA and would benefit from its waiver of certain procedural and evidentiary defences. In addition, the DOJ may at its sole discretion decide to extend the term of the DPA. Under its consent with the SEC, the Ericsson Group is permanently enjoined from violating the anti-bribery and books and records and internal controls provisions of the FCPA. Failure to comply with this injunction could result in the imposition of civil or criminal penalties, a new enforcement action, or both. Any criminal prosecution or civil or criminal penalties imposed as a result of noncompliance with the DPA or consent could have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's reputation, business, financial condition, result of operations, cash flows, or prospects.

The Ericsson Group may also face other potentially negative consequences relating to the investigations by, and settlements with, the DOJ and SEC. Neither the DPA nor the consent prevents the DOJ, SEC or any other authorities from carrying out certain additional investigations with respect to facts not covered in the agreements or in other jurisdictions, or prevents authorities from carrying out certain additional investigations related to these or other matters. It has been reported that Swedish authorities have initiated an investigation into the conduct that was the subject of the FCPA investigation and resulted in the above-mentioned resolution with the DOJ and SEC. Similarly, the resolutions with the DOJ and SEC do not foreclose third party, competitors, customers or suppliers or shareholder litigation related to these matters. In addition, there can be no assurance that the remedial measures the Ericsson Group has taken and plans to take in the future will be effective or that there will not be a finding of material weakness in its internal controls. Any one or more of the foregoing could have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's reputation, business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, or prospects.

Additionally, any ongoing media or governmental interest in the investigations and resolutions or in matters relating thereto could impact the public's perception of the Ericsson Group and result in reputational harm and other negative consequences. For example, customers or suppliers may reconsider their relationships with the Ericsson Group, or governmental and regulatory authorities in the relevant jurisdictions or elsewhere could seek to penalise the Ericsson Group or place restrictions on its operations or ability to tender. Harm to reputation, or any resulting disruption in customer or supplier relationships, could have a material adverse impact on the Ericsson Group's business.

The Ericsson Group is involved in lawsuits, legal proceedings and investigations, which, if determined unfavourably, could require the Ericsson Group to pay substantial damages, fines and/or penalties.

In the normal course of the Ericsson Group's business, the Ericsson Group is involved in legal proceedings. These proceedings include such matters as commercial disputes, claims regarding intellectual property, antitrust, tax and labour disputes, as well as government inquiries and investigations. Legal proceedings can be expensive, lengthy and disruptive to normal business operations. Moreover, the results of complex legal proceedings are difficult to predict. An unfavourable resolution of a particular matter could have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, operating results, financial condition and reputation. As a publicly listed company, the Ericsson Group may be exposed to lawsuits in which plaintiffs allege that the Ericsson Group or its officers have failed to comply with securities laws, stock market regulations or other laws, regulations or requirements. Whether or not there is merit to such claims, the time and costs incurred to defend the Ericsson Group and its officers and the potential settlement or compensation to the plaintiffs could have significant impact on its reported results and reputation.

In addition, the Ericsson Group is from time to time and may in the future be subject to additional inquiries, litigation or other proceedings or actions, regulatory or otherwise, arising in relation to the matters described above and related litigation and investigative matters. An unfavourable outcome of any such litigation or regulatory proceeding or action could have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

In April 2019, the Ericsson Group was informed by China's State Administration for Market Regulations ("SAMR") Anti-monopoly bureau that SAMR has initiated an investigation into the Ericsson Group's patent licensing practices in China. The Ericsson Group is cooperating with the investigation, which is still in a fact-finding phase. The next steps include continued fact-finding and meetings with SAMR in order to facilitate the authority's assessments and conclusions. In case of adverse findings, SAMR has the power to impose behavioural and financial remedies, which may have material adverse effects on the Ericsson Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Ericsson Group may be found non-compliant to privacy regulations and may be subject to regulatory penalties.

The introduction of more stringent privacy regulations with heavy and challenging requirements to implement when it comes to personal data processing, as well as stringent regulations on cross-border data transfers by regulators in many countries and markets in which the Ericsson Group operates comes with a risk that the Ericsson Group is found to be non-compliant with privacy legislation, either accidentally, through the actions of third parties, or otherwise, and subject to penalties levied against the Ericsson Group, with the associated damage to the Ericsson Group's brand and reputation. Due to the diverse nature of privacy legislation worldwide, any single incidence of non-compliance by the Ericsson Group may lead to regulatory agencies in various jurisdictions levelling separate penalties or judgements against the Ericsson Group. Due to the nature of the Ericsson Group's business and the amount of personally identifiable information of which the Ericsson Group is the controller or processor, such an event could have far ranging consequences, even if it was caused by a third party outside of the control of the Ericsson Group. This could include large fines, as well as significant damage claims and loss of trust from employees, customers and end-users.

Internal control risk

Cybersecurity incidents may have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, operations, financial performance, customer and vendor relationships, reputation and brand, and may introduce the possibility of litigations or regulatory investigations or actions.

The Ericsson Group's business operations are vulnerable to cybersecurity incidents that may impact the confidentiality, availability or integrity of information assets, IT assets, products, services, or solutions. These incidents may include data breaches, intrusions, espionage, data privacy infringements, leakage of confidential or sensitive data, unauthorised or accidental modification of data and general malfeasance. During 2021, the Ericsson Group has undergone a company-wide upgrade of its cybersecurity capability to enhance its cybersecurity capabilities, governance and organisation. The upgraded cybersecurity capabilities regularly manage cybersecurity incidents and vulnerabilities.

The Ericsson Group utilises third-parties to a large extent, to whom it has outsourced significant aspects of its IT infrastructure, product development, services, hardware, software, finance and HR operations. Events or incidents that are caused as a result of vulnerabilities in their operations or products supplied to the Ericsson Group could have a material adverse effect upon it, its business, financial performance, reputation and brand, potentially slowing operations, leaking valuable intellectual property, personal data or other sensitive information or damaging its products that have been installed in its customers' networks.

It is possible that a cybersecurity incident in the Ericsson Group's operations or supply chain could have an adverse impact on the integrity of solutions or services provided by the Ericsson Group as well as its ability to comply with legal, regulatory or contractual requirements. These incidents may include tampering with components, the inclusion of backdoors or implants, the unintentional inclusion of vulnerabilities in components or software, and cybersecurity incidents which prevent a supplier from being able to fulfil commitments to the Ericsson Group.

Any cybersecurity incident including unintended use, misconfiguration, or unintended actions, involving its operations, supply chain, product development, services, its third party providers or installed product base, could cause severe harm to the Ericsson Group and could have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, financial performance, customer and vendor relationships, reputation and brand, and may introduce the possibility of litigation or regulatory investigations or actions.

The Ericsson Group's network systems and storage and other business applications, and the systems and storage and other business applications maintained by its third-party providers, have been in the past, and may be in the future, subject to cyber intrusions, including attempts to gain unauthorised access, breach, malfeasance or other system disruptions. In some cases, such incidents are difficult to anticipate or to detect immediately and the damage caused thereby. If an actual or perceived breach of security occurs in its network or any of its third-party providers' networks, the Ericsson Group could incur significant costs and its reputation could be harmed. While the Ericsson Group works to safeguard its internal network systems and assess and validate the security of its third party providers to mitigate these potential risks, including through information security policies and employee awareness and training, there is no assurance that such actions will be sufficient to prevent cyber-attacks or security breaches.

The presence of vulnerabilities in the Ericsson Group's products, services or operations may not be detected during product development and operations, and may be leveraged by a threat actor to cause material harm to the Ericsson Group or its customers.

Vulnerabilities in Ericsson's products, solutions or services not detected and treated during product development or solution delivery may be exploited by a threat actor to cause harm to Ericsson's customers, end-users or Ericsson. Vulnerabilities could be brought in through different stages of the product life cycle. In some situations, it may be hard to detect these vulnerabilities due to their location, or due to the fact that they are unknown vulnerabilities, often referred to as "zero day vulnerabilities". As almost any modern software can contain free open source and third-party components, including software in networks, unmitigated security exposures can put the Ericsson Group's customers at varying levels of risk and expose Ericsson to liabilities or loss of business.

Identities may be compromised, either from the misuse of the Ericsson Group's identities or accounts, leading to material damage to its products, services or brand.

Identities in the Ericsson Group may be misused or compromised. Due to the nature of the Ericsson Group's business, authorised parties undertaking normal account activities can be difficult to differentiate from a threat actor's use of a compromised identity or credential. The Ericsson Group's identity and access management routines are required to access its customer's networks, and any limitation of this capability would impact its ability to offer services and products to its customers, which could have a material adverse effect upon the Ericsson Group's reputation and its business as a whole.

Threat actors may target specific employees, or other members of the Ericsson Group's workforce, through technological and non-technological means.

Recent trends have shown that there is a willingness to target end users of technology, rather than enterprises. This has manifested itself in the rise of threats such as ransomware, phishing, spear phishing, spoofing and other extortion methods. With a diverse workforce of approximately 100,000 employees, the Ericsson Group is susceptible to risks of disruption or information loss resulting from large scale attacks towards its employees, or society at large. This could have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, financial condition, reputation and brand.

Insiders may steal or monitor information or disrupt networks related to Ericsson or its customers, through technological or non-technological means.

To gain strategic access or to steal specific information, competitors or governments may induce insiders or recruit employees who sells information or services for personal gain. Several organisations and institutes have reported an increase in this insider threat over the last years. Any insider incident could cause severe harm to the Ericsson Group and could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial performance, customer and vendor relationships, reputation and brand, and may introduce the possibility of litigation or regulatory investigations or actions.

Environmental, social and governance risk

Failure to comply with environmental, occupational health and safety regulations in many jurisdictions may expose the Ericsson Group to significant penalties and other sanctions.

The Ericsson Group is subject to certain environmental, occupational, health and safety laws and regulations that affect its operations, facilities, products and services in each of the jurisdictions in which it operates. While the Ericsson Group works actively to ensure compliance with laws, regulations and customer requirements related to the environment, health and safety (including without limitation occupational health and safety) that apply to it, the Ericsson Group can provide no assurance that it has been, is, or will continue to be compliant with these laws, regulations and requirements. If the Ericsson Group has failed or fails to comply with these laws, regulations and requirements, it could be subject to significant penalties and other sanctions that could have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, operating results, financial condition, reputation and brand. Additionally, there is a risk that the Ericsson Group may have to incur expenditures to cover environmental, occupational health and safety liabilities to maintain compliance with current or future applicable laws and regulations or to undertake any necessary remediation. It is difficult to reasonably estimate the future impact of environmental matters, such as climate change and extreme weather events, including potential liabilities. Adverse future events, regulations, or judgments could have a significant adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, operating results, financial condition, reputation and brand.

The Ericsson Group may fail to comply with its environmental, social and governance standards which could negatively affect its business, operating results, financial condition, reputation and brand.

The Ericsson Group is subject to environmental, social and governance laws and regulations as well as sustainability and corporate responsibility requirements and expects such regulations to increase as governments impose new rules. These rules have a high focus on anti-corruption. To ensure that its operations are conducted in accordance with applicable laws and requirements, the Ericsson Group's management system includes a Code of Business Ethics, a Code of Conduct for Business Partners and a Sustainability Policy, as well as other Group Policies and Directives to govern its processes and operations. The Ericsson Group is committed to the UN Global Compact ten principles, the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights and principles of the World Economic Forum's Partnering Against Corruption Initiative. However, the Ericsson Group cannot fully prevent unintended or unlawful violation of its Code of Business Ethics, corruption, fraud, embezzlement, misuse of its technology leading to potential human rights breaches or violations of anti-trust legislation, trade restrictions and international sanctions or its Code of Conduct for Business Partners in the Ericsson Group or in the supply chain.

There is also an increased demand from external stakeholders, for example non-governmental organisations and investors, for transparency about sustainability and corporate responsibility issues that might be difficult to fulfil. If the Ericsson Group fails to adequately meet these expectations, its business may be adversely affected.

Climate change and the potential resulting environmental impact may also result in new environmental, health and safety laws and regulations that may affect the Ericsson Group, its suppliers, and its customers. Such laws or regulations could cause the Ericsson Group to incur additional direct costs for compliance, including costs associated with changes to manufacturing processes, or costs associated with the procurement of raw materials and components used in its products, as well as increased indirect costs resulting from its customers, suppliers or both incurring additional costs that are passed on to the Ericsson Group. These costs may adversely impact the Ericsson Group's results of operations and financial condition. In addition, climate change could cause severe weather events, such as droughts, heat waves, wildfires, storms, and flooding, to occur more frequently or with greater intensity, as well as chronic changes in temperatures and rising sea levels, which could pose physical risks to the Ericsson Group's manufacturing facilities or its suppliers' facilities, cause disruptions in its upstream and downstream logistic flows, and consequently increase operating costs and/or cause business interruptions.

While the Ericsson Group's attempts to monitor and audit internally and externally its compliance with the policies and directives as well as its suppliers' adherence to the Ericsson Group's Code of Conduct for Business Partners and strive for continuous improvements, the Ericsson Group cannot provide any assurances that violations will not occur which could have material adverse effects on its business, operating results, financial condition, reputation, and brand.

Potential health risks related to radiofrequency electro-magnetic fields may subject the Ericsson Group to various product liability claims and result in regulatory changes.

The mobile telecommunications industry is subject to claims that mobile devices and other equipment that generate radiofrequency electromagnetic fields may expose individuals to health risks. At present, a substantial number of scientific reviews conducted by various independent research bodies have concluded that radiofrequency electromagnetic fields, when used at levels within the limits prescribed by public health authority safety standards and recommendations, cause no adverse effects to human health. However, any perceived risk or new scientific findings of adverse health effects from mobile communication devices and equipment could adversely affect the Ericsson Group through a reduction in sales or through liability claims. Although the Ericsson Group's products are designed to comply with currently applicable safety standards and regulations regarding radiofrequency electromagnetic fields, the Ericsson Group cannot guarantee that it will not become the subject of product liability claims. The Ericsson Group also cannot guarantee that it will not be held liable for such claims or be required to comply with future changed regulatory requirements. The Ericsson Group's business may in addition be affected by regulatory or other restrictions imposed on its customers' use of radio equipment that may have a material adverse effect on the Ericsson Group's business, operating results, financial condition, reputation and brand.

Regulations related to "conflict minerals" may cause the Ericsson Group to incur additional expenses, and may make its supply chain more complex.

In 2012, the SEC adopted a rule requiring disclosures of specified minerals ("conflict minerals") that are necessary to the functionality or production of products manufactured or contracted to be manufactured by companies that file periodic reports with the SEC, whether or not these products or their components are manufactured by third parties. While the Ericsson Group believes that it is able to fulfil these requirements without materially affecting its costs or access to materials, the Ericsson Group can provide no assurance that there will not be material costs associated with complying with the disclosure requirements. These requirements could adversely affect the sourcing, availability and pricing of minerals used in the manufacture of certain of the Ericsson Group's products, which may have a material adverse effect on its business. In addition, since the Ericsson Group's supply chain is complex, the Ericsson Group may not be able to sufficiently verify the origins of these minerals contained in its products through the due diligence procedures that the Ericsson Group implements, which may harm its reputation and its business. The Ericsson Group may also encounter challenges if customers put more emphasis on the idea that all of the components of its products be certified as "conflict-free".

Factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with Notes issued under the Programme

Risks related to the structure of a particular issue of Notes

A range of Notes may be issued under the Programme. A number of these Notes may have features which contain particular risks for potential investors. Set out below is a description of the most common such features:

Notes subject to optional redemption by the Issuer

An optional redemption feature of Notes is likely to limit their market value. During any period when the Issuer may elect to redeem Notes, the market value of those Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This also may be true prior to any redemption period.

The Issuer may be expected to redeem Notes when its cost of borrowing is lower than the interest rate on the Notes. At those times, an investor generally would not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

If the Notes include a feature to convert the interest basis from a fixed rate to a floating rate, or vice versa, this may affect the secondary market and the market value of the Notes concerned

Fixed/Floating Rate Notes are Notes which bear interest at a rate that converts from a fixed rate to a floating rate, or from a floating rate to a fixed rate. Such a feature to convert the interest basis, and any conversion of the interest basis, may affect the secondary market in, and the market value of, such Notes as the change of interest basis may result in a lower interest return for Noteholders. Where the Notes convert from a fixed rate to a floating rate, the spread on the Fixed/Floating Rate Notes may be less favourable than then prevailing spreads on comparable Floating Rate Notes tied to the same reference rate. In addition, the new floating rate at any time may be lower than the rates on other Notes. Where the Notes convert from a floating rate to a fixed rate, the fixed rate may be lower than then prevailing rates on those Notes and could affect the market value of an investment in the relevant Notes.

Notes issued at a substantial discount or premium

The market values of securities issued at a substantial discount or premium from their principal amount tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do prices for more conventional interest-bearing securities. Generally, the longer the remaining term of such securities, the greater the price volatility as compared to more conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities.

The regulation and reform of “benchmarks” may adversely affect the value of the Notes

Interest rates and indices which are deemed to be “benchmarks”, (including the euro interbank offered rate (“EURIBOR”)) are the subject of ongoing national and international regulatory guidance and proposals for reform. Some of these reforms are already effective whilst others are still to be implemented. These reforms may cause such benchmarks to perform differently than in the past, to disappear entirely, or have other consequences which cannot be predicted. Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on any Notes linked to or referencing such a “benchmark”.

Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 (the “EU Benchmarks Regulation”) applies, subject to certain transitional provisions, to the provision of benchmarks, the contribution of input data to a benchmark and the use of a benchmark within the EU. Among other things, it (i) requires benchmark administrators to be authorised or registered (or, if non-EU-based, to be subject to an equivalent regime or otherwise recognised or endorsed) and (ii) prevents certain uses by EU supervised entities of benchmarks of administrators that are not authorised or registered (or, if non-EU based, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed). The UK Benchmarks Regulation, among other things, applies to the provision of benchmarks and the use of a benchmark in the UK. Similarly, it prohibits the use in the UK by UK supervised entities of benchmarks of administrators that are not authorised by the FCA or registered on the FCA register (or, if non-UK based, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed).

The EU Benchmarks Regulation and/or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable, could have a material impact on any Notes linked to or referencing a “benchmark”, in particular, if the methodology or other terms of the benchmark are changed in order to comply with the requirements of the EU Benchmarks Regulation and/or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable. Such changes could, among other things, have the effect of reducing, increasing or otherwise affecting the volatility of the published rate or level of the relevant benchmark.

More broadly, any of the international or national reforms, or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of benchmarks, could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a benchmark and complying with any such regulations or requirements.

The euro risk free-rate working group for the euro area established by the European Central Bank has published a set of guiding principles and high level recommendations for fallback provisions in, amongst other things, new euro denominated cash products (including bonds) referencing EURIBOR. The guiding principles indicate, among other things, that continuing to reference EURIBOR in relevant contracts (without robust fallback provisions) may increase the risk to the euro area financial system. On 11 May 2021, the euro risk-free rate working group published its recommendations on EURIBOR fallback trigger events and fallback rates.

It is not possible to predict with certainty whether, and to what extent, EURIBOR will continue to be supported going forwards. This may cause EURIBOR to perform differently than they have done in the past, and may have other consequences which cannot be predicted. Such factors may have (without limitation) the following effects on certain benchmarks: (i) discouraging market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to a benchmark; (ii) triggering changes in the rules or methodologies used in the benchmark and/or (iii) leading to the disappearance of the benchmark. Any of the above changes or any other consequential changes as a result of international or national reforms or other initiatives or investigations, could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any Notes linked to, referencing or otherwise dependent (in whole or part) upon, such a “benchmark”.

The conditions of the Notes provide for certain fallback arrangements in the event that an Original Reference Rate (as defined in the conditions of the Notes) and/or any page on which an Original Reference Rate may be published (or any other successor service) becomes unavailable or a Benchmark Event otherwise occurs. Such fallback arrangements include the possibility that the rate of interest or other amounts payable under the Notes could be set by reference to a Successor Rate or an Alternative Rate (both as defined in the conditions of the Notes) determined by an Independent Adviser (as defined in the conditions of the Notes) acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner as described more fully in the conditions of the Notes. If a Successor Rate or an Alternative Rate (as the case may be) is so determined, an Adjustment Spread (as defined in the conditions of the Notes) shall also be determined by the relevant Independent Adviser in accordance with the conditions of the Notes and amendments to the conditions of the Notes may be made by the relevant Independent Adviser (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and following consultation with the Issuer) to follow market practice in relation to the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable) or to ensure the proper operation of the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and/or (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread. An Adjustment Spread could be positive, negative or zero. Investors should note that the relevant Independent Adviser will have discretion to determine the applicable Adjustment Spread in the circumstances described in the conditions of the Notes, and in any event an Adjustment Spread may not be effective in reducing or eliminating any economic prejudice or benefit to investors arising out of the replacement of the relevant Original Reference Rate with the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be).

The use of a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (including with the application of an Adjustment Spread) will still result in any Notes referencing an Original Reference Rate performing differently (which may include payment of a lower Rate of Interest) than they would if the Original Reference Rate were to continue to apply in its current form. No consent of the Noteholders or Couponholders shall be required in connection with effecting any relevant Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable) or any other related adjustments and/or amendments described above.

Any such adjustment or amendment could have unexpected commercial consequences and there can be no assurance that, due to the particular circumstances of each Noteholder or Couponholder, any such adjustment will be favourable to each Noteholder or Couponholder.

In certain circumstances (including where, following the occurrence of a Benchmark Event, the Independent Adviser appointed by the Issuer fails to make the necessary determination of a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate or (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread), the ultimate fallback for the purposes of calculation of the Rate of Interest for a particular Interest Period may result in the Rate of Interest for the last preceding Interest Period being used. This may result in the effective application of a fixed rate for Floating Rate Notes based on the rate which was last observed on the Relevant Screen Page. Due to the uncertainty concerning the availability of Successor Rates and Alternative Rates, the involvement of an Independent Adviser and the potential for further regulatory developments, there is a risk that the relevant fallback provisions may not operate as intended at the relevant time.

Any such consequences could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any such Notes. Moreover, any of the above matters or any other significant change to the setting or existence of any relevant rate could affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its obligations under the Floating Rate

Notes or could have a material adverse effect on the value or liquidity of, and the amount payable under, the Floating Rate Notes.

Investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks imposed by the EU Benchmarks Regulation and/or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable, reforms or the discontinuation of EURIBOR or any other relevant reference rate in making any investment decision with respect to any Notes referencing a benchmark.

Risks related to Notes generally

Set out below is a description of material risks relating to the Notes generally:

Modification

The conditions of the Notes contain provisions for calling meetings (including by way of conference call or by use of a videoconference platform) of Noteholders to consider and vote upon matters affecting their interests generally, or to pass resolutions in writing or through the use of electronic consents. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders including Noteholders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting or, as the case may be, did not sign the written resolution or give their consent electronically, and including those and Noteholders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

Change of law

The conditions of the Notes are based on English law in effect as at the date of this Offering Circular. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change to English law or administrative practice after the date of this Offering Circular and any such change could materially adversely impact the value of any Notes affected by it.

Notes where denominations involve integral multiples: definitive Notes

In relation to any issue of Notes which have denominations consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount, it is possible that such Notes may be traded in amounts in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination that are not integral multiples of such minimum Specified Denomination. In such a case a holder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds an amount which is less than the minimum Specified Denomination in his account with the relevant clearing system would not be able to sell the remainder of such holding without first purchasing a principal amount of Notes at or in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination such that its holding amounts to a Specified Denomination. Further, a holder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds an amount which is less than the minimum Specified Denomination in his account with the relevant clearing system at the relevant time may not receive a definitive Note in respect of such holding (should definitive Notes be printed) and would need to purchase a principal amount of Notes at or in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination such that its holding amounts to a Specified Denomination.

If such Notes in definitive form are issued, holders should be aware that definitive Notes which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

Risks related to the market generally

Set out below is a description of material market risks, including liquidity risk, exchange rate risk, interest rate risk and credit risk:

The secondary market generally

Notes may have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop. If a market for the Notes does develop, it may not be very liquid. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Notes easily or at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market. This is particularly the case for Notes that are especially sensitive to interest rate, currency or market risks, are designed for specific investment objectives or strategies or have been structured to meet the investment requirements of limited categories of investors. These types of Notes generally would have a more limited secondary market and more price volatility than conventional debt securities.

Exchange rate risks and exchange controls

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Notes in the Specified Currency. This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the "Investor's Currency") other than the Specified Currency. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease (1) the Investor's Currency-equivalent yield on the Notes, (2) the Investor's Currency equivalent value of the principal payable on the Notes and (3) the Investor's Currency equivalent market value of the Notes.

Government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate or the ability of the Issuer to make payments in respect of the Notes. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

Interest rate risks

Investment in Fixed Rate Notes involves the risk that if market interest rates subsequently increase above the rate paid on the Fixed Rate Notes, this will adversely affect the value of the Fixed Rate Notes.

Credit ratings may not reflect all risks

One or more independent credit rating agencies may assign credit ratings to the Issuer or the Notes. The ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed above, and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be revised, suspended or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

In general, European regulated investors are restricted under the CRA Regulation from using credit ratings for regulatory purposes in the EEA, unless such ratings are issued by a credit rating agency established in the EEA and registered under the CRA Regulation (and such registration has not been withdrawn or suspended) subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances. Such general restriction will also apply in the case of credit ratings issued by third country non-EEA credit rating agencies, unless the relevant credit ratings are endorsed by an EEA-registered credit rating agency or the relevant third country rating agency is certified in accordance with the CRA Regulation (and such endorsement action or certification, as the case may be, has not been withdrawn or suspended, subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances). The list of registered and certified rating agencies published by the European Securities and Markets Authority ("ESMA") on its website in accordance with the CRA Regulation is not conclusive evidence of the status of the relevant rating agency included in such list, as there may be delays between certain supervisory measures being taken against a relevant rating agency and the publication of the updated ESMA list.

Investors regulated in the UK are subject to similar restrictions under the Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 (as amended) as it forms part of UK domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the “UK CRA Regulation”). As such, UK regulated investors are required to use for UK regulatory purposes ratings issued by a credit rating agency established in the UK and registered under the UK CRA Regulation. In the case of ratings issued by third country non-UK credit rating agencies, third country credit ratings can either be: (a) endorsed by a UK registered credit rating agency; or (b) issued by a third country credit rating agency that is certified in accordance with the UK CRA Regulation. Note this is subject, in each case, to (a) the relevant UK registration, certification or endorsement, as the case may be, not having been withdrawn or suspended, and (b) transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances. In the case of third country ratings, for a certain limited period of time, transitional relief accommodates continued use for regulatory purposes in the UK, of existing pre-2021 ratings, provided the relevant conditions are satisfied.

If the status of the rating agency rating the Notes changes for the purposes of the CRA Regulation or the UK CRA Regulation, relevant regulated investors may no longer be able to use the rating for regulatory purposes in the EEA or the UK, as applicable, and the Notes may have a different regulatory treatment, which may impact the value of the Notes and their liquidity in the secondary market. Certain information with respect to the credit rating agencies and ratings is set out on the cover page of this Offering Circular and/or will be disclosed in the Final Terms (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes).

Enforceability of judgments

Following Brexit and the transitional period provided for in the withdrawal agreement, during which EU law continued to apply to the UK, expired on 31 December 2020. As a result, the Recast Brussels Regulation (Regulation (EU) No. 1215/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 12 December 2012) ceased to apply to the UK (and English court judgments). As no new reciprocal agreement on civil justice were agreed, there is uncertainty concerning the enforcement of English court judgments in Sweden following Brexit.

As a result, as at the date of this Offering Circular, a judgment entered against the Issuer in an English court may not be recognised or enforceable in Sweden as a matter of law without a re-trial on its merits (but the English judgment will be of persuasive authority as a matter of evidence before the courts of law and executive or other public authorities in Sweden).

Risks related to Notes denominated in Renminbi

Set out below is a description of certain additional risks which may be relevant to an investor in Notes denominated in Renminbi:

The Renminbi is not completely freely convertible and there are significant restrictions on the remittance of the Renminbi into and outside the PRC which may adversely affect the liquidity of the Notes denominated in Renminbi

The Renminbi is not completely freely convertible at present. The PRC government continues to regulate conversion between the Renminbi and foreign currencies, despite the significant reduction over the years by the PRC government of control over trade transactions involving the import and export of goods and services as well as other frequent routine foreign exchange transactions. These transactions are known as current account items. Currently, participating banks in Hong Kong and a number of other jurisdictions (the “Applicable Jurisdictions”) have been permitted to engage in the settlement of current account trade transactions in Renminbi. However, remittance of Renminbi by foreign investors into and out of the PRC for purposes such as capital contributions, known as capital account items, is generally only permitted upon obtaining specific approvals from, or completing specific registrations or filings with, from the relevant authorities on a case-by-case basis and subject to a strict monitoring system. Regulations in the PRC on the remittance of Renminbi into the PRC for settlement of capital account items are being developed gradually and will be subject to interpretation and application by the relevant authorities in the PRC.

Although the Renminbi was added to the Special Drawing Rights basket created by the International Monetary Fund on 1 October 2016 and policies further improving accessibility to Renminbi to settle cross-border transactions in foreign currencies were implemented by the People's Bank of China ("PBoC") in 2018, there is no assurance that the PRC government will continue to gradually liberalise the control over cross-border Renminbi remittances in the future, that any pilot schemes for Renminbi cross-border utilisation will not be discontinued or that new regulations in the PRC will not be promulgated in the future which have the effect of restricting or eliminating the remittance of Renminbi into or outside the PRC. Further, if any new PRC regulations are promulgated in the future which have the effect of permitting or restricting (as the case may be) the remittance of Renminbi for payment of transactions categorised as capital account items, then such remittances will need to be made subject to the specific requirements or restrictions set out in such rules. In the event that funds cannot be repatriated outside the PRC in Renminbi, the Issuer will need to source Renminbi offshore to finance its obligations under the Notes, and its ability to do so will be subject to the overall availability of Renminbi outside the PRC.

There is only limited availability of Renminbi outside the PRC, which may affect the liquidity of the Notes and the Issuer's ability to source Renminbi outside the PRC to service the Notes

As a result of the restrictions imposed by the PRC government on cross-border Renminbi fund flows, the availability of Renminbi outside of the PRC is limited. The PBoC has Renminbi clearing and settlement mechanisms for participating banks in the Applicable Jurisdictions through settlement agreements (the "Settlement Agreements") on the clearing of Renminbi business with financial institutions in a number of financial centres and cities (the "Renminbi Clearing Banks"), and these Renminbi Clearing Banks have been permitted to engage in the settlement of Renminbi trade transactions.

Renminbi business participating banks do not have direct Renminbi liquidity support from PBoC. The Renminbi Clearing Banks only have access to onshore liquidity support from PBoC for the purpose of squaring open positions of participating banks for limited types of transactions and are not obliged to square for participating banks any open positions resulting from other foreign exchange transactions or conversion services. In such cases, the participating banks will need to source Renminbi from outside the PRC to square such open positions.

The offshore Renminbi market is subject to many constraints as a result of PRC laws and regulations on foreign exchange. There is no assurance that new PRC regulations will not be promulgated or the Settlement Agreements will not be terminated or amended in the future which will have the effect of restricting the availability of Renminbi offshore. The limited availability of Renminbi outside the PRC may affect the liquidity of the Notes. To the extent the Issuer is required to source Renminbi in the offshore market to service the Notes, there is no assurance that the Issuer will be able to source such Renminbi on satisfactory terms, if at all.

Payments in respect of Notes denominated in Renminbi will only be made to investors in the manner specified in the terms and conditions of the relevant Notes

Investors may be required to provide certificates and other information (including Renminbi account information) in order to be allowed to receive payments in Renminbi in accordance with the Renminbi clearing and settlement system for participating banks in Hong Kong. All Renminbi payments to investors in respect of Notes denominated in Renminbi will be made solely (i) for so long as such Notes are represented by a temporary global Note or a permanent global Note held with the common depositary or common safekeeper, as the case may be, for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or any alternative clearing system, by transfer to a Renminbi bank account maintained in Hong Kong in accordance with prevailing Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg rules and procedures or those of such alternative clearing system, or (ii) for so long as such Notes are in definitive form, by transfer to a Renminbi bank account maintained in Hong Kong in accordance with prevailing rules and regulations. Other than as described in Condition 6(f) of the conditions of the Notes, the Issuer cannot be required to make payment by any other means (including in any other currency or in bank notes, by cheque or draft, or by transfer to a bank account in the PRC).

There may be PRC tax consequences with respect to investment in Notes denominated in Renminbi

In considering whether to invest in Notes denominated in Renminbi, investors should consult their individual tax advisers with regard to the application of the PRC tax laws to their particular situations as well as any tax consequences arising under the laws of any other tax jurisdictions. The value of the Noteholder's investment in Notes denominated in Renminbi may be materially and adversely affected if the Noteholder is required to pay PRC tax with respect to acquiring, holding or disposing of and receiving payments under those Notes denominated in Renminbi.

Investment in Notes denominated in Renminbi is subject to interest rate risks

The value of Renminbi payments under RMB Notes may be susceptible to interest rate fluctuations occurring within and outside the PRC. The PRC Government has gradually liberalised its regulation of interest rates in recent years. Further liberalisation may increase interest rate volatility. In addition, the interest rate for Renminbi in markets outside the PRC may significantly deviate from the interest rate for Renminbi in the PRC as a result of foreign exchange controls imposed by PRC law and regulations and prevailing market conditions. Notes denominated in Renminbi may carry a fixed interest rate. Consequently, the trading price of such Notes will vary with the fluctuations in the Renminbi interest rates. If holders of Notes denominated in Renminbi propose to sell their Notes before their maturity, they may receive an offer lower than the amount they have invested.

Investment in the Notes is subject to exchange rate risks

The value of the Renminbi against the U.S. dollar and other foreign currencies fluctuates from time to time and is affected by changes in the PRC and international political and economic conditions and by many other factors. All payments of interest and principal with respect to Notes denominated in Renminbi will be made in Renminbi unless otherwise specified. As a result, the value of these Renminbi payments in U.S. dollar or other foreign currency terms may vary with the prevailing exchange rates in the marketplace. If the value of Renminbi depreciates against the U.S. dollar or other foreign currencies, the value of investment in U.S. dollar or other applicable foreign currency terms will decline.

Where Renminbi Currency Events are specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, if the Renminbi is not available in certain circumstances as described in the Notes, the Issuer can make payments under the Notes in U.S. dollars

There can be no assurance that access to Renminbi for the purposes of making payments under the Notes by the Issuer or generally will remain or that new PRC regulations will not be promulgated which have the effect of restricting availability of Renminbi outside of the PRC.

Although the Issuer's primary obligation is to make all payments of interest and principal with respect to the Notes in Renminbi, where Renminbi Currency Events are specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement, in the event access to Renminbi deliverable in Hong Kong becomes restricted to the extent that, by reason of Renminbi Inconvertibility, Renminbi Non-Transferability or Renminbi Illiquidity (each as defined in the Terms and Conditions of Notes), the Issuer is unable to pay interest or principal in Renminbi in Hong Kong, the terms of the Notes allow the Issuer to make payment in U.S. dollars at the prevailing spot rate of exchange, all as provided for in more detail in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes. The value of these Renminbi payments in U.S. dollar terms may vary with the prevailing exchange rates in the market place. If the value of Renminbi depreciates against the U.S. dollar or other foreign currencies, the value of the investment in U.S. dollar or other applicable foreign currency terms will decline.

Following the publication of this Offering Circular a supplement may be prepared by the Issuer and approved by the FCA in accordance with Article 23 of the UK Prospectus Regulation. Statements contained in any such supplement (or contained in any document incorporated by reference therein) shall, to the extent applicable (whether expressly, by implication or otherwise), be deemed to modify or supersede statements contained in this Offering Circular or in a document which is incorporated by reference in this Offering Circular. Any statement so modified or superseded shall not, except as so modified or superseded, constitute a part of this Offering Circular.

Any documents themselves incorporated by reference in the documents incorporated by reference in this Offering Circular shall not form part of this Offering Circular.

Any non-incorporated parts of a document referred to herein (which, for the avoidance of doubt, means any parts not listed in the cross-reference list above) are either deemed not relevant for an investor or are otherwise covered elsewhere in this Offering Circular.

The Issuer will, in the event of any significant new factor, material mistake or material inaccuracy relating to information included in this Offering Circular which is capable of affecting the assessment of any Notes, prepare a supplement to this Offering Circular or publish a new Offering Circular for use in connection with any subsequent issue of Notes.

Alternative Performance Measures

Certain alternative performance measures (“APMs”) are included or referred to in this Offering Circular (including, without limitation, the audited consolidated annual financial statements of the Issuer for the financial year ended 31 December 2019, the audited consolidated annual financial statements of the Issuer for the financial year ended 31 December 2020 and the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements of the Issuer for the twelve months ended 31 December 2021 (each incorporated by reference)). APMs are measures used by the Ericsson Group within its financial publications to supplement disclosures prepared in accordance with the financial reporting framework applicable to the Ericsson Group, which is based on IFRS. The Ericsson Group considers that these measures provide useful information to enhance the understanding of financial performance. The APMs should be viewed as complementary to, rather than a substitute for, the figures determined according to the applicable regulatory measures and financial reporting framework.

An explanation of each such metric's components and calculation method can be found on pages 208-212 of the Issuer's Annual Report 2019, pages 115-119 of the Issuer's Annual Report 2020 and pages 38 - 49 of the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements of the Issuer for the twelve months ended 31 December 2021 (each incorporated by reference).

FORM OF THE NOTES

Any reference in this section to “applicable Final Terms” shall be deemed to include a reference to “applicable Pricing Supplement” where relevant.

Each Tranche of Notes will be in bearer form and will initially be issued in the form of a temporary global note (a “Temporary Global Note”) or, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, a permanent global note (a “Permanent Global Note”) and Temporary Global Notes and Permanent Global Notes together referred to as “Global Notes”) which, in either case, will:

- (i) if the Global Notes are intended to be issued in new global note (“NGN”) form, as stated in the applicable Final Terms, be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common safekeeper (the “Common Safekeeper”) for Euroclear Bank SA/NV (Euroclear) and Clearstream Banking S.A. (“Clearstream, Luxembourg”); and
- (ii) if the Global Notes are not intended to be issued in NGN form, be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common depository (the “Common Depository”) for, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Where the Global Note issued in respect of any Tranche is in NGN form, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg will be notified whether or not such Global Note is intended to be held in a manner which would allow Eurosystem eligibility. Any indication that the Global Note is to be so held does not necessarily mean that the Notes of the relevant Tranche will be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue or at any times during their life as such recognition depends upon satisfaction of the Eurosystem eligibility criteria. The Common Safekeeper for NGNs will either be Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or another entity approved by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Whilst any Note is represented by a Temporary Global Note, payments of principal, interest (if any) and any other amount payable in respect of the Notes due prior to the Exchange Date (as defined below) will be made (against presentation of the Temporary Global Note if the Temporary Global Note is not intended to be issued in NGN form) only to the extent that certification (in a form to be provided) to the effect that the beneficial owners of interests in such Note are not U.S. persons or persons who have purchased for resale to any U.S. person, as required by U.S. Treasury regulations, has been received by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable, has given a like certification (based on the certifications it has received) to the Agent. Any reference in this section “Form of the Notes” to Euroclear and or Clearstream, Luxembourg shall, whenever the context so permits, be deemed to include a reference to any additional or alternative clearing system specified in the applicable Final Terms or as may otherwise be approved by the Issuer and the Agent.

On and after the date (the “Exchange Date”) which is 40 days after the date on which any Temporary Global Note is issued, interests in such Temporary Global Note will be exchangeable (free of charge) upon a request as described therein either for (a) interests in a Permanent Global Note of the same Series or (b) definitive Notes of the Same Series with, where applicable, interest coupons and talons attached (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms and subject, in the case of definitive Notes, to such notice period as is specified in the applicable Final Terms), in each case against certification of beneficial ownership as described above unless such certification has already been given. The holder of a Temporary Global Note will not be entitled to collect any payment of interest, principal or other amount due on or after the Exchange Date unless, upon due certification, exchange of the Temporary Global Note for an interest in a Permanent Global Note or for definitive Notes is improperly withheld or refused. Pursuant to the Agency Agreement (as defined under “Terms and Conditions of the Notes” below) the Agent shall arrange that, where a further Tranche of Notes is issued, the Notes of such Tranche shall be assigned a common code and ISIN by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg which are different from the common code and ISIN assigned to Notes of any other Tranche of the same Series until at least 40 days (as notified by the Agent to the relevant Dealer) after the completion of the distribution of the Notes of such Tranche.

Payments of principal, interest (if any) or other amounts on a Permanent Global Note will be made through Euroclear and or Clearstream, Luxembourg (against presentation or surrender (as the case may be) of the Permanent Global Note if the Permanent Global Note is not intended to be issued in NGN form) without any requirement for certification. A Permanent Global Note will be exchangeable (free of charge) in whole but not in part for definitive Notes with, where applicable, interest coupons and talons attached either (i) upon not less than 60 days' written notice from Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg (acting on the instructions of any holder of an interest in such Permanent Global Note) to the Agent or (ii) only in certain limited circumstances, in each case as specified in the applicable Final Terms and as described in the Permanent Global Note. Global Notes and definitive Notes will be issued pursuant to the Agency Agreement.

The exchange of a Permanent Global Note for definitive Notes upon notice from Euroclear and/or Clearstream (acting on the instructions of any holder) or at any time at the request of the Issuer should not be expressed to be applicable in the applicable Final Terms if the Notes are issued with a minimum Specified Denomination such as €100,000 (or its equivalent in another currency) plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount such as €1,000 (or its equivalent in another currency). Furthermore, such Specified Denomination construction is not permitted in relation to any issue of Notes which is to be represented on issue by a Temporary Global Note exchangeable for definitive Notes.

The following legend will appear on all Notes (other than Temporary Global Notes), interest coupons relating to such Notes where TEFRA D is specified in the applicable Final Terms:

“ANY UNITED STATES PERSON WHO HOLDS THIS OBLIGATION WILL BE SUBJECT TO LIMITATIONS UNDER THE UNITED STATES INCOME TAX LAWS, INCLUDING THE LIMITATIONS PROVIDED IN SECTIONS 165(j) AND 1287(a) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE.”

The sections referred to provide that United States holders, with certain exceptions, will not be entitled to deduct any loss on Notes or interest coupons and will not be entitled to capital gains treatment in respect of any gain on any sale, disposition, redemption or payment of principal in respect of such Notes or interest coupons.

Notes which are represented by a Global Note will only be transferable in accordance with the rules and procedures for the time being of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be.

A Note may be accelerated automatically by the holder thereof in certain circumstances described in Terms and Conditions of the Notes. In such circumstances, where any Note is still represented by a Global Note and a holder of such Note so represented and credited to his securities account with Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg gives notice that it wishes to accelerate such Note, unless within a period of 14 days from the giving of such notice payment has been made in full of the amount due in accordance with the terms of such Global Note, such Global Note will become void. At the same time, holders of interests in such Global Note credited to their accounts with Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg will become entitled to proceed directly against the Issuer on the basis of statements of account provided by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, on and subject to the terms of a deed of covenant (the “Deed of Covenant”) dated 8 May 2014, executed by the Issuer.

The applicable Pricing Supplement in relation to any Tranche of Exempt Notes may specify other terms and conditions which shall, to the extent so specified or to the extent inconsistent with the following Terms and Conditions, replace or modify the following Terms and Conditions for the purpose of such Notes. The applicable Final Terms (or the relevant provisions thereof) will be endorsed upon, or attached to, each temporary global Note, permanent global Note and definitive Note. Reference should be made to “Applicable Final Terms” (or, in the case of a Tranche of Exempt Notes, to “Applicable Pricing Supplement”) for a description of the content of Final Terms (or Pricing Supplement, as applicable) which will specify which of such terms are to apply in relation to the relevant Notes.

This Note is one of a Series (as defined below) of Notes issued by the Issuer pursuant to the Agency Agreement (as defined below).

Interest bearing definitive Notes (unless otherwise indicated in the applicable Final Terms) have interest coupons (“Coupons”) and, in the case of Notes which, when issued in definitive form, have more than 27 interest payments remaining, talons for further Coupons (“Talons”) attached on issue. Any reference herein to Coupons or coupons shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be deemed to include a reference to Talons or talons.

The final terms for this Note (or the relevant provisions thereof) are set out in Part A of the Final Terms attached to or endorsed on this Note which supplement these Terms and Conditions (the “Conditions”) or, if this Note is a Note which is neither admitted to trading on a UK regulated market as defined in Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of UK domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (the “EUWA”), nor offered in the United Kingdom in circumstances where a prospectus is required to be published under the UK Prospectus Regulation (an “Exempt Note”), the final terms (or the relevant provisions thereof) are set out in Part A of the Pricing Supplement and may specify other terms and conditions which shall, to the extent so specified or to the extent inconsistent with the Conditions, replace or modify the Conditions for the purposes of this Note. References herein to the “applicable Final Terms” are, unless otherwise stated, to Part A of the Final Terms (or the relevant provisions thereof) attached to or endorsed on this Note. Any reference in the Conditions to “applicable Final Terms” shall be deemed to include a reference to “applicable Pricing Supplement” “Couponholders” shall mean the holders of the Coupons, and shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include the holders of the Talons.

As used herein, “Tranche” means Notes which are identical in all respects (including as to listing) and “Series” means a Tranche of Notes together with any further Tranche or Tranches of Notes which (i) are expressed to be consolidated and form a single series and (ii) have the same terms and conditions or terms and conditions which are the same in all respects save for the amount and date of the first payment of interest thereon and the date from which interest starts to accrue.

The Noteholders and the Couponholders are entitled to the benefit of the Deed of Covenant (such Deed of Covenant as modified and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time, the “Deed of Covenant”) dated 8 May 2014 and executed by the Issuer. The original of the Deed of Covenant is held by a common depositary or common safekeeper, as the case may be, on behalf of Euroclear (as defined below) and Clearstream, Luxembourg (as defined below).

The Noteholders and the Couponholders are deemed to have notice of, and are entitled to the benefit of, all the provisions of the Agency Agreement and the applicable Final Terms which are applicable to them. The statements in these Conditions include summaries of, and are subject to, the detailed provisions of the Agency Agreement.

Words and expressions defined in the Agency Agreement or used in the applicable Final Terms shall have the same meanings where used in these Terms and Conditions unless the context otherwise requires or unless otherwise stated and provided that, in the event of inconsistency between the Agency Agreement and the applicable Final Terms, the applicable Final Terms will prevail.

In these Terms and Conditions, “euro” means the currency introduced at the start of the third stage of European economic and monetary union pursuant to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, as amended.

For the purposes of these Terms and Conditions, references to the PRC exclude the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the PRC (“Hong Kong”), the Macau Special Administrative Region of the PRC (“Macau”) and Taiwan.

1. FORM, DENOMINATION AND TITLE

The Notes are in bearer form and, in the case of definitive Notes, serially numbered, in the currency (the “Specified Currency”) and the denominations (the “Specified Denomination(s)”) specified in the applicable Final Terms. Notes of one Specified Denomination may not be exchanged for Notes of another Specified Denomination.

This Note is a Fixed Rate Note, a Floating Rate Note, a Zero Coupon Note or a combination of any of the foregoing, depending upon the Interest Basis shown in the applicable Final Terms.

Definitive Notes are issued with Coupons attached, unless they are Zero Coupon Notes in which case references to Coupons and Couponholders in these Terms and Conditions are not applicable.

Subject as set out below, title to the Notes and Coupons will pass by delivery. The Issuer and any Paying Agent may deem and treat the bearer of any Note or Coupon as the absolute owner thereof (whether or not overdue and notwithstanding any notice of ownership or writing thereon or notice of any previous loss or theft thereof) for all purposes but, in the case of any global Note, without prejudice to the provisions set out in the next succeeding paragraph.

For so long as any of the Notes is represented by a global Note held on behalf of Euroclear Bank SA/NV (“Euroclear”) and/or Clearstream Banking S.A. (“Clearstream, Luxembourg”) each person (other than Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg), who is for the time being shown in the records of Euroclear or of Clearstream, Luxembourg as the holder of a particular nominal amount of such Notes (in which regard any certificate or other document issued by Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg as to the nominal amount of such Notes standing to the account of any person shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes save in the case of manifest error) shall be treated by the Issuer, the Agent and any other Paying Agent as the holder of such nominal amount of such Notes for all purposes other than with respect to the payment of principal or interest on the Notes, for which purpose the bearer of the relevant global Note shall be treated by the Issuer, the Agent and any other Paying Agent as the holder of such Notes in accordance with and subject to the terms of the relevant global Note and the expressions “Noteholder” and “holder of Notes” and related expressions shall be construed accordingly. Notes which are represented by a global Note will be transferable only in accordance with the rules and procedures for the time being of Euroclear or of Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be.

References to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg shall, whenever the context so permits, be deemed to include a reference to any additional or alternative clearing system approved by the Issuer and the Agent.

2. STATUS OF THE NOTES

The Notes and the relative Coupons are direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and (subject to the provisions of Condition 3) unsecured obligations of the Issuer and rank pari passu among themselves and (save for certain obligations required to be preferred by law) equally with all other unsecured obligations (other than subordinated obligations, if any) of the Issuer, from time to time outstanding.

3. NEGATIVE PLEDGE

The Issuer will not at any time while any of the Notes is outstanding give security or procure a guarantee of any kind for any Relevant Indebtedness of the Issuer unless the benefit of such security or guarantee (or of such other security or guarantee as shall be approved by an Extraordinary Resolution of Noteholders) is at the same time extended rateably (or, as the case may be, accorded) to the Notes.

“Relevant Indebtedness” means any loan or other indebtedness which is in the form of or represented or evidenced by, notes, bonds, debentures or other securities which are or are to be quoted or listed on any stock exchange or which are of a nature ordinarily dealt in on any over-the-counter market; and

- (a) which, for so long as the Swedish Kronor remains a currency in its own right, by its terms is payable, or may be required to be paid, in or by reference to any currency other than Swedish Kronor; or
- (b) which, for so long as the Swedish Kronor remains a currency in its own right, by its terms is payable, or may be required to be paid, in or by reference to Swedish Kronor and where more than 50 per cent. in aggregate principal amount of such indebtedness is initially offered outside the Kingdom of Sweden.

5. INTEREST

(a) Interest on Fixed Rate Notes

Each Fixed Rate Note bears interest from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date at the rate(s) per annum equal to the Rate(s) of Interest. Interest will be payable in arrear on the Interest Payment Date(s) in each year and on the Maturity Date if that does not fall on an Interest Payment Date.

In the case of RMB Notes, if:

- (i) Interest Payment Date Adjustment is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms; and
- (ii) (x) there is no numerically corresponding day in the calendar month in which an Interest Payment Date should occur or (y) if any Interest Payment Date would otherwise fall on a day which is not a Business Day, then such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

For these purposes, “Business Day” has the meaning given to it in Condition 5(b)(i).

If the Notes are in definitive form, except as provided in the applicable Final Terms, the amount of interest payable on each Interest Payment Date in respect of the Fixed Interest Period ending on (but excluding) such date will amount to the Fixed Coupon Amount. Payments of interest on any Interest Payment Date will, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, amount to the Broken Amount so specified.

Except in the case of Notes in definitive form where an applicable Fixed Coupon Amount or Broken Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms, interest shall be calculated in respect of any period by applying the Rate of Interest to:

- (A) in the case of Fixed Rate Notes which are represented by a global Note, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Fixed Rate Notes represented by such global Note; or
- (B) in the case of Fixed Rate Notes in definitive form, the Calculation Amount; and in each case, multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction. The resultant figure (including after application of any Fixed Coupon Amount or Broken Amount to the Calculation Amount in the case of Fixed Rate Notes in definitive form) shall be rounded to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention. Where the Specified Denomination of a Fixed Rate Note in definitive form is a multiple of the Calculation Amount, the amount of interest payable in respect of such Fixed Rate Note shall be the product of the amount (determined in the manner provided above) for the Calculation Amount and the amount by which the Calculation Amount is multiplied to reach the Specified Denomination, without any further rounding.

In this Condition 5(a), “Day Count Fraction” means:

- (i) if “Actual/Actual (ICMA)” is specified in the applicable Final Terms:
 - (A) in the case of Notes where the number of days in the relevant period from and including the most recent Interest Payment Date (or, if none, the Interest Commencement Date) to but excluding the relevant payment date (the “Accrual Period”) is equal to or shorter than the Determination Period during which the Accrual Period ends, the number of days in such Accrual Period divided by the product of (1) the number of days in such Determination Period and (2) the number of Determination Dates that would occur in one calendar year; or
 - (B) in the case of Notes where the Accrual Period is longer than the Determination Period during which the Accrual Period ends, the sum of (1) the number of days in such Accrual Period falling in the Determination Period in which the Accrual Period begins divided by the product of (x) the number of days in such Determination Period and (y) the number of Determination Dates that would occur in one calendar year; and (2) the number of days in such Accrual Period falling in the next Determination Period divided by the product of (x) the number of days in such Determination Period and (y) the number of Determination Dates that would occur in one calendar year; and
- (ii) if “30/360” is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the period from and including the most recent Interest Payment Date (or, if none, the Interest Commencement Date) to but excluding the relevant payment date (such number of days being calculated on the basis of 12 30-day months) divided by 360.

In these Conditions:

“Determination Period” means each period from (and including) a Determination Date to but excluding the next Determination Date (including, where either the Interest Commencement Date or the final Interest Payment Date is not a Determination Date, the period commencing on the first Determination Date prior to, and ending on the first Determination Date falling after, such date); and

“Fixed Interest Period” means the period from and including an Interest Payment Date (or the Interest Commencement Date) to but excluding the next (or first) Interest Payment Date; and

“sub-unit” means, with respect to any currency other than euro, the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency and, with respect to euro, means one cent.

(b) Interest on Floating Rate Notes

(i) Interest Payment Dates

Each Floating Rate Note bears interest from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date and such interest will be payable in arrear on either:

- (A) the Specified Interest Payment Date(s) in each year specified in the applicable Final Terms; or
- (B) if no Specified Interest Payment Date(s) is/are specified in the applicable Final Terms, each date (each such date, together with each Specified Interest Payment Date, an “Interest Payment Date”) which falls the number of months or other period specified as the Specified Period in the applicable Final Terms after the preceding Interest Payment Date or, in the case of the first Interest Payment Date, after the Interest Commencement Date.

Such interest will be payable in respect of each Interest Period. In these Conditions, “Interest Period” means the period from (and including) an Interest Payment Date (or the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the next (or first) Interest Payment Date or the relevant payment date if the Notes become payable on a date other than an Interest Payment Date.

If a Business Day Convention is specified in the applicable Final Terms and (x) if there is no numerically corresponding day in the calendar month in which an Interest Payment Date should occur or (y) if any Interest Payment Date would otherwise fall on a day which is not a Business Day, then, if the Business Day Convention specified is:

- (1) in any case where Specified Periods are specified in accordance with Condition 5(b)(i)(B) above, the Floating Rate Convention, such Interest Payment Date (i) in the case of (x) above, shall be the last day that is a Business Day in the relevant month and the provisions of (B) below shall apply mutatis mutandis or (ii) in the case of (y) above, shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event (A) such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day and (B) each subsequent Interest Payment Date shall be the last Business Day in the month which falls the Specified Period after the preceding applicable Interest Payment Date occurred; or
- (2) the Following Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day; or
- (3) the Modified Following Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day; or
- (4) the Preceding Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

In these Conditions, “Business Day” means a day which is both:

- (A) a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in London and each Additional

Business Centre (other than the TARGET2 System (as defined below)) specified in the applicable Final Terms;

- (B) if TARGET2 System is specified as an Additional Business Centre in the applicable Final Terms, the day on which the Trans-European Automated Real-Time Gross Settlement Express Transfer (TARGET2) System (the TARGET2 System) is open; and
- (C) either (1) in relation to any sum payable in a Specified Currency other than euro or Renminbi, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre of the country of the relevant Specified Currency which if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars shall be Sydney or Auckland, respectively) or (2) in relation to any sum payable in euro, a day on which the TARGET2 System is open or (3) in relation to any sum payable in Renminbi, a day (other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday) on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets in Hong Kong are generally open for business and settlement for Renminbi payments in Hong Kong.

(ii) Rate of Interest

The Rate of Interest payable from time to time in respect of Floating Rate Notes will be determined in the manner specified in the applicable Final Terms.

(A) ISDA Determination for Floating Rate Notes

Where ISDA Determination is specified in the applicable Final Terms as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will be the relevant ISDA Rate plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms) the Margin (if any). For the purposes of this subparagraph (A), “ISDA Rate” for an Interest Period means a rate equal to the Floating Rate that would be determined by the Agent under an interest rate swap transaction if the Agent were acting as Calculation Agent for that swap transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the 2006 ISDA Definitions as published by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. and as amended and updated as at the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes, (the “ISDA Definitions”) and under which:

- (1) the Floating Rate Option is as specified in the applicable Final Terms;
- (2) the Designated Maturity is a period specified in the applicable Final Terms; and
- (3) the relevant Reset Date is the day specified in the applicable Final Terms.

For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (A), “Floating Rate”, “Calculation Agent”, “Floating Rate Option”, “Designated Maturity” and “Reset Date” have the meanings given to those terms in the ISDA Definitions.

Unless otherwise stated in the applicable Final Terms the Minimum Rate of Interest shall be deemed to be zero.

(B) Screen Rate Determination for Floating Rate Notes

Where Screen Rate Determination is specified in the applicable Final Terms as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will, subject as provided below, be either:

- (1) the offered quotation; or
- (2) the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the offered quotations, (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate (being EURIBOR or, in the case of Exempt Notes only, as otherwise specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement) which appears or appear, as the case may be, on the Relevant Screen Page (or each replacement page on that service which displays the information) as at 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time, in the case of EURIBOR) on the Interest Determination Date in question plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Agent. If five or more of such offered quotations are available on the Relevant Screen Page, the highest (or, if there is more than one such highest quotation, one only of such quotations) and the lowest (or, if there is more than one such lowest quotation, one only of such quotations) shall be disregarded by the Agent for the purpose of determining the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) of such offered quotations.

If the Relevant Screen Page is not available or if, in the case of Condition 5(b)(ii)(B)(1) above, no such offered quotation appears or, in the case of Condition 5(b)(ii)(B)(2) above, fewer than three such offered quotations appear, in each case as at the time specified in the preceding paragraph the Agent shall request the principal London office of each of the Reference Banks to provide the Agent with its offered quotation (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time, in the case of EURIBOR) on the Interest Determination Date in question. If two or more of the Reference Banks provide the Agent with such offered quotations, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of such offered quotations plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Agent.

If on any Interest Determination Date one only or none of the Reference Banks provides the Agent with such offered quotations as provided in the preceding paragraph, the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period shall be the rate per annum which the Agent determines as being the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the rates, as communicated to (and at the request of) the Agent by the Reference Banks or any two or more of them, at which such banks were offered, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time, or in the case of Exempt Notes only where the Reference Rate is not EURIBOR, the relevant principal financial centre time) on the relevant Interest Determination Date, deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate by leading banks in the Euro-zone inter-bank market (or, in the case of Exempt Notes only where the Reference Rate is not EURIBOR, in the relevant inter-bank market) plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any) or, if fewer than two of the Reference Banks provide the Agent with such offered rates, the offered rate for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, or the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) of the offered rates for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, at which, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time, in the case of EURIBOR) on the relevant Interest Determination Date, any one or more banks (which bank or banks is or are in the opinion of the Issuer suitable for such purpose) informs the Agent it is quoting to leading banks in the Euro-zone inter-bank market (if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR) plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any), provided that, if the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the Rate of Interest shall be determined as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Period, the Margin relating to the relevant Interest Period, in place of the Margin relating to that last preceding Interest Period).

Unless otherwise stated in the applicable Final Terms, the Minimum Rate of Interest shall be deemed to be zero.

(iii) Minimum and/or Maximum Rate of Interest

If the applicable Final Terms specifies a Minimum Rate of Interest for any Interest Period, then, in the event that the Rate of Interest in respect of such Interest Period determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (ii) above is less than such Minimum Rate of Interest, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be such Minimum Rate of Interest.

If the applicable Final Terms specifies a Maximum Rate of Interest for any Interest Period, then, in the event that the Rate of Interest in respect of such Interest Period determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (ii) above is greater than such Maximum Rate of Interest, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be such Maximum Rate of Interest.

(iv) Determination of Rate of Interest and Calculation of Interest Amounts

The Agent will at or as soon as practicable after each time at which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, determine the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period.

The Agent will calculate the amount of interest (the “Interest Amount”) payable on the Floating Rate Notes for the relevant Interest Period by applying the Rate of Interest to:

- (A) in the case of Floating Rate Notes which are represented by a global Note, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Notes represented by such global Note; or
- (B) in the case of Floating Rate Notes in definitive form, the Calculation Amount; and in each case, multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention. Where the Specified Denomination of a Floating Rate

Note in definitive form is a multiple of the Calculation Amount, the Interest Amount payable in respect of such Note shall be the product of the amount (determined in the manner provided above) for the Calculation Amount and the amount by which the Calculation Amount is multiplied to reach the Specified Denomination, without any further rounding.

“Day Count Fraction” means, in respect of the calculation of an amount of interest in accordance with this Condition 5(b):

- (i) if “Actual/Actual (ISDA)” or “Actual/Actual” is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365 (or, if any portion of that Interest Period falls in a leap year, the sum of (A) the actual number of days in that portion of the Interest Period falling in a leap year divided by 366 and (B) the actual number of days in that portion of the Interest Period falling in a non-leap year divided by 365);
- (ii) if “Actual/365 (Fixed)” is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365;
- (iii) if “Actual/360” is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360;
- (iv) if “Actual/365 (Sterling)” is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365 or, in the case of an Interest Payment Date falling in a leap year, 366;
- (v) if “30/360”, “360/360” or “Bond Basis” is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

“Y₁” is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

“Y₂” is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

“M₁” is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

“M₂” is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

“D₁” is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless such number is 31, in which case D₁ will be 30; and

“D₂” is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31 and D₁ is greater than 29, in which case D₂ will be 30;

- (vi) if “30E/360” or “Eurobond Basis” is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

“Y₂” is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

“M₁” is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

“M₂” is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

“D₁” is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D₁ will be 30; and

“D₂” is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D₂ will be 30; and

- (vii) if “30E/360 (ISDA)” is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

“Y₂” is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

“M₁” is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

“M₂” is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

“D₁” is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless (i) that day is the last day of February or (ii) such number would be 31, in which case D₁ will be 30; and

“D₂” is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless (i) that day is the last day of February but not the Maturity Date or (ii) such number would be 31, in which case D_2 will be 30.

(v) Linear Interpolation

Where Linear Interpolation is specified as applicable in respect of an Interest Period in the applicable Final Terms, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be calculated by the Agent by straight line linear interpolation by reference to two rates based on the relevant Reference Rate (where Screen Rate Determination is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms) or the relevant Floating Rate Option (where ISDA Determination is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms), one of which shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next shorter than the length of the relevant Interest Period and the other of which shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Period provided however that if there is no rate available for a period of time next shorter or, as the case may be, next longer, then the Agent in consultation with the Issuer shall determine such rate at such time and by reference to such sources as both determine appropriate. “Designated Maturity” means, in relation to Screen Rate Determination, the period of time designated in the Reference Rate.

(vi) Notification of Rate of Interest and Interest Amounts

The Agent will cause the Rate of Interest and each Interest Amount for each Interest Period and the relevant Interest Payment Date to be notified to the Issuer and any stock exchange on which the Floating Rate Notes are for the time being listed and notice thereof to be published in accordance with Condition 14 as soon as possible after their determination but in no event later than the fourth London Business Day thereafter. Each Interest Amount and Interest Payment Date so notified may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made by way of adjustment) without prior notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period. Any such amendment will be promptly notified to each stock exchange on which the Floating Rate Notes are for the time being listed and to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14. For the purposes of this paragraph, the expression “London Business Day” means a day (other than a Saturday or a Sunday) on which banks and foreign exchange markets are open for general business in London.

(vii) Certificates to be Final

All certificates, communications, opinions, determinations, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of the provisions of this Condition 5(b), by the Agent shall (in the absence of wilful default, bad faith or manifest error) be binding on the Issuer, the Agent, the other Paying Agents and all Noteholders and Couponholders and (in the absence of wilful default or bad faith) no liability to the Issuer, the Noteholders or the Couponholders shall attach to the Agent in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of its powers, duties and discretions pursuant to such provisions.

(c) Benchmark Discontinuation

(i) Independent Adviser

If a Benchmark Event occurs in relation to an Original Reference Rate at any time when these Conditions provide for any remaining Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) to be determined by reference to such Original Reference Rate, then the Issuer shall use its reasonable endeavours to appoint an Independent Adviser, as soon as reasonably practicable, to determine a Successor Rate, failing which an Alternative Rate (in accordance with Condition 5(c)(ii)) and, in either case, an Adjustment Spread, if any (in accordance with Condition 5(c)(iii)) and any Benchmark Amendments (in accordance with Condition 5(c)(iv)).

An Independent Adviser appointed pursuant to this Condition 5(c) shall act in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and (in the absence of bad faith or fraud) shall have no liability whatsoever to the Issuer, the Paying Agents, any other party specified in the applicable Final Terms as being responsible for calculating the Rate of Interest, the Noteholders or the Couponholders for any determination made by it pursuant to this Condition 5(c).

(ii) Successor Rate or Alternative Rate

If the Independent Adviser acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and following consultation with the Issuer determines that:

- (a) there is a Successor Rate, then such Successor Rate (as adjusted by the applicable Adjustment Spread as provided in Condition 5(c)(iii)) shall subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the relevant Rate(s) of Interest (or the relevant component part(s) thereof) for all relevant future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the further operation of this Condition 5(c)); or
- (b) there is no Successor Rate but that there is an Alternative Rate, then such Alternative Rate (as adjusted by the applicable Adjustment Spread as provided in Condition 5(c)(iii)) shall subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the relevant Rate(s) of Interest (or the relevant component part(s) thereof) for all relevant future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the further operation of this Condition 5(c)).

(iii) Adjustment Spread

If a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate is determined in accordance with Condition 5(c)(ii), the Independent Adviser, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, shall determine an Adjustment Spread (which may be expressed as a specified quantum, or a formula or methodology for determining the applicable Adjustment Spread (and for the avoidance of doubt an Adjustment Spread may be positive, negative or zero)), which Adjustment Spread shall be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) for each subsequent determination of a relevant Rate of Interest (or a relevant component part thereof) by reference to such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable).

(iv) Benchmark Amendments

If any Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread is determined in accordance with this Condition 5(c) and the Independent Adviser acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and following consultation with the Issuer determines (A) that amendments to these Conditions (including, without limitation, amendments to the definitions of Day Count Fraction, Business Day or Relevant Screen Page) are necessary to follow market practice or to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and/or (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread (such amendments, the “Benchmark Amendments”) and (B) the terms of the Benchmark Amendments, then the Issuer shall, subject to giving notice thereof in accordance with Condition 5(c)(v), without any requirement for the consent or approval of Noteholders or Couponholders, vary these Conditions to give effect to such Benchmark Amendments with effect from the date specified in such notice.

(v) Notices, etc.

The Issuer will notify the Agent, any other party specified in the applicable Final Terms as being responsible for calculating the Rate of Interest, the Paying Agents and, in accordance with Condition 14, the Noteholders promptly of any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread and the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments determined under this Condition 5(c). Such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the effective date of the Benchmark Amendments, if any.

The Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the applicable Adjustment Spread and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) will (in the absence of manifest error or bad faith in the determination of the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the applicable Adjustment Spread and the Benchmark Amendments (if any)) be binding on the Issuer, the Agent, any other party specified in the applicable Final Terms as being responsible for calculating the Rate of Interest, the Paying Agents and the Noteholders and Couponholders.

(vi) Survival of Original Reference Rate

Without prejudice to the obligations of the Issuer under the provisions of this Condition 5(c), the Original Reference Rate and the fallback provisions provided for in Condition 5(b)(ii)(B) will continue to apply unless and until a Benchmark Event has occurred.

(vii) Fallbacks

If, following the occurrence of a Benchmark Event and in relation to the determination of the Rate of Interest on the relevant Interest Determination Date, no Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable) or (in either case) applicable Adjustment Spread is determined and notified to the Agent or any other party specified in the applicable Final Terms as being responsible for calculating the Rate of Interest (as applicable), in each case pursuant to this Condition 5(c), prior to such Interest Determination Date, the Original Reference Rate will continue to apply for the purposes of determining such Rate of Interest on such Interest Determination Date, with the effect that the fallback provisions provided for in Condition 5(b)(ii)(B) will (if applicable) continue to apply to such determination.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Condition 5(c)(vii) shall apply to the determination of the Rate of Interest on the relevant Interest Determination Date only, and the Rate of Interest applicable to any subsequent Interest Period(s) is subject to the subsequent operation of, and to adjustment as provided in, this Condition 5(c).

(viii) Definitions

As used in this Condition 5(c):

“Adjustment Spread” means either (A) a spread (which may be positive, negative or zero), or (B) a formula or methodology for calculating a spread, in either case, which is to be applied to the relevant Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable) and is the spread, formula or methodology which:

- (a) in the case of a Successor Rate, is formally recommended in relation to the replacement of the Original Reference Rate with the Successor Rate by any Relevant Nominating Body; or
- (b) in the case of an Alternative Rate or (where (a) above does not apply) in the case of a Successor Rate, the Independent Adviser determines is recognised or acknowledged as being in customary market usage in international debt capital markets transactions which reference the Original Reference Rate, where such rate has been replaced by the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be); or
- (c) (if the Independent Adviser determines that neither (a) nor (b) above applies) the Independent Adviser determines to be appropriate, having regard to the objective, so far as is reasonably practicable in the circumstances, of reducing or eliminating any economic prejudice or benefit (as the case may be) to Noteholders and Couponholders as a result of the replacement of the Original Reference Rate with the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be);

“Alternative Rate” means an alternative to the Original Reference Rate which the Independent Adviser determines in accordance with Condition 5(c)(ii) has replaced the Original Reference Rate in customary market usage in the international debt capital markets for the purposes of determining floating rates of interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for debt securities with a commensurate interest period and in the same Specified Currency as the Notes, or if the Independent Adviser determines that there is no such rate, such other rate as the Independent Adviser determines in its sole discretion is most comparable to the Original Reference Rate;

“Benchmark Amendments” has the meaning given to it in Condition 5(c)(iv);

“Benchmark Event” means, with respect to an Original Reference Rate:

- (a) the Original Reference Rate ceasing to be published for at least five Business Days or ceasing to exist or be administered; or
- (b) the later of (A) the making of a public statement by the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that it will, on or before a specified date, cease publishing the Original Reference Rate permanently or indefinitely (in circumstances where no successor administrator has been appointed that will continue publication of the Original Reference Rate) and (B) the date falling six months prior to the specified date referred to in (b)(A); or
- (c) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that the Original Reference Rate has been permanently or indefinitely discontinued; or
- (d) the later of (A) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that the Original Reference Rate will, on or before a specified date, be permanently or indefinitely discontinued and (B) the date falling six months prior to the specified date referred to in (d)(A); or

- (e) the later of (A) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that means the Original Reference Rate will be prohibited from being used or that its use will be subject to restrictions or adverse consequences, in each case on or before a specified date and (B) the date falling six months prior to the specified date referred to in (e)(A); or
- (f) it has or will prior to the next Interest Determination Date become unlawful for the Issuer, the Agent, any other party specified in the applicable Final Terms as being responsible for calculating the Rate of Interest or any Paying Agent to calculate any payments due to be made to any Noteholder or Couponholder using the Original Reference Rate; or
- (g) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of such Original Reference Rate announcing that such Original Reference Rate is no longer representative of its underlying market or may no longer be used;

“Independent Adviser” means an independent financial institution of international repute or an independent financial adviser with appropriate expertise in the international debt capital markets appointed by the Issuer, at its own expense, under Condition 5(c);

“Original Reference Rate” means the originally specified Reference Rate used to determine the relevant Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) in respect of any Interest Period(s) (provided that if, following one or more Benchmark Events, such originally specified Reference Rate (or any Successor Rate or Alternative Rate which has replaced it) has been replaced by a (or a further) Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and a Benchmark Event subsequently occurs in respect of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate, the term “Original Reference Rate” shall include any such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate);

“Relevant Nominating Body” means, in respect of an Original Reference Rate:

- (a) the central bank for the currency to which the Original Reference Rate relates, or any central bank or other supervisory authority which is responsible for supervising the administrator of the Original Reference Rate; or
- (b) any working group or committee sponsored by, chaired or co-chaired by or constituted at the request of (A) the central bank for the currency to which the Original Reference Rate relates, (B) any central bank or other supervisory authority which is responsible for supervising the administrator of the Original Reference Rate, (C) a group of the aforementioned central banks or other supervisory authorities or (D) the Financial Stability Board or any part thereof; and “Successor Rate” means a successor to or replacement of the Original Reference Rate which is formally recommended by any Relevant Nominating Body.

(d) Accrual of Interest

Each Note (or in the case of the redemption of part only of a Note, that part only of such Note) will cease to bear interest (if any) from the date for its redemption unless payment of principal is improperly withheld or refused. In such event, interest will continue to accrue until whichever is the earlier of: (1) the date on which all amounts due in respect of such Note have been paid; and (2) five days after the date on which the full amount of the moneys payable has been received by the Agent and notice to that effect has been given in accordance with Condition 14 or individually.

6. PAYMENTS

(a) Method of Payment

Subject as provided below:

- (i) payments in a Specified Currency other than euro or Renminbi will be made by credit or transfer to an account in the relevant Specified Currency maintained by the payee with a bank in the principal financial centre of the country of such Specified Currency (which, if the Specified Currency is Australian or New Zealand dollars, shall be Sydney or Auckland, respectively);
- (ii) payments in euro will be made in euro by credit or transfer to a euro account (or any other account to which euro, may be credited or transferred) specified by the payee; and
- (iii) payments in Renminbi will be made by transfer to a Renminbi account maintained by or on behalf of the payee with a bank in Hong Kong.

Payments will be subject in all cases to (i) any fiscal or other laws and regulations applicable thereto in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 8 and (ii) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the “Code”) or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, any official interpretations thereof, or (without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 8) any law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto.

(b) Presentation of definitive Notes and Coupons

Payments of principal in respect of definitive Notes will (subject as provided below) be made in the manner provided in paragraph (a) above only against presentation and surrender (or, in the case of part payment of any sum due, endorsement) of definitive Notes, and payments of interest in respect of definitive Notes will (subject as provided below) be made as aforesaid only against presentation and surrender (or, in the case of part payment of any sum due, endorsement) of Coupons, in each case at the specified office of any Paying Agent outside the United States (which expression, as used herein, means the United States of America (including the States and the District of Columbia and its possessions)).

Fixed Rate Notes in definitive form (other than Long Maturity Notes (as defined below) should be presented for payment together with all unmatured Coupons appertaining thereto (which expression shall for this purpose include Coupons falling to be issued on exchange of matured Talons), failing which the amount of any missing unmatured Coupon (or, in the case of payment not being made in full, the same proportion of the amount of such missing unmatured Coupon as the sum so paid bears to the sum due) will be deducted from the sum due for payment. Each amount of principal so deducted will be paid in the manner mentioned above against surrender of the relative missing Coupon at any time before the expiry of 10 years after the Relevant Date (as defined in Condition 8) in respect of such principal (whether or not such Coupon would otherwise have become void under Condition 9) or, if later, five years from the date on which such Coupon would otherwise have become due, but in no event thereafter.

Upon any Fixed Rate Note in definitive form becoming due and repayable prior to its Maturity Date, all unmatured Talons (if any) appertaining thereto will become void and no further Coupons will be issued in respect thereof.

Upon the date on which any Long Maturity Note or Floating Rate Note in definitive form becomes due and repayable, unmatured Coupons and Talons (if any) relating thereto (whether or not attached) shall become void and no payment or, as the case may be, exchange for further Coupons shall be made in respect thereof. A “Long Maturity Note” is a Fixed Rate Note (other than a Fixed Rate Note which on issue had a Talon attached) whose nominal amount on issue is less than the aggregate interest payable thereon provided that such Note shall cease to be a Long Maturity Note on the Interest Payment Date on which the aggregate amount of interest remaining to be paid after that date is less than the nominal amount of such Note.

If the due date for redemption of any definitive Note is not an Interest Payment Date, interest (if any) accrued in respect of such Note from (and including) the preceding Interest Payment Date or, as the case may be, the Interest Commencement Date shall be payable only against surrender of the relevant definitive Note.

Payments of principal and interest (if any) in respect of Notes represented by any global Note will (subject as provided below) be made in the manner specified above in relation to definitive Notes and otherwise in the manner specified in the relevant global Note, where applicable against presentation or surrender, as the case may be, of such global Note at the specified office of any Paying Agent. A record of each payment made against presentation or surrender of such global Note, distinguishing between any payment of principal and any payment of interest, will be made on such global Note either by the Paying Agent to which it was presented or in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable.

The holder of a global Note shall be the only person entitled to receive payments in respect of Notes represented by such global Note and the Issuer will be discharged by payment to, or to the order of, the holder of such global Note in respect of each amount so paid. Each of the persons shown in the records of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg as the beneficial holder of a particular nominal amount of Notes represented by such global Note must look solely to Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, for his share of each payment so made by the Issuer to, or to the order of, the holder of such global Note.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any amount of principal and or interest in respect of this Note is payable in U.S. dollars, such U.S. dollar payments of principal and or interest in respect of this Note will be made at the specified office of a Paying Agent in the United States if:

- (i) the Issuer has appointed Paying Agents with specified offices outside the United States with the reasonable expectation that such Paying Agents would be able to make payment in U.S. dollars at such specified offices outside the United States of the full amount of principal and interest on the Notes in the manner provided above when due;
- (ii) payment of the full amount of such principal and interest at all such specified offices outside the United States is illegal or effectively precluded by exchange controls or other similar restrictions on the full payment or receipt of principal and interest in U.S. dollars; and
- (iii) such payment is then permitted under United States law without involving, in the opinion of the Issuer adverse tax consequences to the Issuer.

(c) Payment Day

If the date for payment of any amount in respect of any Note or Coupon is not a Payment Day, the holder thereof shall not be entitled to payment until the next following Payment Day in the relevant place and shall not be entitled to further interest or other payment in respect of such delay. For these purposes, “Payment Day” means any day which is:

- (i) a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in:
 - (A) in the case of Notes in definitive form only, the relevant place of presentation;
 - (B) each Additional Financial Centre specified in the applicable Final Terms; and
- (ii) either (1) in relation to any sum payable in a Specified Currency other than euro or Renminbi, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments in the principal financial centre of the country of the relevant Specified Currency (which if the Specified Currency is Australian or New Zealand dollars shall be Sydney or Auckland, respectively) or (2) in relation to any sum payable in euro, a day on which the TARGET2 System is open or (3) in relation to any sum payable in Renminbi, a day (other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday) on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets in Hong Kong are generally open for business and settlement for Renminbi payments in Hong Kong.

(d) Interpretation of Principal and Interest

Any reference in these Conditions to principal in respect of the Notes shall be deemed to include, as applicable:

- (i) any additional amounts which may be payable with respect to principal under Condition 8;
- (ii) the Final Redemption Amount of the Notes;
- (iii) the Early Redemption Amount of the Notes;
- (iv) the Optional Redemption Amount(s) (if any) of the Notes; and
- (v) any premium and any other amounts (other than interest) which may be payable by the Issuer under or in respect of the Notes.

Any reference in these Conditions to interest in respect of the Notes shall be deemed to include, as applicable, any additional amounts which may be payable with respect to interest under Condition 8.

(e) Renminbi Account

All payments in respect of any Note or Coupon in Renminbi will be made solely by credit to a registered Renminbi account maintained by or on behalf of the payee at a bank in Hong Kong in accordance with applicable laws, rules, regulations and guidelines issued from time to time (including all applicable laws and regulations with respect to the settlement of Renminbi in Hong Kong).

(f) Renminbi Currency Event

If Renminbi Currency Event is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms and a Renminbi Currency Event (as defined below) occurs, the Issuer, on giving not less than five nor more than thirty days' irrevocable notice in accordance with Condition 14 to the holders of the Notes prior to any due date for payment, shall be entitled to satisfy its obligations in respect of such payment (in whole or in part) by making such payment in U.S. dollars on the basis of the Spot Rate for the relevant Determination Date as promptly notified to the Issuer and the Paying Agents by the Calculation Agent.

In such event, any payment of U.S. dollars will be made by transfer to a U.S. dollar denominated account maintained by the payee with a bank in New York City; and the definition of "Payment Day" in Condition 6(c) shall mean any day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in: (A) in the case of Notes in definitive form only, the relevant place of presentation; and (B) London and New York City.

For the purpose of this Condition:

"Determination Business Day" means a day (other than a Saturday or Sunday) on which commercial banks are open for general business (including dealings in foreign exchange) in Hong Kong, London and New York City;

"Determination Date" means the day which is three Determination Business Days before the due date of the relevant payment under the Notes;

"Governmental Authority" means any de facto or de jure government (or any agency or instrumentality thereof), court, tribunal, administrative or other governmental authority or any other entity (private or public) charged with the regulation of the financial markets (including the central bank) of Hong Kong;

"Renminbi Currency Events" means any one of Renminbi Illiquidity, Renminbi Non-Transferability and Renminbi Inconvertibility;

"Renminbi Dealer" means an independent foreign exchange dealer of international repute active in the Renminbi exchange market in Hong Kong reasonably selected by the Issuer;

"Renminbi Illiquidity" means the general Renminbi exchange market in Hong Kong becomes illiquid as a result of which the Issuer cannot obtain sufficient Renminbi in order to satisfy its obligation to pay interest or principal (in whole or in part) in respect of the Notes, as determined by the Issuer acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner following consultation with two Renminbi Dealers;

"Renminbi Inconvertibility" means the occurrence of any event that makes it impossible for the Issuer to convert any amount due in respect of the Notes into Renminbi in the general Renminbi exchange market in Hong Kong, other than where such impossibility is due solely to the failure of the Issuer to comply with any law, rule or regulation enacted by any Governmental Authority (unless such law, rule or regulation is enacted after the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes and it is impossible for the Issuer, due to an event beyond its control, to comply with such law, rule or regulation);

"Renminbi Non-Transferability" means the occurrence of any event that makes it impossible for the Issuer to transfer Renminbi between accounts inside Hong Kong or from an account inside Hong Kong to an account outside Hong Kong (including where the Renminbi clearing and settlement system for participating banks in Hong Kong is disrupted or suspended), other than where such impossibility is due solely to the failure of the Issuer to comply with any law, rule or regulation enacted by any Governmental Authority (unless such law, rule or regulation is enacted after the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes and it is impossible for the Issuer, due to an event beyond its control, to comply with such law, rule or regulation); and “Spot Rate” means the spot CNY/U.S. dollar exchange rate for the purchase of U.S. dollars with Renminbi in the over-the-counter Renminbi exchange market in Hong Kong for settlement in three Determination Business Days, as determined by the Calculation Agent at or around 11.00 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on the Determination Date, on a deliverable basis by reference to Reuters Screen Page TRADCNY3, or if no such rate is available, on a non-deliverable basis by reference to Reuters Screen Page TRADNDF. If neither rate is available, the Calculation Agent shall (in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner) determine the Spot Rate at or around 11:00 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on the Determination Date as the most recently available CNY/U.S. dollar official fixing rate for settlement in three Determination Business Days reported by the State Administration of Foreign Exchange of the PRC, which is reported on the Reuters Screen Page CNY=SAEC. Reference to a page on the Reuters Screen means the display page so designated on the Reuters Monitor Money Rates Service (or any successor service) or such other page as may replace that page for the purpose of displaying a comparable currency exchange rate.

If for any reason at any relevant time the Calculation Agent defaults in its obligation to determine the Spot Rate, the Issuer shall appoint an expert to determine the Spot Rate in such manner as, in its absolute discretion (having such regard as it shall think fit to the foregoing provisions of this Condition), it shall deem fair and reasonable in all the circumstances and such determination shall be deemed to have been made by the Calculation Agent.

All certificates, communications, determinations, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of the provisions of this Condition 6(f) by the Calculation Agent shall (in the absence of wilful default, bad faith or manifest error) be binding on the Issuer, the Agent, the other Paying Agents and all Noteholders and Couponholders and (in the absence of wilful default or bad faith) no liability to the Issuer, the Noteholders or the Couponholders shall attach to the Calculation Agent in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of its powers and duties pursuant to such provisions.

7. REDEMPTION AND PURCHASE

(a) At Maturity

Unless previously redeemed or purchased and cancelled as specified below, each Note will be redeemed by the Issuer at its Final Redemption Amount specified in the applicable Final Terms in the relevant Specified Currency on the Maturity Date specified in the applicable Final Terms.

(b) Redemption for Tax Reasons

Subject to Condition 7(f), the Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time (if this Note is not a Floating Rate Note) or on any Interest Payment Date (if this Note is a Floating Rate Note), on giving not less than the minimum period and not more than the maximum period of notice specified in the applicable Final Terms to the Agent and, in accordance with Condition 14, the Noteholders (which notice shall be irrevocable), if:

- (i) on the occasion of the next payment due under the Notes, the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts as provided or referred to in Condition 8 as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of the Kingdom of Sweden or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax, or any change in the application or official interpretation of such laws or regulations, which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes; and

- (ii) such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it, provided that no such notice of redemption shall be given earlier than 90 days prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer would be obliged to pay such additional amounts were a payment in respect of the Notes then due.

Prior to the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this Condition, the Issuer shall deliver to the Agent to make available at its specified office to the Noteholders (i) a certificate signed by two authorised signatories of the Issuer stating that the Issuer is entitled to effect such redemption and setting forth a statement of facts showing that the conditions precedent to the right of the Issuer so to redeem have occurred, and (ii) an opinion of independent legal advisers of recognised standing to the effect that the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay such additional amounts as a result of such change or amendment.

Each Note redeemed pursuant to this Condition 7(b) will be redeemed at its Early Redemption Amount referred to in paragraph (e) below together (if appropriate) with interest accrued to (but excluding) the date of redemption.

(c) Redemption at the Option of the Issuer

(i) Issuer Call

If Issuer Call is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer shall, having given:

not less than the minimum period nor more than the maximum period of notice specified in the applicable Final Terms to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (which notice shall be irrevocable), redeem all or some only of the Notes then outstanding on any Optional Redemption Date, as specified in the applicable Final Terms, and at the Optional Redemption Amount(s) together, if appropriate, with interest accrued to (but excluding) the relevant Optional Redemption Date. If redemption in part is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, any such redemption must be of a nominal amount not less than the Minimum Redemption Amount or not more than the Maximum Redemption Amount, in each case as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms. In the case of a partial redemption of Notes, the Notes to be redeemed (“Redeemed Notes”) will be selected individually by lot, in the case of Redeemed Notes represented by definitive Notes, and in accordance with the rules of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, (to be reflected in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg as either a pool factor or a reduction in nominal amount, at their discretion) in the case of Redeemed Notes represented by a global Note, not more than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption (such date of selection being hereinafter called the “Selection Date”). In the case of Redeemed Notes represented by definitive Notes, a list of the serial numbers of such Redeemed Notes will be published in accordance with Condition 14 not less than 15 days prior to the date fixed for redemption. No exchange of the relevant global Note will be permitted during the period from and including the Selection Date to and including the date fixed for redemption pursuant to this paragraph and notice to that effect shall be given by the Issuer to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 at least 5 days prior to the Selection Date.

(ii) Make-whole Redemption

If Make-whole Redemption is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer may, having given not less than the minimum period nor more than the maximum period of notice specified in the applicable Final Terms to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (which notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the date fixed for redemption (the “Make-whole Redemption Date”)), redeem all or some only of the Notes then outstanding on any Make-whole Redemption Date specified in the applicable Final Terms and at the Make-whole Redemption Amount together, if appropriate, with interest accrued to (but excluding) the relevant Make-whole Redemption Date. If redemption in part is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, any such redemption must be of a nominal amount not less than the Minimum Redemption Amount nor more than the Maximum Redemption Amount, in each case as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

In the case of a partial redemption of Notes, the Redeemed Notes will, on the Selection Date, be selected individually by lot, in the case of Redeemed Notes represented by definitive Notes, and in accordance with the rules of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, (to be reflected in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg as either a pool factor or a reduction in nominal amount, at their discretion) in the case of Redeemed Notes represented by a global Note, not more than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption. In the case of Redeemed Notes represented by definitive Notes, a list of the serial numbers of such Redeemed Notes will be published in accordance with Condition 14 not less than 15 days prior to the date fixed for redemption (or, if later, the date on which the notice of redemption is given). No exchange of the relevant global Note will be permitted during the period from and including the Selection Date to and including the date fixed for redemption pursuant to this paragraph and notice to that effect shall be given by the Issuer to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 at least 5 days prior to the Selection Date.

In this Condition 7(c)(ii), “Make-whole Redemption Amount” means:

- (A) the outstanding principal amount of the relevant Note or (B) if higher, the sum, as determined by the Calculation Agent, of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest to maturity (or, if Issuer Call is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, and the Optional Redemption Amount is specified as being an amount per Calculation Amount equal to 100 per cent. of the principal amount of the relevant Note, the remaining scheduled payments of interest to the first Optional Redemption Date (assuming the Notes to be redeemed on such date), as specified in the applicable Final Terms) on the Notes to be redeemed (not including any portion of such payments of interest accrued to the date of redemption) discounted to the Make-whole Redemption Date on an annual basis at the Reference Rate plus the Make-whole Redemption Margin specified in the applicable Final Terms, where:

“CA Selected Bond” means a government security or securities (which, if the Specified Currency is euro, will be a German Bundesobligationen) selected by the Calculation Agent as having a maturity comparable to the remaining term of the Notes to be redeemed that would be utilised, at the time of selection and in accordance with customary financial practice, in pricing new issues of corporate debt securities of comparable maturity to the remaining term of such Notes;

“Calculation Agent” means a leading investment, merchant or commercial bank or other independent institution with appropriate expertise appointed by the Issuer for the purposes of calculating the Make-whole Redemption Amount and notified to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14;

“Reference Bond” means (A) if CA Selected Bond is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the relevant CA Selected Bond or (B) if CA Selected Bond is not specified in the applicable Final Terms, the security specified in the applicable Final Terms, provided that if the Calculation Agent advises the Issuer that, for reasons of illiquidity or otherwise, the relevant security specified is not appropriate for such purpose, such other central bank or government security as the Calculation Agent may, with the advice of Reference Market Makers, determined to be appropriate;

“Reference Bond Price” means (i) the arithmetic mean of five Reference Market Maker Quotations for the relevant Make-whole Redemption Date, after excluding the highest and lowest Reference Market Maker Quotations, (ii) if the Calculation Agent obtains fewer than five, but more than one, such Reference Market Maker Quotations, the arithmetic mean of all such quotations, or (iii) if only one such Reference Market Maker Quotation is obtained, the amount of the Reference Market Maker Quotation so obtained;

“Reference Market Maker Quotations” means, with respect to each Reference Market Maker and any Make-whole Redemption Date, the arithmetic mean, as determined by the Calculation Agent, of the bid and asked prices for the Reference Bond (expressed in each case as a percentage of its principal amount) quoted in writing to the Calculation Agent at the Quotation Time specified in the applicable Final Terms on the Reference Rate Determination Date specified in the applicable Final Terms;

“Reference Market Makers” means five brokers or market makers of securities such as the Reference Bond selected by the Calculation Agent or such other five persons operating in the market for securities such as the Reference Bond as are selected by the Calculation Agent in consultation with the Issuer; and “Reference Rate” means, with respect to any Make-whole Redemption Date, the rate per annum equal to the equivalent yield to maturity of the Reference Bond, calculated using a price for the Reference Bond (expressed as a percentage of its principal amount) equal to the Reference Bond Price for such Make-whole Redemption Date. The Reference Rate will be calculated on the Reference Rate Determination Date specified in the applicable Final Terms.

(d) Redemption at the Option of the Noteholders

(i) Redemption at the option of the Noteholders (other than a Change of Control Put)

If the Noteholders are specified in the applicable Final Terms as having an option to redeem, upon the holder of any Note giving to the Issuer in accordance with Condition 14 not less than the minimum period and not more than the maximum period of notice or such other period of notice as is specified in the applicable Final Terms the Issuer will, upon the expiry of such notice, redeem such Note on the Optional Redemption Date and at the Optional Redemption Amount specified in the applicable Final Terms together, if appropriate, with interest accrued to (but excluding) the Optional Redemption Date.

To exercise the right to require redemption of this Note the holder of this Note must, if this Note is in definitive form and held outside Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, deliver, at the specified office of any Paying Agent at any time during normal business hours of such Paying Agent falling within the notice period, a duly completed and signed notice of exercise in the form (for the time being current) obtainable from any specified office of any Paying Agent (a “Put Notice”) and in which the holder must specify a bank account (or, if payment is required to be made by cheque, an address) to which payment is to be made under this Condition, accompanied by this Note or evidence satisfactory to the Paying Agent concerned that this Note will, following delivery of the Put Notice, be held to its order or under its control. If this Note is represented by a global Note or is in definitive form and held through Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, to exercise the right to require redemption of this Note the holder of this Note must, within the notice period, give notice to the Agent of such exercise in accordance with the standard procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg (which may include notice being given on his instruction by Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any common depositary or common safekeeper, as the case may be, for them to the Agent by electronic means) in a form acceptable to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg from time to time and, if this Note is represented by a global Note and presentation of such global Note is required by the Agent, at the same time present or procure the presentation of the relevant global Note to the Agent for notation accordingly.

Any Put Notice or other notice given in accordance with the standard procedures of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg given by a holder of any Note pursuant to this paragraph shall be irrevocable except where prior to the due date of redemption an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing in which event such holder, at its option, may elect by notice to the Issuer to withdraw the notice given pursuant to this paragraph and instead to declare such Note forthwith due and payable pursuant to Condition 10.

(ii) Change of Control Put

- (A) If Change of Control Put is specified in the applicable Final Terms, this Condition 7(d)(ii) shall apply.
- (B) If at any time while any Note remains outstanding:
 - (a) a Change of Control occurs, and
 - (b) within the Change of Control Period (A) if the Notes are rated with the agreement of the Issuer, a Rating Downgrade in respect of that Change of Control occurs, or (B) if the Notes are not rated, a Negative Rating Event in respect of that Change of Control occurs (in either case, a “Put Event”), the holder of each Note will have the option (unless, prior to the giving of the Put Event Notice referred to below, the Issuer gives notice to redeem the Notes (i) under Condition 7(b) or (ii) pursuant to the provisions of Condition 7(d)(i)) to require the Issuer to redeem or, at the Issuer’s option, purchase (or procure the purchase of) that Note on the Optional Redemption Date (Put) (as defined below) at par together with (or, where purchased, together with an amount equal to) accrued interest to but excluding the Optional Redemption Date (Put).

(C) For the purposes of this Condition 7(d)(ii):

A “Change of Control” shall be deemed to have occurred if (whether or not approved by the Board of Directors or the Executive Board of the Issuer) any person (“Relevant Person”) or persons acting in concert or any person or persons acting on behalf of any such person(s), at any time directly or indirectly own(s) or acquire(s) such number of the shares in the capital of the Issuer carrying more than 50 per cent. of the voting rights normally exercisable at general meetings of the Issuer.

“Change of Control Period” means the period commencing on the earlier of (a) the date of the relevant Change of Control and (b) the date of the earliest Relevant Potential Change of Control Announcement (if any) and ending 120 days after the public announcement of the Change of Control having occurred.

“Investment Grade Rating” means a rating of at least BBB- (or equivalent thereof) in the case of S&P or a rating of at least Baa3 (or equivalent thereof) in the case of Moody’s or the equivalent rating in the case of any other Rating Agency.

A “Negative Rating Event” shall be deemed to have occurred if (i) the Issuer does not within the Change of Control Period seek, and thereafter use all reasonable endeavours to obtain from a Rating Agency, a rating or (ii) if it does so seek and use such endeavours, it has not at the expiry of the Change of Control Period and as a result of such Change of Control obtained an Investment Grade Rating, provided that the Rating Agency publicly announces or publicly confirms in writing that its declining to assign an Investment Grade Rating was the result of the applicable Change of Control.

“Optional Redemption Date (Put)” means the date which is the seventh day after the last day of the Put Period.

“Rating Agency” means Fitch Ratings Ltd (“Fitch”), S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited (“S&P”) and Moody’s Investors Service Limited (“Moody’s”) or any of their respective successors or any other rating agency of equivalent international standing specified from time to time by the Issuer.

A “Rating Downgrade” shall be deemed to have occurred in respect of a Change of Control if within the Change of Control Period the rating previously assigned to the Notes by any Rating Agency at the invitation of the Issuer is (x) withdrawn and not subsequently reinstated within the Change of Control Period or (y) changed from an Investment Grade Rating to a non Investment Grade Rating (for example, from BBB- to BB+ by S&P, or its equivalents for the time being, or worse) and not subsequently upgraded to an Investment Grade Rating within the Change of Control Period or (z) (if the rating assigned to the Notes by any Rating Agency at the invitation of the Issuer shall be below an Investment Grade Rating) lowered one full rating category (for example, from BB+ to BB by S&P or such similar lower or equivalent rating) and not subsequently upgraded within the Change of Control Period, provided that a Rating Downgrade otherwise arising by virtue of a particular change in rating shall be deemed not to have occurred in respect of a particular Change of Control if the Rating Agency making the change in rating to which this definition would otherwise apply does not publicly announce or publicly confirm that the reduction was the result of the applicable Change of Control.

“Relevant Potential Change of Control Announcement” means any formal public announcement or statement by or on behalf of the Issuer or any actual or potential bidder or any advisor thereto relating to any potential Change of Control where, within 180 days of the date of such announcement or statement, a Change of Control occurs.

- (D) Promptly upon the Issuer becoming aware that a Put Event has occurred, the Issuer shall give notice (a “Put Event Notice”) to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 specifying the nature of the Put Event and the circumstances giving rise to it and the procedure for exercising the option contained in this Condition 7(d)(ii).
- (E) To exercise the option to require redemption or, as the case may be, purchase of a Note under this Condition 7(d)(ii), the holder of that Note must, if this Note is in definitive form and held outside Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, deliver, at the specified office of any Paying Agent at any time during normal business hours of such Paying Agent falling within the period (the “Put Period”) of 30 days after a Put Event Notice is given, a duly completed and signed notice of exercise in the form (for the time being current) obtainable from the specified office of any Paying Agent (a “Put Option Notice”) and in which the holder must specify a bank account (or, if payment is required to be made by cheque, an address) to which payment is to be made under this Condition 7(d)(ii), accompanied by this Note or evidence satisfactory to the Paying Agent concerned that this Note will, following delivery of the Put Option Notice, be held to its order or under its control.

If this Note is represented by a Global Note or is in definitive form and held through Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, to exercise the right to require redemption or, as the case may be, purchase of this Note under this Condition 7(d)(ii) the holder of this Note must, within the Put Period, give notice to the Agent of such exercise in accordance with the standard procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg (which may include notice being given on his instruction by Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any common depositary or common safekeeper, as the case may be, for them to the Agent by electronic means) in a form acceptable to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg from time to time and, if this Note is represented by a global Note and presentation of such global Note is required by the Agent, at the same time present or procure the presentation of the relevant global Note to the Agent for notation accordingly.

- (F) The Paying Agent to which such Note and Put Option Notice are delivered or the Agent, as the case may be, will issue to the holder concerned a non-transferable receipt (a “Put Option Receipt”) in respect of the Note so delivered or, in the case of a Global Note or Note in definitive form held through Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, notice received. The Issuer shall redeem or at the option of the Issuer purchase (or procure the purchase of) the Notes in respect of which Put Option Receipts have been issued on the Optional Redemption Date (Put), unless previously redeemed and purchased. Payment in respect of any Note so delivered will be made, if the holder duly specified a bank account in the Put Option Notice to which payment is to be made, on the Optional Redemption Date (Put) by transfer to that bank account and in every other case on or after the Optional Redemption Date (Put), in each case against presentation and surrender or (as the case may be) endorsement of such Put Option Receipt at the specified office of any Paying Agent in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 7(d)(ii).

- (G) If 95 per cent. or more in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding have been redeemed or purchased pursuant to this Condition 7(d)(ii), the Issuer may, having given not less than 30 days' notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14, such notice to be given within 30 days after the Optional Redemption Date (Put), redeem or, at the Issuer's option, purchase (or procure the purchase of) all but not some only of the Notes then outstanding at their principal amount together with interest accrued to but excluding the date of such redemption. The notice referred to in the preceding sentence shall be irrevocable and shall specify the date fixed for redemption (which shall not be more than 60 days after the date of the notice). Upon expiry of such notice, the Issuer will redeem, purchase (or procure the purchase of) the Notes.

(e) Issuer Residual Call

If Issuer Residual Call is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms and, at any time, the outstanding aggregate nominal amount of the Notes is 20 per cent. or less of the aggregate nominal amount of the Series issued (other than as a result (in whole or in part) of a partial redemption of the Notes pursuant to Condition 7(c)(ii)), the Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time (if the Note is not a Floating Rate Note) or on any Interest Payment Date (if the Note is a Floating Rate Note), on giving not less than 30 and not more than 60 days' notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (which notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the date fixed for redemption) at the Residual Call Early Redemption Amount together, if appropriate, with interest accrued to (but excluding) the date of redemption.

(f) Early Redemption Amounts

For the purpose of paragraph (b) above and Condition 10, each Note will be redeemed at its Early Redemption Amount calculated as follows:

- (i) in the case of Notes with a Final Redemption Amount equal to their Nominal Amount of the first Tranche of the Series, at the Final Redemption Amount thereof;
- (ii) in the case of Notes (other than Zero Coupon Notes) with a Final Redemption Amount which is or may be less or greater than their Nominal Amount of the first Tranche of the Series, at the amount specified in the applicable Final Terms or, if no such amount is so specified in the Final Terms, at their nominal amount; or
- (iii) in the case of Zero Coupon Notes, at an amount equal to the sum of:
- (A) the Reference Price; and
- (B) the product of the Accrual Yield (compounded annually) being applied to the Reference Price from (and including) the Issue Date to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption or (as the case may be) the date upon which such Note becomes due and repayable.

Where such calculation is to be made for a period which is not a whole number of years, it shall be made on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of 12 months of 30 days each or such other calculation basis as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

(g) Purchases

The Issuer and any of its subsidiaries may at any time purchase Notes (provided that, in the case of definitive Notes, all unmatured Coupons and Talons appertaining thereto are purchased therewith) at any price in the open market or otherwise. Such Notes may be held, reissued, resold or, at the option of the Issuer or the relevant subsidiary, surrendered to any Paying Agent for cancellation.

(h) Cancellation

All Notes which are redeemed will forthwith be cancelled (together with all unmatured Coupons attached thereto or surrendered therewith at the time of redemption). All Notes so cancelled and the Notes purchased and cancelled pursuant to paragraph (f) above (together with all unmatured Coupons cancelled therewith) shall be forwarded to the Agent and cannot be reissued or resold.

(i) Late payment on Zero Coupon Notes

If the amount payable in respect of any Zero Coupon Note upon redemption of such Zero Coupon Note pursuant to paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) above or upon its becoming due and repayable as provided in Condition 10 is improperly withheld or refused, the amount due and repayable in respect of such Zero Coupon Note shall be the amount calculated as provided in paragraph (f)(iii) above as though the references therein to the date fixed for the redemption or the date upon which such Zero Coupon Note becomes due and payable were replaced by references to the date which is the earlier of:

- (i) the date on which all amounts due in respect of such Zero Coupon Note have been paid; and
- (ii) five days after the date on which the full amount of the moneys payable has been received by the Agent and notice to that effect has been given to the Noteholders either in accordance with Condition 14 or individually.

8. TAXATION

All payments of principal and interest in respect of the Notes and Coupons by the Issuer will be made without withholding or deduction for or on account of any present or future taxes or duties of whatever nature imposed or levied by or on behalf of the Kingdom of Sweden or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax unless such withholding or deduction is required by law. In such event, the Issuer will pay such additional amounts as shall be necessary in order that the net amounts received by the holders of the Notes or Coupons after such withholding or deduction shall equal the respective amounts of principal and interest which would otherwise have been receivable in respect of the Notes or Coupons, as the case may be, in the absence of such withholding or deduction; except that no such additional amounts shall be payable with respect to any Note or Coupon:

- (a) presented for payment by or on behalf of a Noteholder or Couponholder who is liable for such taxes or duties in respect of such Note or Coupon by reason of his having some connection with the Kingdom of Sweden other than the mere holding of such Note or Coupon; or

- (b) presented for payment where the Noteholder is able to avoid such withholding or deduction by making a declaration of non-residence or other similar claim for exemption to the relevant tax authority; or
- (c) presented for payment more than 30 days after the Relevant Date (as defined below) except to the extent that the holder thereof would have been entitled to an additional amount on presenting the same for payment on such thirtieth day.

As used herein, the “Relevant Date” means the date on which such payment first becomes due, except that, if the full amount of the moneys payable has not been duly received by the Agent on or prior to such due date, it means the date on which, the full amount of such moneys having been so received, notice to that effect is duly given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14.

9. PRESCRIPTION

The Notes and Coupons will become void unless claims in respect of principal and/or interest are made within a period of 10 years (in the case of principal) and five years (in the case of interest) after the Relevant Date (as defined in Condition 8) therefor.

There shall not be included in any Coupon sheet issued on exchange of a Talon any Coupon the claim for payment in respect of which would be void pursuant to this Condition or Condition 6(b) or any Talon which would be void pursuant to Condition 6(b).

10. EVENTS OF DEFAULT

If any one or more of the following events (each an “Event of Default”) shall occur:

- (i) default is made for more than 30 days in the payment in the Specified Currency of principal or interest due in respect of the Notes or any of them; or
- (ii) the Issuer is in default in the performance of any obligation of the Issuer in respect of the Notes (other than any obligation for the payment of any amount due in respect of any of the Notes) and such default continues for a period of 30 days after notice thereof has been given to the Issuer at its principal office; or
- (iii) any other indebtedness for borrowed money of the Issuer shall become prematurely repayable following a default or the Issuer shall fail to repay any such indebtedness when due or within any permitted grace period or shall fail to perform its payment obligations under any guarantee of any indebtedness for borrowed money of any other person, unless liability under such indebtedness or under such guarantee shall be contested in good faith, provided that the aggregate principal amount of all such indebtedness for borrowed money which has become prematurely repayable or not been repaid or in respect of which the guarantee has not been performed is an amount equal to at least 1 per cent. of the consolidated total assets of the Issuer as calculated by reference to the then latest consolidated audited accounts of the Issuer; or
- (iv) the Issuer is wound up or dissolved or stops payment of its debts as and when they fall due or (otherwise than for the purpose of an amalgamation or merger the terms whereof have previously been approved by an Extraordinary Resolution of Noteholders) ceases or threatens to cease to carry on all or substantially all of its business; or
- (v) a decree or order by a court having jurisdiction in the premises shall have been entered and shall have continued undischarged and unstayed for 60 days, adjudging the Issuer bankrupt or insolvent under the applicable laws of the Kingdom of Sweden or any sub-division thereof, or appointing a liquidator, trustee or assignee (or similar official) in bankruptcy or insolvency of the Issuer or of any substantial part of its property; or

- (vi) any action is taken by the Issuer seeking or consenting to its adjudication as bankrupt or insolvent under the applicable laws of the Kingdom of Sweden or any sub-division thereof, or the appointment of a liquidator, trustee or assignee (or similar official) in bankruptcy or insolvency of the Issuer or of any substantial part of its property, or if the Issuer shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due, or shall take corporate action in furtherance of any such action;

then any Noteholder may, provided that at the time the notice is given the relevant Event of Default is continuing, by written notice to the Issuer at the principal office of the Issuer effective upon the date of receipt thereof by the Issuer declare the Note held by the holder to be forthwith due and payable whereupon the same shall become forthwith due and payable at the Early Redemption Amount (as described in Condition 7(f)), together with accrued interest (if any) to the date of repayment.

11. REPLACEMENT OF NOTES, COUPONS AND TALONS

Should any Note, Coupon or Talon be lost, stolen, mutilated, defaced or destroyed, it may be replaced at the specified office of the Agent upon payment by the claimant of such costs and expenses as may be incurred in connection therewith and on such terms as to evidence and indemnity as the Issuer may reasonably require. Mutilated or defaced Notes, Coupons or Talons must be surrendered before replacements will be issued.

12. AGENT AND PAYING AGENTS

The names of the initial Agent and the other initial Paying Agents and their initial specified offices are set out below. If any additional Paying Agents are appointed in connection with any Series, the names of such Paying Agents will be specified in Part B of the applicable Final Terms.

The Issuer is entitled to vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent and/or appoint additional or other Paying Agents outside Sweden and/or approve any change in the specified office outside Sweden through which any Paying Agent acts, provided that:

- (i) so long as the Notes are listed on any stock exchange or admitted to listing or trading by any other relevant authority, there will at all times be a Paying Agent (which may be the Agent) outside Sweden with a specified office in such place as may be required by the rules and regulations of the relevant stock exchange or other relevant authority, as applicable;
- (ii) there will at all times be a Paying Agent outside Sweden with a specified office in a city in continental Europe; and
- (iii) there will at all times be an Agent outside Sweden.

In addition, the Issuer shall forthwith appoint a Paying Agent having a specified office in New York City in the circumstances described in the final paragraph of Condition 6(b). Any variation, termination, appointment or change shall only take effect (other than in the case of insolvency, when it shall be of immediate effect) after not less than 30 nor more than 45 days' prior notice thereof shall have been given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14.

13. EXCHANGE OF TALONS

On and after the Fixed Interest Date or the Interest Payment Date, as appropriate, on which the final Coupon comprised in any Coupon sheet matures, the Talon (if any) forming part of such Coupon sheet may be surrendered at the specified office of the Agent or any other Paying Agent in exchange for a further Coupon sheet including (if such further Coupon sheet does not include Coupons to (and including) the final date for the payment of interest due in respect of the Note to which it appertains) a further Talon, subject to the provisions of Condition 9.

14. NOTICES

All notices regarding the Notes shall be published in a leading English language daily newspaper of general circulation in London which is expected to be the Financial Times. The Issuer shall also ensure that notices are duly published in a manner which complies with the rules and regulations of any other stock exchange (or any other relevant authority) on which the Notes are for the time being listed or by which they have been admitted to trading. Any such notice will be deemed to have been given on the date of the first publication.

Until such time as any definitive Notes are issued, there may (provided that, in the case of Notes listed on a stock exchange or admitted to trading by another relevant authority, such stock exchange or other relevant authority permits), so long as the global Note(s) is or are held in its/their entirety on behalf of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, be substituted for such publication in such newspaper(s) the delivery of the relevant notice to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg for communication by them to the holders of the Notes and, in addition, for so long as any Notes are listed on a stock exchange or are admitted to trading by another relevant authority and the rules of that stock exchange or relevant authority so require, such notice will be published in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the place or places required by those rules. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given to the holders of the Notes on the second day after the day on which the said notice was given to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Notices to be given by any holder of the Notes shall be in writing and given by lodging the same, together in the case of any Note in definitive form with the relative Note or Notes, with the Agent. Whilst any of the Notes are represented by a global Note, such notice may be given by any holder of a Note to the Agent via Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, in such manner as the Agent and Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, may approve for this purpose.

15. MEETINGS OF NOTEHOLDERS, MODIFICATION AND WAIVER

The Agency Agreement contains provisions for convening meetings of the Noteholders (including by way of conference call or by use of a videoconference platform) to consider any matter affecting their interests, including the sanctioning by Extraordinary Resolution of a modification of the Notes, the Coupons or any of the provisions of the Agency Agreement. Such a meeting may be convened at any time by the Issuer or Noteholders holding not less than ten per cent. in nominal amount of the Notes for the time being remaining outstanding. The quorum at any such meeting for passing an Extraordinary Resolution is one or more persons holding or representing not less than a clear majority in nominal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding, or at any adjourned meeting one or more persons being or representing Noteholders whatever the nominal amount of the Notes so held or represented, except that at any meeting the business of which includes the modification of certain provisions of the Notes or Coupons (including modifying the date of maturity of the Notes or any date for payment of interest thereof, reducing or cancelling the amount of principal or the rate of interest payable in respect of the Notes or, altering the currency of payment of the Notes or Coupons), the quorum shall be one or more persons holding or representing not less than two-thirds in nominal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding, or at any adjourned such meeting one or more persons holding or representing a one-third in nominal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding. The Agency Agreement provides that (i) a resolution passed at a meeting duly convened and held in accordance with the Agency Agreement by a majority consisting of not less than three-quarters of the votes cast on such resolution, (ii) a resolution in writing signed by or on behalf of the holders of not less than three-quarters in nominal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding or (iii) consent given by way of electronic consents through the relevant clearing system(s) (in a form satisfactory to the Agent) by or on behalf of the holders of not less than three-quarters in nominal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding, shall, in each case, be effective as an Extraordinary Resolution of the Noteholders. An Extraordinary Resolution passed at any meeting of the Noteholders shall be binding on all the Noteholders, whether or not they are present at the meeting, and on all Couponholders.

The Agent and the Issuer may agree, without the consent of the Noteholders or Couponholders, to:

- (i) any modification (except as mentioned above) of the Agency Agreement which is not prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders; or
- (ii) any modification of the Notes, the Coupons or the Agency Agreement which is of a formal, minor or technical nature or is made to correct a manifest or proven error or to comply with mandatory provisions of the law of the jurisdiction in which the Issuer is incorporated.

Any such modification shall be binding on the Noteholders and the Couponholders and any such modification shall be notified to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 as soon as practicable thereafter.

16. FURTHER ISSUES

The Issuer shall be at liberty from time to time without the consent of the Noteholders or Couponholders to create and issue further notes having terms and conditions the same as the Notes or the same in all respects save for the amount and date of the first payment of interest thereon and the date from which interest starts to accrue and so that the same shall be consolidated and form a single Series with the outstanding Notes.

17. THIRD PARTY RIGHTS

This Note confers no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of the Notes, but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act.

18. GOVERNING LAW AND SUBMISSION TO JURISDICTION

The Agency Agreement, the Deed of Covenant, the Notes, the Coupons and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with any of them are governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law.

The Issuer agrees, for the benefit of the Noteholders and the Couponholders, that the courts of England are to have jurisdiction to settle any disputes which may arise out of or in connection with the Notes and/or the Coupons (including a dispute relating to any non-contractual allegations arising out of or in connection with any of them) and that accordingly any suit, action or proceedings (together referred to as “Proceedings”) arising out of or in connection with the Notes and/or the Coupons (including a dispute relating to any non- contractual allegations arising out of or in connection with any of them) may be brought in such courts.

The Issuer hereby irrevocably waives any objection which it may have now or hereafter to the laying of the venue of any such Proceedings in any such court and any claim that any such Proceedings have been brought in an inconvenient forum and hereby further irrevocably agrees that a judgment in any such Proceedings brought in the English courts shall be conclusive and binding upon it and may be enforced in the courts of any other jurisdiction.

To the extent allowed by law, nothing contained in this Condition shall limit any right to take Proceedings against the Issuer in any other court of competent jurisdiction, nor shall the taking of Proceedings in one or more jurisdictions preclude the taking of Proceedings in any other jurisdiction, whether concurrently or not, if and to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The Issuer appoints Ericsson Ltd. at its registered office for the time being at 14th Floor, Thames Tower, Station Road, Reading, Berkshire, England, RG1 1LX as its agent for service of process, and undertakes that, in the event of Ericsson Ltd. ceasing so to act or ceasing to have a registered office in England, it will appoint another person as its agent for service of process in England in respect of any Proceedings.

Nothing herein shall affect the right to serve proceedings in any other manner permitted by law.

The Issuer has in the Agency Agreement and the Deed of Covenant submitted to the jurisdiction of the English courts and appointed an agent for service of process in terms substantially similar to those set out above.

The net proceeds from each issue of Notes will be used for general corporate purposes, which include making a profit, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms or, in the case of Exempt Notes, the applicable Pricing Supplement.

The Ericsson Group's comprehensive portfolio ranges across Networks, Digital Services, Managed Services and Emerging Business.

Operating Segments

When determining the Ericsson Group's operating segments, consideration has been given to the financial reporting reviewed by the President and CEO in his capacity as Chief Operating Decision Maker ("CODM"). Markets and what type of customers the products and services aim to attract have been considered, as well as the distribution channels they are sold through. Commonality regarding technology, research and development has also been taken into account. To best reflect the business focus and to facilitate comparability with peers, four operating segments are reported: Networks, Digital Services, Managed Services and Emerging Business and Other.

Networks

Segment Networks support all radio-access technologies and offer hardware, software and related services for both radio access and transport. The product-related services comprise design, tuning, network rollout and customer support. 82 per cent. of the IPR licensing revenues are reported as part of segment Networks.

Digital Services

Segment Digital Services includes products and services for operators in the areas of Business Support Systems (“BSS”), Operational Support Systems (“OSS”), Cloud Core, Cloud Communication and Cloud infrastructure. It also includes consulting, learning and testing services. 18 per cent. of the IPR licensing revenues are reported as part of segment Digital Services.

The Ericsson Group operates worldwide and reports the operations divided into five geographical market areas: Europe and Latin America, Middle East and Africa, North America, North East Asia and South East Asia, Oceania & India. In addition, licensing revenues and the majority of segment Emerging Business and Other are externally reported as market area Other.

Customers

The business of the Ericsson Group is defined by long-term relationships mainly with large telecom operators around the world. The Ericsson Group derives most of its sales from large, multi-year agreements with a limited number of significant customers. Out of a customer base of more than 500 customers, mainly consisting of telecom operators, the ten largest customers accounted for approximately 50 per cent. of net sales in 2020. The largest customer accounted for approximately 13 per cent. of net sales in 2020 and the second largest customer accounted for 10 per cent. of net sales in 2020. These customers were reported under segments Networks, Digital Services and Managed Services.

Sourcing and Supply

Ericsson’s hardware largely consists of electronics. For manufacturing, Ericsson purchases customised and standardised components and services from global, regional and local suppliers.

The production of electronic modules and sub-assemblies is mostly outsourced to manufacturing services companies. Internal manufacturing focuses on new product introductions and new technologies. The majority of the matured portfolio is outsourced through production partners. Ericsson has internal production sites in Estonia, China, Brazil and the United States. Ericsson negotiates global supply agreements with its primary suppliers. In general, Ericsson works to have alternative supply sources and seeks to avoid single source supply situations. Ericsson’s suppliers are required to comply with the requirements of Ericsson’s Code of Conduct for Business Partners.

Seasonality

The Ericsson Group’s sales, income and cash flow from operations vary between quarters, and are generally lowest in the first quarter of the year and highest in the fourth quarter. This is mainly a result of the seasonal purchase patterns of network operators.

Organisation

Company structure and organisation

The Ericsson Group is operated in two dimensions: (i) the operational structure and (ii) the legal structure. The operational structure aligns accountability and authority regardless of country borders and supports the process flows with cross-country operations. In the operational structure, the Ericsson Group is organised in group functions, segments, business areas and market areas. The legal structure is the basis for legal requirements and responsibility as well as for tax and statutory reporting purposes.

MEMBERS OF THE BOARD

The Board of Directors is ultimately responsible for the organisation of the Ericsson Group and the management of the Ericsson Group's operations. The Board of Directors appoints the President and CEO who are responsible for managing the day-to-day operations, in accordance with guidelines from the Board. The President and CEO ensure that the Board is updated regularly on issues of importance to Ericsson. This includes updates on business development, results, financial position and liquidity.

Directors serve from the close of one Annual General Meeting ("AGM") to the close of the next AGM but can serve any number of consecutive terms.

The President and CEO may be elected a Director of the Board, but under the Swedish Companies Act the President of a public company may not be elected Chair of the Board.

Conflicts of Interest

The Ericsson Group maintains rules and regulations regarding conflicts of interest. Directors are disqualified from participating in any decision regarding agreements between themselves and the Ericsson Group. The same applies to agreements between the Ericsson Group and any third party or legal entity in which the Board member has an interest that may be contrary to the interests of the Ericsson Group.

The Audit and Compliance Committee oversees the procedures for related-party transactions and has implemented a pre-approval process for non-audit services carried out by the external auditor.

Composition of the Board of Directors

The current Board of Directors consists of ten Directors elected by the shareholders at the AGM 2021, for the period until the close of the AGM 2022. It also consists of three employee representatives and two deputies, appointed by the trade unions for the same period of time.

The Nomination Committee advised before the AGM 2021 that the Nomination Committee had applied the Swedish Corporate Governance Code (the "Code"), section 4.1, as to diversity policy with the aim to propose a composition of Board members with complementing experiences and competencies that is diverse also in terms of age, gender and cultural/geographical background. The current Board composition is the result of the work of the Nomination Committee prior to the AGM 2021. The Board consists of Board members with experiences from different cultural/geographic areas, competencies from different industry sectors and, excluding the President and CEO, 33 per cent. of the shareholder elected Board members are women.

Work procedure

Pursuant to the Swedish Companies Act, the Board of Directors has adopted work procedures and Committee charters outlining rules for the distribution of tasks among the Board, its Committees and the President and CEO. This complements rules in the Swedish Companies Act and in the Articles of Association of the Issuer. The work procedure and the Committee charters are reviewed, evaluated and amended by the Board as required or appropriate and are adopted by the Board at least once a year.

Independence

The Board of Directors and its Committees are subject to a variety of independence rules under applicable Swedish law, the Code and applicable U.S. securities laws, SEC rules and the NASDAQ

Stock Market Rules. Ericsson can rely on exemptions from certain US and SEC requirements and may decide to follow Swedish practices in lieu of the NASDAQ Stock Market independence rules.

The composition of the Issuer's Board of Directors meets all applicable independence criteria. The Nomination Committee concluded before the AGM 2021 that, for purposes of the Code, at least six of the nominated Directors were independent from Ericsson, its senior management and its major shareholders. These were Jon Fredrik Baksaas, Jan Carlson, Nora Denzel, Eric A. Elzvik, Kurt Jofs and Kristin S. Rinne.

Recent Developments

Acquisition of Vonage

On 22 November 2021, the Issuer announced its USD 6.2 billion cash offer to acquire Vonage Holdings Corp. (“Vonage”), a global provider of cloud-based communications. The merger agreement was approved unanimously by the board of Vonage.

Vonage generated sales of USD 1.4 billion in the 12-month period to 30 September 2021, and over the same period, it delivered an adjusted EBITDA margin of 14 per cent. and free cash flow of USD 109 million. Vonage's presence in the Communication Platform as a Service (“CPaaS”) segment is intended to provide the Ericsson Group with an opportunity to access a complementary, substantial and high growth segment.

The acquisition will be conducted by means of a merger agreement through which the Ericsson Group will acquire all of Vonage’s outstanding shares at an all-cash price of USD 21 per share.

The acquisition will be financed through Ericsson’s existing cash resources, which amounted to SEK 88 billion as of 30 September 2021 on a gross basis, and SEK 56 billion on a net basis as of the same date.

The transaction is expected to be accretive to the Ericsson Group’s earnings per share (excluding non-cash amortisation impacts) and free cash flow before M&A from 2024 onwards. On completion, Vonage will become a wholly owned subsidiary of the Issuer and will continue to operate under its existing name. It will be reported as a separate segment in the Ericsson Group’s accounts. Vonage is headquartered in Holmdel, New Jersey in the United States with 2,200 employees throughout the United States, Europe, the Middle East and Africa (“EMEA”) and Asia Pacific (“APAC”). The Vonage chief executive officer, Rory Read will join the executive team of the Ericsson Group, reporting to its chief executive officer, Börje Ekholm.

The transaction remains subject to Vonage shareholder approval, as well as regulatory approvals and other customary conditions and is expected to complete within the first half of 2022.

Update on Deferred Prosecution Agreement

On 21 October 2021, the Ericsson Group announced that it has received correspondence from the DOJ stating that it has determined that the Ericsson Group breached its obligations under the DPA entered into by the Issuer with the DOJ on 6 December 2019 by failing to provide certain documents and factual information, and that the Ericsson Group will have the opportunity to respond in writing to explain the nature and circumstances of such breach, as well as the actions the Ericsson Group has taken to address and remediate the situation. At this stage it is premature to predict the outcome of these developments. DOJ has sole discretion under the DPA to determine whether a breach occurred. The Ericsson Group is committed to co-operating openly and fully with the DOJ and its Independent Compliance Monitor, consistent with all terms set out in the DPA.

TAXATION

Sweden

The following summary outlines certain Swedish tax consequences to the holders of Notes who are not residents of Sweden for income tax purposes. Purchasers are urged to consult their professional advisers as to the tax consequences of acquiring, holding or transferring Notes.

Under Swedish law as presently in effect, payments of any principal or any amount that is considered to be interest for Swedish tax purposes to the holder of any Note will not be subject to Swedish income tax, provided that such holder is neither resident in Sweden for tax purposes nor engaged in trade or business in Sweden through a permanent establishment to which the Notes are effectively connected.

Swedish law, as presently in effect, does not provide for deduction or withholding for or on account of taxes on payments of any principal or interest to the holder of any Notes, except on payment of interest, and any other yield on any Notes which is paid at the same time as interest, to a holder who is a private individual or an estate of a deceased individual with tax residence in Sweden.

Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act

Pursuant to certain provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, commonly known as FATCA, a foreign financial institution (as defined by FATCA) may be required to withhold on certain payments it makes (foreign passthru payments) to persons that fail to meet certain certification, reporting or related requirements. The Issuer may be a foreign financial institution for these purposes. A number of jurisdictions (including Sweden) have entered into, or have agreed in substance to, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement FATCA (IGAs), which modify the way in which FATCA applies in their jurisdictions. Under the provisions of IGAs as currently in effect, a foreign financial institution in an IGA jurisdiction would generally not be required to withhold under FATCA or an IGA from payments that it makes. Certain aspects of the application of the FATCA provisions and IGAs to instruments such as Notes, including whether withholding would ever be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as Notes, are uncertain and may be subject to change. Even if withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as Notes, such withholding would not apply prior to the date that is two years after the date on which the final regulations defining foreign passthru payments are published in the U.S. Federal Register and Notes characterised as debt (or which are not otherwise characterised as equity and have a fixed term) for U.S. federal tax purposes that are issued on or prior to the date that is six months after the date on which final regulations defining foreign passthru payments are published generally would be grandfathered for purposes of FATCA withholding unless materially modified after such date. However, if additional Notes (as described under Condition 16) that are not distinguishable from previously issued Notes are issued after the expiration of the grandfathering period and are subject to withholding under FATCA, then withholding agents may treat all Notes, including the Notes offered prior to the expiration of the grandfathering period, as subject to withholding under FATCA. Holders should consult their own tax advisers regarding how these rules may apply to their investment in Notes.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE

The Dealers have in an amended and restated programme agreement dated 31 January 2022 (as further amended and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time, the “Programme Agreement”) agreed with the Issuer a basis upon which they or any of them may from time to time agree to purchase Notes. In the Programme Agreement, the Issuer has agreed to reimburse the Dealers for certain of their expenses in connection with the establishment and any update of the Programme and the issue of Notes under the Programme.

United States

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in certain transactions exempt from, or not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act.

Each Dealer has represented and agreed and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree that it will not offer, sell or deliver Notes (i) as part of their distribution at any time and (ii) otherwise until 40 days after the completion of the distribution of all Notes of the Tranche of which such Notes are a part, within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in accordance with Regulation S of the Securities Act. Each Dealer has further agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to agree, that it will send to each dealer to which it sells any Notes during the distribution compliance period a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Notes within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons. Terms used in the preceding paragraph and in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act.

In addition, until 40 days after the commencement of the offering of any Series of Notes, an offer or sale of such Notes within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act if such offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with an available exemption from registration under the Securities Act.

The Notes are subject to U.S. tax law requirements and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or its possessions or to a United States person, except in certain transactions permitted by U.S. Treasury regulations. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and regulations promulgated thereunder. The applicable Final Terms (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) will identify whether TEFRA C rules or TEFRA D rules apply or whether TEFRA is not applicable.

Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors

Unless the Final Terms in respect of any Notes (or Pricing Supplement, in the case of Exempt Notes) specifies “Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors” as “Not Applicable”, each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not offered, sold or otherwise made available and will not offer, sell or otherwise make available any Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by the Offering Circular as completed by the Final Terms (or Pricing Supplement, as the case may be) in relation thereto to any retail investor in the EEA. Dealers transacting with the Issuer

Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform services for the Issuer and its affiliates in the ordinary course of business. Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates may have positions, deal or make markets in the Notes issued under the Programme, related derivatives and reference obligations, including (but not limited to) entering into hedging strategies on behalf of the Issuer and its affiliates, investor clients, or as principal in order to manage their exposure, their general market risk, or other trading activities.

In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Dealers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of the Issuer or the Issuer's affiliates. Certain of the Dealers or their affiliates that have a lending relationship with the Issuer routinely hedge their credit exposure to the Issuer consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Dealers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in securities, including potentially the Notes issued under the Programme. Any such positions could adversely affect future trading prices of Notes issued under the Programme. The Dealers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.
